15 ¶And it came to pass, when I, even I Dăn'iel, had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning, then, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man.

16 And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ū'la-ī, which called, and said, [k]Gā'brĭ-el, make this man to understand the vision.

17 So he came near where I stood: and when he came, I was afraid, and [l]fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man: for at the time of the end shall be the vision.

18 Now as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face toward the ground: but he touched me, and [12]set me upright.

19 And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of the indignation: for at the time appointed the end shall be.

20 The ram which thou sawest having two horns are the kings of Mē'dī-à and Pĕr'şià.

21 And the rough goat is the king of Grē'çià: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king.

22 Now that being broken, whereas four stood up for it, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not in his power.

23 And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors [13]are come to the full, a king [m]of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up.

24 And his power shall be mighty, but [n]not by his own power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practise, and shall destroy the mighty and the [14]holy people.

25 And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by [15]peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be [o]broken without hand.

26 And the vision of the evening and the morning which was told is true: [p]wherefore shut thou up the vision; for it shall be for many days.

27 And I Dăn'iel fainted, and was sick certain days; afterward I rose up, [q]and did the king's business; and I was astonished at the vision, but none understood it.

CHAPTER 9.

3 Daniel prays for his people. 20 Gabriel informs him of the seventy weeks.

IN the first year [a]of Dā-rī'us the son of Ā-hăş-ū-ē'rus, of the seed of the Mēdes, [1]which was made king over the realm of Chăl-dē'ans;

2 In the first year of his reign I Dăn'iel understood by books the number of the years, whereof the word of the LORD came to [b]Jĕr-e-mī'ah the prophet, that he would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jē-rū'sā-lĕm.

3 ¶And I set my face unto the Lord God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes:

4 And I prayed unto the LORD my God, and made my confession, and said, O Lord, the great and dreadful God, keeping the covenant and mercy to them that love him, and to them that keep his commandments;

5 We [c]have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts and from thy judgments: A R

6 Neither [d]have we hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

7 O Lord, righteousness [2]belongeth unto thee, but unto us confusion of faces, as at this day; to the men of Jū'dah, and to the inhabitants of Jē-rū'sā-lĕm, and unto all Ĭs'ra-el, that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee. R. 10 12.

8 O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee. A. Hos. 4. 1.

9 To [e]the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him;* L O

10 Neither have we obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets.

11 Yea, all [f]Ĭs'ra-el have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the curse is poured [g]upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Mō'sēs the servant of God, because we have sinned against him.

12 And he [h]hath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm.

N 13 As it is written in the law of Mō'sēs, all this evil is come upon us: yet [3]made we not our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth. N. Hos. 4, 1–3.

14 Therefore hath the LORD watched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for the LORD our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth: for we obeyed not his voice.

15 And now, O Lord our God, that hast brought thy people forth out of the land of Ē'gўpt with a mighty hand, and hast [4]gotten thee renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly.

16 ¶O Lord, according to all thy righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm, thy holy mountain: because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm and thy people are become a reproach to all that are about us.

17 Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, and cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's sake.

G 18 O my God, incline thine ear, and hear; open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city [5]which is called by thy name: for we do not [6]present our supplications before thee for our righteousnesses, but for thy great mercies. G. Hos. 6. 4–6.

19 O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, hearken and do; defer not, for thine own sake, O my God: for thy city and thy people are called by thy name.

20 ¶And whiles I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Ĭs'ra-el, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God for the holy mountain of my God;

21 Yea, whiles I was speaking in prayer, even the man Gā'brĭ-el, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly [7]swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation.

22 And he informed me, and talked with me, and said, O Dăn'iel, I am now come forth [8]to give thee skill and understanding.

23 At the beginning of thy supplications the [9]commandment came forth, and I am come to shew thee; for thou art [10]greatly beloved: therefore understand the matter, and consider the vision.

D 24 [11]Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, [12]to finish the transgression, and [13]to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and [14]prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy. *

25 Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment [15]to restore and to build Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm unto the Mĕs-sī'ah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street [16]shall be built again, and the [17]wall, even [18]in troublous times.

D 26 And after threescore and two weeks shall [i]Mĕs-sī'ah be cut off, [19]but not for himself: [20]and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war [21]desolations are determined. †

27 And he shall confirm [22]the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, [23]and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured [24]upon the desolate.

CHAPTER 10.

Daniel sees a glorious vision.

IN the third year of Çў'rus king of Pēr'sĭa a thing was revealed unto Dăn'iel, whose name was called Bĕl-te-shăz'zar; and the thing was true, but the time appointed was [1]long: and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision.

2 In those days I Dăn'iel was mourning three [2]full weeks.

3 I ate no [3]pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

* D. 9. 26. † D. Hos. 13. 14.

4 And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is [4]Hĭd'de-kĕl;

5 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold [5]a certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine gold of Ū'phăz:

6 His body also was like the beryl, and [a]his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude.

7 And I Dăn'iel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.

8 Therefore I was left alone, and saw [b]this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my [6]comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength.

9 Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a deep sleep [c]on my face, and my face toward the ground.

10 ¶And, behold, an hand touched me, which [7]set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands.

11 And he said unto me, O Dăn'iel, [8]a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and [9]stand upright: for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling.

12 Then said he unto me, [d]Fear not, Dăn'iel: for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words. R. Hos.3.5.

13 But the prince of the kingdom of Pĕr'şiă withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, [e]Mī'chaĕl, [10]one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Pĕr'şiă.

14 Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days: for yet the vision is for many days.

15 And when he had spoken such words unto me, [f]I set my face toward the ground, and I became dumb.

16 And, behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men touched [g]my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength.

17 For how can [11]the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me.

18 Then there came again and touched me one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me,

19 And said, O man greatly beloved, [h]fear not: peace be unto thee, be strong, yea, be strong. And when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me.

20 Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? and now will I return to fight [i]with the prince of Pĕr'şiă: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of Grē'çiă shall come.

21 But I will shew thee that which is noted in the scripture of truth: and there is none that [12]holdeth with me in these things, but Mī'chaĕl your prince.

ALSO I [a]in the first year of Dā-rī'us [b]the Mēde, even I, stood to confirm and to strengthen him.

2 And now will I shew thee the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Pĕr'şiă; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and by his strength through his riches he shall stir up all against the realm of Grē'çiă.

3 And [c]a mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and [d]do according to his will.

4 And when he shall stand up, his [e]kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the four winds of heaven; and not to his posterity, [f]nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others beside those.

have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion.

6 And in the end of years they [1]shall join themselves together; for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make [2]an agreement: but she shall not retain the power of the arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm: but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and [3]he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in these times.

7 But out of a branch of her roots shall one stand up [4]in his estate, which shall come with an army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail:

8 And shall also carry captives into Ē'gўpt their gods, with their princes, and with [5]their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he shall continue more years than the king of the north.

9 So the king of the south shall come into his kingdom, and shall return into his own land.

10 But his sons [6]shall be stirred up, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces: and one shall certainly come, [g]and overflow, and pass through: [7]then shall he return, and be stirred up, even to his fortress.

11 And the king of the south shall be moved with choler, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north: and he shall set forth a great multitude; but the multitude shall be given into his hand.

12 And when he hath taken away the multitude, his [h]heart shall be lifted up; and he shall cast down many ten thousands: but he shall not be strengthened by it.

13 For the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come [8]after certain years with a great army and with much riches.

14 And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also [9]the robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall.

15 So the king of the north shall come, [i]and cast up a mount, and take [10]the most fenced cities: and the arms [j]of the south shall not withstand, neither [11]his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand.

16 But he that cometh against him shall do according to his own will, and [k]none shall stand before him: and he shall stand in the [12]glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed.

17 He shall also [l]set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and [13]upright ones with him; thus shall he do: and he shall give him the daughter of women, [14]corrupting her: but she shall not stand on his side, neither [m]be for him.

18 After this shall he turn his face unto the isles, and shall take many: but a prince [15]for his own behalf shall cause [16]the reproach offered by him to cease; without his own reproach he shall cause it to turn upon him.

19 Then he shall turn his face toward the fort of his own land: but he shall stumble and fall, [n]and not be found.

20 Then shall stand up [17]in his estate [18]a raiser of taxes in the glory of the kingdom: but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in [19]anger, nor in battle.

21 And [20]in his estate shall stand up a [o]vile person, to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom: but he shall come in peaceably, and obtain [p]the kingdom by flatteries.

22 And with the arms of a flood shall [q]they be overflown from before him, and shall be broken; yea, [r]also the prince of the covenant.

23 And after the league made with him he shall work deceitfully: for he shall come up, and shall become strong with a small people.

24 He shall enter [21]peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches: yea, and he shall [22]forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time.

25 And [23]he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand:

for they shall forecast devices against him.

26 Yea, they that [s]feed of the portion of his meat shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow: and many shall fall down slain.

27 And both these kings' [24]hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak [t]lies at one table; but it shall not prosper: for yet the end shall be at the time appointed.

28 Then shall he return into his land with great riches; and his heart shall be against the holy covenant; and he shall do exploits, and return to his own land.

29 At the [25]time appointed he shall return, and come toward the south; but it shall not be as the former, or as the latter.

30 For [u]the ships of Chĭt'tim shall come against him: therefore he shall be grieved, and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return, and have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant.

31 And arms shall stand on his part, and they [v]shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that [26]maketh desolate.

32 And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he [27]corrupt by flatteries: but the people that do [w]know their God shall be strong, and do exploits.

33 And [x]they that understand among the people shall instruct many: [y]yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, many days.

34 Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little help: but many shall cleave to them with flatteries.

35 And some of them of understanding shall fall, to try [28]them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed.

36 And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall [z]exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done.

37 Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, [a]nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all.

38 [29]But [30]in his estate shall he honour the God of [31]forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and [32]pleasant things.

39 Thus shall he do in the [33]most strong holds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for [34]gain.

40 And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over.

41 He shall enter also into the [35]glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, even Ē'dom, and Mō'ab, and the chief of the children of Ăm'mŏn.

42 He shall [36]stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the land of Ē'gўpt shall not escape.

43 But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Ē'gўpt: and the Lĭb'ў-ans and the Ē-thĭ-ō'pĭ-ans shall be at his steps.

44 But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many.

45 And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between [b]the seas in the [37]glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.

[d]some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

3 And they that be [1]wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness [e]as the stars for ever and ever.

4 But thou, O Dăn'iel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.

5 ¶Then I Dăn'iel looked, and, behold, there stood other two, the one on this side of the [2]bank of the river, and the other on that side of the bank of the river.

6 And one said to the man clothed in linen, which was [3]upon the waters of the river, [f]How long shall it be to the end of these wonders?

7 And I heard the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and sware by him that liveth for ever [g]that it shall be for a time, times, and [4]an half; and [h]when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished.

8 And I heard, but I understood not: then said I, O my Lord, what shall be the end of these things?

9 And he said, Go thy way, Dăn'iel: for the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end.

10 Many [i]shall be purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; [j]but the wise shall understand.

11 And from the time that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away, and [5]the abomination that [6]maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days.

12 Blessed is he that waiteth, and cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days.

13 But go thou thy way till the end be: [7]for thou shalt [k]rest, and stand [l]in thy lot at the end of the days.

HOSEA.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Hosea shews God's judgment for spiritual whoredom. 10 Restoration of Judah and Israel.

THE [a]word of the LORD that came unto Hō-şē'ā, the son of Bē-ē'rī, in the days of Ŭz-zī'ah, Jō'tham, Ā'hăz, and Hĕz-e-kī'ah, kings of Jū'dah, and in the days of Jĕr-o-bō'am the son of Jō'ăsh, king of Ĭş'ra-el.

2 The beginning of the word of the LORD by Hō-şē'ā. And the LORD said to Hō-şē'ā, Gō, take unto thee a wife of whoredoms and children of whoredoms: [b]for the land hath committed great whoredom, departing from the LORD.

3 So he went and took Gō'mēr the daughter of Dĭb'la-ĭm; which conceived, and bare him a son.

4 And the LORD said unto him, Call his name Jĕz're-el; for yet a little while, and I will [1]avenge the blood of Jĕz're-el upon the house of Jē'hū, and will cause to cease the kingdom of the house of Ĭş'ra-el.

5 And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will break the bow of Ĭş'ra-el in the valley of Jĕz're-el.

7 But I will have mercy upon the house of Jū'dah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen.

1 Idolatry of the people: 6 God's judgments against them.

SAY ye unto your brethren, [1]Ăm'mī; and to your sisters, [2]Ru-hā'mah.

2 Plead with your mother, plead: for [a]she is not my wife, neither am I her husband: let her therefore put away her [b]whoredoms out of her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts;

3 Lest [c]I strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she was born, and make her [d]as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with [e]thirst.

4 And I will not have mercy upon her children; for they be the children of whoredoms.

5 For their mother hath played the harlot: she that conceived them hath done shamefully: for she said, I will go after my lovers, [f]that give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, mine oil and my [3]drink.

6 ¶Therefore, behold, [g]I will hedge up thy way with thorns, and [4]make a wall, that she shall not find her paths.

7 And she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, [h]I will go and return to my first [i]husband; for then was it better with me than now.

8 For she did not know that I gave her corn, and [5]wine, and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, [6]which they prepared for Bā'al.

9 Therefore will I return, and take away my corn in the time thereof, and my wine in the season thereof, and will [j]recover my wool and my flax given to cover her nakedness.

10 And now will I discover her [k]lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of mine hand.

11 I [l]will also cause all her mirth to cease, her feast days, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts.

CHAPTER 3.

The desolation of Israel foreshewn.

THEN said the LORD unto me, Go yet, love a woman beloved of her friend, yet an adulteress, according to the love of the LORD toward the children of Ĭs'ra-el, who look to other gods, and love flagons [1]of wine.

2 So I bought her to me for fifteen pieces of silver, and for an homer of barley, and an [2]half homer of barley:

3 And I said unto her, Thou shalt abide [a]for me many days; thou shalt not play the harlot, and thou shalt not be for another man: so will I also be for thee.

4 For the children of Ĭs'ra-el shall abide many days without a king, and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without [3]an image, and without an [b]ephod, and without teraphim:

R 5 Afterward shall the children of Ĭs'ra-el return, and [c]seek the LORD their God, and Dā'vid [d]their king; and shall fear the LORD and his goodness in the [e]latter days. R. 5. 15.

A N HEAR the word of the LORD, ye children of Ĭs'ra-el: for the LORD hath a [a]controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge [b]of God in the land. A. 6. 4.

2 By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they break out, and [1]blood toucheth blood.

3 Therefore [c]shall the land mourn, and every [d]one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away. N. 4. 6

4 Yet let no man strive, nor reprove another: for thy people are as they [e]that strive with the priest.

5 Therefore shalt thou fall [f]in the day, and the prophet also shall fall with thee in the night, and I will [2]destroy thy mother.

N 6 ¶My people are [3]destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children. N. 4. 17.

10 For [g]they shall eat, and not have enough: they shall commit whoredom, and shall not increase: because they have left off to take heed to the LORD.

11 Whoredom and wine and new wine take [h]away the heart.

12 ¶My people ask counsel at their [i]stocks, and their staff declareth unto them: for [j]the spirit of whoredoms hath caused them to err, and they have gone a [k]whoring from under their God.

13 They sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under oaks and poplars and elms, because the shadow thereof is good: [l]therefore your daughters shall commit whoredom, and your spouses shall commit adultery.

14 [7]I will not punish your daughters when they commit whoredom, nor your spouses when they commit adultery: for themselves are separated with whores, and they sacrifice with harlots: therefore the people that doth not understand shall [8]fall.

15 ¶Though thou, Ĭs'ra-el, play the harlot, yet let not Jū'dah offend; and [i]come not ye unto Gĭl'găl, neither go ye up to [9]Bĕth-ā'ven, nor [m]swear, The LORD liveth.

18 Their drink [10]is sour: they have committed whoredom continually: her [11]rulers with shame do love, Give ye.

19 The wind hath bound her up in her wings, and they shall be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

CHAPTER 5.

God's judgments against Israel.

HEAR ye this, O priests; and hearken, ye house of Ĭs'ra-el; and give ye ear, O house of the king; for judgment is toward you, because ye have been a snare on Miz'pah, and a net spread upon Tā'bôr.

2 And the revolters are profound to make slaughter, [1]though I have been a rebuker of them all.

3 I [a]know Ē'phră-ĭm, and Ĭs'ra-el is not hid from me: for now, O Ē'phră-ĭm, thou committest whoredom, and Ĭs'ra-el is defiled.

4 [2]They will not frame their doings to turn unto their God: for the spirit of whoredoms is in the midst of them, and they have not known the LORD.

5 And the pride of Ĭs'ra-el doth testify to his face: therefore shall Ĭs'ra-el and Ē'phră-ĭm fall in their iniquity; Jū'dah also shall fall with them.

6 They shall go with their flocks and with their herds to seek the LORD; but they shall not find him; he hath withdrawn himself from them.

7 They have dealt treacherously against the LORD: for they have begotten strange children: now shall [b]a month devour them with their portions.

8 ¶Blow ye the cornet in Gĭb'e-ah, and the trumpet in Rā'mah: cry aloud at [c]Bĕth-ā'ven, after thee, O Bĕn'ja-mĭn.

9 Ē'phră-ĭm shall be desolate in the day of rebuke: among the tribes of Ĭs'ra-el have I made known that which shall surely be.

10 The princes of Jū'dah were like them that [d]remove the bound: therefore I will pour out my wrath upon them like water.

11 Ē'phră-ĭm is oppressed and broken in judgment, because he willingly walked after [e]the commandment.

12 Therefore will I be unto Ē'phră-ĭm as a moth, and to the house of Jū'dah as [3]rottenness.

13 When Ē'phră-ĭm saw his sickness, and Jū'dah saw his wound, then went Ē'phră-ĭm to the Ăs-sўr'ĭ-an, and sent [4]to king Jā'reb: yet could he not heal you, nor cure you of your wound.

14 For I will be unto Ē'phră-ĭm as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Jū'dah: I, even I, will tear and go away; I will take away, and none shall rescue him.

God exhorts Israel to repentance.

2 After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.

3 Then [c]shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us [d]as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.

4 ¶O Ē'phră-ĭm, what shall I do unto thee? O Jū'dah, what shall I do unto thee? for your [1]goodness is as a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away. A. 6. 6, 7 A G

5 Therefore have I hewed them by the [e]prophets; I have slain them by [f]the words of my mouth: [2]and thy judgments are as the light that goeth forth.

6 For I desired [g]mercy, and [h]not sacrifice; and the [i]knowledge of God more than burnt offerings. † A

7 But they [3]like men have transgressed the covenant: there have they dealt treacherously against me. ‡

8 Gĭl'e-ăd is a city of them that work iniquity, and is [4]polluted with blood.

9 And as troops of robbers wait for a man, so the company of priests murder in the way [5]by consent: for they commit [6]lewdness.

10 I have seen an horrible thing in the house of Ĭs'ra-el: there is the whoredom of Ē'phră-ĭm, Ĭs'ra-el is defiled.

11 Also, O Jū'dah, he hath set an harvest for thee, [j]when I returned the captivity of my people.

CHAPTER 7.

A reproof of manifold sins.

WHEN I would have healed Ĭs'ra-el, then the iniquity of Ē'phră-ĭm was discovered, and the [1]wickedness of Sā-mā'rĭ-ā: for they commit falsehood; and the thief cometh in, and the troop of robbers [2]spoileth without.

2 And they [3]consider not in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness: now their [a]own doings have beset them about; they are [b]before my face. E. Amos 4. 13. E oven heated by the baker, [4]who ceaseth [5]from raising after he hath kneaded the dough, until it be leavened.

5 In the day of our king the princes have made him sick [6]with bottles of wine; he stretched out his hand with scorners.

6 For they have [7]made ready their heart like an oven, whiles they lie in wait: their baker sleepeth all the night; in the morning it burneth as a flaming fire.

7 They are all hot as an oven, and have devoured their judges; all their kings [d]are fallen: [e]there is none among them that calleth unto me.

8 ¶ Ĕ'phrăĭm, he [f]hath mixed himself among the people; Ĕ'phrăĭm is a cake not turned.

N 9 Strangers have devoured his strength, and he knoweth it not: yea, gray hairs are [8]here and there upon him, yet he knoweth not.

10 And the pride of Ĭs'ra-el testifieth to his face: and they do not return to the LORD their God, nor seek him for all this. N. 7. 13, 14.

11 Ĕ'phrăĭm also is like a silly dove without heart: they call to Ĕ'gĭpt, they go to Ăs-sўr'ĭ-à.

12 When they shall go, I will spread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven; I will chastise them, as [g]their congregation hath heard.

N 13 Woe unto them! for they have fled from me: [9]destruction unto them! because they have transgressed against me: though I have redeemed them, yet they have spoken lies against me.

14 And they have not [h]cried unto me with their heart, when they howled upon their beds: they assemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against me. N. 9. 17.

15 Though I [10]have bound and strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mischief against me.

16 They return, but not to the most High: they are like a deceitful bow: their princes shall fall by the sword for the [i]rage of their tongue: this shall be their derision in the land of Ĕ'gĭpt.

CHAPTER 8.

Destruction threatened to Israel and Judah.

SET the trumpet to [1]thy mouth. He shall come [a]as an eagle against the house of the LORD, because they have transgressed my covenant, and trespassed against my law.

2 Ĭs'ra-el [b]shall cry unto me, My God, we know thee.

3 Ĭs'ra-el hath cast off the thing that is good: the enemy shall pursue him.

4 They [c]have set up kings, but not by me: they have made princes, and I knew it not: of their silver and their gold have they made them idols, that they may be cut off.

5 ¶ Thy calf, O Să-mā'rĭ-à, hath cast thee off; mine anger is kindled against them: how [d]long will it be ere they attain to innocency?

6 For from Ĭs'ra-el was it also: the workman made it; therefore it is not God: but the calf of Să-mā'rĭ-à shall be broken in pieces.

C 7 For they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: it hath no [2]stalk: the bud shall yield no meal: if so be it yield, the strangers shall swallow it up. C. 10. 13.

8 Ĭs'ra-el is swallowed up: now shall they be among the Gĕn'tīles as a vessel wherein is no pleasure.

9 For [e]they are gone up to Ăs-sўr'ĭ-à, a wild ass alone by himself: Ĕ'phrăĭm hath hired [3]lovers.

10 Yea, though they have hired among the nations, now will I gather them, and they shall [4]sorrow [5]a little for the burden [f]of the king of princes.

11 Because Ĕ'phrăĭm hath made many altars to sin, altars shall be unto him to sin.

12 I have written to him [g]the great things of my law, but they were counted as [h]a strange thing.

13 [6]They sacrifice flesh for the sacrifices of mine offerings, and eat it; but the LORD accepteth them not; now will he remember their iniquity, and visit their sins: they shall return to Ĕ'gĭpt.

14 For Ĭs'ra-el hath forgotten his Maker, and [i]buildeth temples; and Jū'dah hath multiplied fenced cities: but I will send a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour the palaces thereof.

4 They shall not offer wine offerings to the LORD, neither shall they be pleasing unto him: their sacrifices shall be unto them as [d]the bread of mourners; all that eat thereof shall be polluted: for their bread for their soul shall not come into the house of the LORD.

5 What will ye do in the solemn day, and in the day of the feast of the LORD?

6 For, lo, they are gone because of [3]destruction: Ē'gўpt shall gather them up, Mĕm'phĭs shall bury them: [4]the pleasant places for their silver, nettles shall possess them: thorns shall be in their tabernacles.

7 The days of visitation are come, the days of recompence are come; Ĭs'ra-el shall know it: the prophet is a fool, the [5]spiritual man is mad, for the multitude of thine iniquity, and the great hatred.

8 The watchman of Ĕ'phrăĭm was with my God: but the prophet is a snare of a fowler in all his ways, and hatred [6]in the house of his God.

CHAPTER 10.

Israel reproved and threatened for idolatry.

Ĭs'RA-EL is [1]an empty vine, he bringeth forth fruit unto himself: according to the multitude of his fruit he hath increased the altars; according to the goodness of his land they have made goodly [2]images.

2 [3]Their heart is divided; now shall they be found faulty: he shall [4]break down their altars, he shall spoil their images.

3 For now they shall say, We have no king, because we feared not the LORD; what then should a king do to us?

4 They have spoken words, swearing falsely in making a covenant: thus judgment springeth up as hemlock in the furrows of the field.

5 The inhabitants of Sā-mā'rĭ-à shall fear because of [a]the calves of Bĕth-ā'ven: for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and [5]the priests thereof that rejoiced on it, for the glory thereof, because it is departed from it.

6 It shall be also carried unto Ăs-sўr'ĭ-à for a present to [b]king Jā'reb: Ĕ'phrăĭm shall receive shame, and Ĭs'ra-el shall be ashamed of his own counsel.

7 As for Sā-mā'rĭ-à, her king is cut off as the foam upon [6]the water.

8 The high places also of Ā'ven, the [c]sin of Ĭs'ra-el, shall be destroyed: the thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; and they [d]shall say to the mountains, Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us.

9 O Ĭs'ra-el, thou hast sinned from the days of Gĭb'e-ah: there they stood: the battle in Gĭb'e-ah against the children of iniquity did not overtake them.

10 It is in [e]my desire that I should chastise them; and the people shall be gathered against them, [7]when they shall bind themselves in their two furrows.

11 And Ē'phră-ĭm is as an heifer that is taught, and loveth to tread out the corn; but I passed over upon [8]her fair neck: I will make Ē'phră-ĭm to ride; Jū'dah shall plow, and Jā'cob shall break his clods.

R 12 Sow [f]to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; break up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the LORD, till he come and rain righteousness upon you. R. 12. 6.

C 13 Ye [g]have plowed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit of lies: because thou didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men. C. Am. 4. 6–8.

14 Therefore shall a tumult arise among thy people, and all thy fortresses shall be spoiled, as Shăl'man spoiled [h]Bĕth-ăr'bel in the day of battle: the mother was dashed in pieces upon her children.

15 So shall Bĕth'-el do unto you because of [9]your great wickedness: in a morning shall the king of Ĭs'ra-el utterly be cut off.

CHAPTER 11.

Israel's ingratitude to God.

WHEN Ĭs'ra-el was a child, then I loved him, [a]and called my son [b]out of Ē'gўpt.

2 As they called them, so they went from them: [c]they sacrificed unto Bā'-al-ĭm, and burned incense to graven images.

3 I [d]taught Ē'phră-ĭm also to go, taking them by their arms; but they knew not that [e]I healed them.

4 I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love: and I was to them as they that [1]take off the yoke on their jaws, and I [f]laid meat unto them.

5 ¶ He shall not return into the land of Ē'gўpt, but the Ăs-sўr'ĭ-an shall be his king, because [g]they refused to return.

6 And the sword shall abide on his cities, and shall consume his branches, and devour them, because of their own counsels.

7 And my people are bent to backsliding from me: though they called them to the most High, [2]none at all would exalt him.

L 8 How [h]shall I give thee up, Ē'phrăĭm? how shall I deliver thee, Ĭs'ra-el? how shall I make thee [i]as Ăd'mah? L how shall I set thee as Ze-bō'im? [j]mine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together. *

9 I will not execute the fierceness of mine anger, I will not return to destroy Ē'phră-ĭm: [k]for I am God, and not man; the Holy One in the midst of thee: and I will not enter into the city.

10 They shall walk after the LORD: he shall roar like a lion: when he shall roar, then the children shall tremble from the west.

11 They shall tremble as a bird out of Ē'gўpt, and as a dove out of the land of Ăs-sўr'ĭ-à: and I will place them in their houses, saith the LORD.

12 Ē'phră-ĭm compasseth me about with lies, and the house of Ĭs'ra-el with deceit: but Jū'dah yet ruleth with God, and is faithful [3]with the saints.

CHAPTER 12.

Ephraim and Judah reproved.

Ē'PHRĂ-ĬM feedeth on wind, and followeth after the east wind: he daily increaseth lies and desolation; [a]and they do make a covenant with the Ăs-sўr'ĭ-ans, and oil is [b]carried into Ē'gўpt.

2 The LORD hath also a controversy with Jū'dah, and will [1]punish Jā'cob according to his ways; according to his doings will he recompense him.

3 ¶ He took his brother by the heel in the womb, and by his strength he [2]had power with God:

4 Yea, he had power over the angel, and prevailed: he wept, and made supplication unto him: he found him in [c]Bĕth'-el, and there he spake with us;

5 Even the LORD God of hosts; the LORD is his memorial.

6 Therefore turn thou to thy God: R keep mercy and judgment, and wait on thy God continually. †

7 ¶ He is [3]a merchant, the balances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to [4]oppress.

8 And Ē'phră-ĭm said, Yet I am become rich, I have found me out substance: [5]in all my labours they shall find none iniquity in me [6]that were sin.

9 And I that am the LORD thy God from the land of Ē'gўpt will yet make thee to dwell in tabernacles, as in the days of the solemn feast.

God's anger for Ephraim's impiety.

WHEN Ē'phră-ĭm spake [a]trembling, he exalted himself in Ĭs'ra-el; but [b]when he offended in Bā'ăl, he died.

2 And now [1]they sin more and more, and have made them molten images of their silver, and idols according to their own understanding, all of it the work of the craftsmen: they say of them, Let [2]the men that sacrifice kiss the calves.

3 Therefore they shall be as the morning cloud, and as the early dew that passeth away, as the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the floor, and as the smoke out of the chimney.

12 The [d]iniquity of Ē'phră-ĭm is bound up; his sin is hid.

13 The sorrows of a travailing woman shall come upon him: he is an unwise son; for he should not stay [7]long in the place of the breaking forth of children.

JOEL.

CHAPTER 1.

Joel, declaring sundry judgments of God, exhorts to observe them.

THE [a]word of the LORD that came to Jō'el the son of Pê-thū'el.

2 Hear this, ye old men, and give ear, all ye inhabitants of the land. Hath [b]this been in your days, or even in the days of your fathers?

3 Tell [c]ye your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation.

4 [1]That which the palmerworm hath left hath the locust eaten; and that which the locust hath left hath the cankerworm eaten; and that which the cankerworm hath left hath the caterpiller eaten.

5 Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine; [d]for it is cut off from your mouth.

6 For [e]a nation is come up upon my land, strong, and without number, [f]whose teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he hath the cheek teeth of a great lion.

7 He hath [g]laid my vine waste, and [2]barked my fig tree: he hath made it clean bare, and cast it away; the branches thereof are made white.

8 ¶Lament [h]like a virgin girded with sackcloth for [i]the husband of her youth.

9 The [j]meat offering and the drink offering is cut off from the house of the LORD; the priests, the LORD'S ministers, mourn.

10 The field is wasted, [k]the land mourneth; for the corn is wasted: the [l]new wine is [3]dried up, the oil languisheth.

11 Be [m]ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen; howl, O ye vinedressers, for the wheat and for the barley; because the harvest of the field is perished.

12 The vine is dried up, and the fig tree languisheth; the pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the apple tree, even all the trees of the field, are withered: because joy [n]is withered away from the sons of men.

13 ¶Gird [o]yourselves, and lament, ye priests: howl, ye ministers of the altar: come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God: for the meat offering and the drink offering is withholden from the house of your God.

14 Sanctify [p]ye a fast, call a [4]solemn assembly, gather the elders [q]and all the inhabitants of the land into the house of the LORD your God, and cry unto the LORD,

15 Alas [r]for the day! for the day of the LORD is at hand, and as a destruction from the Almighty shall it come.

16 Is not the meat cut off before our eyes, yea, [s]joy and gladness from the house of our God?

17 The [5]seed is rotten under their clods, the garners are laid desolate, the barns are broken down; for the corn is withered.

18 How do [t]the beasts groan! the herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture; yea, the flocks of sheep are made desolate.

19 O LORD, to thee will I cry: for the fire hath devoured the [6]pastures of the wilderness, and the flame hath burned all the trees of the field.

20 The beasts of the field [u]cry also unto thee: for [v]the rivers of waters are dried up, and the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains: [d]a great people and a strong; [e]there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years [2]of many generations.

3 A fire devoureth before them; and behind them a flame burneth: the land is as the garden of Ē'dĕn before them, [f]and behind them a desolate wilderness; yea, and nothing shall escape them.

4 The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as horsemen, so shall they run.

5 Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array.

6 Before their face the people shall be much pained: [g]all faces shall gather [3]blackness.

7 They shall run like mighty men; they shall climb the wall like men of war; and they shall march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks:

8 Neither shall one thrust another; they shall walk every one in his path: and when they fall upon the [4]sword, they shall not be wounded.

9 They shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall, they shall climb up upon the houses; they shall enter in at the windows like a thief.

10 The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble: the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining:

11 And the LORD shall utter his voice before his army: for his camp is very great: for [h]he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; and [i]who can abide it?

12 ¶Therefore also now, saith the LORD, Turn [j]ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning:

13 And [k]rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the LORD your God: for he [l]is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil. G. Amos 5. 21–24;*

14 Who [m]knoweth if he will return and repent, and leave [n]a blessing behind him; even a meat offering and a drink offering unto the LORD your God?

15 ¶Blow the trumpet in Zī'ŏn, R sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly:

16 Gather the people, [o]sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, [p]gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the [q]bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet.

17 Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep [r]between the porch and the altar, and let them say, [s]Spare thy people, O LORD, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should [5]rule over them: [t]wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God?

18 ¶Then will the LORD [u]be jealous for his land, [v]and pity his people. †

19 Yea, the LORD will answer and say unto his people, Behold, I will send you [w]corn, and wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied therewith: and I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen:

20 But [x]I will remove far off from you the northern army, and will drive him into a land barren and desolate, with his face toward the east sea, and his hinder part toward [y]the utmost sea, and his stink shall come up, and his ill savour shall come up, because [6]he hath done great things.

21 Fear [z]not, O land; be glad and rejoice: for the LORD will do great things.

22 Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field: for [a]the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth her fruit, the fig tree and the vine do yield their strength.

23 Be glad then, ye children of Zī'ŏn, and rejoice [b]in the LORD your God: for he hath given you [7]the former rain [8]moderately, and he will [c]cause to come down for you [d]the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month.

24 And the floors shall be full of wheat, and the fats shall overflow with [e]wine and oil.

25 And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpiller, and the palmerworm, my great army which I sent among you.

the LORD your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you: and my people shall never be ashamed.

27 And ye shall know that I am in [c]the midst of Ĭs'ra-el, and that [d]I am the LORD your God, and none else: and my people shall never be ashamed.

28 ¶And [e]it shall come to pass afterward, that I [h]will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; [i]and your sons and [j]your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions:

29 And also upon [k]the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit.

30 And [l]I will shew wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke.

31 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the LORD come.

L W 32 And it shall come to pass, that [m]whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered: for [n]in mount Zī'ŏn and in Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm shall be deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and in [o]the remnant whom the LORD shall call. L. Jonah 4. 11;*

CHAPTER 3.

1 God's judgments against the enemies of his people: 18 his blessing on the church.

FOR, behold, in those days, and in that time, when I shall bring again the captivity of Jū'dah and Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm,

2 I [a]will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the [b]valley of Jĕ-hŏsh'a-phăt, and will [c]plead with them there for my people and for my heritage Ĭs'ra-el, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land.

3 And they have [d]cast lots for my people; and have given a boy for an harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that they might drink.

4 Yea, and what have ye to do with me, O [e]Tўre, and Zī'dŏn, and all the coasts of Păl'es-tīne? [f]will ye render me a recompence? and if ye recompense me, swiftly [g]and speedily will I return your recompence upon your own head:

5 Because ye have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your temples my goodly [1]pleasant things:

6 The children also of Jū'dah and the children of Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm have ye sold unto [2]the Grē'cians, that ye might remove them far from their border.

7 Behold, I will raise them out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will return your recompence upon your own head:

8 And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Jū'dah, and they shall sell them to [k]the Sā-bē'ans, to a people far off: for the LORD hath spoken it.

9 ¶Proclaim ye this among the Gĕn'tīles; [3]Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them come up:

10 Beat [4]your plowshares into swords, and your [4]pruninghooks into spears: [f]let the weak say, I am strong.

11 Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together round about: thither [5]cause thy mighty ones to come down, O LORD.

12 Let the heathen be wakened, and come up to [k]the valley of Jĕ-hŏsh'a-phăt: for there will I sit to [l]judge all the heathen round about.

13 Put [m]ye in the sickle, for [n]the harvest is ripe: come, get you down; for the press is full, the fats overflow; for their wickedness is great.

14 Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of [6]decision: for the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.

15 The sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall withdraw their shining.

16 The LORD also shall roar out of Zī'ŏn, and utter his voice from Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm; and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but the LORD will be the [7]hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Ĭs'ra-el.

17 So shall ye know that I am the LORD your God dwelling in Zī'ŏn, my holy mountain: then shall Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm be [8]holy, and there shall no [o]strangers pass through her any more.

18 ¶And it shall come to pass in that day, that the mountains shall drop down new wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, and all the rivers of Jū'dah shall [9]flow with waters, and [p]a fountain shall come forth of the house of the LORD, and shall water the valley of Shĭt'tim.

CHAPTER 1.

1 God's judgments upon Syria, 6 the Philistines, 9 Tyrus, 11 Edom, 13 and Ammon.

THE words of Ā'mos, who was among the [a]herdmen of Tĕ-kō'ȧ, which he saw concerning Ĭs'ra-el in [b]the days of Ŭz-zī'ah king of Jū'dah, and in the days of Jĕr-o-bō'am the son of Jō'ăsh king of Ĭs'ra-el, two years before the [c]earthquake.

2 And he said, The LORD will roar from Zī'ŏn, and utter his voice from Jĕ-ru'sȧ-lĕm; and the habitations of the shepherds shall mourn, and the top of Căr'mel shall wither.

3 ¶Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of [d]Dā-măs'cus, [1]and for four, I will not [2]turn away the punishment thereof; [e]because they have threshed Gĭl'e-ăd with threshing instruments of iron:

4 But I will send a fire into the house of Hăz'a-el, which shall devour the palaces of Bĕn-hā'dăd.

5 I will break also the bar of Dă-măs'cus, and cut off the inhabitant from [3]the plain of Ā'ven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from [4]the house of E'dĕn: and [f]the people of Sў̆r'ĭ-ȧ shall go into captivity unto Kĭr, saith the LORD.

6 ¶Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of [g]Gā'zȧ, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they [5]carried away captive the whole captivity, to deliver them up to E'dom:

7 But I will send a fire on the wall [h]of Gā'zȧ, which shall devour the palaces thereof:

8 And I will cut off the inhabitant from Ăsh'dŏd, and him that holdeth the sceptre from Ăsh'ke-lŏn, and I will turn mine hand against Ĕk'rŏn: and the remnant of the Phĭ-lĭs'tĭnes shall perish, saith the Lord GOD.

9 ¶Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Tў̆'rus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they delivered up the whole captivity to E'dom, and remembered not [6]the brotherly covenant:

10 But I will send a fire on the wall of Tў̆'rus, which shall devour the palaces thereof.

11 ¶Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of [i]E'dom, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he did pursue his brother [j]with the sword, and [7]did cast off all pity, and his anger did tear perpetually, and he kept his wrath for ever:

12 But I will send a fire upon Tē'man, which shall devour the palaces of Bŏz'rah.

13 ¶Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of the children of Ăm'mŏn, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have [8]ripped up the women with child of Gĭl'e-ăd, that they might enlarge their border:

14 But I will kindle a fire in the wall [k]of Răb'bah, and it shall devour the palaces thereof, with shouting in the day of battle, with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind:

15 And [l]their king shall go into captivity, he and his princes together, saith the LORD.

11 And I raised up of your sons for prophets, and of your young men for [p]Năz'a-rītes. Is it not even thus, O ye children of Ĭs'ra-el? saith the LORD.

12 But ye gave the Năz'a-rītes wine to drink; and commanded the prophets, [q]saying, Prophesy not.

13 Behold, [3]I am pressed under you, as a cart is pressed that is full of sheaves.

14 Therefore the flight shall perish from the swift, and the strong shall not strengthen his force, neither shall the mighty deliver [4]himself:

CHAPTER 3.

Necessity of God's judgments against Israel.

H HEAR this word that the LORD hath spoken against you, O children of Ĭs'ra-el, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of Ē'ġўpt, saying,

2 You only have I known of all the families of the earth: [a]therefore I will [1]punish you for all your iniquities:†

3 Can two walk together, except they be agreed?

4 Will a lion roar in the forest, when he hath no prey? will a young lion [2]cry out of his den, if he have taken nothing?

5 Can a bird fall in a snare upon the earth, where no gin is for him? shall one take up a snare from the earth, and have taken nothing at all?

6 Shall a [b]trumpet be blown in the city, and the people [3]not be afraid? shall there be evil in a city, [4]and the LORD hath not done it?

7 Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but [c]he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets.

8 The lion hath roared, who will not fear? the Lord GOD hath spoken, [d]who can but prophesy?

9 ¶ Publish in the palaces at Ăsh'dŏd, and in the palaces in the land of Ē'ġўpt, and say, Assemble yourselves upon the mountains of Sā-mā'rī-ā, and behold the great tumults in the midst thereof, and the [5]oppressed in the midst thereof.

10 For they know not to do right, saith the LORD, who store up violence and [6]robbery in their palaces.

11 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; An [e]adversary there shall be even round about the land; and he shall bring down thy strength from thee, and thy palaces shall be spoiled.

12 Thus saith the LORD; As the shepherd [7]taketh out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear; so shall the children of Ĭs'ra-el be taken out that dwell in Sā-mā'rī-ā in the corner of a bed, and [8]in Dă-măs'cus in a couch.

13 Hear ye, and testify in the house of Jā'cob, saith the Lord GOD, the God of hosts,

14 That in the day that I shall [9]visit the transgressions of Ĭs'ra-el upon him I will also visit the altars of Bĕth'-el:

† H. 4. 11 12.

and the horns of the altar shall be cut off, and fall to the ground.

15 And I will smite the winter house with the summer house; and the houses of ivory shall perish, and the great houses shall have an end, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Israel reproved for oppression, 4 for idolatry, 6 and for their incorrigibleness.

HEAR this word, ye kine of Bā'shăn, that are in the mountain of Sā-mā'rĭ-à, which oppress the poor, which crush the needy, which say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink.

2 The Lord GOD hath sworn by his holiness, that, lo, the days shall come upon you, that he will take you away with hooks, and your posterity with fishhooks.

3 And ye shall go out at the breaches, every cow at that which is before her; and [1]ye shall cast them into the palace, saith the LORD.

4 ¶ Come [a]to Bĕth'-el, and transgress; at Gĭl'găl [b]multiply transgression; and [c]bring your sacrifices every morning, and your tithes after [2]three years:

5 And [3]offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leaven, and proclaim and publish the [d]free offerings: for [4]this liketh you, O ye children of Ĭs'ra-el, saith the Lord GOD.

6 ¶ And I also have given you [e]cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places: [f]yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD. N. 4. 11, 12.

7 And also I have withholden the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest: and I caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not withered.

8 So two or three cities wandered unto one city, to drink water; but they were not satisfied: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

9 I [g]have smitten you with blasting and mildew: [5]when your gardens and your vineyards and your fig trees and your olive trees increased, the palmerworm devoured them: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

10 I have sent among you the pestilence [6]after the manner of Ē'gўpt: your young men have I slain with the sword, [7]and have taken away your horses; and I have made the stink of your camps to come up unto your nostrils: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

11 I have overthrown some of you, as God overthrew [h]Sŏd'om and Gŏmŏr'rah, [i]and ye were as a firebrand plucked out of the burning: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

12 Therefore thus will I do unto thee, O Ĭs'ra-el: and because I will do this unto thee, [j]prepare to meet thy God, O Ĭs'ra-el. H. Nah. 1. 2, 3; N. 6. 1;†

13 For, lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth the [8]wind, [k]and declareth unto man what is his thought, that maketh the morning darkness, [l]and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, [m]The LORD, The God of hosts, is his name. E. Nah. 1. 7.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Lamentation for Israel. 4 Exhortation to repentance.

HEAR ye this word which [a]I take up against you, even a lamentation, O house of Ĭs'ra-el.

2 The virgin of Ĭs'ra-el is fallen; she shall no more rise: she is forsaken upon her land; there is none to raise her up.

3 For thus saith the Lord GOD; The city that went out by a thousand shall leave an hundred, and that which went forth by an hundred shall leave ten, to the house of Ĭs'ra-el.

4 ¶ For thus saith the LORD unto the house of Ĭs'ra-el, [b]Seek ye me, and [c]ye shall live: W. Jonah 3. 10.

5 But seek not [d]Bĕth'-el, nor enter into Gĭl'găl, and pass not to [e]Bē'ershē'bà: for Gĭl'găl shall surely go into captivity, and Bĕth'-el shall come to nought.

6 Seek the LORD, and ye shall live; lest he break out like fire in the house of Jō'sĕph, and devour it, and there be none to quench it in Bĕth'-el.

7 Ye who turn judgment to wormwood, and leave off righteousness in the earth,

8 Seek him that maketh the [f]seven stars and Ō-rī'ŏn, and turneth the shadow of death into the morning, and maketh the day dark with night: that [g]calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: [h]The LORD is his name:

20 Shall not the day of the LORD be darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it?

G 21 ¶ [t]I hate, I despise your feast days, and I will not [4]smell in your solemn assemblies.

22 Though ye offer me burnt offerings and your meat offerings, I will not accept them: neither will I regard the [5]peace offerings of your fat beasts.

23 Take thou away from me the noise of thy songs; for I will not hear the melody of thy viols.

26 But ye have borne [7]the tabernacle of your Mō'lŏch and Chī'un your images, the star of your god, which ye made to yourselves.

27 Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity beyond Dā-măs'cus, saith the LORD, whose name is The God of hosts.

CHAPTER 6.

1 The wantonness of Israel 7 shall be plagued with desolation.

N WOE to them that [1]are at ease in Zī'ŏn, and trust in the mountain of Sā-mā'rĭ-à, which are named [2]chief of the nations, to whom the house of Iṣ'ra-el came! N. 6. 7.

2 Pass ye unto [a]Căl'neh, and see; and from thence go ye to [b]Hā'math the great: then go down to Gāth of the Phĭ-lĭs'tĭnes: be they better than these kingdoms? or [c]their border greater than your border?

3 Ye that [c]put far away the evil day, and cause the [3]seat of violence to come near;

4 That lie upon beds of ivory, and [4]stretch themselves upon their couches, and eat the lambs out of the flock, and the calves out of the midst of the stall;

5 That [5]chant to the sound of the viol, and invent to themselves instruments of musick, like Dā'vid;

6 That drink [6]wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief ointments: but they are not grieved for the [7]affliction of JŌ'seph.

N 7 ¶ Therefore now shall they go captive with the first that go captive, and the banquet of them that stretched themselves shall be removed. N. Zeph. 3. 1, 2.

8 The Lord GOD hath sworn by himself, saith the LORD the God of hosts, I abhor the excellency of Jā'cob, and hate his palaces: therefore will I deliver up the city with all [8]that is therein.

9 And it shall come to pass, if there remain ten men in one house, that they shall die.

sides of the house, Is there yet any with thee? and he shall say, No. Then shall he say, Hold thy tongue: for [9]we may not make mention of the name of the LORD.

11 For, behold, the LORD commandeth, and he will smite the great house with [10]breaches, and the little house with clefts.

12 ¶Shall horses run upon the rock? will one plow there with oxen? for ye have turned judgment into gall, and the fruit of righteousness into hemlock:

13 Ye which rejoice in a thing of nought, which say, Have we not taken to us horns by our own strength?

14 But, behold, I will raise up against you a nation, O house of Ĭs'ra-el, saith the LORD the God of hosts; and they shall afflict you from [d]the entering in of Hē'math unto the [11]river of the wilderness.

CHAPTER 7.

1 The judgment of the grasshoppers, 4 and of the fire, are diverted by the prayer of Amos. 10 Amaziah complains of Amos.

THUS hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me; and, behold, he formed [1]grasshoppers in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and, lo, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings.

2 And it came to pass, that when they had made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, O Lord GOD, forgive, I beseech thee: [2]by whom shall Jā'cob arise? for he is small.

3 The [a]LORD repented for this: It shall not be, saith the LORD.

4 ¶Thus hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me: and, behold, the Lord GOD called to contend by fire, and it devoured the great deep, and did eat up a part.

5 Then said I, O Lord GOD, cease, I beseech thee: by whom shall Jā'cob arise? for he is small.

6 The LORD [b]repented for this: This also shall not be, saith the Lord GOD.

7 ¶Thus he shewed me: and, behold, the Lord stood upon a wall made by a plumbline, with a plumbline in his hand.

8 And the LORD said unto me, Ā'mos, what seest thou? And I said, A plumbline. Then said the Lord, Behold, [c]I will set a plumbline in the midst of my people Ĭs'ra-el: [d]I will not again pass by them any more:

9 And [e]the high places of Ī'saac shall be desolate, and the sanctuaries of Ĭs'ra-el shall be laid waste; and [f]I will rise against the house of Jĕr-o-bō'am with the sword.

10 ¶Then Ăm-a-zī'ah [g]the priest of Bĕth'-el sent to [h]Jĕr-o-bō'am king of Ĭs'ra-el, saying, Ā'mos hath conspired against thee in the midst of the house of Ĭs'ra-el: the land is not able to bear all his words.

11 For thus Ā'mos saith, Jĕr-o-bō'am shall die by the sword, and Ĭs'ra-el shall surely be led away captive out of their own land.

12 Also Ăm-a-zī'ah said unto Ā'mos, O thou seer, go, flee thee away into the land of Jū'dah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there:

13 But [i]prophesy not again any more at Bĕth'-el: [j]for it is the king's [3]chapel, and it is the [4]king's court.

14 ¶Then answered Ā'mos, and said to Ăm-a-zī'ah, I was no prophet, neither was I a [k]prophet's son; but [l]I was an herdman, and a gatherer of [5]sycomore fruit:

15 And the LORD took me [6]as I followed the flock, and the LORD said unto me, Go, prophesy unto my people Ĭs'ra-el.

16 Now therefore hear thou the word of the LORD: Thou sayest, Prophesy not against Ĭs'ra-el, and drop [m]not thy word against the house of Ī'saac.

17 Therefore [n]thus saith the LORD; [o]Thy wife shall be an harlot in the city, and thy sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by line; and thou shalt die in a polluted land: and Ĭs'ra-el shall surely go into captivity forth of his land.

CHAPTER 8.

4 Oppression of the poor reproved. 11 A famine of God's word threatened.

THUS hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me:, and behold a basket of summer fruit.

2 And he said, Ā'mos, what seest thou? And I said, A basket of summer fruit. Then said the LORD unto me, [a]The end is come upon my people of Ĭs'ra-el; I will not again pass by them any more.

3 And the songs of the temple [1]shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord GOD: there shall be many dead bodies in every place; they shall cast them forth [2]with silence.

6 That we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes; yea, and sell the refuse of the wheat?

7 The LORD hath sworn by [d]the excellency of Jā'cob, Surely [e]I will never forget any of their works.

8 Shall [f]not the land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwelleth therein? and it shall rise up wholly as a flood; and it shall be cast out and drowned, [g]as by the flood of Ē'gўpt.

9 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord GOD, [h]that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day:

10 And I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head; [i]and I will make it as the mourning of an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day.

11 ¶Behold, the days come, saith the Lord GOD, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of [j]hearing the words of the LORD:

12 And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east, they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the LORD, and shall not find it.

13 In that day shall the fair virgins and young men faint for thirst.

14 They that swear [k]by the sin of Sā-mā'rĭ-ā, and say, Thy God, O Dăn, liveth; and, The [6]manner of Bē'er-shē'bà liveth; even they shall fall, and never rise up again.

CHAPTER 9.

1 Certainty of Israel's desolation. 11 Restoring of the tabernacle of David.

I SAW the Lord standing upon the altar: and he said, Smite the [1]lintel of the door, that the posts may shake: and [2]cut them in the head, all of them; and I will slay the last of them with the sword: he that fleeth of them shall not flee away, and he that escapeth of them shall not be delivered.

2 Though [a]they dig into hell, thence shall mine hand take them; [b]though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down:

3 And though they [c]hide themselves in the top of Cär'mel, I will search and take them out thence; and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and he shall bite them:

4 And though they go into captivity before their enemies, [d]thence will I command the sword, and it shall slay them: and I [e]will set mine eyes upon them for evil, and not for good.

5 And the Lord GOD of hosts is he that toucheth the land, and it shall [f]melt, and all that dwell therein shall mourn: and it shall rise up wholly like a flood; and shall be drowned, as by the flood of Ē'gўpt.

6 It is he that buildeth his [3]stories in the heaven, and hath founded his [4]troop in the earth; he that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: The LORD is his name.

7 Are ye not as children of the Ē-thĭ-ō'pĭ-anş unto me, O children of Ĭş'ra-el? saith the LORD. Have not I brought up Ĭş'ra-el out of the land of Ē'gўpt? and the Phĭ-lĭs'tĭnes [g]from Căph'tôr, and the Sўr'ĭ-anş [h]from Kīr?

8 Behold, [i]the eyes of the Lord GOD are upon the sinful kingdom, and I [j]will destroy it from off the face of the earth; saving that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jā'cob, saith the LORD.

9 For, lo, I will command, and I will [5]sift the house of Ĭş'ra-el among all nations, like as corn is sifted in a sieve, yet shall not the least [6]grain fall upon the earth.

10 All the sinners of my people shall die by the sword, which say, The evil shall not overtake nor prevent us.

11 ¶In [k]that day will I raise up the tabernacle of Dā'vid that is fallen, and [7]close up the breaches thereof; and I will raise up his ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old:

12 That [l]they may possess the remnant of [m]Ē'dom, and of all the heathen, [8]which are called by my name, saith the LORD that doeth this.

OBADIAH.

1 Destruction of Edom, 3 for their pride, 10 and wrong unto Jacob in his distress. 17 Salvation and victories of Jacob.

THE vision of Ō-ba-dī'ah. Thus saith the Lord GOD [a]concerning Ē'dom; We have heard a rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent among the heathen, Arise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle.

2 ¶Behold, I have made thee small among the heathen: thou art greatly despised.

3 The pride of thine heart hath deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts [b]of the rock, whose habitation is high; [c]that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?

4 Though [d]thou exalt thyself as the eagle, and though thou set thy nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the LORD.

5 If thieves came to thee, if robbers by night, (how art thou cut off!) would they not have stolen till they had enough? if the grapegatherers came to thee, would they not leave [1]some grapes?

6 ¶How are the things of Ē'saụ searched out! how are his hidden things sought up!

7 All the men of thy confederacy have brought thee even to the border: [2]the men that were at peace with thee have deceived thee, and prevailed against thee; [3]they that eat thy bread have laid a wound under thee: there is none understanding [4]in him.

8 Shall I not in that day, saith the LORD, even destroy the wise men out of Ē'dom, and understanding out of the mount of Ē'saụ?

9 And thy [e]mighty men, O Tē'man, shall be dismayed, to the end that every one of the mount of Ē'saụ may be cut off by slaughter.

10 For thy [f]violence against thy brother Jā'cob shame shall cover thee, and [g]thou shalt be cut off for ever.

11 In the day that thou stoodest on the other side, in the day that the strangers [5]carried away captive his forces, and foreigners entered into his gates, and [h]cast lots upon Jē-rụ'-sā-lĕm, even thou wast as one of them.

12 But [6]thou shouldest not have looked [i]on the day of thy brother in the day that he became a stranger; neither shouldest thou have [j]rejoiced over the children of Jū'dah in the day of their destruction; neither shouldest thou have [7]spoken proudly in the day of distress.

13 Thou shouldest not have entered into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity; yea, thou shouldest not have looked on their affliction in the day of their calamity, nor have laid hands on their [8]substance in the day of their calamity;

14 Neither shouldest thou have stood in the crossway, to cut off those of his that did escape; neither shouldest thou have [9]delivered up those of his that did remain in the day of distress.

15 For the day of the LORD is near upon all the heathen: [k]as thou hast done, it shall be done unto thee: thy reward shall return upon thine own head.

16 For as ye have drunk upon my holy mountain, so shall all the heathen drink continually, yea, they shall drink, and they shall [10]swallow down, and they shall be as though they had not been.

JONAH.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Jonah, sent to Nineveh, flees to Tarshish; 4 he is overtaken by a tempest, 11 thrown into the sea, 17 and swallowed by a fish.

NOW the word of the LORD came unto [a]Jō'nah the son of Ā-mĭt'ta-ī, saying,

2 Arise, go to Nĭn'e-veh, [b]that great city, and cry against it; for their [c]wickedness is come up before me.

3 But Jō'nah rose up to flee unto Tär'shish [d]from the presence of the LORD, and went down to [e]Jŏp'pà; and he found a ship going to Tär'shish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tär'shish [f]from the presence of the LORD.

4 ¶But the LORD [1]sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship [2]was like to be broken.

5 Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto his god, and cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them. But Jō'nah was gone down into the sides of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep.

6 So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, [g]call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.

7 And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us [h]cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jō'nah.

8 Then said they unto him, [i]Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us; What is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou?

9 And he said unto them, I am an Hē'brew; and I fear [3]the LORD, the God of heaven, which hath made the sea and the dry land.

10 Then were the men [4]exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, Why hast thou done this? For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

11 Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea [5]may be calm unto us? for the sea [6]wrought, and was tempestuous.

12 And he said unto them, Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for [j]my sake this great tempest is upon you.

13 Nevertheless the men [7]rowed hard to bring it to the land; [k]but they could not: for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them.

14 Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay [l]not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O LORD, hast done as it pleased thee.

15 So they took up Jō'nah, and cast him forth into the sea: and the sea [8]ceased from her raging.

16 Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and [9]offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, and made vows.

17 ¶Now the LORD had prepared a

CHAPTER 2.

1 Prayer of Jonah: 10 he is delivered out of the belly of the fish.

THEN Jō'nah prayed unto the LORD his God out of the fish's belly,

2 And said, I cried [1]by reason of mine affliction unto the LORD, and he heard me; out of the belly of [2]hell cried I, and thou heardest my voice.

3 For [a]thou hadst cast me into the deep, in the [3]midst of the seas; and the floods compassed me about: all thy billows and thy waves passed over me.

4 Then [b]I said, I am cast out of thy sight; yet I will look again toward [c]thy holy temple.

5 The waters compassed me about, even to the soul: the depth closed me round about, the weeds were wrapped about my head.

6 I went down to the [4]bottoms of the mountains; the earth with her bars was about me for ever: yet hast thou brought up my life from [5]corruption, O LORD my God.

7 When my soul fainted within me I remembered the LORD: [d]and my prayer came in unto thee, into thine holy temple.

8 They that observe [e]lying vanities forsake their own mercy.

9 But I will [f]sacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay that that I have vowed. Salvation is of the LORD.

10 ¶And the LORD [g]spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jō'nah upon the dry land.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Jonah preaches to the Ninevites; 3 they repent.

AND the word of the LORD came unto Jō'nah the second time, saying,

2 Arise, go unto Nĭn'e-veh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee.

3 So Jō'nah arose, and went unto Nĭn'e-veh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nĭn'e-veh was an [1]exceeding great city of three days' journey.

4 And Jō'nah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and [a]he cried, and said, Yet forty days, and Nĭn'e-veh shall be overthrown.

5 ¶So the people of [b]Nĭn'e-veh believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them. F. Nah. 1. 7.

6 For word came unto the king of Nĭn'e-veh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, [c]and sat in ashes.

7 And [d]he caused it to be proclaimed and [2]published through Nĭn'e-veh by the decree of the king and his [3]nobles, saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing: let them not feed, nor drink water:

8 But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God: yea, let them turn [e]every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands.

9 Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?

10 And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not. R. Mic. 6-8;*

CHAPTER 4.

Jonah, repining at God's mercy, 4 is reproved by the type of a gourd.

BUT [a]it displeased Jō'nah exceedingly, and he was very angry.

2 And he prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I fled before unto Tär'shish: for I knew that thou art a [b]gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil.

3 Therefore [c]now, O LORD, take, I beseech thee, my life from me; for it is better for me to die than to live.

4 ¶Then said the LORD, [1]Doest thou well to be angry?

5 So Jō'nah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see what would become of the city.

6 And the LORD God prepared a [2]gourd, and made it to come up over Jō'nah, that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his grief. So Jō'nah [3]was exceeding glad of the gourd.

7 But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd that it withered.

MICAH.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Micah shews the wrath of God against Jacob for idolatry: 10 he exhorts to mourning.

THE [a]word of the LORD that came to [b]Mī'cah the Mō'ras-thīte in the days of Jō'tham, Ā'hăz, and Hĕz-e-kī'ah, kings of Jū'dah, which he saw concerning Sā-mā'rĭ-à and Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm.

2 ¶ [1]Hear, all ye people; hearken, O earth, and [2]all that therein is: and let the Lord GOD be witness against you, the Lord from his holy temple.

3 For, behold, [c]the LORD cometh forth out of his place, and will come down, and tread upon the high places of the earth.

4 And the mountains shall be molten under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, and as the waters that are poured down [3]a steep place.

5 For the [d]transgression of Jā'cob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Ĭs'ra-el. What is the transgression of Jā'cob? is it not Sā-mā'rĭ-à? and what are the high places of Jū'dah? are they not Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm?

6 Therefore I will make Sā-mā'rĭ-à as [e]an heap of the field, and as plantings of a vineyard: and I will pour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will discover the foundations thereof.

7 And all the graven images thereof shall be beaten to pieces, and all the hires thereof shall be burned with the fire, and all the idols thereof will I lay desolate: for she gathered it of the hire of an harlot, and they shall return to the hire of an harlot.

8 Therefore I will wail and howl, I will go stripped and naked: I will make a wailing like the dragons, and mourning as the [4]owls.

9 For [5]her wound is incurable; for [f]it is come unto Jū'dah; he is come unto the gate of my people, even to Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm.

10 Declare ye it not at Găth, weep ye not at all: in the house of [6]Ăph'rah roll thyself in the dust.

11 Pass ye away, [7]thou inhabitant of Sā'phīr, having thy shame naked: the inhabitant of [8]Zā'a-năn came not forth in the mourning of [9]Bĕth-ē'zel; he shall receive of you his standing.

12 For the inhabitant of Mā'roth [10]waited carefully for good: but evil came down from the LORD unto the gate of Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm.

13 O thou inhabitant of Lā'chish, bind the chariot to the swift beast: she is the beginning of the sin to the daughter of Zī'ŏn: for the transgressions of Ĭs'ra-el were found in thee.

14 Therefore shalt thou give presents [11]to Mŏr'esh-eth-găth: the houses of [12]Ăch'zīb shall be a lie to the kings of Ĭs'ra-el.

15 Yet will I bring an heir unto thee, O inhabitant of Mā-rē'shah: [13]he shall come unto Ā-dŭl'lăm the glory of Ĭs'ra-el.

16 Make thee bald, and poll thee for thy delicate children; enlarge thy baldness as the eagle; for they [g]are gone into captivity from thee.

2 And they covet fields, and take them by violence; and houses, and take them away: so they [1]oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage.

3 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, against [d]this family do I devise an evil, from which ye shall not remove your necks; neither shall ye go haughtily: for this time is evil.

4 In that day shall one take up a parable against you, and lament [2]with a doleful lamentation, and say, We be utterly spoiled: he hath changed the portion of my people: how hath he removed it from me! [2]turning away he hath divided our fields.

5 Therefore thou shalt have none that shall [e]cast a cord by lot in the congregation of the LORD.

1 The princes' cruelty. 5 Falsehood of the prophets; 8 their ill grounded security.

AND I said, Hear, I pray you, O heads of Jā'cob, and ye princes of the house of Iṣ'ra-el; [a]Is it not for you to know judgment?

2 Who hate the good, and love the evil; who pluck off their skin from off them, and their flesh from off their bones;

3 Who also [b]eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them; and they break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as flesh within the caldron.

4 Then [c]shall they cry unto the LORD, but he will not hear them: he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings.

5 ¶ Thus saith the LORD [d]concerning the prophets that make my people err, that [e]bite with their teeth, and cry, Peace; and he that putteth not into their mouths, they even prepare war against him.

6 Therefore [f]night shall be unto you, [1]that ye shall not have a vision; and it shall be dark unto you, [2]that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them.

7 Then shall the seers be ashamed, and the diviners confounded: yea, they shall all cover their [3]lips; for there [g]is no answer of God.

8 But truly I am full of power by the [h]spirit of the LORD, and of judgment, and of might, [i]to declare unto Jā'cob his transgression, and to Iṣ'ra-el his sin.

9 ¶ Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of the house of Jā'cob, and princes of the house of Iṣ'ra-el, that abhor judgment, and pervert all equity.

BUT [a]in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow unto it.

2 And many nations shall come, and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jā'cob; and he [b]will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zī'ŏn, and the word of the LORD from Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm.

3 ¶And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords [c]into plowshares, and their spears into [1]pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither [d]shall they learn war any more.

4 But [e]they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it.

5 For [f]all people will walk every one in the name of his god, and we [g]will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.

6 ¶In that day, saith the LORD, will [h]I assemble her that halteth, and [i]I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted;

7 And I will make her that halted a remnant, and her that was cast far off a strong nation: and the LORD shall [j]reign over them in mount Zī'ŏn from henceforth, even for ever.

8 And thou, O tower of [2]the flock, the strong hold of the daughter of Zī'ŏn, unto thee shall it come, even the first dominion; the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm.

9 ¶Now why dost thou cry out aloud? is there no king in thee? is thy counsellor perished? for pangs have taken thee as a woman in travail.

10 Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zī'ŏn, like a woman in travail: for now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go even to Băb'ў-lon; there shalt thou be delivered; there the LORD shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies.

11 ¶Now also many nations are gathered against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye look upon Zī'ŏn.

12 But they know not the thoughts of the LORD, neither understand they his counsel: for he shall gather them as the sheaves into the floor.

13 Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zī'ŏn: for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass: and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: [k]and I will consecrate their gain unto the LORD, and their substance unto the Lord of the whole earth.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Birth of Christ foretold: 4 his kingdom, 8 and conquest.

NOW gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops: he hath laid siege against us: they [a]shall smite the judge of Ĭs'ra-el with a rod upon the cheek.

2 But thou, [b]Bĕth'-lĕ-hĕm Ĕph'ra-tah, though thou be little among the thousands of Jū'dah, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me that is to be [c]ruler in Ĭs'ra-el; whose goings [d]forth have been from of old, from [1]everlasting.

3 Therefore will he give them up, until the time that she which travaileth hath brought forth: then the remnant of his brethren shall return unto the children of Ĭs'ra-el.

4 And he shall stand and [2]feed in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God; and they shall abide: for now [e]shall he be great unto the ends of the earth.

CHAPTER 6.

1 God's controrersy for unkindness, 6 for ignorance, 10 for injustice, 16 and for idolatry.

HEAR ye now what the LORD saith; Arise, contend thou [1]before the mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice.

2 Hear ye, O mountains, [a]the LORD'S controversy, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for the LORD hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Ĭs'ra-el.

3 O my people, [b]what have I done unto thee? and wherein have I wearied thee? testify against me.

4 For I brought thee up out of the land of Ē'gўpt, and redeemed thee out of the house of servants; and I sent before thee Mō'sĕs, Aâr'on, and Mĭr'ĭ-am.

5 O my people, remember now what Bā'lăk [c]king of Mō'ab consulted, and what Bā'laam the son of Bē'or answered him from [d]Shĭt'tim unto Gĭl'găl; that ye may know the [e]righteousness of the LORD.

6 Wherewith [f]shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before the high God? shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves [2]of a year old?

7 Will [g]the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? [h]shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my [3]body for the sin of my soul?

8 He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the LORD require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to [4]walk humbly with thy God?*

9 ¶The LORD'S voice crieth unto the city, and [5]the man of wisdom shall see thy name: hear ye the rod, and who hath appointed it.

10 [6]Are there yet the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the [7]scant measure that is abominable?

11 [8]Shall I count them pure with the [i]wicked balances, and with the bag of deceitful weights?

12 For the rich men thereof are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.

13 Therefore also will I make thee sick in smiting thee, in making thee desolate because of thy sins.

14 Thou shalt eat, but not be satisfied; and thy casting down shall be in the midst of thee; and thou shalt take hold, but shalt not deliver; and that which thou deliverest will I give up to the sword.

15 Thou shalt sow, but thou shalt not reap; thou shalt tread the olives, but thou shalt not anoint thee with oil; and sweet wine, but shalt not drink wine. C. Hag. 2. 17.

16 For [9]the statutes of [j]Ŏm'rī are kept, and all the works of the house of Ā'hăb, and ye walk in their counsels; that I should make thee a [10]desolation, and the inhabitants thereof an hissing: therefore ye shall bear the reproach of my people.

the vintage: there is no cluster to eat: [a]my soul desired the firstripe fruit.

A 2 The [2]good man is perished out of the earth: and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; [b]they hunt every man his brother with a net. A. Matt. 12. 30.

3 That they may do evil with both hands earnestly, [c]the prince asketh, [d]and the judge asketh for a reward; and the great man, he uttereth [3]his mischievous desire: so they wrap it up.

4 The best of them is as a brier: the most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge: the day of thy watchmen and thy visitation cometh; now shall be their perplexity.

5 Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a guide: keep the doors of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosom.

6 For the [e]son dishonoureth the father, the daughter riseth up against her mother, the daughter in law against her mother in law; a man's enemies are the men of his own house.

7 Therefore I will look unto the LORD; I will wait for the God of my salvation: my God will hear me.

8 ¶Rejoice [f]not against me, O mine enemy: when I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkness, the LORD shall be a light unto me.

J 9 I will bear the indignation of the LORD, because I have sinned against him, until he plead my cause, and execute judgment for me: he will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold his righteousness.*

10 [4]Then she that is mine enemy shall see it, and shame shall cover her which said unto me, Where is the LORD thy God? mine eyes shall behold her: now [5]shall she be trodden down as the mire of the streets.

11 ¶In the day that thy walls are to be built, in that day shall the decree be far removed.

12 In that day also he shall come even to thee from Ăs-sўr'ĭ-à, [6]and from the fortified cities, and from the fortress even to the river, and from sea to sea, and from mountain to mountain.

13 [7]Notwithstanding the land shall be desolate because of them that dwell therein, for the fruit of their doings.

14 ¶ [8]Feed thy people with thy rod, the flock of thine heritage, which dwell solitarily in [g]the wood, in the midst of Căr'mel: let them feed in Bā'shăn and Gĭl'e-ăd, as in the days of old.

15 According to the days of thy coming out of the land of Ē'gўpt will I shew unto him marvellous things.

16 The nations [h]shall see and be confounded at all their might: they shall lay their hand upon their mouth, their ears shall be deaf.

17 They shall lick the dust like a serpent, they shall move out of their holes like [9]worms of the earth: they shall be afraid of the LORD our God, and shall fear because of thee.

L 18 ¶Who [i]is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth [j]iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? [k]he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy. P. Zech. 10. 6; W. Zech. 13. 1.

19 He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us; he will subdue [l]our iniquities; and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea. †

20 Thou [m]wilt perform the truth to Jā'cob, and the mercy to Ā'brā-hăm, which thou hast sworn unto our fathers from the days of old.

2 For the LORD hath turned away [2]the excellency of Jā'cob, as the excellency of Ĭs'ra-el: for the emptiers have emptied them out, and marred their vine branches.

3 The shield of his mighty men is made red, the valiant men are [3]in scarlet: the chariots shall be with [4]flaming torches in the day of his preparation, and the fir trees shall be terribly shaken.

4 The chariots shall rage in the streets, they shall justle one against another in the broad ways: [5]they shall seem like torches, they shall run like the lightnings.

5 He shall recount his [6]worthies: they shall stumble in their walk; they shall make haste to the wall thereof, and the [7]defence shall be prepared.

6 The gates of the rivers shall be opened, and the palace shall be [8]dissolved.

7 And [9]Hŭz'zăb shall be [10]led away captive, she shall be brought up, and her maids shall lead her as with the voice of doves, tabering upon their breasts.

8 But Nĭn'e-veh is [11]of old like a pool of water: yet they shall flee away. Stand, stand, shall they cry; but none shall [12]look back.

13 Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword shall devour thy young lions: and I will cut off thy prey from the earth, and the voice of thy messengers shall no more be heard.

CHAPTER 3.

Miserable ruin of Nineveh.

WOE to the [1]bloody city! it is all full of lies and robbery; the prey departeth not;

2 The noise of a whip, and the noise of the rattling of the wheels, and of the pransing horses, and of the jumping chariots.

3 The horseman lifteth up both [2]the bright sword and the glittering spear: and there is a multitude of slain, and a great number of carcases; and there is none end of their corpses; they stumble upon their corpses:

4 Because of the multitude of the whoredoms of the wellfavoured harlot, the [a]mistress of witchcrafts, that selleth nations through her whoredoms, and families through her witchcrafts.

5 Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts; and [b]I will discover thy skirts upon thy face, and I will shew the nations thy nakedness, and the kingdoms thy shame.

6 And I will cast abominable filth upon thee, and make thee vile, and will set thee as a gazingstock.

7 And it shall come to pass, that all they that look upon thee shall flee from thee, and say, Nĭn'e-veh is laid waste: who will bemoan her? whence shall I seek comforters for thee?

8 Art thou better than [3]populous Nō, that was situate among the rivers, that had the waters round about it, whose rampart was the sea, and her wall was from the sea?

9 Ē-thĭ-ō'pĭ-à [c]and Ē'gўpt were her strength, and it was infinite; Pŭt and Lu'bĭm were [4]thy helpers.

10 Yet was she carried away, she went into captivity: her young children also were dashed in pieces at the top of all the streets: and they [d]cast lots for her honourable men, and all her great men were bound in chains.

11 Thou also shalt be drunken: thou shalt be hid, thou also shalt seek strength because of the enemy.

12 All thy strong holds shall be like [e]fig trees with the firstripe figs: if they be shaken, they shall even fall into the mouth of the eater.

13 Behold, [f]thy people in the midst of thee are women: the gates of thy land shall be set wide open unto thine enemies: the fire shall devour thy bars.

14 Draw thee waters for the siege, fortify thy strong holds: go into clay, and tread the morter, make strong the brickkiln.

15 There shall the fire devour thee; the sword shall cut thee off, it shall eat thee up like [g]the cankerworm: make thyself many as the cankerworm, make thyself many as the locusts.

16 Thou hast multiplied [5]thy merchants above the stars of heaven: the cankerworm [6]spoileth, and fleeth away.

17 Thy [h]crowned are as the locusts, and thy captains as the great grasshoppers, which camp in the hedges in the cold day, but when the sun ariseth they flee away, and their place is not known where they are.

18 Thy shepherds slumber, O king [i]of Ăs-sўr'ĭ-à: thy [7]nobles shall dwell in the dust: thy people [j]is scattered upon the mountains, and no man gathereth them.

HABAKKUK.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Unto Habakkuk, complaining of the iniquity of the land, 5 is shewn the fearful vengeance by the Chaldeans.

THE burden which Hă-băk'kuk the prophet did see.

2 O LORD, how long [a]shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear! even cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt not save!

3 Why dost thou shew me iniquity, and cause me to behold grievance? for spoiling and violence are before me: and there are that raise up strife and contention.

B. C. 626.

CHAP. 1.

a Ps. 119, 136

4 Therefore [a]the law is slacked, and judgment doth never go forth: for the wicked doth compass about the righteous; therefore [1]wrong judgment proceedeth.

5 ¶Behold ye among the heathen, and regard, and wonder marvellously: for I will work a work in your days, which ye will not believe, though it be told you.

6 For, lo, [2]I raise up the Chăl-dē'ans, that bitter and hasty nation, which shall march through the [3]breadth of the land, to possess the dwelling-places that are not their's.

7 They are terrible and dreadful: their [4]judgment and their dignity shall proceed of themselves.

8 Their horses [c]also are swifter than the leopards, and are more [5]fierce than the evening wolves: and their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from far; they shall fly as the eagle that hasteth to eat.

9 They shall come all for violence: [6]their faces shall sup up as the east wind, and they shall gather the captivity as the sand.

10 And they shall scoff at the kings, and the princes shall be a scorn unto them: they shall deride every strong hold; for they shall heap dust, and take it.

11 Then shall his mind change, and he shall pass over, and offend, imputing this his power unto his god.

12 ¶Art thou not from everlasting, O LORD my God, mine Holy One? we shall not die. O LORD, thou hast ordained them for judgment; and, O [7]mighty God, thou hast [8]established them for correction.

13 Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on [9]iniquity: wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth the man that is more righteous than he?

14 And makest men as the fishes of the sea, as the creeping things, that have no ruler over them?

15 They take up all of them with the angle, they catch them in their net, and gather them in their net: [10]drag: therefore they rejoice and are glad.

16 Therefore they sacrifice unto their net, and burn incense unto their drag; because by them their portion is fat, and their meat [11]plenteous.

17 Shall they therefore [12]empty their net, and not spare continually to slay the nations?

1 Unto Habakkuk, waiting for an answer, is shewn that he must wait in faith. 5 Judgment upon the Chaldeans for their sins.

I WILL stand upon [a]my watch, and set me upon the [1]tower, and will watch to see what he will say [2]unto me, and what I shall answer [3]when I am reproved.

2 And the LORD answered me, and said, [b]Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. B. Matt. 5. 17, 18.

3 For [c]the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.

4 ¶Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but [d]the just shall live by his faith.

5 [4]Yea also, because he transgresseth by wine, he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who enlargeth his [e]desire as hell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all people:

6 Shall not all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, [5]Woe to him that increaseth that which is not his! how long? and to him that ladeth himself with thick clay!

7 Shall they not rise up suddenly that shall bite thee, and awake that shall vex thee, and thou shalt be for booties unto them?

8 Because thou hast spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the people shall spoil thee; because of men's [6]blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

9 ¶Woe to him that [7]coveteth an evil covetousness to his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the [8]power of evil!

10 Thou hast consulted shame to thy house by cutting off many people, and hast sinned against thy soul.

11 For the stone shall cry out of the wall, and the [9]beam out of the timber shall [10]answer it.

A PRAYER of Hă-băk'kuk the prophet [1]upon Shĭ-gī'o-nŏth.
2 O LORD, I have heard [2]thy speech, and was afraid: O LORD, [3]revive thy work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make known; in wrath remember mercy.
3 ¶ God came from [4]Tē'man, and the Holy One from mount Pā'ran. Sē'lah. His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise.
4 And his brightness was as the light; he had [5]horns coming out of his hand: and there was the hiding of his power.
5 Before him went the pestilence, and [6]burning coals went forth at his feet.
6 He stood, and [a]measured the earth: he beheld, and drove asunder [b]the nations; and the everlasting mountains were scattered, the perpetual hills did bow: his ways are everlasting.
7 I saw the tents of [7]Cu'shan [8]in affliction: and the curtains of the land of Mĭd'ī-an did tremble.
8 Was the [c]LORD displeased against the rivers? was thine anger against the rivers? was thy wrath against the sea, that thou didst ride upon thine horses and [9]thy chariots of salvation?
9 Thy bow was made quite naked, according to the oaths of the tribes, even thy word. Sē'lah. [10]Thou didst cleave the earth with rivers.
10 The mountains saw thee, and they trembled: the overflowing of the water passed by: the deep uttered his voice, and lifted up his hands on high.
11 The sun and moon stood still in their habitation: [11]at the light of thine arrows they went, and at the shining of thy glittering spear.
12 Thou didst march through the land in indignation, thou didst thresh [d]the heathen in anger.
13 Thou wentest forth [e]for the salvation of thy people, even for salvation with thine anointed; thou woundedst the head out of the house of the wicked, [12]by discovering the foundation unto the neck. Sē'lah.
14 Thou didst strike through with his staves the head of his villages: they [13]came out as a whirlwind to scatter me: their rejoicing was as to devour the poor secretly.
15 Thou didst walk through the sea with thine horses, through the [14]heap of great waters.
16 When I heard, my belly trembled; my lips quivered at the voice: rottenness entered into my bones, and I trembled in myself, that I might rest in the day of trouble: when he cometh up unto the people, he will [15]invade them with his troops.
17 ¶ Although [f]the fig tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines; the labour of the olive shall [16]fail, and the fields shall yield no meat; the flock shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalls:

2 [1]I will utterly consume all things from off [2]the land, saith the LORD.

3 I will consume man and beast; I will consume the fowls of the heaven, and the fishes of the sea, and the [3]stumblingblocks with the wicked; and I will cut off man from off the land, saith the LORD.

4 I will also stretch out mine hand upon Jū'dah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jē-ru'sā-lĕm; and [4]I will cut off the remnant of Bā'al from this place, and the name of the [b]Chĕm'a-rims with the priests;

5 And them that worship the host of heaven upon the housetops; and them that worship and that swear [5]by the LORD, and that swear [c]by Măl'cham;

6 And them that are turned back from the LORD; and those that have not sought the LORD, nor enquired for him.

7 Hold thy peace at the presence of the Lord GOD: for the day of the LORD is at hand: for the LORD hath prepared a sacrifice, he hath [6]bid his guests.

8 And it shall come to pass in the day of the LORD's sacrifice, that I will [7]punish the princes, and the king's children, and all such as are clothed with strange apparel.

9 In the same day also will I punish all those that leap on the threshold, which fill their masters' houses with violence and deceit.

10 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that there shall be the noise of a cry from the [d]fish gate, and an howling from the second, and a great crashing from the hills.

HAGGAI.

CHAPTER 1.

2 Haggai, reproving the people's negligence, 7 incites them to build the house, 12 and promises God's assistance therein.

IN the second year of Dā-rī'us the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, came the word of the LORD [1]by Hăg'ga-ī the prophet unto [a]Zĕ-rŭb'ba-bĕl the son of Shĕ-ăl'-tī-el, [2]governor of Jū'dah, and to Jŏsh'u-à the son of Jŏs'e-dĕch, [b]the high priest, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, This people say, The time is not come, the time that the LORD'S house should be built.

3 Then came the word of the LORD by Hăg'ga-ī [c]the prophet, saying,

4 Is it time for you, O ye, to dwell in your cieled houses, and this house lie waste?

5 Now therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts; [3]Consider your ways.

6 Ye have sown much, and bring in little; ye eat, but ye have not enough; ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; ye clothe you, but there is none warm; and he that earneth wages earneth wages to put it into a bag [4]with holes.

7 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Consider your ways.

8 Go up to the mountain, and bring wood, and build the house; and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, saith the LORD.

9 Ye looked for much, and, lo, it came to little; and when ye brought it home, I did [5]blow upon it. Why? saith the LORD of hosts. Because of mine house that is waste, and ye run every man unto his own house.

10 Therefore [d]the heaven over you is stayed from dew, and the earth is stayed from her fruit.

11 And I [e]called for a drought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the corn, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, and [f]upon all the labour of the hands.

12 ¶ Then [g]Zĕ-rŭb'ba-bĕl the son of Shĕ-ăl'tī-el, and Jŏsh'u-à the son of Jŏs'e-dĕch, the high priest, with all the 13 Then spake Hăg'ga-ī the LORD'S messenger in the LORD'S message unto the people, saying, [i]I am with you, saith the LORD.

14 And [j]the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zĕ-rŭb'ba-bĕl the son of Shĕ-ăl'tī-el, [k]governor of Jū'dah, and the spirit of Jŏsh'u-à the son of Jŏs'e-dĕch, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; [l]and they came and did work in the house of the LORD of hosts, their God,

4 Yet now [c]be strong, O Zĕ-rŭb'ba-bĕl, saith the LORD; and be strong, O Jŏsh'u-à, son of Jŏs'e-dĕch, the high priest; and be strong, all ye people of the land, saith the LORD, and work: for [d]I am with you, saith the LORD of hosts:

5 According [e]to the word that I covenanted with you when ye came out of E'gўpt, so [f]my spirit remaineth among you: fear ye not.

6 For thus saith the LORD of hosts: Yet [g]once, it is a little while, and I [h]will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land;

7 And I will shake all nations, and [i]the desire of all nations shall come: and I will fill [j]this house with glory, saith the LORD of hosts.

10 ¶ In the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Dă-rī'us, came the word of the LORD by Hăg'ga-ī the prophet, saying,

11 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Ask [m]now the priests concerning the law, saying,

12 If one bear holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any meat, shall it be holy? And the priests answered and said, No.

13 Then said Hăg'ga-ī, If one that is [n]unclean by a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, It shall be unclean.

14 Then answered Hăg'ga-ī, and said, [o]So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith the LORD; and so is every work of their hands; and that which they offer there is unclean.

15 And now, I pray you, [p]consider from this day and upward, from before a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the LORD:

16 Since those days were, when one came to an heap of twenty measures, there were but ten: when one came to the pressfat for to draw out fifty vessels out of the press, there were but twenty.

17 I [q]smote you with blasting and with mildew and with hail in all the labours of your hands; yet [r]ye turned not to me, saith the LORD. *

21 Speak to Zĕ-rŭb'ba-bĕl, governor of Jū'dah, saying, [t]I will shake the heavens and the earth;

2 The LORD hath been [1]sore displeased with your fathers.

5 Your fathers, where are they? and the prophets, do they live for ever?

6 But [e]my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not [2]take hold of your fathers? and they returned and said, [f]Like as the LORD of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so hath he dealt with us.

7 ¶ Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Sē'băt, in the second year of Dā-rī'us, came the word of the LORD unto Zĕch-a-rī'ah, the son of Bĕr-e-chī'ah, the son of Ĭd'dō the prophet, saying,

8 I saw by night, and behold [g]a man riding upon a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees that were in the bottom; and behind him were there [h]red horses, [3]speckled, and white.

13 And the LORD answered the angel that talked with me [m]with good words and comfortable words.

14 So the angel that communed with me said unto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I am [n]jealous for Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm and for Zī'ŏn with a great jealousy.

15 And I am very sore displeased with the heathen that are at ease: for [o]I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction.

16 Therefore thus saith the LORD; I [p]am returned to Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm with mercies: my house shall be built in it, saith the LORD of hosts, and a [q]line shall be stretched forth upon Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm.

17 Cry yet, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; My cities through [4]prosperity shall yet be spread abroad; [r]and the LORD shall yet comfort Zī'ŏn, and [s]shall yet choose Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm.

18 ¶ Then lifted I up mine eyes, and saw, and behold four horns.

19 And I said unto the angel that talked with me, What be these? And he answered me, These [t]are the horns which have scattered Jū'dah, Ĭs'ra-el, and Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm.

20 And the LORD shewed me four carpenters.

21 Then said I, What come these to do? And he spake, saying, These are the horns which have scattered Jū'dah, so that no man did lift up his head: but these are come to fray them, to cast out the horns of the Gĕn'tīles, which [u]lifted up their horn over the land of Jū'dah to scatter it.

CHAPTER 2.

An angel sent to measure Jerusalem, and its flourishing state under God's protection foretold.

I LIFTED up mine eyes again, and looked, and behold [a]a man with a measuring line in his hand.

2 Then said I, Whither goest thou? And he said unto me, [b]To measure Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof.

3 And, behold, the angel that talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him,

4 And said unto him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, [c]Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm shall be inhabited as towns without walls for the multitude of men and cattle therein:

5 For I, saith the LORD, will be unto her a [d]wall of fire round about, [e]and will be the glory in the midst of her.

6 ¶Ho, ho, come forth, and flee from the land of the north, saith the LORD: for I have [f]spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, saith the LORD.

7 Deliver thyself, O Zī'ŏn, that dwellest with the daughter of Băb'ў-lon.

8 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you: for he that [g]toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye. K. Zech. 12. 8.

9 For, behold, I will shake mine hand upon them, and they shall be a spoil to their servants: and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me.

10 ¶Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zī'ŏn: for, lo, I come, and I [h]will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the LORD.

11 And [i]many nations shall be joined to the LORD in that day, and shall be [j]my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee, and thou [k]shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto thee.

12 And the LORD shall [l]inherit Jū'dah his portion in the holy land, and shall choose Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm again.

13 Be [m]silent, O all flesh, before the LORD: for he is raised up out of [1]his holy habitation.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Under the type of Joshua, the restoration of the church promised. 8 Christ, the Branch, promised.

AND he shewed me [a]Jŏsh'u-à the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and [1]Sā'tan standing at his right hand [2]to resist him.

2 And [b]the LORD said unto Sā'tan, [c]The LORD rebuke thee, O Sā'tan; even the LORD that [d]hath chosen Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm rebuke thee: [e]is not this a brand plucked out of the fire?

3 Now Jŏsh'u-à was clothed with filthy [f]garments, and stood before the angel.

4 And he answered and spake unto those that stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and [g]I will clothe thee with change of raiment.

5 And I said, Let them set a fair mitre [h]upon his head. So they set a fair mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments. And the angel of the LORD stood by.

6 And the angel of the LORD protested unto Jŏsh'u-à, saying,

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; If thou wilt walk in my ways, and if thou wilt keep my [3]charge, then thou shalt also [i]judge my house, and shalt also keep my courts, and I will give thee [4]places to walk among these that stand by.

8 Hear now, O Jŏsh'u-à the high priest, thou, and thy fellows that sit before thee: for they are men [5]wondered at: for, behold, I will bring forth [j]my servant [k]the BRANCH.

9 For behold the stone that I have laid before Jŏsh'u-à; [l]upon one stone shall [m]be seven eyes: behold, I will engrave the graving thereof, saith the LORD of hosts, and [n]I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day.

10 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall ye call every man his neighbour under [o]the vine and under the fig tree.

[a]as a man that is wakened out of his sleep,

2 And said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and behold [b]a candlestick all of gold, [1]with a bowl upon the top of it, and [c]his seven lamps thereon, and [2]seven pipes to the seven lamps, which are upon the top thereof:

7 Who art thou, [e]O great mountain? before Zĕ-rŭb'ba-bĕl thou shalt become a plain: and he shall bring forth [f]the headstone thereof [g]with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace unto it.

8 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 The hands of Zĕ-rŭb'ba-bĕl have laid the foundation of this house; his hands shall [h]also finish it; and thou [i]shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you.

10 For who hath despised the day of small [j]things? [4]for they shall rejoice, and shall see the [5]plummet in the hand of Zĕ-rŭb'ba-bĕl with those seven; [k]they are the eyes of the LORD, which run to and fro through the whole earth.

11 ¶Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these two olive trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon the left side thereof?

12 And I answered again, and said unto him, What be these two olive branches which [6]through the two golden pipes [7]empty [8]the golden oil out of themselves?

13 And he answered me and said, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.

1 By a flying roll is shewn the curse of thieves and false swearers. 5 Babylon's ruin.

THEN I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a flying roll.

2 And he said unto me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying roll; the length thereof is twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits.

3 Then said he unto me, This is the [a]curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth: for [1]every one that stealeth shall be cut off as on this side according to it; and every one that sweareth shall be cut off as on that side according to it.

4 I will bring it forth, saith the LORD of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of [b]him that sweareth falsely by my name: and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and [c]shall consume it with the timber thereof and the stones thereof.

5 ¶Then the angel that talked with me went forth, and said unto me, Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth.

6 And I said, What is it? And he said, This is an ephah that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their resemblance through all the earth.

7 And, behold, there was lifted up a [2]talent of lead: and this is a woman that sitteth in the midst of the ephah.

8 And he said, This is wickedness. And he cast it into the midst of the ephah; and he cast the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof.

9 Then lifted I up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came out two women, and the wind was in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a stork: and they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heaven.

10 Then said I to the angel that talked with me, Whither do these bear the ephah?

11 And he said unto me, [d]To build it an house in the land of Shĭ'när: and it shall be established, and set there upon her own base.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Vision of four chariots. 9 By the crowns of Joshua are shewn Christ the Branch, and his church and kingdom.

AND I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came four chariots out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of brass.

2 In the first chariot were [a]red horses; and in the second chariot black horses;

3 And in the third chariot [b]white horses; and in the fourth chariot grisled and [1]bay horses.

4 Then I answered [c]and said unto the angel that talked with me, What are these, my lord?

5 And the angel answered and said unto me, [d]These are the four [2]spirits of the heavens, which go forth from [e]standing before the Lord of all the earth.

6 The black horses which are therein go forth into [f]the north country; and the white go forth after them; and the grisled go forth toward the south country.

7 And the bay went forth, and sought to go that they [g]might walk to and fro through the earth: and he said, Get you hence, walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth.

8 Then cried he upon me, and spake unto me, saying, Behold, these that go toward the north country have quieted my [h]spirit in the north country.

9 ¶And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

10 Take of them of the captivity, even of Hĕl'da-ī, of Tō-bī'jah, and of Jē-dā'iah, which are [i]come from Băb'-ў-lon, and come thou the same day, and go into the house of Jō-sī'ah the son of Zĕph-a-nī'ah;

11 Then take silver and gold, and make [j]crowns, and set them upon the head of Jŏsh'u-a the son of Jŏs'e-dĕch, the high priest;

12 And speak unto him, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Behold the [k]man whose name is The [l]BRANCH; and he shall [3]grow up out of his place, and he [m]shall build the temple of the LORD:

13 Even he shall build the temple of the LORD; and he [n]shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule upon his throne; and [o]he shall be a priest upon his throne: and the counsel of peace shall be between them both.

14 And the crowns shall be to Hē'lem, and to Tō-bī'jah, and to Jē-dā'iah, and to Hĕn the son of Zĕph-a-nī'ah, [p]for a memorial in the temple of the LORD.

15 And [q]they that are far off shall come and build in the temple of the LORD, and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you. And this shall come to pass, if ye will diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God.

1 The captives enquire of fasting: 4 Zechariah reproves their hypocritical fasting. 8 They are exhorted to repentance, etc.

AND it came to pass in the fourth year of king Dā-rī'us, that the word of the LORD came unto Zĕch-a-rī'ah in the fourth day of the ninth month, even in Chĭs'leū;

2 When they had sent unto the house of God Shĕ-rē'zer and Rē'gĕm-mē'lech, and their men, [1]to pray before the LORD,

3 And to [a]speak unto the priests which were in the house of the LORD of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, Should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these so many years?

4 ¶Then came the word of the LORD of hosts unto me, saying,

5 Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When ye fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh month, [b]even those seventy years, did ye at all fast unto [c]me, even to me?

6 And when ye did eat, and when ye did drink, [2]did not ye eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves?

7 [3]Should ye not hear the words which the LORD hath cried [4]by the former prophets, when Jē-ru'sa-lĕm was inhabited and in prosperity, and the cities thereof round about her, when men [d]inhabited the south and the plain?

8 ¶And the word of the LORD came unto Zĕch-a-rī'ah, saying,

9 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, [5]Execute true judgment, and shew mercy and compassions every man to his brother:

10 And oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor; and let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart.

11 But they refused to hearken, and [6]pulled away the shoulder, and [7]stopped their ears, that they should not hear.

AGAIN the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I [a]was jealous for Zī'ŏn with great jealousy, and I was jealous for her with great fury.

3 Thus saith the LORD; I am returned unto Zī'ŏn, and will dwell in the midst of Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm: and Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm [b]shall be called a city of truth; and [c]the mountain of the LORD of hosts [d]the holy mountain.

4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; There [e]shall yet old men and old women dwell in the streets of Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm, and every man with his staff in his hand [f]for very age.

5 And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof.

6 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; If it be [2]marvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days, [f]should it also be marvellous in mine eyes? saith the LORD of hosts.

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, I will save my people from the east country, and from [g]the west country;

8 And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm: [g]and they shall be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.

9 ¶Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Let [h]your hands be strong, ye that hear in these days these words by the mouth of [i]the prophets, which were in [j]the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built.

10 For before [4]these days there was no hire for man, nor any hire for beast; neither was there any peace to him that went out or came in because of the affliction: for I set all men every one against his neighbour.

11 But now I will not be unto the residue of this people as in the former days, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 For the seed shall be [5]prosperous; the vine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall give her increase, and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to [k]possess all these things.

13 And it shall come to pass, that as ye were [l]a curse among the heathen, O house of Jū'dah, and house of Ĭs'ra-el; so will I save you, and [m]ye shall be a blessing: [n]fear not, but let your hands be strong.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; [o]As I thought to punish you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the LORD of hosts, [p]and I repented not:

15 So again have I thought in these days to do well unto Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm and to the house of Jū'dah: fear ye not.

16 ¶These are the things that ye shall do; [q]Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbour; [6]execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates:

17 And [r]let none of you imagine evil in your hearts against his neighbour; and love no false oath: for all these are things that I [s]hate, saith the LORD. G. Mal. 1. 10, 11.

19 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; The [t]fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth, [u]and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, shall be to the house of Jū'dah [v]joy and gladness, and cheerful [7]feasts; therefore love the truth and peace.

20 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; It shall yet come to pass, that there shall come people, and the inhabitants of many cities:

21 And the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, Let us go [8]speedily to pray before the LORD, and to seek the LORD of hosts: I will go also.

22 Yea, many people and strong

23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; In those days it shall come to pass, that ten men shall take hold out of all languages of the nations, even shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you: for we have heard that God is with you.

1 God defends his church. 9 Zion exhorted to rejoice for the coming of Christ.

THE burden of the word of the LORD in the land of Hā'drach, and [a]Dă-măs'cus shall be the rest thereof: when [b]the eyes of man, as of all the tribes of Ĭs'ra-el, shall be toward the LORD.

2 And [c]Hā'math also shall border thereby; [d]Tȳ'rus, and [e]Zī'dŏn, though it be [f]very wise.

3 And Tȳ'rus did build herself a strong hold, and heaped up silver as the dust, and fine gold as the mire of the streets.

4 Behold, the Lord will cast her out, and he will smite [g]her power in the sea; and she shall be devoured with fire.

5 Ăsh'ke-lŏn [h]shall see it, and fear; Gā'zà [i]also shall see it, and be very sorrowful, and Ĕk'rŏn; for her expectation shall be ashamed; and the king shall perish from Gā'zà, and Ăsh'ke-lŏn shall not be inhabited.

6 And a bastard shall dwell in Ăsh'dŏd, and I will cut off the pride of the Phĭ-lĭs'tĭnes.

7 And I will take away his [1]blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth: but he that remaineth, even he, shall be for our God, and he shall be as a governor in Jū'dah, and Ĕk'rŏn as a Jĕb'u-sīte.

8 And [j]I will encamp about mine house because of the army, because of him that passeth by, and because of him that returneth: and no oppressor shall pass through them any more: for now [k]have I seen with mine eyes.

9 ¶Rejoice [l]greatly, O daughter of Zī'ŏn; shout, O daughter of Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm: behold, thy [m]King cometh unto thee: he is [n]just, and [2]having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.

10 And I will cut off the chariot from Ē'phră-ĭm, and the horse from Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm, and the battle bow shall be cut off: and he shall speak peace [o]unto the heathen: and his dominion shall be [p]from sea even to sea, and from the river even to the ends of the earth.

11 As for thee also, [3]by the blood of thy covenant I have sent forth thy [q]prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water.

12 Turn you to the strong hold, ye prisoners of hope: even to day do I declare that I will render double unto thee;

13 When I have bent Jū'dah for me, filled the bow with Ē'phră-ĭm, and raised up thy sons, O Zī'ŏn, against thy sons, O Greece, and made thee as the sword of a mighty man.

14 And the LORD shall be seen over them, and his arrow shall go forth as the lightning: and the Lord GOD shall blow the trumpet, and shall go with whirlwinds of the south.

15 The LORD of hosts shall defend them; and they shall devour, and [4]subdue with sling stones; and they shall drink, and make a noise as through wine; and they [5]shall be filled like bowls, and as [r]the corners of the altar.

16 And [s]the LORD their God shall save them in that day as the flock of his people: for [t]they shall be as the stones of a crown, lifted [u]up as an ensign upon his land.

17 For how great is his goodness, and how great is his beauty! corn shall make the young men [6]cheerful, and new wine the maids.

CHAPTER 10.

1 God to be sought unto, and not idols. 3 As he visited his flock for sin, so will he save and restore them.

ASK ye [a]of the LORD rain [b]in the time of the latter rain; so the LORD shall make [1]bright clouds, and give them showers of rain, to every one grass in the field.

2 For the [2]idols have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie, and have told false dreams; they comfort in vain: therefore they went their way as a flock, they [3]were troubled, because there was no shepherd.

3 Mine anger was kindled against the shepherds, and I [4]punished the goats: for the LORD of hosts hath

[c]visited his flock the house of Jū'dah, and hath made them as his goodly horse in the battle.

4 Out of him came forth the corner, out of him [d]the nail, out of him the battle bow, out of him every oppressor together.

5 And they shall be as mighty men, which tread down their enemies in the mire of the streets in the battle: and they shall fight, because the LORD is with them, and the [5]riders on horses shall be confounded.

P 6 And I will strengthen the house of Jū'dah, and I will save the house of Jō'seph, and I will bring them again to place them; for I have mercy upon them: and they shall be as though I had not cast them off: for I am the LORD their God, and will hear them. P. Mal. 3. 7.

7 And they of E'phră-ĭm shall be like a mighty man, and their heart shall rejoice as through wine: yea, their children shall see it, and be glad; their heart shall rejoice in the LORD.

8 I will [e]hiss for them, and gather them; for I have redeemed them: and they shall increase as they have increased.

9 And I will sow them among the people: and they shall remember me in far countries; and they shall live with their children, and turn again.

10 I will [f]bring them again also out of the land of Ē'gў̆pt, and gather them out of Ăs-sўr'ĭ-à; and I will bring them into the land of Gĭl'e-ăd and Lĕb'a-non; and [g]place shall not be found for them.

11 And he shall pass through the sea with affliction, and shall smite the waves in the sea, and all the deeps of the river shall dry up: and the pride of Ăs-sўr'ĭ-à shall be brought down, and the [h]sceptre of Ē'gў̆pt shall depart away.

12 And I will strengthen them in the LORD; and they shall walk up and down in his name, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER 11.

1 Destruction of Jerusalem. 4 By a type is shewn Christ's care for his flock.

OPEN thy doors, O Lĕb'a-non, that the fire may devour thy cedars.

2 Howl, fir tree; for the cedar is fallen; because the [1]mighty are spoiled: howl, O ye oaks of Bā'shăn; for [2]the forest of the vintage is come down.

3 ¶ There is a voice of the howling of the shepherds; for their glory is spoiled: a voice of the roaring of young lions; for the pride of Jôr'dan is spoiled.

4 Thus saith the LORD my God; Feed the flock of the slaughter;

5 Whose possessors slay them, and [a]hold themselves not guilty: and they that sell them [b]say, Blessed be the LORD; for I am rich: and their own shepherds pity them not.

6 For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD: but, lo, I will [3]deliver the men every one into his neighbour's hand, and into the hand of his king: and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them.

7 And I will feed the flock of slaughter, [4]even you, [c]O poor of the flock. And I took unto me two staves; the one I called Beauty, and the other I called [5]Bands; and I fed the flock.

8 Three shepherds also I cut off in [d]one month; and my soul [6]lothed them, and their soul also abhorred me.

9 Then said I, I will not feed you: that [e]that dieth, let it die; and that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the rest eat every one the flesh [7]of another.

10 ¶And I took my staff, even Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the people.

11 And it was broken in that day: and [8]so the poor of the flock that waited upon me knew that it was the word of the LORD.

12 And I said unto them, [9]If ye think good, give me my price; and if not, forbear. So they [f]weighed for my price thirty pieces of silver.

13 And the LORD said unto me, Cast it unto the [g]potter: a goodly price that I was prised at of them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them to the potter in the house of the LORD.

14 Then I cut asunder mine other staff, even [10]Bands, that I might break the brotherhood between Jū'dah and Ĭs'ra-el.

15 ¶And the LORD said unto me, Take [h]unto thee yet the instruments of a foolish shepherd.

1 Jerusalem a cup of trembling and a burdensome stone to the confusion of her adversaries. 6 Victorious restoring of Judah. 10 Repentance of Jerusalem.

THE burden of the word of the LORD for Iṣ'ra-el, saith the LORD, which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and [a]formeth the spirit of man within him.

2 Behold, I will make Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm a cup of [1]trembling unto all the people round about, [2]when they shall be in the siege both against Jū'dah and against Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm.

3 And in that day will I make Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm a [b]burdensome stone for all people: all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.

4 In that day, saith the LORD, [c]I will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness: and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Jū'dah, and will smite every horse of the people with blindness.

5 And the governors of Jū'dah shall say in their heart, [3]The inhabitants of Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm shall be my strength in the LORD of hosts their God.

6 In that day will I make the governors of Jū'dah like an hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf; and they shall devour all the people round about, on the right hand and on the left: and Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm shall be inhabited again in her own place, even in Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm.

CHAPTER 14.

1 Destruction of Jerusalem. 3 Coming of Christ, and graces of his kingdom. 12 Plague of Jerusalem's enemies. 16 The remnant shall turn to the Lord, 20 and their spoils shall be holy.

BEHOLD, the day of the LORD cometh, and thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee.

2 For [a]I will gather all nations against Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

3 ¶Then shall the LORD go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle.

4 And his feet shall stand in that day upon [b]the mount of ŏl'īveş, which is before Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm on the east, and the mount of ŏl'īveş shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, [c]and there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south.

5 And ye shall flee to the valley of [1]the mountains; [2]for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Ā'zăl: yea, ye shall flee, like as ye fled from before the [d]earthquake in the days of Ŭz-zī'ah king of Jū'dah: [e]and the LORD my God shall come, and [f]all the saints with thee.

6 And it shall come to pass in that day, [3]that the light shall not be [4]clear, nor [5]dark:

7 But [6]it shall be one day which shall be known to the LORD, not day, nor night: but it shall come to pass, that at [g]evening time it shall be light.

8 And it shall be in that day, that living waters [h]shall go out from Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm; half of them toward the [7]former sea, and half of them toward the hinder sea: in summer and in winter shall it be.

9 And the LORD shall be [i]king over all the earth: in that day shall there be [j]one LORD, and his name one.

10 All the land shall be [8]turned as a plain from Gĕ'bà to Rĭm'mon south of Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm: and it shall be lifted up, and [9]inhabited in her place, from Bĕn'ja-mĭn's gate unto the place of the first gate, unto the corner gate, [k]and from the tower of Hā-năn'e-el unto the king's winepresses.

11 And men shall dwell in it, and there shall be no [l]more utter destruction; but Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm [10]shall be safely inhabited.

12 ¶And this shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite all the people that have fought against Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm; Their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth.

13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that [m]a great tumult from the LORD shall be among them; and they shall lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbour, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbour.

14 And [11]Jū'dah also shall fight [12]at Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm; and the wealth of all the heathen round about shall be gathered together, gold, and silver, and apparel, in great abundance.

15 And so shall be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the ass, and of all the beasts that shall be in these tents, as this plague.

16 ¶And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm shall even [n]go up from year to year to worship [o]the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep [p]the feast of tabernacles.

1 The priests are sharply reproved for profaning the covenant given them: 11 and the people for strange marriages, 13 treachery, 17 and impiety.

AND now, O ye priests, this commandment is for you.

2 If [a]ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the LORD of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings: yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart. N. 3. 18.

3 Behold, I will [1]corrupt your seed, and [2]spread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your solemn feasts; and [3]one shall take you away with it.

4 And ye shall know that I have sent this commandment unto you, that my covenant might be with Lē'vī, saith the LORD of hosts.

5 My [b]covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him [c]for the fear wherewith he feared me, and was afraid before my name.

6 The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and equity, and did [d]turn many away from iniquity.

7 For [e]the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: [f]for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts.

8 But ye are departed out of the way; ye have [g]caused many to [4]stumble at the law; ye have corrupted the covenant of Lē'vī, saith the LORD of hosts.

9 Therefore have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but [5]have been partial in the law.

10 Have [h]we not all one father? hath [i]not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?

11 ¶ Jū'dah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Iś'ra-el and in Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm; for Jū'dah hath profaned the holiness of the LORD which he [6]loved, and [7]hath married the daughter of a strange god.

12 The LORD will cut off the man that doeth this, [8]the master and the scholar, out of the tabernacles of Jā'cob, and him that offereth an offering unto the LORD of hosts.

13 And this have ye done again, covering the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with crying out, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, or receiveth it with good will at your hand.

14 Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the LORD hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant.

15 And [k]did not he make one? Yet had he the [9]residue of the spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek [9]a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal [10]treacherously against the wife of his youth.

16 For [l]the LORD, the God of Iś'ra-el, saith [11]that he hateth [12]putting away: for one covereth violence with his garment, saith the LORD of hosts: therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously.

17 ¶ Ye have wearied the LORD with your words. Yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delighteth in them; or, Where is the God of judgment?

BEHOLD, [a]I will send my messenger, and he shall [b]prepare the way before me: and [c]the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, [d]even the messenger of the covenant, [e]whom ye delight in: behold, [f]he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts.

2 But who may abide the day of his coming? and [g]who shall stand when he appeareth? for [h]he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' sope:

3 And [i]he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and he shall purify the sons of Lē'vī, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer [j]unto the LORD an offering in righteousness.

4 Then shall the offering of Jū'dah and Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm be pleasant unto the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in [1]former years.

5 And I [k]will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and [l]against false swearers, and against those that [2]oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the LORD of hosts.

6 For I am the LORD, [m]I change not;

CHAPTER 1.

1 The genealogy of Jesus Christ: 18 Mary's miraculous conception; Jesus is born: 21, 23 his names.

THE book of the [a]generation of Jē'şus Chrīst, [b]the son of Dā'vid, the [c]son of Ā'brā-hăm.

2 Ā'brā-hăm begat Ī'şaac; and Ī'şaac begat Jā'cob; and Jā'cob begat Jū'das and his brethren;

3 And Jū'das begat Phā'rēş and Zā'rà of Thā'mar; and [d]Phā'rēş begat Ēs'rom; and Ēs'rom begat Ā'ram:

4 And Ā'ram begat Ā-mĭn'a-dăb; and Ā-mĭn'a-dăb begat [e]Nā-ăs'son; and Nā-ăs'son begat Săl'mŏn;

5 And Săl'mŏn begat Bō'ŏz [f]of Rā'chăb; and Bō'ŏz begat Ō'bed of Ruth; and Ō'bed begat Jĕs'se;

6 And [g]Jĕs'se begat Dā'vid the king; and Dā'vid [h]the king begat Sŏl'o-mon of her that had been the wife of Ū-rī'as;

7 And [i]Sŏl'o-mon begat Rŏ-bō'am; and Rō-bō'am begat Ā-bī'à; and Ā-bī'à begat Ā'sà;

8 And Ā'sà begat Jŏs'a-phăt; and Jŏs'a-phăt begat Jō'ram; and Jō'ram begat Ō-zī'as;

9 And Ō-zī'as begat Jō'a-thăm; and Jō'a-thăm begat Ā'chăz; and Ā'chăz begat Ēz-e-kī'as;

10 And [j]Ēz-e-kī'as begat Mā-năs'sēş; and Mā-năs'sēş begat Ā'mon; and Ā'mon begat Jō-sī'as;

11 And [k]Jō-sī'as begat Jĕch-o-nī'as and his brethren, about the time they were carried [l]away to Băb'ў-lon:

12 And after they were brought to Băb'ў-lon, Jĕch-o-nī'as begat Să-lā'thĭ-el; and Să-lā'thĭ-el begat [1]Zō-rŏb'a-bĕl;

13 And Zō-rŏb'a-bĕl begat Ā-bī'ud: and Ā-bī'ud begat Ē-lī'a-kĭm; and Ē-lī'a-kĭm begat Ā'zôr;

14 And Ā'zôr begat Sā'dŏc; and Sā'dŏc begat Ā'chim; and Ā'chim begat Ē-lī'ud;

15 And Ē-lī-ud begat Ē-le-ā'zar; and Ē-le-ā'zar begat Măt'than; and Măt'than begat Jā'cob;

16 And Jā'cob begat Jō'şeph the husband of Mā'rў, of whom was born Jē'sus, [m]who is called Chrīst.

17 So all the generations from Ā'brā-hăm to Dā'vid are fourteen generations; and from Dā'vid until the carrying away into Băb'ў-lon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Băb'ў-lon unto Chrīst are fourteen generations.

18 ¶Now the [n]birth of Jē'şus Chrīst was on this wise: When as his mother Mā'rў was espoused to Jō'şeph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Hō'lў Ghōst.

19 Then Jō'şeph her husband, being a just man, [o]and not willing to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away privily.

20 But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Jō'şeph, thou son of Dā'vid, fear not to take unto thee Mā'rў thy wife: for [p]that which is [2]conceived in her is of the Hō'lў Ghōst.

21 And she shall bring forth a son, K and thou shalt call his name L
[3]JĒ'ŞUS: for he [q]shall save his people from their sins. K. 4. 16; L. 4. 16.

22 Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

23 Behold, [r]a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and [4]they shall call his name Ĕm-măn'u-el, which being interpreted is, [s]God with us.

24 Then Jō'şeph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife:

25 And knew her not till she had brought forth her firstborn son: and he called his name JĒ'ŞUS.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Wise men enquire after Christ. 13 Joseph fleeth into Egypt. 16 Herod slayeth the children: 19 Christ brought out of Egypt.

NOW when [a]Jē'şus was born in Bĕth'lĕ-hĕm of Jū-dæ'à in the days of Hĕr'od the king, behold, there came wise men [b]from the east to Jē-rų'sā-lĕm,

2 Saying, [c]Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his [d]star in the east, and are come to worship him.

3 When Hĕr'od the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jē-rų'sā-lĕm with him.

4 And when he had gathered all the [c]chief priests and [d]scribes of the people together, [e]he demanded of them where Chrīst should be born.

5 And they said unto him, In Bĕth'lĕ-hĕm of Jū-dæ'à: for thus it is written by the prophet,

6 And [h]thou Bĕth'lĕ-hĕm, in the land of Jū'dà, art not the least among the princes of Jū'dà: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that [i]shall [1]rule my people Ĭs'ra-el.

7 Then Hĕr'od, when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bĕth'lĕ-hĕm, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

9 When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and [k]stood over where the young child was.

10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

11 ¶And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mā'rў his mother, and fell down, and [l]worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they [2]presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

12 And being warned of God [m]in a dream that they should not return to Hĕr'od, they departed into their own country another way.

13 ¶And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Jō'seph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Ē'gўpt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Hĕr'od will seek the young child to destroy him.

14 When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Ē'gўpt:

15 And was there until the death of Hĕr'od: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, [n]Out of Ē'gўpt have I called my son.

16 ¶Then Hĕr'od, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bĕth'lĕ-hĕm, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently enquired of the wise men.

17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by [o]Jĕr'e-mў the prophet, saying,

18 In Rā'mà was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rā'chel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

19 ¶But when Hĕr'od was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Jō'seph in Ē'gўpt, 20 Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Ĭs'ra-el: for they are dead which sought the young child's life.

21 And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Ĭs'ra-el.

22 But when he heard that Är-chĕ-lā'us did reign in Jū-dæ'à in the room of his father Hĕr'od, he was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding, being warned of God in a dream, he turned aside [p]into the parts of Găl'ĭ-lee:

23 And he came and dwelt in a city called [q]Năz'a-rĕth: that it might be fulfilled [r]which was spoken by the prophets, He shall be called a [3]Năz-a-rēne'.

2 And saying, Repent ye: [c]for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. R. 3. 8.

3 For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Ē-sā'ĭas, saying, The voice [d]of one crying in the wilderness, [e]Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 And [f]the same Jŏhn [g]had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his meat was [h]locusts and wild [i]honey.

5 ¶Then went out to him Jē-ru'sà-lĕm, and all Jū-dæ'à, and all the region round about Jôr'dan,

6 And [j]were baptized of him in Jôr'dan, confessing their sins.

7 But when he saw many of the Phăr'ĭ-sees and Săd'du-çees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from [k]the wrath to come? H *

10 And now also the ax is laid unto the root of the trees: [m]therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. H. 3. 12.

13 ¶Then cometh Jē'sus [r]from Găl'ĭ-lee to Jôr'dan unto Jŏhn, to be baptized of him.

14 But Jŏhn forbad him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me?

15 And Jē'sus answering said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to [s]fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffered him.

16 And [t]Jē'sus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw [u]the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him:

17 And [v]lo a voice from heaven, saying, [w]This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Christ fasteth, is tempted, and overcometh: 17 he beginneth to preach: 18 he calleth some disciples: 23 he teacheth in the synagogue.

THEN was [a]Jē'sus led up of [b]the spirit into the wilderness [c]to be tempted of the devil.

2 And when he had [d]fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an hungred.

3 And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread.

4 But he answered and said, [e]It is written, [f]Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

5 Then the devil taketh him up into the [g]holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple,

6 And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, [h]He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

7 Jē'sus said unto him, It is written again, [i]Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

8 Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them;

9 And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.

10 Then saith Jē'sus unto him, Get thee hence, Sā'tan: for it is written, Thou [j]shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

11 Then the devil [k]leaveth him, and, behold, [l]angels came and ministered unto him.

12 ¶Now [m]when Jē'sus had heard that Jŏhn was [1]cast into prison, he departed into Găl'ĭ-lee;

13 And leaving Năz'a-rĕth, he came and dwelt in Cā-pēr'na-ŭm, which is upon the sea coast, in the borders of Zăb'u-lŏn and Nĕph'tha-lĭm:

14 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Ē-sā'ias the prophet, saying,

15 The [n]land of Zăb'u-lŏn, and the land of Nĕph'tha-lĭm, by the way of the sea, beyond Jôr'dan, Găl'ĭ-lee of the Gĕn'tīles;

16 The [o]people which sat in darkness saw great light; and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death light is sprung up.* C K L

17 From [p]that time Jē'sus began to preach, and to say, [q]Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. R. 5. 4. R

18 ¶And [r]Jē'sus, walking by the sea of Găl'ĭ-lee, saw two brethren, [s]Sī'mon called Pē'tēr, and Ăn'drew his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

19 And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I [t]will make you fishers of men.

20 And [u]they straightway left their nets, and followed him.

21 And [v]going on from thence, he saw other two brethren, Jā'mes the son of Zĕb'e-dee, and Jŏhn his brother, in a ship with Zĕb'e-dee their father, mending their nets; and he called them.

22 And they immediately left the 23 ¶And Jĕ'sus went about all Găl'ĭ-lee, teaching [w]in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people.

24 And his [x]fame went throughout all Sўr'ĭ-à: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatick, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them.

25 And there followed him great multitudes of people from Găl'ĭ-lee, and from Dĕ-căp'o-lĭs, and from Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm, and from Jū-dæ'à, and from beyond Jôr'dan.

CHAPTER 5.

3 Who are blessed. 13 The disciples called the salt of the earth, and light of the world: Christ urgeth on them a good example, etc.

AND seeing the multitudes, [a]he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him:

2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

3 Blessed [b]are the poor in spirit: for their's is the kingdom of heaven.

R 4 Blessed [c]are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted. R. 6. 15.

5 Blessed [d]are the meek: for [e]they shall inherit the earth.

L 6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: [f]for they shall be filled. L. 6. 14.

7 Blessed are the merciful: [g]for they shall obtain mercy.

G 8 Blessed [h]are the pure in heart: [i]for they shall see God. G. 5. 20.

9 Blessed are [j]the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

10 Blessed [k]are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for their's is the kingdom of heaven.

11 Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you [1]falsely, for my sake.

12 Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

13 ¶Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

14 Ye [2]are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

15 Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a [2]bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

16 Let your light so shine before men, that [m]they may see your good works, and glorify [n]your Father which is in heaven.

B 17 ¶Think [o]not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

18 For verily I say unto you, [p]Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled. B. 28. 20.

19 Whosoever [q]therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

G 20 For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed [r]the righteousness of the scribes and Phăr'ĭ-sees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.*

21 ¶Ye have heard that it was said [3]by them of old time, [s]Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment:

22 But I say unto you, That whosoever [t]is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, [4]Rā'cà, shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, [5]Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire. H 5. 29, 30.

23 Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee;

24 Leave [u]there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.

25 Agree [v]with thine adversary quickly, whiles [w]thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison.

26 Verily I say unto thee, [x]Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing.

27 ¶Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not commit adultery:

28 But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh [g]on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

29 And [z]if thy right eye [6]offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

30 And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell. H. 7. 13,14.

31 ¶It hath been said, [a]Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement:

32 But I say unto you, That [b]whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced committeth adultery.

33 ¶Again, ye have heard that it hath been said [7]by them of old time, [c]Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but [d]shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths:

34 But I say unto you, [e]Swear not at all; neither by heaven; for it is [f]God's throne:

35 Nor by the earth; for it is his footstool: neither by Jĕ-ru'sâ-lĕm; for it is the city of the great King.

36 Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, because thou canst not make one hair white or black.

37 But [g]let your communication be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil.

38 ¶Ye have heard that it hath been said, [h]An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth:

39 But I say unto you, [i]That ye resist not evil: [j]but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also.

40 And if any man will sue thee at the law, and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloke also.

41 And whosoever [k]shall compel thee to go a mile, go with him twain.

42 Give to him that asketh thee, and from [l]him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away.

43 ¶Ye have heard that it hath been said, [m]Thou shalt love thy neighbour, [r]and hate thine enemy.

44 But I say unto you, [o]Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray [p]for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you;

45 That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.

46 For [q]if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same?

47 And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the publicans so?

48 Be [r]ye therefore perfect, even as [s]your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Of alms, 5 prayer, 11 forgiveness. 19 Our treasure. 24 God and mammon.

TAKE heed that ye do not your [1]alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward [2]of your Father which is in heaven.

2 Therefore [a]when thou doest thine alms, [3]do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

3 But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth:

4 That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly.

5 ¶And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

6 But thou, when thou prayest, enter [b]into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy [c]Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.

7 But when ye pray, [d]use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: [e]for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

8 Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your [f]Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

9 After this manner therefore pray ye: [g]Our Father which art in heaven, [h]Hallowed be thy name.

10 Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, [i]as it is in heaven.

11 Give us this day our [j]daily bread.

K 12 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

13 And [k]lead us not into temptation, but deliver [l]us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. A-mĕn'. K. 6. 33.

L 14 For [m]if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you: L. 7. 7, 8.

R 15 But [n]if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses. R. 9. 13.

16 ¶ Moreover [o]wher ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

17 But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face;

18 That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

19 ¶ Lay [p]not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal:

20 But [q]lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:

21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

22 The [r]light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

C 23 But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, [s]how great is that darkness! C. 7. 13.

24 No [t]man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. [u]Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

25 Therefore I say unto you, [4]Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?

26 Behold [v]the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

27 Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature?

28 And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

29 And yet I say unto you, That even Sŏl'o-mon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

30 Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?

31 Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?

32 (For after all these things do the Gĕn'tīles seek:) for [w]your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

33 But [x]seek ye first the kingdom of K God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. K. 7. 24, 25.

34 Take therefore no [5]thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

CHAPTER 7.

Christ endeth his sermon on the mount.

J UDGE [a]not, that ye be not judged. J
2 For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: [b]and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again. J. 10. 15.

3 And [c]why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

4 Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye?

5 Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

9 Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone?

10 Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?

11 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much [g]more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?

15 ¶Beware [l]of false prophets, which [m]come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they [n]are ravening wolves.

16 Ye shall know them by their fruits. [o]Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?

17 Even so [p]every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.

18 A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

19 Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. H. 7. 21–23.

20 Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

21 ¶Not every one that saith unto me, [q]Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we [r]not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

23 And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: [s]depart from me, ye that work iniquity. * H K

24 ¶Therefore [t]whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock:

25 And [u]the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and [v]it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock. †

26 And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand: H

27 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: [w]and great was the fall of it. ‡

28 ¶And it came to pass, when Jē'sus had ended these sayings, [x]the people were astonished at his doctrine:

29 For [y]he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

CHAPTER 8.

Christ cleanseth the leper, 5 healeth the centurion's servant, 14 Peter's mother in law, 16 and many other diseased: 23 stilleth the tempest.

WHEN he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.

2 And, [a]behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

3 And Jē'sus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

4 And Jē'sus saith unto him, [b]See thou tell no man; but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that [c]Mō'sēs commanded, for a testimony unto them.

5 ¶And [d]when Jē'sus was entered into Cā-pēr'na-ŭm, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him,

6 And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented.

7 And Jē'sus saith unto him, I will come and heal him.

8 The centurion answered and said, Lord, I [e]am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but speak [f]the word only, and my servant shall be healed.

9 For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

10 When Jē'sus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Is'ra-el.

11 And I say unto you, [g]That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Ā'brā-hăm, and Ī'saac, and Jā'cob, in the kingdom of heaven.

H 12 But [h]the children of the kingdom shall [i]be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. H. 10. 14, 15.

13 And Jē'sus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour.

14 ¶ And [j]when Jē'sus was come into Pē'tēr's house, he saw [k]his wife's mother laid, and sick of a fever.

15 And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose, and ministered unto them.

16 ¶ When [l]the even was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Ē-sā'ias the prophet, saying, Himself [m]took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.

18 ¶ Now when Jē'sus saw great multitudes about him, he gave commandment to depart unto the other side.

19 And [n]a certain scribe came, and said unto him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

20 And Jē'sus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but [o]the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

21 And [p]another of his disciples said unto him, Lord, [q]suffer me first to go and bury my father.

22 But Jē'sus said unto him, Follow me; and let [r]the dead bury their dead.

23 ¶ And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him.

24 And, [s]behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was asleep.

25 And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish.

26 And he saith unto them, Why [t]are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he [u]arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.

27 But the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him!

28 ¶ And [v]when he was come to the other side into the country of the Gĕr-gē-sēnes', there met him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way.

29 And, behold, they cried out, saying, What [w]have we to do with thee, Jē'sus, thou Son of God? art thou come hither to torment us before the time?

30 And there was a good way off from them an herd of many [x]swine feeding.

31 So the devils [y]besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine.

32 And he said unto them, Go. And when they were come out, they went into the herd of swine: and, behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea, and perished in the waters.

33 And they that kept them fled, and went their ways into the city, and told every thing, and what was befallen to the possessed of the devils.

34 And, behold, the whole city came out to meet Jē'sus: and when they saw him, they [z]besought him that he would depart out of their coasts.

CHAPTER 9.

1 Christ cureth the palsy, 9 calleth Matthew, eateth with publicans and sinners, etc.

AND he entered into a ship, and passed over, [a]and came into his own city.

2 And, [b]behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed: and [c]Jē'sus seeing their faith L said unto the sick of the palsy; Son, be of good cheer; [d]thy sins be forgiven thee. L. 9. 10–13.

3 And, behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth.

4 And, Jē'sus [e]knowing their thoughts E said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts? E. 10. 26.

5 For whether is easier, to say, Thy K sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and walk?

K 6 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (then saith he to the sick of the palsy,) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house. K.10.29–31.

7 And he arose, and departed to his house.

8 But when the multitudes saw it, they marvelled, and glorified God, which had given such power unto men.

9 ¶And e as Jē'sus passed forth from thence, he saw a man, named Măt'thew, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

L 10 ¶And h it came to pass, as Jē'sus sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples.

C 11 And when the Phăr'ĭ-sees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master i with publicans and j sinners?

12 But when Jē'sus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick. C. 12. 34, 35.

13 But go ye and learn what that R meaneth, I k will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, l but sinners to repentance. L. 10. 6; R. 11. 20–22.

14 ¶Then came to him the disciples of Jŏhn, saying, m Why do we and the Phăr'ĭ-sees fast oft, but thy disciples fast not?

15 And Jē'sus said unto them, Can the n children of the bridechamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and o then shall they fast.

16 No man putteth a piece of p new cloth unto an old garment, for that which is put in to fill it up taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse.

17 Neither do men put new wine into old bottles: else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish: but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved.

18 ¶While q he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a certain ruler, and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live.

19 And Jē'sus arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples.

20 ¶And, r behold, a woman, which was diseased with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the hem of his garment:

21 For she said within herself, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole.

22 But Jē'sus turned him about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort; s thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour.

25 But when the people were put forth, he went in, and took her by the hand, and the maid arose.

26 And 2 the fame hereof went abroad into all that land.

27 ¶And when Jē'sus departed thence, two blind men followed him, crying, and saying, w Thou son of Dā'vid, have mercy on us.

28 And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him: and Jē'sus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said unto him, Yea, Lord.

29 Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it unto you.

30 And x their eyes were opened; and Jē'sus straitly charged them, saying, See y that no man know it.

31 But z they, when they were departed, spread abroad his fame in all that country.

32 ¶As z they went out, behold, they brought to him a dumb man possessed with a devil.

33 And when the devil was cast out, the dumb spake: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Ĭs'ra-el.

34 But the Phăr'ĭ-sees said, He casteth out devils through the prince of the devils.

35 ¶And a Jē'sus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people.

36 But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they [3]fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd.

37 Then saith he unto his disciples, The [b]harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few;

38 Pray [c]ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest.

CHAPTER 10.

1 Christ sendeth his apostles to do miracles, 5 to preach: 16 he telleth them of persecutions. 40 Blessings to those who receive them.

AND [a]when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them power [1]against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease.

2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these; The first, Sī'mon, who [b]is called Pē'tĕr, and Ăn'drew his brother; Jāmes the son of Zĕb'e-dee, and Jŏhn his brother;

3 Phĭl'ĭp, and Bär-thŏl'o-mew; Thŏm'as, and Măt'thew the publican; Jāmes the son of Ăl-phæ'us, and Lĕb-bæ'us, whose surname was [2]Thăd-dæ'us;

4 Sī'mon [c]the Cā'năan-īte, and [d]Jū'das Ĭs-kăr'ĭ-ot, who also betrayed him.

5 These twelve Jē'sus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not into the way of the Gĕn'tīles, and into any city of [e]the Să-măr'ĭ-tans enter ye not:

L P 6 But [f]go rather to the [g]lost sheep of the house of Ĭs'ra-el. L. 11. 28, 29;*

CHAPTER 11.

2 John sendeth his disciples to Christ. 7 The testimony of Christ concerning John.

AND it came to pass, when Jē'sus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and to preach in their cities.
2 ¶Now [c]when Jŏhn had heard in [b]the prison the works of Chrīst, he sent two of his disciples,
3 And said unto him, Art thou he [c]that should come, or do we look for another?
4 Jē'sus answered and said unto them, Go and shew Jŏhn again those things which ye do hear and see:
5 The [d]blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the [e]poor have the gospel preached to them.
6 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be [f]offended in me.
7 ¶And [g]as they departed, Jē'sus began to say unto the multitudes concerning Jŏhn, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind?
8 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? behold, they that wear soft clothing are in kings' houses.
9 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? yea, I say unto you, [h]and more than a prophet.
10 For this is he, of whom it is written, [i]Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.
11 Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than Jŏhn the Băp'tĭst: notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.
12 And [j]from the days of Jŏhn the Băp'tĭst until now the kingdom of heaven [1]suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.
13 For [k]all the prophets and the law prophesied until Jŏhn.
14 And if ye will receive it, this is [l]Ē-lī'as, which was for to come.
15 He [m]that hath ears to hear, let him hear.
16 But [n]whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows,
17 And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented.
18 For Jŏhn came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a devil.
19 The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a winebibber, [o]a friend of publicans and sinners. [p]But wisdom is justified of her children.
20 ¶Then [q]began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not:

CHAPTER 12.

Christ reproveth the blindness of the Pharisees concerning the sabbath.

AT that time [a]Jē'sus went on the sabbath day through the corn; and his disciples were an hungred, and began to pluck the ears of corn, and to eat.

2 But when the Phăr'ī-sees saw it, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which is not lawful to do upon the sabbath day.

3 But he said unto them, Have ye not read [b]what Dā'vid did, when he was an hungred, and they that were with him;

4 How he entered into the house of God, and did eat [c]the shewbread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, [d]but only for the priests?

5 Or have ye not read in the [e]law, how that on the sabbath days the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless?

6 But I say unto you, That in this place is one [f]greater than the temple.

7 But if ye had known what this meaneth, I [g]will have mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless.

8 For the [h]Son of man is Lord even of the sabbath day.

9 ¶And [i]when he was departed thence, he went into their synagogue:

10 And, behold, there was a man which had his hand withered. And they asked him, saying, [j]Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath days? that they might accuse him.

11 And he said unto them, What man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, and [k]if it fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out?

12 How much then is a man better than a sheep? Wherefore it is lawful to do well on the sabbath days.

13 Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, like as the other.

14 ¶Then [l]the Phăr'ī-sees went out, and [l]held a council against him, how they might destroy him.

15 But when Jē'sus [m]knew it, [n]he withdrew himself from thence: and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all;

16 And charged them that they should not make him known:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Ē-sā'ias the prophet, saying,

18 Behold [o]my servant, whom I have chosen; my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my [p]spirit upon him, and he shall shew judgment to the Gĕn'tīles.

19 He shall not strive, nor cry; neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets.

L 20 A [q]bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory. L. 12. 31.

21 And in his name shall the Gĕn'tīles trust.

22 ¶Then [r]was brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blind,

CHAPTER 13.

3 Of the sower and the seed. 10 Why Christ spake in parables. 18 The exposition of the parable of the sower. 24 Divers other parables, etc.

THE same day went Jē'sus out of the house, [a]and sat by the sea side.

2 And [b]great multitudes were gathered together unto him, so that [c]he went into a ship, and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

3 And he spake many things unto them in parables, saying, Behold, a sower went forth to sow;

4 And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the fowls came and devoured them up:

5 Some fell upon [d]stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth:

6 And when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no [e]root, they withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them:

8 But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some [f]an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold.

9 Who [g]hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 ¶And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables?

11 He answered and said unto them, Because [h]it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

12 For [i]whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath.

13 Therefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing see not; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand.

14 And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Ē-sā'ias, which saith, By [j]hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive:

15 For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears [k]are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them. *

16 But [l]blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear.

17 For verily I say unto you, That many [m]prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

18 ¶Hear [n]ye therefore the parable of the sower.

19 When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh [o]the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side.

20 But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon with [p]joy receiveth it;

21 Yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by [q]he is offended.

22 He [r]also that received seed among the [s]thorns is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful.

23 But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

24 ¶Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field:

25 But while men slept, [t]his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.

26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

27 So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?

28 He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?

29 But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.

30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather [m]the wheat into my barn. *

31 ¶Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, [v]The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field:

32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof.

33 ¶Another [w]parable spake he unto them; The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three [1]measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

34 All these things spake Jē'sus unto the multitude in parables; and without a parable spake he not unto them:

35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, [x]I will open my mouth in parables; [y]I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

36 ¶Then Jē'sus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

37 He answered and said unto them, He that [z]soweth the good seed is the Son of man;

38 The [a]field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are [b]the children of the wicked one;

39 The enemy that sowed them is the devil; [c]the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.

40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world.

41 The Son of man shall send forth his angels, [d]and they shall gather out of his kingdom all [2]things that offend, and them which do iniquity;

42 And [e]shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

43 Then [f]shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

44 ¶Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and [g]selleth all that he hath, and [h]buyeth that field.

45 ¶Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls:

46 Who, when he had found [i]one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

47 ¶Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered [j]of every kind:

48 Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away.

49 So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just,

50 And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

51 Jē'sus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord.

52 Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure [k]things new and old.

53 ¶And it came to pass, that when Jē'sus had finished these parables, he departed thence.

54 And [l]when he was come into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these mighty works?

55 Is [m]not this the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mā'rў? and his [n]brethren, [o]Jāmes, and Jō'sēs, and Sī'mon, and Jū'das?

56 And his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things?

57 And they [p]were offended in him. But Jē'sus said unto them, A [q]prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house.

58 And [r]he did not many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

CHAPTER 14.

2 John the Baptist beheaded. 15 Five thousand fed, etc.

AT that time [a]Hĕr'od the tetrarch heard of the fame of Jē'sus,
2 And said unto his servants, This is Jŏhn the Băp'tĭst; he is risen from the dead; and therefore mighty works [1]do shew forth themselves in him.
3 ¶For [b]Hĕr'od had laid hold on Jŏhn, and bound him, and put him in prison for Hē-rō'dĭ-as' sake, his brother Phĭl'ĭp's wife.
4 For Jŏhn said unto him, [c]It is not lawful for thee to have her.
5 And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, [d]because they counted him as a prophet.
6 But when Hĕr'od's [e]birthday was kept, the daughter of Hē-rō'dĭ-as danced [2]before them, and pleased Hĕr'od.
7 Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatsoever she would ask.
8 And she, being before instructed of her mother, said, Give me here Jŏhn Băp'tĭst's head in a charger.
9 And the king was sorry: [f]nevertheless for the oath's sake, and them which sat with him at meat, he commanded it to be given her.
10 And he sent, and beheaded Jŏhn in the prison.
11 And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel: and she brought it to her mother.
12 And his disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it, and went and told Jē'sus.
13 ¶When [g]Jē'sus heard of it, he departed thence by ship into a desert place apart: and when the people had heard thereof, they followed him on foot out of the cities.
14 And Jē'sus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and [h]was moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick.
15 ¶And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time is now past; send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves victuals.
16 But Jē'sus said unto them, They need not depart; [i]give ye them to eat.
17 And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes.
18 He said, Bring them hither to me.
19 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he [j]blessed, and brake, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.
20 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that remained twelve baskets full.
21 And they that had eaten were about five thousand men, beside women and children.
22 ¶And straightway Jē'sus constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away.
23 And [k]when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: [l]and when the evening was come, he was there alone.
24 But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary.
25 And in the fourth watch of the night Jē'sus went unto them, walking on the sea.
26 And when the disciples [m]saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit; and they cried out for fear.
27 But straightway Jē'sus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid.
28 And Pē'tĕr answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water.
29 And he said, Come. And when Pē'tĕr was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jē'sus.
30 But when he saw the wind [3]boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me.
31 And immediately Jē'sus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore [n]didst thou doubt?
32 And when they were come into the ship, the [o]wind ceased.
33 Then they that were in the ship came and worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou [p]art the Son of God.

34 ¶And [q]when they were gone over, they came into the land of Gĕn-nĕs'a-rĕt.

35 And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that country round about, and brought unto him all that were diseased;

36 And besought him that they [r]might only touch the hem of his garment: and as many as touched were made perfectly whole.

CHAPTER 15.

1 God's commandments, and men's traditions. 10 What defileth a man, etc.

THEN [a]came to Jē'sus scribes and Phăr'ĭ-sees, which were of Jē-ru'sā-lĕm, saying,

2 Why [b]do thy disciples transgress [c]the tradition of the elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread.

3 But he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition?

4 For God commanded, saying, Honour [d]thy father and mother: and, [e]He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

5 But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, [f]It is a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me;

6 And honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition.

7 Ye [g]hypocrites, well did Ē-sā'ĭas prophesy of you, saying,

8 This [h]people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.

9 But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. G. 19, 16–22.

10 ¶And [i]he called the multitude, and said unto them, Hear, and understand:

11 Not [k]that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man; but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man.

12 Then came his disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Phăr'ĭ-sees were offended, after they heard this saying?

13 But he answered and said, Every plant, [l]which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up.

14 Let [m]them alone: [n]they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

15 Then [o]answered Pē'tĕr and said unto him, Declare unto us this parable.

16 And Jē'sus said, [p]Are ye also yet without understanding?

17 Do not ye yet understand, that whatsoever [q]entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?

18 But [r]those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man. C

19 For [s]out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies:

20 These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man. C. 16. 26.

21 ¶Then Jē'sus went thence, and departed into the coasts of Tȳre and Sī'dŏn.

22 And, behold, a woman of Cā'năan came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of Dā'vid; my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil.

23 But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us.

24 But he answered and said, [t]I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Ĭs'ra-el.

25 Then came she and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me.

26 But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to [u]dogs.

27 And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table.

28 Then Jē'sus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.

29 ¶And [v]Jē'sus departed from thence, and came nigh [w]unto the sea of Găl'ĭ-lee; and went up into a mountain, and sat down there.

30 And [x]great multitudes came unto him, having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jē'sus' feet; and he healed them:

31 Insomuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see: and they glorified the God of Ĭs'ra-el.

32 ¶Then [y]Jē'sus called his disciples unto him, and said, I [z]have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint in the way.

33 And [a]his disciples say unto him, Whence should we have so much bread in the wilderness, as to fill so great a multitude?

34 And Jē'sus saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few little fishes.

35 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground.

36 And [b]he took the seven loaves and the fishes, and [c]gave thanks, and brake them, and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

37 And they did all eat, [d]and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets full.

38 And they that did eat were four thousand men, beside women and children.

39 And [e]he sent away the multitude, and took ship, and came into the coasts of Măg'da-là.

1 The Pharisees require a sign. 5 Leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees, etc.

THE [a]Phăr'ĭ-sees also with the Săd'du-çees came, and tempting desired him that he would shew them a sign from heaven.

2 He answered and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather: for the sky is red.

3 And in the morning, It will be foul weather to day: for the sky is red and lowring. O ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky; but can ye not discern the [b]signs of the times?

4 A [c]wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jō'nas. And he left them, and departed.

5 ¶And [d]when his disciples were come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread.

6 Then Jē'sus said unto them, Take [e]heed and beware of the leaven of the Phăr'ĭ-sees and of the Săd'du-çees.

7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken no bread.

8 Which when Jē'sus perceived, he said unto them, O ye of little faith, why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have brought no bread?

9 Do [f]ye not yet understand, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

10 Neither [g]the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

11 How is it that ye do not understand that I spake it not to you concerning bread, that ye should beware of the leaven of the Phăr'ĭ-sees and of the Săd'du-çees?

12 Then understood they how that he bade them not beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Phăr'ĭ-sees and of the Săd'du-çees.

13 ¶When Jē'sus came into the coasts of Çæs-a-rē'à Phĭ-lĭp'pī, he asked his disciples, saying, [h]Whom do men say that I the Son of man am?

14 And they said, [i]Some say that thou art John the Băp'tĭst: [j]some, Ē-lī'as; and others, Jĕr-e-mī'as, or one of the prophets.

15 He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am?

16 And Sī'mon Pē'tĕr answered and said, [k]Thou art the Chrīst, the Son of the living God.

17 And Jē'sus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Sī'mon Bär-jō'nà: [l]for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but [m]my Father which is in heaven.

18 And I say also unto thee, That thou [n]art Pē'tĕr, and [o]upon this rock I will build my church; and [p]the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

19 And [q]I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

20 Then charged he his disciples that they should tell no man that he was Jē'sus the Chrīst.

21 ¶From that time forth began Jē'sus to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jē-ru'sā-lĕm, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day.

22 Then Pē'tĕr took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, [1]Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee.

23 But he turned, and said unto Pē'tĕr, Get thee behind me, Sā'tan: thou [r]art an offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men.

24 Then [s]said Jē'sus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

25 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it.

C 26 For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or [t]what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?*

27 For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father [u]with his angels; [v]and then he shall reward every man according to his works.

28 Verily I say unto you, There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his [w]kingdom.

CHAPTER 17.

1 Transfiguration of Christ: 14 he healeth the lunatick: 24 he payeth tribute.

AND [a]after six days Jē'sus taketh Pē'tĕr, Jāmes, and Jŏhn his brother, and bringeth them up into an high mountain apart,

2 And was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light.

3 And, behold, there appeared unto them [b]Mō'sĕs and Ē-lī'as talking with him.

4 Then answered Pē'tĕr, and said unto Jē'sus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Mō'sĕs, and one for Ē-lī'as.

5 While [c]he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, [d]This is my beloved Son, [e]in whom I am well pleased; [f]hear ye him.

6 And [g]when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid.

7 And Jē'sus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid.

8 And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jē'sus only.

9 ¶And as they came down from the mountain, Jē'sus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead.

10 And his disciples asked him, saying, [h]Why then say the scribes that Ē-lī'as must first come?

11 And Jē'sus answered and said unto them, Ē-lī'as truly shall first come, and restore [i]all things.

12 But [j]I say unto you, That Ē-lī'as is come already, and they knew him not, but have [k]done unto him whatsoever they listed. Likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them.

13 Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of Jŏhn the Băp'tist.

14 ¶And [l]when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him, and saying,

15 Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is lunatick, and sore vexed: for ofttimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water.

16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him.

17 Then Jē'sus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me.

18 And Jē'sus rebuked the devil; and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour.

19 Then came the disciples to Jē'sus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out?

20 And Jē'sus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, [m]If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.

21 Howbeit this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting.

22 ¶And [n]while they abode in Găl'ĭ-lee, Jē'sus said unto them, The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men:

23 And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again. And they were exceeding sorry.

27 Notwithstanding, lest we should [p]offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find [2]a piece of money: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

CHAPTER 18.

1 Christ teacheth to be humble. 7 Touching offences, 21 and forgiving one another.

AT [a]the same time came the disciples unto Jē'sus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?

O 2 And Jē'sus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them,

3 And said, Verily I say unto you, Except [b]ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.*

4 Whosoever [c]therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

5 And [d]whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me.

6 But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

7 ¶Woe unto the world because of offences! for [e]it must needs be that offences come; but [f]woe to that man by whom the offence cometh!

H 8 Wherefore [g]if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire.

9 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire.† H

10 ¶Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their [h]angels do always [i]behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

11 For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost. C

12 How [j]think ye? if a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray? C. 18, 23–25. L P

13 And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray.‡

14 Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

15 ¶Moreover [k]if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou [l]hast gained thy brother.

16 But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in [m]the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.

17 And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto [n]the church: but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as an [o]heathen man and a publican.

18 Verily I say unto you, [p]Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

19 Again [q]I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, [r]it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.

20 For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am [s]I in the midst of them.

21 ¶Then came Pē'tĕr to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till [t]seven times?

22 Jē'sus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: but, Until [u]seventy times seven.

23 ¶Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants. C L P

26 The servant therefore fell down, and [2]worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

27 Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

28 But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellowservants, which owed him an hundred [3]pence: and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest.

29 And his fellowservant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

30 And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt.

31 So when his fellowservants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done.

34 And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him.

1 Christ healeth the sick; 3 answereth the Pharisees touching divorcement; 16 instructeth how to attain eternal life, etc.

AND it came to pass, [a]that when Jē'sus had finished these sayings, he departed from Găl'ĭ-lee, and came into the coasts of Jū-dæ'à beyond Jôr'dan;

2 And [b]great multitudes followed him; and he healed them there.

3 ¶The Phăr'ĭ-sees also came unto him, tempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause?

4 And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, [c]that he which made them at the beginning made them male and female,

5 And said, [d]For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: [e]and they twain shall be one flesh?

6 Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

7 They say unto him, [f]Why did Mō'sēs then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away?

8 He saith unto them, Mō'sēs because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from [g]the beginning it was not so.

9 And [h]I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery.

10 ¶His disciples say unto him, If [i]the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry.

11 But he said unto them, [j]All men cannot receive this saying, save they to whom it is given.

12 For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb: and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men: and [k]there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

13 ¶Then [l]were there brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them.

14 But Jē'sus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of [m]such is the kingdom of heaven.

15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.

16 ¶And, behold, one came and said unto him, [n]Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life?

17 And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good? [o]there is none good but one, that is, God: but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments.

18 He saith unto him, Which? Jē'sus said, Thou [f]shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, 20 The young man saith unto him, All these things have I kept from my youth up: what lack I yet?

21 Jē'sus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, [s]go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me.

22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.*

23 ¶Then said Jē'sus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That a [t]rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven.

24 And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

25 When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved?

26 But Jē'sus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but with [u]God all things are possible. K. 28. 18.

27 ¶Then [v]answered Pē'tĕr and said unto him, Behold, [w]we have forsaken all, and followed thee; what shall we have therefore?

28 And Jē'sus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in [x]the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye [y]also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Ĭs'ra-el.

29 And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

30 But [z]many that are first shall be last; and the last shall be first.

CHAPTER 20.

1 Of the labourers in the vineyard. 17 Christ foretelleth his passion; 29 and giveth sight to two blind men.

FOR the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard.

2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for a [1]penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard.

3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the marketplace,

4 And said unto them; Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way.

5 Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise.

6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?

7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.

8 So when [a]even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first.

9 And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny.

10 But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received every man a penny.

11 And when they had received it, they murmured against the goodman of the house,

12 Saying, These last [2]have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day.

13 But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a penny?

14 Take that thine is, and go thy way: I will give unto this last, even as unto thee. L. 21. 28–31.

15 Is [b]it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? [c]Is thine eye evil, because I am good?

16 So [d]the last shall be first, and the first last: [e]for many be called, but few chosen.

17 ¶And [f]Jē'sus going up to Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm took the twelve disciples apart in the way, and said unto them,

18 Behold, [g]we go up to Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm; and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death,

21 And he said unto her, What wilt thou? She saith unto him, Grant that these my two sons [l]may sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left, in thy kingdom.

CHAPTER 21.

1 Christ rideth into Jerusalem upon an ass; 12 Driveth the buyers and sellers out of the temple.

AND [a]when they drew nigh unto Jē-ru'sā-lĕm, and were come to Bĕth'pha-gē, unto [b]the mount of Ŏl'īves, then sent Jē'sus two disciples,

2 Saying unto them, Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto me.

3 And if any man say ought unto you, ye shall say, The [c]Lord hath need [d]of them; and straightway he will send them.

4 All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, [e]saying,

5 Tell ye the daughter of Sī'ŏn, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass.

6 And [f]the disciples went, and did as Jē'sus commanded them,

7 And brought the ass, and the colt, and put [g]on them their clothes, and they set him thereon.

8 And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way; others [h]cut down branches from the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, [i]Hō-săn'nā to the son of Dā'vid: [j]Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hō-săn'nā in the highest.

10 ¶ And [k]when he was come into Jē-ru'sā-lĕm, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this?

11 And the multitude said, This is Jē'sus the [l]prophet of Năz'a-rĕth of Găl'ī-lee.

12 ¶ And [m]Jē'sus went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the [n]moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves, 13 And said unto them, It is written, [o]My house shall be called the house of prayer; but [p]ye have made it a den of thieves.

14 And [p]the blind and the lame came to him in the temple; and he healed them.

15 And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hō-şăn'nà to [q]the son of Dā'vid; they were sore displeased,

16 And said unto him, Hearest thou what these say? And Jē'şus saith unto them, Yea; have ye never read, [s]Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?

17 And he left them, and went out of the city into [t]Bĕth'a-nў; and he lodged there.

18 ¶Now in the morning as he returned into the city, he hungered.

19 And when he saw [1]a fig tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently the fig tree withered away.

20 And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig tree withered away!

21 Jē'şus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, [u]If ye have faith, and [v]doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig tree, [w]but also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done.

22 And [x]all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.

23 ¶And [y]when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, [z]By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority?

24 And [a]Jē'şus answered and said unto them, I also will ask you one thing, which if ye tell me, I in like wise will tell you by what authority I do these things.

25 The baptism of Jŏhn, whence was it? from heaven, or of men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say unto us, Why did ye not then believe him?

26 But if we shall say, Of men; we fear the people; [b]for all hold Jŏhn as a prophet.

28 ¶But what think ye? A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to day in my vineyard. L R

29 He answered and said, I will not: but afterward he repented, and went.

30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and went not.

31 Whether of them twain did the will of his father? They say unto him, The first. Jē'şus saith unto them, [c]Verily I say unto you, That the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you. *

32 For [d]Jŏhn came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but [e]the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him.

33 ¶Hear another parable: [f]There was a certain householder, which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a winepress in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, [g]and went into a far country:

34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, [h]that they might receive the fruits of it.

35 And [i]the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.

36 Again, he sent other servants more than the first: and they did unto them likewise.

37 But last of all [j]he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son.

38 But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, [k]This is the heir; [l]come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance.

39 And [m]they caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him.

40 When the lord therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen?

41 They [n]say unto him, [o]He will miserably destroy those wicked men, [p]and will let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons.

* L. 22. 1–10; R. 23. 12.

42 Jē'sus saith unto them, [q]Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

43 Therefore say I unto you, [s]The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

44 And whosoever [t]shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, [u]it will grind him to powder. H. 22. 11–13.

45 And when the chief priests and Phăr'ĭ-sees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them.

46 But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, because they [v]took him for a prophet.

CHAPTER 22.

1 The marriage of the king's son. 21 Tribute to be paid to Cæsar.

AND Jē'sus answered [a]and spake unto them again by parables, and said,

2 The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage for his son,

3 And sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come.

4 Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner: [b]my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage.

5 But they [c]made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise:

6 And [d]the remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and slew them.

7 But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth [1]his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city.

8 Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were [2]not worthy.*

9 Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage.

10 So those servants went out into the highways, and [g]gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests. L. 23. 37;†

11 And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man [h]which had not on a wedding garment:

12 And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment? And he [i]was speechless.

13 Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.‡

14 For [j]many are called, but few are chosen.

15 ¶ Then [k]went the Phăr'ĭ-sees, and took counsel how they might entangle him in his talk.

16 And they sent out [l]unto him their disciples with the Hē-rō'dĭ-ans, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man: for thou regardest not the person of men.

17 Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Cæ'sar, or not?

18 But Jē'sus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites?

19 Shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a [1]penny.

20 And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and [2]superscription?

21 They say unto him, Cæ'sar's. Then saith he unto them, [m]Render therefore unto Cæ'sar the things which are Cæ'sar's; and unto God the things that are God's.

22 When they had heard these words, they [n]marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

23 ¶ The same day came to him the Săd'du-çees, [o]which say that there is no resurrection, and asked him,

24 Saying, Master, [p]Mō'ses said, If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

25 Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first, when he had married a wife, deceased, and, having no issue, left his wife unto his brother:

26 Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the [3]seventh.

27 And last of all the woman died also.

28 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her.

29 Jē'sus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, [r]not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God.

30 For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but [s]are as the angels of God in heaven.

31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying,

32 I [t]am the God of Ā'brā-hăm, and the God of Ī'sāac, and the God of Jā'cob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

33 And when the multitude heard this, they [u]were astonished at his doctrine.

34 ¶ But when the Phăr'ī-sees had heard that he had put the Săd'du-çees to silence, they were gathered together.

G O 35 Then one of them, which was [v]a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying, 36 Master, which is the great commandment in the law?

37 Jē'sus said unto him, [w]Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

38 This is the first and great commandment. G. Mark 7. 6, 7; O. 25. 1–12.

39 And the second is like unto it, [x]Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

40 On [y]these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

41 ¶ While [z]the Phăr'ī-sees were gathered together, Jē'sus asked them,

42 Saying, What think ye of Chrīst? whose son is he? They say unto him, The son of Dā'vid.

43 He saith unto them, How then doth Dā'vid [a]in spirit call him Lord, saying, 44 The [b]LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool?

45 If Dā'vid then call him Lord, how is he his son?

46 And [c]no man was able to answer him a word, neither durst any man from that day forth ask him any more questions.

Of the scribes and Pharisees' good doctrine, but evil examples of life

THEN spake Jē'sus to the multitude, and to his disciples,

1 Or, debtor, or, bound.

3 All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do; but do not ye after their works: for [b]they say, and do not.

4 For [c]they bind heavy burdens and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.

5 But [d]all their works they do for to be seen of men: [e]they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments,

6 And [f]love the uppermost rooms at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues,

7 And greetings in the markets, and to be called of men, Răb'bī, Răb'bī.

8 But [g]be not ye called Răb'bī: for one is your Master, even Chrīst; and all ye are brethren.

9 And call no man your father upon the earth: [h]for one is your Father, which is in heaven.

10 Neither be ye called masters: for one is your Master, even Chrīst.

11 But [i]he that is greatest among you shall be your servant.

12 And [j]whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted.* R

13 ¶ But [k]woe unto you, scribes and Phăr'ī-sees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in.

14 Woe unto you, scribes and Phăr'ī-sees, hypocrites! [l]for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation. H

15 Woe unto you, scribes and Phăr'ī-sees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves. H. 23. 33.

16 Woe unto you, [m]ye blind guides, which say, [n]Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor!

17 Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gold, [o]or the temple that sanctifieth the gold?

18 And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is [1]guilty.

19 Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gift, or [r]the altar that sanctifieth the gift?

* R. 26. 75.

20 Whoso therefore shall swear by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon.

21 And whoso shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it, and [s]by him that dwelleth therein.

22 And he that shall swear by heaven, sweareth by [t]the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

23 Woe unto you, scribes and Phăr'ĭ-sees, hypocrites! [u]for ye pay tithe of mint and [2]anise and cummin, and [v]have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

24 Ye blind guides, which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel.

25 Woe unto you, scribes and Phăr'ĭ-sees, hypocrites! [w]for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess.

26 Thou blind Phăr'ĭ-see, cleanse first that which [x]is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also.

C 27 Woe unto you, scribes and Phăr'ĭ-sees, hypocrites! [y]for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness.

28 Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within * ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

29 Woe unto you, scribes and Phăr'ĭ-sees, hypocrites! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous,

30 And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.

31 Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that [z]ye are the children of them which killed the prophets.

32 Fill [a]ye up then the measure of your fathers.

H 33 Ye serpents, ye [b]generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell? H. 24. 50.

34 Wherefore, [c]behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some [d]of them ye shall kill and crucify; and some [e]of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city:

35 That [f]upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, [g]from the blood of righteous Ā'bĕl unto the blood of Zăch-a-rī'as son of Băr-a-chī'as, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar.

36 Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation.

CHAPTER 24.

Destruction of the temple foretold.

AND [a]Jē'sus went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him for to shew him the buildings of the temple.

2 And Jē'sus said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, [b]There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 ¶ And as he sat upon the mount of ŏl'ĭves, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, [c]Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?

4 And Jē'sus answered and said unto them, [d]Take heed that no man deceive you.

5 For [e]many shall come in my name, saying, I am Chrīst; and shall deceive many.

6 And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

7 For [f]nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places.

8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.

9 Then [g]shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake.

10 And then shall many be [h]offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.

11 And [h]many false prophets shall rise, and [i]shall deceive many.

12 And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.

13 But [k]he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 And this gospel of the kingdom [l]shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.

15 When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by [m]Dăn'iel the prophet, stand in the holy place, ([n]whoso readeth, let him understand:)

16 Then let them which be in Jūdæ'ā flee into the mountains:

17 Let him which is on the house-top not come down to take any thing out of his house:

18 Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes.

19 And woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days!

20 But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath day:

21 For [o]then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.

22 And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: [r]but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.

23 Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Chrīst, or, There; believe it not.

24 For [r]there shall arise false Chrīsts, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, [s]if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.

25 Behold, I have told you before.

26 Wherefore if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert; go not forth: behold, he is in the secret chambers; believe it not.

27 For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

28 For [s]wheresoever the carcase is, there will the eagles be gathered together.

29 ¶Immediately [t]after the tribulation of those days [u]shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken:

30 And [v]then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then [w]shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, [x]and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

31 And [y]he shall send his angels [1]with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

32 ¶Now learn [z]a parable of the fig tree; When his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh:

33 So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that [2]it is near, even at the doors.

34 Verily I say unto you, [a]This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled.

35 Heaven [b]and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

36 ¶But [c]of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, [d]but my Father only.

37 But as the days of Nō'e were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

38 For [e]as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Nō'e entered into the ark,

39 And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

40 Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

41 Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

42 ¶Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come.

43 But [f]know this, that if the goodman of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up.

44 Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh. N. 25, 1–12.

CHAPTER 25.

1 The parable of the ten virgins; 14 of the talents. 31 Of the last judgment.

N THEN shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the [a]bridegroom.

2 And [b]five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

C 3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took [c]no oil with them:*

4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

5 While the bridegroom tarried, they [d]all slumbered and slept.

6 And at midnight [e]there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.

7 Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their [f]lamps.

8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are [1]gone out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the [g]door was shut.

11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, [h]Lord, Lord, open to us.

12 But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, [i]I know you not. †

13 Watch [j]therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.

14 ¶ For [k]the kingdom of heaven is as [l]a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods.

15 And unto one he gave five [2]talents, to another two, and to another one; [m]to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey.

16 Then he that had received the five talents went and [n]traded with the same, and made them other five talents.

17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.

18 But he that had received one went and digged in the earth, and hid [o]his lord's money.

19 After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them.

20 And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold, I have gained beside them five talents more.

21 His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, [p]I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into [q]the joy of thy lord.

22 He also that had received two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents beside them.

23 His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

24 Then he which had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art an hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strawed:

25 And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine.

26 His lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed:

27 Thou oughtest therefore to have

CHAPTER 26.

3 The rulers conspire against Christ: 14 Judas selleth him. 17 Christ eateth the passover.

AND it came to pass, when Jē'sus had finished all these sayings, he said unto his disciples,

2 Ye *a*know that after two days is the feast of the passover, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified.

3 ¶Then *b*assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, who was called Cā'ia-phăs,

4 And consulted that they might take Jē'sus by subtilty, and kill him.

5 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar among the people.

6 ¶Now *c*when Jē'sus was *d*in Bĕth'-a-nў, in the house of Sī'mon the leper,

7 There came unto him a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head, as he sat at meat.

8 But *e*when his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste?

9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.

10 When Jē'sus understood it, he said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me.

11 For *f*ye have the poor always with you; but *g*me ye have not always.

12 For in that she hath poured this ointment on my body, she did it for my burial.

13 Verily I say unto you, *h*Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, there shall also this, that this woman hath done, be told for a memorial of her.

* H. 25. 41; † H. 25. 46.

‡ J. Mark 6. 11.

14 ¶Then [i]one of the twelve, called Jū'das [j]Is-căr'ī-ot, went unto the chief priests,

15 And said unto them, [k]What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver.

16 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

17 ¶Now [l]the first day of the feast of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jē'sus, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover?

18 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Jē'sus had appointed them; and they made ready the passover.

20 ¶Now when the even was come, he sat down with the twelve.

21 And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I?

23 And he answered and said, He [m]that dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.

H 24 The Son of man goeth [n]as it is written of him: but [o]woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! it had been good for that man if he had not been born.*

25 Then Jū'das, which betrayed him, answered and said, Master, is it I? He said unto him, Thou hast said.

D 26 ¶And as they were eating, Jē'sus [r]took bread, and [1]blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is [2]my body.

27 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it;

28 For [t]this is my blood [u]of the new testament, which is shed [v]for many for the remission of sins. D Mark 10.45

29 But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, [w]until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.

30 ¶And [x]when they had sung an [2]hymn, they went out into the mount of Ŏl'ĭves.

31 Then saith Jē'sus unto them, All [w]ye shall [z]be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I [y]will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.

32 But after I am risen again, [z]I will go before you into Găl'ĭ-lee.

33 Pē'tĕr answered and said unto him, Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended.

34 Jē'sus said unto him, [a]Verily I say unto thee, That this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

35 Pē'tĕr said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

36 ¶Then [b]cometh Jē'sus with them unto a place called Gĕth-sĕm'a-nē, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder.

37 And he took with him Pē'tĕr and [c]the two sons of Zĕb'e-dee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy.

38 Then saith he unto them, [d]My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch [e]with me.

39 And he went a little farther, and fell on his face, and [f]prayed, saying, [g]O my Father, if it be possible, [h]let this cup pass from me: nevertheless [i]not as I will, but as thou wilt.

40 And he cometh unto the disciples and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Pē'tĕr, What, could ye not watch with me one hour?

41 Watch [j]and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done.

43 And he came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy.

44 And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.

45 Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

46 Rise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me.

47 ¶And [k]while he yet spake, lo,

Jū'das, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people.

48 Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he: hold him fast.

49 And forthwith he came to Jē'sus, and said, Hail, master; [t]and kissed him.

50 And Jē'sus said unto him, [3]Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they, and laid hands on Jē'sus, and took him.

51 And, behold, [m]one of them which were with Jē'sus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest's, and smote off his ear.

52 Then said Jē'sus unto him, Put [n]up again thy sword into his place: [o]for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.

53 Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me [p]more than twelve legions of angels?

54 But how then shall [q]the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be?

55 In that same hour said Jē'sus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a thief with swords and staves for to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me.

56 But all this was done, that the [r]scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then [s]all the disciples forsook him, and fled.

57 ¶And [t]they that had laid hold on Jē'sus led him away to Cā'ia-phăs the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.

58 But Pē'tĕr followed him afar off unto the high priest's palace, and went in, and sat with the servants, to see the end.

59 Now the chief priests, and elders, and all the council, sought false witness against Jē'sus, to put him to death;

60 But found none: yea, though many [u]false witnesses came, yet found they none. At the last came two [v]false witnesses,

61 And said, This fellow said, [w]I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.

62 And the high priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?

63 But [x]Jē'sus held his peace. And the high priest answered and said unto him, [y]I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the Chrīst, the Son of God.

64 Jē'sus saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, [z]Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man [a]sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

65 Then the high priest rent [b]his clothes, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy; what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy.

66 What think ye? They answered and said, [c]He is guilty of death.

67 Then [d]did they spit in his face, and buffeted him; and [e]others smote him with [4]the palms of their hands,

68 Saying, [f]Prophesy unto us, thou Chrīst, Who is he that smote thee?

69 ¶Now Pē'tĕr sat without in the palace: and a damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jē'sus of Găl'ĭ-lee.

70 But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest.

71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jē'sus of Năz'a-rĕth.

72 And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man.

73 And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Pē'tĕr, Surely thou also art one of them; for thy speech bewrayeth thee.

74 Then began he to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew.

75 And Pē'tĕr remembered the word of Jē'sus, which said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and [g]wept bitterly. R. Mark 1. 4, 5.

CHAPTER 27.

1 Christ delivered bound to Pilate. 3 Judas hangeth himself. 27 Christ is mocked, 33 crucified, 39 and reviled.

WHEN the morning was come, all [a]the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jē'sus to put him to death:

2 And when they had bound him, they led him away, and [b]delivered him to Pŏn'tĭ-ŭs Pī'late the governor.

3 ¶Then [c]Jū'das, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, 4 Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that.

5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, [d]and departed, and went and hanged himself.
6 And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood.
7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in.
8 Wherefore that field was called, The field of blood, unto this day.
9 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jĕr'e-mȳ the prophet, saying, [e]And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, [1]whom they of the children of Ĭs'ra-el did value;
10 And gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me.
11 ¶And Jē'sus stood before the governor: and [f]the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jē'sus said unto him, [g]Thou sayest.
12 And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, [h]he answered nothing.
13 Then said Pī'late unto him, Hearest [i]thou not how many things they witness against thee?
14 And he answered him to never a word; insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly.
15 ¶Now [j]at that feast the governor was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would.
16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Bā-răb'bas.
17 Therefore when they were gathered together, Pī'late said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Bā-răb'bas, or Jē'sus which is called Chrīst?
18 For he knew that for [k]envy they had delivered him.
19 ¶When he was set down on the judgment seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just man: for I have suffered many things this day in [l]a dream because of him.

persuaded the multitude that they should ask Bā-răb'bas, and destroy Jē'sus.
21 The governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Bā-răb'bas.
22 Pī'late saith unto them, What shall I do then with Jē'sus which is called Chrīst? They all say unto him, Let him be crucified.
23 And the governor said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.
24 When Pī'late saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, [n]he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.
25 Then answered all the people, and said, [o]His blood be on us, and on our children.
26 Then released he Bā-răb'bas unto them: and when [p]he had scourged Jē'sus, he delivered him to be crucified.
27 ¶Then the soldiers of the governor took Jē'sus into the [2]common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band of soldiers.
28 And they stripped him, and [q]put on him a scarlet robe.
29 ¶And [r]when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews!
30 And [s]they spit upon him, and took the reed, and [t]smote him on the head.
31 And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, [u]and led him away to crucify him.
32 And [v]as they came out, [w]they found a man of Çȳ-rē'nē, Sī'mon by name: him they compelled to bear his cross.
33 And when they were come unto a place called Gŏl'gō-thà, that is to say, a place of a skull,
34 They [x]gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink.
35 And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, [y]They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots.

36 And sitting down they watched him there;

37 And set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JĒ'SUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

38 Then [z]were there two thieves crucified with him, one on the right hand, and another on the left.

39 ¶And [a]they that passed by reviled him, wagging their heads,

40 And saying, [b]Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself. If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross.

41 Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said,

42 He saved others; himself he cannot save. If he be the King of Iṣ'ra-el, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him.

43 He [c]trusted in God; let him deliver him now, if he will have him: for he said, I am the Son of God.

44 The [d]thieves also, which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth.

45 ¶Now [e]from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour.

46 And about the ninth hour Jē'sus cried [f]with a loud voice, saying, Ē'lī, Ē'lī, lā'mȧ sȧ-bȧch'tha-nī? that is to say, [g]My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

47 Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for Ē-lī'as.

48 And straightway one of them ran, and took a spunge, [h]and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink.

49 The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Ē-lī'as will come to save him.

50 ¶Jē'sus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost.

51 And, behold, [i]the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and [j]the earth did quake, and the rocks rent;

52 And the graves were opened; and [k]many bodies of the saints which slept arose,

53 And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.

54 Now [l]when the centurion, and they that were with him, watching Jē'sus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God.

55 And many women were there beholding afar off, [m]which followed Jē'sus from Găl'ī-lee, ministering unto him:

56 Among [n]which was Mā'rў Măg-da-lē'nē, and Mā'rў the mother of Jāmeṣ and Jō'sēṣ, and the mother of Zĕb'e-dee's children.

57 ¶When [o]the even was come, there came a rich man of Ăr-ī-mă-thæ'ȧ, named Jō'seph, who also himself was Jē'sus' disciple:

58 He went to Pī'late, and begged the body of Jē'sus. Then Pī'late commanded the body to be delivered.

59 And when Jō'seph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth,

60 And [p]laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed.

61 And there was Mā'rў Măg-da-lē'nē, and the other Mā'rў, sitting over against the sepulchre.

62 ¶Now the next day, that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Phăr'ī-seeṣ came together unto Pī'late, 63 Saying, Sir, we remember that that [q]deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After [r]three days I will rise again.

64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night, and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: so the last error shall be worse than the first.

65 Pī'late said unto them, Ye have a watch: go your way, make it as sure as ye can.

66 So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, [s]sealing the stone, and setting a watch.

CHAPTER 28.

1 Christ's resurrection declared; 9 he appeareth to the women, 16 and to his disciples.

IN the [a]end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mā'rў Măg-da-lē'nē [b]and the other Mā'rў to see the sepulchre.

2 And, behold, there [1]was a great earthquake: for [c]the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

3 His [d]countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow:

4 And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

5 And the angel answered and said unto the women, [e]Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jē'sus, which was crucified.

6 He is not here: for he is risen, as he [f]said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

7 And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead; and, behold, he [g]goeth before you into Găl'ĭ-lee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you.

8 And they departed quickly from the sepulchre with fear and great joy; and did run to bring his disciples word.

9 ¶And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, [h]Jē'sus met them, saying, All hail. And they came and held him by the feet, and worshipped him.

10 Then said Jē'sus unto them, Be not afraid: go tell [i]my brethren that they go into Găl'ĭ-lee, and there shall they see me.

11 ¶Now when they were going, behold, some of the watch came into the city, and shewed unto the chief priests all the things that were done.

12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the soldiers, 13 Saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept.

14 And if this come to the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and secure you.

15 So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

16 ¶Then the eleven disciples went away into Găl'ĭ-lee, into a mountain [j]where Jē'sus had appointed them.

17 And when they saw him, they worshipped him: but some doubted.

18 And Jē'sus came and spake unto them, saying, [k]All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. * K

19 Go ye therefore, and [2]teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Hō'lў Ghōst:

SAINT MARK.

CHAPTER 1.

1 John Baptist's office. 9 Jesus baptized: 12 he is tempted, 14 preacheth, 16 calleth Peter and others, 32 and cureth many.

THE beginning of the gospel of Jē'sus Chrīst, [a]the Son of God;

2 As it is written in the prophets, Behold, [b]I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

3 The [c]voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 Jŏhn did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance [1]for the remission of sins. R

5 And there went out unto him all the land of Jū-dæ'a, and they of Jē-ru'să-lĕm, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jôr'dan, confessing their sins. R

R. 1. 15.

6 And Jŏhn was clothed with camel's hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loins; and he did eat [d]locusts and wild honey;

7 And preached, saying, [e]There cometh one mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose.

8 I [f]indeed have baptized you with water: but he shall baptize you [g]with the Hō'lў Ghōst.

rĕth of Găl'ĭ-lee, and was baptized of Jŏhn in Jôr'dan.

10 And [i]straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens [2]opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him:

11 And there came a voice from heaven, saying, [j]Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

12 ¶And [k]immediately the spirit driveth him into the wilderness.

13 And he was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted of Sā'tan; and was with the wild beasts; [l]and the angels ministered unto him.

14 ¶Now after that Jŏhn was put in prison, Jē'sus came into Găl'ĭ-lee, preaching [m]the gospel of the kingdom of God,

15 And saying, [n]The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel. F. 16, 16; R. 2, 17

16 ¶Now [o]as he walked by the sea of Găl'ĭ-lee, he saw Sī'mon and An'drew his brother casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

17 And Jē'sus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.

18 And straightway [p]they forsook their nets, and followed him.

19 And [q]when he had gone a little farther thence, he saw Jāmes the son of Zĕb'e-dee, and Jŏhn his brother, who also were in the ship mending their nets.

20 And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zĕb'e-dee in the ship with the hired servants, and went after him.

21 And [r]they went into Cā-pēr'na-ŭm; and straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the synagogue, and taught.

22 And [s]they were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes.

23 And [t]there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out,

24 Saying, Let us alone; [u]what have we to do with thee, thou Jē'sus of Năz'a-rĕth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the [v]Holy One of God.

25 And Jē'sus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

26 And when the unclean spirit had [w]torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him.

27 And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him.

28 And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Găl'ĭ-lee.

29 ¶And [x]forthwith, when they were come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Sī'mon and An'drew, with Jāmes and Jŏhn.

30 But Sī'mon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever, and anon they tell him of her.

31 And he came and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; [y]and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered unto them.

32 ¶And [z]at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils.

33 And all the city was gathered together at the door.

34 And he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils; and [a]suffered not the devils [3]to speak, because they knew him.

35 ¶And [b]in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and [c]there prayed.

36 And Sī'mon and they that were with him followed after him.

37 And when they had found him, they said unto him, All men seek for thee.

38 And he said unto them, [d]Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for [e]therefore came I forth.

39 And [f]he preached in their synagogues throughout all Găl'ĭ-lee, and [g]cast out devils.

40 ¶And [h]there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst [i]make me clean.

41 And Jē'sus, [j]moved with compassion, put forth his hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will; be thou clean.

42 And as soon as he had spoken, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was cleansed.

CHAPTER 2.

Christ healeth one sick of the palsy, etc.

AND again [a]he entered into Cā-pēr'na-ŭm after some days; and it was noised that he was in the house.
2 And straightway many were gathered together, insomuch that there was no room to receive them, no, not so much as about the door: and he [b]preached the word unto them.
3 And they come unto him, bringing one sick of the palsy, which was borne of four.
4 And when they could not come nigh unto him for the press, they uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the bed wherein the sick of the palsy lay.
5 When Jē'sus [c]saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy, [d]Son, thy sins be forgiven thee.
6 But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts,
7 Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? [e]who can forgive sins but God only? O. 10. 14, 15.
8 And immediately [f]when Jē'sus perceived in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts?
9 Whether [g]is it easier to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk?
10 But that ye may know that [h]the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsy,)
11 I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house. K. 10. 27.
12 And [i]immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion.
13 ¶And [j]he went forth again by the sea side; and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them.
14 And [k]as he passed by, he saw Lē'vī the son of Ăl-phæ'us sitting [1]at the receipt of custom, and said unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him.
15 And [l]it came to pass, that, as Jē'sus sat at meat in his house, many publicans and sinners sat also together with Jē'sus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him. L
16 And when [m]the scribes and Phăr'ī'sees saw him eat with publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners?
17 When Jē'sus heard it, he saith unto them, [n]They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. C. 7. 20–23; L. 3. 28; R. 6. 12. C R
18 ¶And [o]the disciples of John and of the Phăr'ī-sees used to fast: and they come and say unto him, Why do the disciples of John and of the Phăr'ī-sees fast, but thy disciples fast not?
19 And Jē'sus said unto them, Can the children of [p]the bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? as long as they have the [q]bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.
20 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.
21 No man also seweth a piece of [2]new cloth on an old garment: else the new piece that filled it up taketh away from the old, and the rent is made worse.
22 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles: else the new wine doth burst the bottles, and the wine is spilled, and the bottles will be marred: but new wine must be put into new bottles.
23 ¶And [r]it came to pass, that he went through the corn fields on the sabbath day; and his disciples began, as they went, [s]to pluck the ears of corn.
24 And the Phăr'ī-sees said unto him,

5 And when he had looked round about on them with [b]anger, being grieved for the [2]hardness of their hearts, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

6 And [c]the Phăr'ī-sees went forth, and straightway took counsel with [d]the Hē-rō'dī-ans against him, how they might destroy him.

9 And he spake to his disciples, that a small ship should wait on him because of the multitude, lest they should throng him.

26 And if Sā'tan rise up against himself, and be divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end.

32 And the multitude sat about him, and they said unto him, Behold, [t]thy mother and thy brethren without seek for thee.

33 And he answered them, saying, Who is my mother, or my brethren?

34 And he looked round about on them which sat about him, and said, [u]Behold my mother and my brethren!

35 For whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother.

CHAPTER 4.

1 The parable of the sower. 26 Of the seed growing secretly, etc.

AND [a]he began again to teach by the sea side: and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that he entered into a ship, and sat in the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land.

2 And he taught them many things by parables, [b]and said unto them in his doctrine,

3 Hearken; Behold, there went out a sower to sow:

4 And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.

5 And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth:

6 But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.

8 And other fell on good ground, and [c]did yield fruit that sprang up and increased; and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred.

9 And he said unto them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.*

10 ¶And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve [d]asked of him the parable.

11 And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the [e]mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto [f]them that are without, all these things are done in parables:

12 That [g]seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them.

13 And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how then will ye know all parables?

14 ¶The [h]sower soweth the word.

15 And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, [i]Sā'tan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts.

16 And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness;

17 And have [j]no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended.

18 And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word,

19 And the cares of this world, and [k]the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.

20 And these are they which are sown on good [l]ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some an hundred.

21 ¶And [m]he said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under [1]a bushel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a candlestick?

22 For [n]there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad. E

23 If [o]any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

24 And he said unto them, [p]Take heed what ye hear: [q]with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you: and unto you that hear shall more be given.

25 For [r]he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath.

26 ¶And he said, [s]So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground;

* W. 16. 15, 16.

27 And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.
28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.
29 But when the fruit is [2]brought forth, immediately [t]he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.
30 ¶ And he said, [u]Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it?
31 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth:
32 But when it is sown, it [v]groweth up, and becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches; so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it.
33 And [w]with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it.
34 But without a parable spake he not unto them: and when they were alone, he expounded all things to his disciples.
35 ¶ And [x]the same day, when the even was come, he saith unto them, Let us pass over unto the other side.
36 And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the ship. And there were also with him other little ships.
37 And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full.
38 And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say unto him, Master, carest thou not that we perish?
39 And he arose, and [y]rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.
40 And he said unto them, Why are ye so fearful? how is it that ye have no faith?
41 And they [z]feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

2 And when he was come out of the ship, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit,
3 Who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no man could bind him, no, not with chains:
4 Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any man tame him.
5 And always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones.
6 But when he saw Jē'sus afar off, he ran and [b]worshipped him,
7 And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Jē'sus, thou Son of the most high God? I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not.
8 For he said unto him, Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit.
9 And he asked him, What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many.
10 And he besought him much that he would not send them away out of the country.
11 Now there was there nigh unto the mountains a great herd of [c]swine feeding.
12 And all the devils besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them.
13 And forthwith Jē'sus [d]gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about two thousand;) and were choked in the sea.
14 And they that fed the swine fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was done.
15 And they come to Jē'sus, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and [e]in his right mind: and they were afraid.
16 And they that saw it told them how it befell to him that was possessed with the devil, and also concerning the swine.
17 And [f]they began to pray him to depart out of their coasts.

18 And when he was come into the ship, he [g]that had been possessed with the devil prayed him that he might be with him.

T 19 Howbeit Jē'sus suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee.*

20 And he departed, and [h]began to publish in Dĕ-căp'o-lĭs how great things Jē'sus had done for him: and all men did marvel.

21 ¶And [i]when Jē'sus was passed over again by ship unto the other side, much people gathered unto him: and he was nigh unto the sea.

22 And, [j]behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jā-ī'rus by name; and when he saw him, he fell at his feet,

23 And besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter lieth at the point of death: I pray thee, come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed; and she shall live.

24 And Jē'sus went with him; and much people followed him, and thronged him.

25 ¶And a certain woman, [k]which had an issue of blood twelve years,

26 And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and [l]was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse,

27 When she had heard of Jē'sus, came in the press behind, [m]and touched his garment.

28 For she said, If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole.

29 And [n]straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague.

30 And Jē'sus, immediately knowing in himself that [o]virtue had gone out of him, turned him about in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes?

31 And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

32 And he looked round about to see her that had done this thing.

33 But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth.

34 And he said unto her, Daughter, thy [p]faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy plague.

35 ¶While [q]he yet spake, there came from the ruler of the synagogue's house certain which said, Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the Master any further?

36 As soon as Jē'sus heard the word that was spoken, he saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, [r]Be not afraid, only believe.

37 And he suffered no man to follow him, save Pē'tĕr, and Jāmes, and John the brother of Jāmes.

38 And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly.

39 And when he was come in, he saith unto them, Why make ye this ado, and weep? the damsel is not dead, but [s]sleepeth.

40 And they laughed him to scorn. But [t]when he had put them all out, he taketh the father and the mother of the damsel, and them that were with him, and entereth in where the damsel was lying.

41 And he took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, Tăl'ĭ-thà cū'mī; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee, arise.

42 And [u]straightway the damsel arose, and walked; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment.

43 And [v]he charged them straitly that no man should know it; and commanded that something should be given her to eat.

3 Is [c]not this the carpenter, the son of Mā'rў, [d]the brother of Jāmes, and Jō'sēs, and of Jū'dà, and Sī'mon? and are not his sisters here with us? And they [e]were offended at him.

21 And [x]when a convenient day was come, that Hĕr'od [w]on his birthday made a supper to his lords, high captains, and chief estates of Găl'ĭlee;

22 And when the daughter of the said Hē-rō'dĭ-as came in, [z]and danced, and pleased Hĕr'od and them that sat with him, the king said unto the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee.

32 And they departed into a desert place by ship privately.

33 And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran afoot thither out of all cities, and outwent them, and came together unto him.

a shepherd: and [f]he began to teach them many things. L. 11. 24, 25.

35 And [g]when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time is far passed:

36 Send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat.

37 He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, [h]Shall we go and buy two hundred [6]pennyworth of bread, and give them to eat?

38 He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, [i]Five, and two fishes.

39 And he commanded them to make all sit down [7]by companies upon the green grass.

40 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties.

41 And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and [j]blessed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all.

42 And they did all eat, and were filled.

43 And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.

44 And they that did eat of the loaves were about five thousand men.

45 ¶And [k]straightway he constrained his disciples to get into the ship, and to go to the other side before [8]unto Bĕth-sā'ĭ-dà, while he sent away the people.

46 And when he had sent them away, he departed into a mountain to pray.

47 And [l]when even was come, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land.

48 And he saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary unto them: and about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking upon the sea, and [m]would have passed by them.

49 But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been a spirit, and cried out:

50 For they all saw him, and were troubled. And immediately he talked with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid.

51 And he went up unto them into the ship; and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered.

52 For [n]they considered not the miracle of the loaves: for [o]their heart was hardened.

53 And [p]when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gĕn-nĕs'a-rĕt, and drew to the shore.

54 And when they were come out of the ship, straightway they knew him,

55 And ran through that whole region round about, and began to carry about in beds those that were sick, where they heard he was.

56 And whithersoever he entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought him that they [q]might touch if it were but the border of his garment: and as many as touched [9]him were made whole.

spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet:

26 The woman was a [7]Greek, a Sȳ-rō-phē-nĭ'çian by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.

27 But Jē'şus said unto her, [t]Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it unto the dogs.

28 And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord: yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.

29 And he said unto her, For this saying go thy way; the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

30 And when she was [u]come to her house, she found [m]the devil gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

31 ¶ And [n]again, departing from the coasts of Tȳre and Sī'dŏn, he came unto the sea of Găl'ĭ-lee, through the midst of the coasts of Dē-căp'o-lĭs.

32 And [o]they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to put his hand upon him.

33 And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears, and he [p]spit, and touched his tongue;

34 And [q]looking up to heaven, [r]he sighed, and saith unto him, Ĕph'-pha-thà, that is, Be opened.

35 And [s]straightway his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain.

36 And [t]he charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it;

37 And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well: he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Christ feedeth the people miraculously; 22 giveth a blind man his sight, etc.

IN those days [a]the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jē'şus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them,

2 I have [b]compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat:

3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for divers of them came from far.

* C. Luke 1. 79.

4 And his disciples answered him, From whence [c]can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness?

5 And [d]he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven.

6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and [e]gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them; and they did set them before the people.

7 And they had a few small fishes: and he [f]blessed, and commanded to set them also before them.

8 So they did eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets.

9 And they that had eaten were about four thousand: and he sent them away.

10 ¶And [g]straightway he entered into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dăl-ma-nū'thā.

11 And [h]the Phăr'ĭ-sees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him.

12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation.

13 And he left them, and entering into the ship again departed to the other side.

14 ¶Now [t]the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.

15 And [j]he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Phăr'ĭ-sees, and of the leaven of Hĕr'od.

16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is [k]because we have no bread.

17 And when Jē'sus knew it, he saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? [l]perceive ye not yet, neither understand? have ye your heart yet hardened?

18 Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember?

19 When [m]I brake the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve.

20 And [n]when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven.

21 And he said unto them, How is it [o]that ye do not understand?

22 ¶And he cometh to Bĕth-sā'ĭ-dà; and they bring a blind man unto him, and besought him to touch him.

23 And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when [p]he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw ought.

24 And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking.

25 After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly.

26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, [q]nor tell it to any in the town.

27 ¶And [r]Jē'sus went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Cæs-a-rē'a Phĭ-lĭp'pī: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am?

28 And they answered, [s]John the Băp'tĭst: but some say, Ē-lī'as; and others, One of the prophets.

29 And he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Pē'tĕr answereth and saith unto him, [t]Thou art the Chrīst.

30 And [u]he charged them that they should tell no man of him.

31 ¶And [v]he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

32 And he spake that saying openly. And Pē'tĕr took him, and began to rebuke him.

33 But when he had turned about and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Pē'tĕr, saying, Get thee behind me, Sā'tan: [w]for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men.

34 ¶And when he had called the people unto him with his disciples also, he said unto them, [x]Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

35 For [y]whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it.

CHAPTER 9.

Jesus transfigured: 11 instructeth his disciples concerning Elias; 14 casteth forth a dumb and deaf spirit; 30 foretelleth his death.

AND he said unto them, [a]Verily I say unto you, That there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the [b]kingdom of God come with power.

2 ¶ And [c]after six days Jē'sus taketh with him Pē'tēr, and James, and John, and leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them.

3 And his raiment became shining, exceeding [d]white as snow; so as no fuller on earth can white them.

4 And there appeared unto them Ē-lī'as with Mō'ses: and they were talking with Jē'sus.

5 And Pē'tēr answered and said to Jē'sus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Mō'ses, and one for Ē-lī'as.

6 For he wist not what to say; for they were sore afraid.

7 And there was [e]a cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: [f]hear him.

8 And suddenly, when they had looked round about, they saw no man any more, save Jē'sus only with themselves.

9 And [g]as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead.

10 And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what the rising from the dead should mean.

11 ¶ And they asked him, saying, Why say the scribes [h]that Ē-lī'as must first come?

12 And he answered and told them, Ē-lī'as verily cometh first, and restoreth all things; and [i]how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and [j]be set at nought.

13 But I say unto you, [k]That Ē-lī'as is indeed come, and they have done unto him whatsoever they listed, as it is written of him.

14 ¶ And [l]when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them.

15 And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him saluted him.

16 And he asked the scribes, What question ye [1]with them?

17 And [m]one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit;

18 And wheresoever he taketh him, he [2]teareth him: and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out; and they could not.

19 He answereth him, and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him unto me.

20 And they brought him unto him: and when [n]he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming.

21 And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, Of a child.

22 And ofttimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us.

23 Jē'sus said unto him, [o]If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth.

24 And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe; [p]help thou mine unbelief.

25 When Jē'sus saw that the people came running together, he [q]rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.

26 And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, He is dead.

27 But Jē'sus took him by the hand and lifted him up; and he arose.

* T. Luke 6. 45.

28 And [r]when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out?

29 And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting.

30 ¶ And they departed thence, and passed through Găl'ĭ-lee; and he would not that any man should know it.

31 For [s]he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day.

32 But they understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask him.

33 ¶ And [t]he came to Că-pĕr'na-ŭm: and being in the house he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among yourselves by the way?

34 But they held their peace: [u]for by the way they had disputed among themselves, who should be the greatest.

35 And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, If [v]any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all.

36 And [w]he took a child, and set him in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them,

37 Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me: and [x]whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.

38 ¶ And [y]Jŏhn answered him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name, and he followeth not us: and we forbad him, because he followeth not us.

39 But Jē'sus said, Forbid him not: for [z]there is no man which shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly speak evil of me.

40 For [a]he that is not against us is on our part.

41 For [b]whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Chrĭst, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward.

42 And [c]whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea.

43 And if thy hand [3]offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having two hands to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched:

44 Where [d]their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

45 And if thy foot offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter halt into life, than having two feet to be cast into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched:

46 Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

47 And if thine eye [4]offend thee, pluck [e]it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire:

48 Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched. H. 12, 36.

49 For every one shall be salted with fire, and [f]every sacrifice shall be salted with salt.

50 Salt [g]is good: but if the salt have lost his saltness, wherewith will ye season it? Have [h]salt in yourselves, and [i]have peace one with another.

2 ¶ And [b]the Phăr'ĭ-sees came to him, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife? tempting him.

3 And he answered and said unto them, What did Mō'ses command you?

4 And they said, [c]Mō'ses suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away.

5 And Jē'sus answered and said unto them, For [d]the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept.

6 But from the beginning of the creation God [e]made them male and female.

7 For [f]this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife;

8 And they twain shall be one flesh: so then they are no more twain, but one flesh.

21 Then Jē'sus beholding him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go thy way, sell whatsoever [n]thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in [o]heaven: and come, take up [p]the cross, and follow me.

22 And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he had great possessions. G. Luke 6. 49.

39 And they said unto him, We can. And Jē'sus said unto them, [a]Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized:

40 But to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give: but it shall be given [b]to them for whom it is prepared.

41 And [c]when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with Jāmes and Jŏhn.

42 But Jē'sus called them to him, and saith unto them, [d]Ye know that they which [1]are accounted to rule over the Gĕn'tīles exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them.

43 But [e]so shall it not be among you: but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister:

44 And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all.

45 For even [f]the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to [g]give his life a ransom for many. D. 14. 22–24.

46 ¶And [h]they came to Jĕr'ī-chō: and as he went out of Jĕr'ī-chō with his disciples and a great number of people, blind Bär-ti-mæ'us, the son of Tī-mæ'us, sat by the highway side begging.

47 And when he heard that it was Jē'sus of Năz'a-rĕth, he began to cry out, and say, Jē'sus, thou [i]son of Dā'vid, have mercy on me.

48 And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cried the more a great deal, Thou son of Dā'vid, have mercy on me.

49 And Jē'sus stood still, and commanded him to be called. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise; he calleth thee.

50 And he, casting away his garment, rose, and came to Jē'sus.

51 And Jē'sus answered and said unto him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? The blind man said unto him, Lord, that I might receive my sight.

52 And Jē'sus said unto him, Go thy way; thy faith hath [2]made thee whole. And immediately [j]he received his sight, and followed Jē'sus in the way.

CHAPTER 11.

1 Christ rideth into Jerusalem: 12 curseth a fruitless fig tree: 27 silenceth the priests.

AND [a]when they came nigh to Jē-rū'sā-lĕm, unto Bĕth'pha-gē and Bĕth'a-nў, at the mount of [b]Ŏl'ĭves, he sendeth forth two of his disciples,

2 And saith unto them, Go your way into the village over against you: and as soon as ye be entered into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon never man sat; loose him, and bring him.

3 And if any man say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye that [c]the Lord hath need of him; and straightway he will send him hither.

4 And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door without in a place where two ways met; and they loose him.

5 And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What do ye, loosing the colt?

6 And they said unto them even as Jē'sus had commanded: and they let them go.

7 And they brought the colt to Jē'sus, and cast their garments on him; and he [d]sat upon him.

8 And [e]many spread their garments in the way: and others cut down branches off the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, [f]saying, Hō-săn'nà; Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord:

10 Blessed be the kingdom of our father Dā'vid, that cometh in the name of the Lord: [g]Hō-săn'nà in the highest.

11 And [h]Jē'sus entered into Jē-rū'sā-lĕm, and into the temple: and when he had looked round about upon all things, and now the eventide was come, he went out unto Bĕth'a-nў with the twelve.

12 ¶And [i]on the morrow, when they were come from Bĕth'a-nў, he was hungry:

13 And [j]seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet.

14 And Jē'sus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it.

15 ¶And [k]they come to Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm: and Jē'sus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves;
16 And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel through the temple.
17 And he taught, saying unto them, Is it not written, [l]My house shall be called [1]of all nations the house of prayer? but [m]ye have made it a den of thieves.
18 And [n]the scribes and chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, because all [o]the people was astonished at his doctrine.
19 And when even was come, he went out of the city.
20 ¶And [p]in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots.
21 And Pē'tēr calling to remembrance saith unto him, Master, behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away.
22 And Jē'sus answering saith unto them, [2]Have faith in God.
23 For [q]verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith.
L 24 Therefore I say unto you, [r]What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.
25 And when ye stand praying, [s]forgive, if ye have ought against any: that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses. L. Luke 1. 50.
26 But [t]if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses.
27 ¶And they come again to Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm: and [u]as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders,
28 And say unto him, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority to do these things?
29 And Jē'sus answered and said unto them, I will also ask of you one [3]question, and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things.
30 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men? answer me.
31 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did ye not believe him?
32 But if we shall say, Of men; they feared the people: for [v]all men counted John, that he was a prophet indeed.
33 And they answered and said unto Jē'sus, We cannot tell. And Jē'sus answering saith unto them, Neither do [w]I tell you by what authority I do these things.

1 The parable of the vineyard. 13 Touching the paying of tribute.

AND he began to speak unto them by parables. A certain man planted [a]a vineyard, and set an hedge about it, and digged a place for the winefat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.
2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.
3 And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty.
4 And again he sent unto them another servant; and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled.
5 And again he sent another; and him they killed, and many others; beating some, and [b]killing some.
6 Having yet therefore one son, [c]his wellbeloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son.
N 7 But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is [d]the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be our's.
8 And they took him, and [e]killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.
9 What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and [f]will give the vineyard unto others.

11 This was the Lord's doing, [h]and it is marvellous in our eyes?

12 And [i]they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people: for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and went their way.

13 ¶And [j]they send unto him certain of the Phăr'ī-sees and of the Hē-rō'dĭ-ans, to catch him in his words.

14 And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Çæ'sar, or not?

15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? bring me a [l]penny, that I may see it.

16 And they brought it. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Çæ'sar's.

17 And Jē'sus answering said unto them, Render to Çæ'sar the things that are Çæ'sar's, and to God the things that are God's. And they marvelled at him.

18 ¶Then [k]come unto him the Săd'du-çees, which [l]say there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying,

19 Master, [m]Mō'sēs wrote unto us, If a man's brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

20 Now there were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed.

21 And the second took her, and died, neither left he any seed: and the third likewise.

22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman died also.

23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife.

B 24 And Jē'sus answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not [n]the scriptures, neither [o]the power of God?*

25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but [p]are as the angels which are in heaven.

26 And as touching the dead, that they rise: have ye not read in the book of Mō'sēs, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, I [q]am the God of Ā'bră-hăm, and the God of Ī'saac, and the God of Jā'cob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err.

O 28 ¶And [r]one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all?

29 And Jē'sus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, [s]Hear, O Ĭs'ra-el; The Lord our God is one Lord:

30 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment. O. 16. 15, 16.

31 And the second is like, namely this, Thou [t]shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these.

32 And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God; [u]and there is none other but he:

33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, [v]is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.

34 And when Jē'sus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. [w]And no man after that durst ask him any question.

35 ¶And [x]Jē'sus answered and said, while he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that Chrīst is the son of Dā'vid?

H 36 For Dā'vid himself said [y]by the Hō'lў Ghōst, [z]The LORD said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.†

37 Dā'vid therefore himself calleth him Lord; and [a]whence is he then his son? And the common people heard him gladly.

38 ¶And [b]he said unto them in his doctrine, [c]Beware of the scribes, which love to go in long clothing,

42 And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two [3]mites, which make a farthing.

43 And he called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That [h]this poor widow hath cast more in, than all they which have cast into the treasury:

44 For all they did cast in of their abundance; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, [i]even all her living.

CHAPTER 13.

Christ foretelleth the destruction of the temple.

AND [a]as he went out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, Master, see what manner of stones and what buildings are here!

2 And Jē'sus answering said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings? there shall [b]not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 And as he sat upon the mount of ŏl'ĭves over against the temple, Pē'tēr and Jāmes and Jŏhn and An'drew asked him privately,

4 Tell [c]us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled?

5 And Jē'sus answering them began to say, [d]Take heed lest any man deceive you:

6 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Chrīst; and shall deceive many.

7 And when ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars, be ye not troubled: for such things must needs be; but the [e]end shall not be yet.

8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be famines and troubles: these are the beginnings of [1]sorrows.

9 ¶But [f]take heed to yourselves: for they shall deliver you up to councils; and in the synagogues ye shall be beaten: and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them.

10 And [g]the gospel must first be published among all nations.

11 But [h]when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, take no thought beforehand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate: but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, but [i]the Hō'lў Ghōst.

12 Now [j]the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the son; and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.

13 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but [k]he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 ¶But [l]when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, [m]spoken of by Dăn'iel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand,) then let [n]them that be in Jū-dæ'ā flee to the mountains:

15 And let him that is on the house-top not go down into the house, neither enter therein, to take any thing out of his house:

16 And let him that is in the field not turn back again for to take up his garment.

17 But [o]woe to them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days!

18 And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter.

19 For [p]in those days shall be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created unto this time, neither shall be.

20 And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh should be saved: but for the elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days.

21 And [q]then if any man shall say to you, Lo, here is Chrīst; or, Lo, he is there; believe him not:

22 For false Chrīsts and false prophets shall rise, and shall shew signs and wonders, to seduce, [r]if it were possible, even the elect.

23 But [s]take ye heed: behold, I have foretold you all things.

24 ¶But [t]in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light,

CHAPTER 14.

1 A conspiracy against Christ: 3 a woman poureth ointment on his head: 10 Judas covenanteth to betray him: 12 he eateth the passover: 22 he instituteth his supper: 66 Peter thrice denieth him, etc.

AFTER [a]two days was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

2 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar of the people.

3 ¶ And [b]being in Bĕth'a-nў in the house of Sī'mon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of [1]spikenard very precious; and she brake the box, and poured it on his head.

4 And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?

5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred [c]pence, and have been given to the poor. And they murmured against her.

6 And Jē'sus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me.

7 For [d]ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always.

8 She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying.

9 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

10 ¶ And [e]Jū'das Ĭs-căr'ĭ-ot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests, to betray him unto them.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him [f]money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

12 ¶ And [g]the first day of unleavened bread, when they [2]killed the passover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare that thou mayest eat the passover?

13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him.

14 And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the goodman of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat [h]the passover with my disciples?

15 And he will shew you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there make ready for us.

16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

17 And [i]in the evening he cometh with the twelve.

i Mat. 26, 20 Lu. 22, 14 John 13, 21

Jē'sus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you which eateth with me shall betray me.

19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I?

20 And he answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve, that dippeth with me in the dish.

H 21 The [f]Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had never been born.*

D 22 ¶ And [g]as they did eat, Jē'sus took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my body.

23 And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it.

24 And he said unto them, This [h]is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many. D. Luke 22. 19, 20.

25 Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

26 ¶ And [m]when they had sung an [3]hymn, they went out into the mount of Ol'ives.

27 And [n]Jē'sus saith unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, [o]I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.

28 But [p]after that I am risen, I will go before you into Găl'ĭ-lee.

29 But [q]Pē'tĕr said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I.

30 And Jē'sus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice.

31 But he spake the more vehemently, If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all.

32 ¶ And [r]they came to a place which was named Gĕth-sĕm'a-nē: and he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while [s]I shall pray.

33 And he taketh with him Pē'tĕr and Jāmes and John, and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy;

34 And saith unto them, [t]My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death: tarry ye here, and watch.

35 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him.

36 And he said, [u]Ăb'bà, Father, all [v]things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: [w]nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt.

37 And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Pē'tĕr, Sī'mon, sleepest thou? couldest not thou watch one hour?

38 Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. [x]The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak.

39 And again he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words.

40 And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy,) neither wist they what to answer him.

41 And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, [y]the hour is come; behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

42 Rise [z]up, let us go; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand.

43 ¶ And [a]immediately, while he yet spake, cometh Jū'das, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders.

44 And he that betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; take him, and lead him away safely.

45 And as soon as he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith, [4]Master, master; and [b]kissed him.

46 And they laid their hands on him, and took him.

47 And one of them that stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

48 And [c]Jē'sus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and with staves to take me?

49 I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye took me not: but the [d]scriptures must be fulfilled.

50 And [e]they all forsook him, and fled.

51 And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body; and the young men laid hold on him:

52 And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.

53 ¶And [f]they led Jē'sus away to the high priest: and with him were assembled all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes.

54 And Pē'tĕr followed him afar off, even into the palace of the high priest: and he sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire.

55 And [g]the chief priests and all the council sought for witness against Jē'sus to put him to death; and [h]found none.

56 For many bare [i]false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together.

57 And there arose certain, and bare false witness against him, saying,

58 We heard him say, [j]I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands.

59 But neither so did their witness agree together.

60 And [k]the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jē'sus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?

61 But [l]he held his peace, and answered nothing. [m]Again the high priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou the Chrīst, the Son of the Blessed?

62 And Jē'sus said, I am: [n]and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

63 Then the high priest rent his clothes, and saith, What need we any further witnesses?

64 Ye have heard the [o]blasphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned him to be guilty of death.

65 And some began to [p]spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, Prophesy: and the servants did strike him with the palms of their hands.

66 ¶And [q]as Pē'tĕr was beneath in the palace, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest:

67 And when she saw Pē'tĕr warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And thou also wast with Jē'sus of Năz'a-rĕth.

68 But he denied, saying, I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest. And he went out into the porch; and the cock crew.

69 And [r]a maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.

CHAPTER 15.

The crucifixion and burial of Christ.

AND [a]straightway in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council, and bound Jē'sus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pī'late.

2 And [b]Pī'late asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answering said unto him, [c]Thou sayest it.

3 And the chief priests accused him of many things: but [d]he answered nothing.

4 And [e]Pī'late asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee.

5 But [f]Jē'sus yet answered nothing; so that Pī'late marvelled.

6 ¶Now [g]at that feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired.

7 And there was one named Bā-răb'bas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection.

8 And the multitude crying aloud began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them.

9 But Pī'late answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

10 For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him [h]for envy.

11 But [i]the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Bā-răb'bas unto them.

12 And Pī'late answered and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the [j]King of the Jews?

13 And they cried out again, Crucify him.

14 Then Pī'late said unto them,

Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him.

15 And so Pī'late, [k]willing to content the people, released Bā-răb'bas unto them, and delivered Jē'sus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.

16 ¶And the soldiers led him away into the hall, called Præ-tō'rī-um; and they call together the whole band.

17 And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head, 18 And began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews!

19 And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and bowing their knees worshipped him.

20 And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him.

21 And [l]they compel one Sī'mon a Çў-rē'nī-an, who passed by, coming out of the country, the father of [m]Ăl-ĕx-ăn'dēr and Rụ'fus, to bear his cross.

22 And [n]they bring him unto the place Gŏl'gō-thà, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull.

23 And they gave him [o]to drink wine mingled with myrrh: but he received it not.

24 And when they had crucified him, they [p]parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take.

25 And [q]it was the third hour, and they crucified him.

26 And [r]the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

27 And with him they crucify two thieves; the one on his right hand, and the other on his left.

28 And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, [s]And he was numbered with the transgressors.

29 ¶And [t]they that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, thou [u]that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days,

30 Save thyself, and come down from the cross.

31 Likewise also the chief priests mocking said among themselves with the scribes, He saved others; himself he cannot save.

32 Let Chrīst the King of Ĭs'ra-el descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe. [v]And they that were crucified with him reviled him.

33 ¶And [w]when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.

34 And at the ninth hour Jē'sus cried with a loud voice, saying, [x]Ē-lō'ī, Ē-lō'ī, lā'ma sà-băch'tha-nī? which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Ē-lī'as.

36 And [y]one ran and filled a spunge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and [z]gave him to drink, saying, Let alone; let us see whether Ē-lī'as will come to take him down.

37 And [a]Jē'sus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost.

38 And [b]the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom.

39 ¶And [c]when the centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God.

40 There [d]were also women looking on afar [e]off: among whom was Mā'rў Măg-da-lē'nĕ, and Mā'rў the mother of James the less and of Jō'sēs, and Sà-lō'mē;

41 (Who also, when he was in Găl'ī-lee, followed [f]him, and ministered unto him;) and many other women which came up with him unto Jĕ-rụ'sà-lĕm.

42 ¶And [g]now when the even was come, because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath,

43 Jō'seph of Ăr-ī-mă-thæ'à, an honourable counsellor, which also [h]waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly unto Pī'late, and craved the body of Jē'sus.

44 And Pī'late marvelled if he were already dead: and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead.

45 And when he knew it of the centurion, he gave the body to Jō'seph.

46 And [i]he bought fine linen, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a sepulchre which was hewn out of a rock, and rolled a stone unto the door of the sepulchre.

47 And Mā'rў Măg-da-lē'nĕ and Mā'rў the mother of Jō'sēs beheld where he was laid.

CHAPTER 16.

Of the resurrection and ascension of Christ.

AND [a]when the sabbath was past, Mā'rў Măg-da-lē'nĕ, and Mā'rў the mother of Jā'mes, and Sā-lō'mĕ, [b]had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him.

2 And [c]very early in the morning the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun.

3 And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?

4 And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great.

5 And [d]entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted.

6 And [e]he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jē'sus of Năz'a-rĕth, which was crucified: he is [f]risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him.

7 But go your way, tell his disciples and Pē'tĕr that he goeth before you into Găl'ĭ-lee: there shall ye see him, [g]as he said unto you.

8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre; for they trembled and were amazed: [h]neither said they any thing to any man; for they were afraid.

9 ¶Now when Jē'sus was risen early the first day of the week, [i]he appeared first to Mā'rў Măg-da-lē'nĕ, out [j]of whom he had cast seven devils.

CHAP. 1.

5 ¶ THERE was [h]in the days of Hĕr'od, the king of Jū-dæ'à, a certain priest named Zăch-a-rī'as, [i]of the course of Ă-bī'à: and his wife was of the daughters of Aâr'on, and her name was Ē-lĭs'a-bĕth.

6 And they were both [j]righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless.

7 And they had no child, because that Ē-lĭs'a-bĕth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years.

8 And it came to pass, that while he executed the priest's office before God [k]in the order of his course,

9 According to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was [l]to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord.

10 And [m]the whole multitude of the people were praying without at the time of incense.

11 And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense.

12 And when Zăch-a-rī'as saw him, he [n]was troubled, and fear fell upon him.

13 But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zăch-a-rī'as: for [o]thy prayer is heard; and thy wife Ē-lĭs'a-bĕth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name Jŏhn.

14 And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth.

15 For he shall be [p]great in the sight of the Lord, and shall [q]drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Hō'lў Ghōst, [r]even from his mother's womb.

16 And [s]many of the children of Ĭs'ra-el shall he turn to the Lord their God.

17 And [t]he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Ē-lī'as, to turn [u]the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient [v]to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the [w]Lord.

18 And Zăch-a-rī'as said unto the angel, [x]Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years.

19 And the angel answering said unto him, I am [y]Gā'brĭ-el, that stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings.

20 And, behold, [z]thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.

21 And the [a]people waited for Zăch-a-rī'as, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: for he beckoned unto them, and remained speechless.

23 And it came to pass, that, as soon as the [b]days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house.

24 And after those days his wife Ē-lĭs'a-bĕth conceived, and hid herself five months, saying,

25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on me, to [c]take away my reproach among men.

26 ¶ And in the sixth month the angel Gā'brĭ-el was sent from God unto a city of Găl'ĭ-lee, named Năz'a-rĕth, 27 To a [d]virgin espoused to a man whose name was Jō'sĕph, of the house of Dā'vid; and the virgin's name was Mā'rў.

28 And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art [e]highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.

29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.

30 And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mā'rў: for thou hast found favour with God,

31 And, [f]behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JĒ'SUS.

32 He shall be [g]great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: [h]and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father Dā'vid:

33 And [i]he shall reign over the house of Jā'cob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

34 Then said Mā'rў unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

35 And the angel answered and said unto her, The Hō'lў Ghōst shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which

54 He hath holpen his servant Ĭs'ra-el, [t]in remembrance of his mercy;

55 As [u]he spake to our fathers, to Ā'brā-hăm, and to his seed for ever.

56 And Mā'rў abode with her about three months, and returned to her own house.

57 ¶Now Ē-lĭz'a-bĕth's full time came that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son.

58 And her neighbours and her cousins heard how the Lord had shewed great mercy upon her; and they rejoiced with her.

59 And it came to pass, that [v]on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and they called him Zăch-a-rī'as, after the name of his father.

60 And his mother answered and said, Not so; but he shall be called Jŏhn.

61 And they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name.

62 And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called.

63 And he asked for a writing table, and wrote, saying, His name is Jŏhn. And they marvelled all.

64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake, and praised God.

65 And fear came on all that dwelt round about them: and all these [4]sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill country of Jū-dæ'à.

66 And all they that heard [w]them laid them up in their hearts, saying, What manner of child shall this be! [x]And the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 ¶And his father Zăch-a-rī'as was [y]filled with the Hō'lў Ghōst, and prophesied, saying,

71 That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us;

72 To [a]perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant;

73 The [b]oath which he sware to our father Ā'brā-hăm,

74 That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might [c]serve him without fear,

75 In [d]holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our life.

76 And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: for [e]thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways;

L 77 To give knowledge of salvation unto his people [5]by the remission of their sins,

78 Through the [6]tender mercy of our God; whereby the [7]dayspring from on high hath visited us,

C 79 To [f]give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace. C. 5. 31, 32; L. 2. 10, 11.

80 And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his shewing unto Ĭs'ra-el.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Augustus taxeth the Roman empire. 6 Christ's nativity: 21 his circumcision: 46 he questioneth the doctors, etc.

AND it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Cæ'sar Au-gŭs'tus, that all the world should be [1]taxed.

2 (And this taxing was first made when Çў-rē'nĭ-ŭs was governor of Sўr'ĭ-à.)

3 And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

4 And Jō'seph also went up from Găl'ĭ-lee, out of the city of Năz'a-rĕth, into Jū-dæ'à, unto [a]the city of Dā'vid, which is called Bĕth'lĕ-hĕm; (because [b]he was of the house and lineage of Dā'vid:)

5 To be taxed with Mā'rў his espoused wife, being great with child.

6 And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

7 And [c]she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in [d]a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

8 ¶And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping [2]watch over their flock by night.

9 And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.

L W 10 And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, [e]which shall be to all people. L W

11 For [f]unto you is born this day in the city of Dā'vid a Saviour, which is Chrĭst [g]the Lord. L. 4. 18, 19;*

12 And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

13 And [h]suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

14 Glory to God in the highest, and on earth [i]peace, [j]good will toward men.

15 And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, [3]the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bĕth'lĕ-hĕm, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16 And they came with haste, and found Mā'rў, and Jō'seph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17 And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

18 And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

19 But Mā'rў kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

21 ¶And [k]when eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called [l]JĒ'SUS, which was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

22 And when [m]the days of her purification according to the law of Mō'ses were accomplished, they brought him to Jē-rų'sā-lĕm, to present him to the Lord;

23 (As it is written in the law of the Lord, Every [n]male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord;)

24 And to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons.

25 And, behold, there was a man in Jē-rų'sā-lĕm, whose name was Sĭm'e-on; and the same man was just and devout, [o]waiting for the consolation of 37 And she was a widow of about fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers [z]night and day.

38 And she coming in that instant gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them [a]that looked for redemption in [4]Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm.

39 And when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Găl'ĭ-lee, to their own city Năz'a-rĕth.

40 And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him.

CHAPTER 3.

1 John's preaching and baptism: 15 his testimony of Christ. 21 Christ is baptized: 23 his genealogy.

NOW in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tī-bē'rĭ-ŭs Çæ'sar, Pŏn'tĭ-ŭs Pī'late being governor of Jū-dæ'à, and Hĕr'od being tetrarch of Găl'ĭ-lee, and his brother Phĭl'ĭp tetrarch of Ĭ-tu-ræ'à and of the region of Trăch-ō-nī'tis, and Lў-sā'nĭ-as the tetrarch of Ăb-ĭ-lē'nē,

2 Ăn'nas [a]and Cā'ia-phăs being the high priests, the word of God came unto Jŏhn the son of Zăch-a-rī'as in the wilderness.

3 And [b]he came into all the country about Jôr'dan, preaching the baptism of repentance [c]for the remission of sins;

4 As it is written in the book of the words of Ē-sā'ias the prophet, saying, [d]The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth;

6 And [e]all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

7 Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, H [f]O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come? H. 3. 17; R. 6. 37.

R 8 Bring [g]forth therefore fruits [1]worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have A'brā-hăm to our father: for I say unto you, That God is able of these stones to raise up children unto A'brā-hăm.

9 And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: [h]every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

10 And the people asked him, saying, What [2]shall we do then?

11 He answereth and saith unto them, He [i]that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.

12 Then [k]came also publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do?

13 And he said unto them, [3]Exact no more than that which is appointed you.

14 And the soldiers [l]likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto them, [2]Do violence to no man, neither [m]accuse any falsely; and be content with your [3]wages.

15 ¶And as the people were [4]in expectation, and all men [5]mused in their hearts of Jŏhn, whether he were the Chrīst, or not;

16 Jŏhn answered, saying unto them all, I [n]indeed baptize you with water; but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you with [o]the Hō'lў Ghōst and with fire:

H 17 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will throughly purge his floor, [p]and will gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable. H. 6. 25.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Christ's temptation and fasting: 13 he, overcoming the devil, 14 beginneth to preach: 33 he cureth one possessed of a devil, etc.

AND [c]Jē'sus being full of the Hō'lў Ghōst returned from Jŏr'-dan, and [b]was led by the Spirit into the wilderness,

2 Being forty days [c]tempted of the devil. And [d]in those days he did eat nothing: and when they were ended, he afterward hungered.

3 And the devil said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread.

4 And Jē'sus answered him, saying, [e]It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.

5 And the devil, taking him up into an high mountain, shewed unto him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.

6 And the devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them: for [f]that is delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I give it.

7 If thou therefore wilt [l]worship me, all shall be thine.

8 And Jē'sus answered and said unto him, Get thee behind me, Sā'tan: [g]for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

9 And [h]he brought him to Jĕ-ru'sà-lĕm, and set him on a pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, [i]cast thyself down from hence:

10 For [j]it is written, He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee:

11 And in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

12 And Jē'sus answering said unto him, [k]It is said, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

13 And when the devil had ended all the temptation, he [l]departed from him [m]for a season.

14 ¶ And [n]Jē'sus returned in the power of the Spirit into [o]Găl'ĭ-lee: and there went out a fame of him through all the region round about.

15 And he taught in their synagogues, being [p]glorified of all.

16 ¶ And he came to [q]Năz'a-rĕth, where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, [r]he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up for to read.

17 And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Ē-sā'ias. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written,

18 The [s]Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, L

19 To preach the [t]acceptable year of the Lord. L. 5. 31. 32.

20 And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him.

21 And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.

22 And all bare him witness, [u]and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth.

And they said, [v]Is not this Jō'sēph's son?

23 And he said unto them, Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, Physician, heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard done in [w]Cā-pēr'na-ŭm, do also here in thy [z]country.

24 And he said, Verily I say unto you, No prophet [y]is accepted in his own country.

25 But I tell you of a truth, many [z]widows were in Ĭs'ra-el in the days of Ē-lī'as, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land;

26 But unto none of them was Ē-lī'as sent, save unto Să-rĕp'tà, a city of Sī'dŏn, unto a woman that was a widow.

27 And [a]many lepers were in Ĭs'ra-el in the time of Ĕl-ĭ-sē'us the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, saving Nā'a-man the Sўr'ĭ-an.

28 And all they in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath,

29 And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the [2]brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might cast him down headlong.

30 But he [b]passing through the midst of them went his way,

31 And [c]came down to Cā-pēr'na-ŭm, a city of Găl'ĭ-lee, and taught them on the sabbath days.

32 And they were astonished at his doctrine: [d]for his word was with power.

33 ¶And [e]in the synagogue there was a man, which had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice,

34 Saying, [3]Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jē'sus of Năz'a-rĕth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art; [f]the Holy One of God.

35 And Jē'sus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the devil had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 And they were all amazed, and spake among themselves, saying, What a word is this! for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out.

37 And [g]the fame of him went out into every place of the country round about.

40 ¶Now [j]when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.

41 And [k]devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Chrīst the Son of God. And [l]he rebuking them suffered them not [4]to speak: for they knew that he was Chrīst.

1 Christ teacheth out of Peter's ship. 4 A miraculous draught of fishes. 12 A leper cleansed. 18 The palsy healed. 27 Levi called from the receipt of custom.

AND [a]it came to pass, that, as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Gĕn-nĕs'a-rĕt,

2 And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And he entered into one of the ships, which was Sī'mon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship.

4 Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Sī'mon, [b]Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.

5 And Sī'mon answering said unto him, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net.

6 And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net brake.

7 And they beckoned unto their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.

8 When Sī'mon Pē'tĕr saw it, he fell down at Jē'sus' knees, saying, Depart [c]from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.

9 For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken:

10 And so was also Jā'mes, and Jŏhn, the sons of Zĕb'e-dee, which were partners with Sī'mon. And Jē'sus said unto Sī'mon, Fear not; from [d]henceforth thou shalt catch men.

11 And when they had brought their ships to land, [e]they forsook all, and followed him.

12 ¶ And [f]it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold a man full of leprosy: who seeing Jē'sus fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst [g]make me clean.

13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.

14 And [h]he charged him to tell no man: but go, and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, [i]according as Mō'sēs commanded, for a testimony unto them.

15 But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him: and great [j]multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

16 And [k]he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.

17 ¶ And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Phăr'ī-sees and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Găl'ī-lee, and Jū-dæ'a, and Jē-ru'sā-lĕm: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

18 ¶ And, [l]behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the housetop, and let him down through the tiling with his couch into the midst before Jē'sus.

20 And when he saw their [m]faith, he said unto him, Man, [n]thy sins are forgiven thee.

21 And [o]the scribes and the Phăr'ī-sees began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? [p]Who can forgive sins, but God alone?

22 But when Jē'sus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?

23 Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk?

24 But that ye may know that the [q]Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house.

25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, [r]glorifying God.

26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day.

27 ¶ And [s]after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Lē'vī, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me.

28 And he left all, rose up, and followed him.

29 And [t]Lē'vī made him a great feast in his own house: and [u]there was a great company of publicans and of others that sat down with them.

30 But their scribes and Phăr'ī-sees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners?

31 And Jē'sus answering said unto them, They that are whole need not a physician; but they that are sick.

32 I [v]came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

33 ¶ And they said unto him, Why [w]do the disciples of Jŏhn fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Phăr'ī-sees; but thine eat and drink?

34 And he said unto them, Can ye make the children of the bridechamber fast, while the [z]bridegroom is with them?

35 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall [y]be taken away from them, and then shall they [z]fast in those days.

36 ¶ And [a]he spake also a parable unto them; No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old; if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agreeth not with the old.

37 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles; else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish.

38 But new wine must be put into new bottles; and both are preserved.

39 No man also having drunk old wine straightway desireth new: for he saith, The old is better.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Touching the ears of corn that were plucked by the disciples on the sabbath. 13 Christ chooseth the twelve, etc.

AND [a]it came to pass on the second sabbath after the first, that he went through the corn fields; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands.

2 And certain of the Phăr'ĭ-sees said unto them, [b]Why do ye that which is not lawful to do on the sabbath days?

3 And Jē'sus answering them said, Have ye not read so much as this, [c]what Dā'vid did, when himself was an hungred, and they which were with him;

4 How he went into the house of God, and did take and eat the shewbread, and gave also to them that were with him; [d]which it is not lawful to eat but for the priests alone?

5 And he said unto them, That the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

6 ¶And [e]it came to pass also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered.

7 And the scribes and Phăr'ĭ-sees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath day; that they might find an accusation against him.

8 But he [f]knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth.

9 Then said Jē'sus unto them, I will ask you one thing; [g]Is it lawful on the sabbath days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it?

10 And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

11 And they were filled with madness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jē'sus.

12 ¶And [h]it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God.

13 And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples: [i]and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named apostles;

14 Sī'mon, (*j*whom he also named Pē'tēr,) and Ăn'drew his brother, Jāmes and Jŏhn, Phĭl'ĭp and Bär-thŏl'o-mew,

15 Măt'thew and Thŏm'as, Jāmes the son of Ăl-phæ'us, and Sī'mon called Zē-lō'tēs,

16 And Jū'das [k]the brother of Jāmes, and Jū'das Ĭs-căr'ĭ-ot, which also was the traitor.

17 And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, [l]and a great multitude of people out of all Jū-dæ'a and Jē-ru'sā-lĕm, and from the sea coast of Tўre and Sī'dŏn, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases;

18 And they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude sought [m]to touch him: for [n]there went virtue out of him, and healed them all.

20 ¶And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, [o]Blessed be ye poor: for your's is the kingdom of God.

21 Blessed [p]are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. [q]Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh.

22 Blessed [r]are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they [s]shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake.

23 Rejoice [t]ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, your reward is great in heaven: for [u]in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.

24 But [v]woe unto you that are rich! for ye have [w]received your consolation.

25 Woe [x]unto you that are full! for ye shall hunger. [y]Woe unto you that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep. H. 9. 25.

26 Woe [z]unto you, when all men shall speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the false prophets.

35 But love ye your enemies, and do good, and [i]lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and [j]ye shall be the children of the Highest: for [k]he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil.

36 Be [l]ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful.

37 Judge [m]not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall R not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven: R. 10. 12, 13.

38 Give, [n]and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your [o]bosom. For [p]with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again.

39 And he spake a parable unto them, Can [q]the blind lead the blind? shall they not both fall into the ditch?

40 The [r]disciple is not above his master: but every one [1]that is perfect shall be as his master.

41 And [s]why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

42 Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, [t]cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye.

43 For [u]a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit; neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

44 For every [v]tree is known by his own fruit. For of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they [2]grapes.

45 A [w]good man out of the good T treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh. T. 9. 26.

46 ¶ And [x]why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?

47 Whosoever [y]cometh to me, and O heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will shew you to whom he is like:

48 He is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when [z]the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon [a]a rock.

49 But he that heareth, and doeth C not, is like a man that without a G foundation built an house upon the earth; against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell; and [b]the ruin of that house was great. C. 12. 16–21; G. 18. 9–14;*

NOW when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entered into Cā-pēr'na-ŭm.

2 And [a]a certain centurion's servant, who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die.

3 And when he heard of Jē'sus, he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant.

4 And when they came to Jē'sus, they besought him instantly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this:

5 For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue.

6 Then Jē'sus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself: for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter under my roof:

7 Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed.

8 For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers, and I say unto [1]one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

9 When Jē'sus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in [b]Ĭs'ra-el.

10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick.

11 ¶And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Nā'in; and many of his disciples went with him, and much people.

12 Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, he [c]had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not.

14 And he came and touched the [2]bier: and they that bare him stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, [d]Arise.

15 And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he delivered him to his mother.

16 And [e]there came a fear on all: and they glorified God, saying, That [f]a great prophet is risen up among us; and, [g]That God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Jū-dæ'ā, and throughout all the region round about.

18 ¶And [h]the disciples of Jŏhn shewed him of all these things.

19 And Jŏhn calling unto him two of his disciples sent them to Jē'sus, saying, Art thou [i]he that should come? or look we for another?

20 When the men were come unto him, they said, Jŏhn Băp'tĭst hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?

21 And in that same hour he cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits; and unto many that were blind he gave sight.

22 Then [j]Jē'sus answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell Jŏhn what things ye have seen and heard; [k]how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, [l]to the poor the gospel is preached.

23 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

24 ¶And [m]when the messengers of Jŏhn were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning Jŏhn, What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts.

26 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet.

27 This is he, of whom it is written, [n]Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than Jŏhn the Băp'tĭst: but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.

29 And all the people that heard him, and the publicans, justified God, [o]being baptized with the baptism of Jŏhn.

30 But the Phăr'ĭ-sees and lawyers [3]rejected [p]the counsel of God [4]against themselves, being not baptized of him.

31 ¶And the Lord said, [q]Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like?

32 They are like unto children sitting in the marketplace, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.

33 For [r]Jŏhn the Băp'tĭst came neither eating bread nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a devil.

34 The Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners!

35 But [s]wisdom is justified of all her children.

L 36 ¶And [t]one of the Phăr'ĭ-sees desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Phăr'ĭ-see's house, and sat down to meat.

37 And, behold, a [u]woman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Jē'sus sat at meat in the Phăr'ĭ-see's house, brought an alabaster box of ointment,

38 And stood at his feet behind him [v]weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Phăr'ĭ-see which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, [w]This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner.

40 And Jē'sus answering said unto him, Sī'mon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master, say on.

41 There was a certain creditor which had two debtors: the one owed five hundred [z]pence, and the other fifty.

42 And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly [z]forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of [t]them will love him most?

43 Sī'mon answered and said, I suppose that he, to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged.

44 And he turned to the woman, and said unto Sī'mon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no [z]water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.

45 Thou gavest me no [c]kiss: but this woman since the time I came in hath not ceased to kiss my feet.

46 My [b]head with oil thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment.

47 Wherefore [c]I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.

48 And he said unto her, [d]Thy sins are forgiven.

49 And they that sat at meat with him began to say within themselves,

CHAPTER 8.

1 Devout women minister unto Christ. 4 The parable of the sower, 16 and of the candle. 26 The legion of devils cast out: 43 the woman healed of her bloody issue, etc.

AND it came to pass afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, preaching and shewing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him,

2 And [a]certain women, which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mā'rў called Măg-da-lē'nē, [b]out of whom went seven devils,

3 And Jō-ăn'nà the wife of Chū'zà Hĕr'od's steward, and Sŭ-săn'nà, and many others, which ministered unto him of their substance.

4 ¶And [c]when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable:

5 A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.

6 And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.

8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundredfold. And when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

9 ¶And [d]his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be?

10 And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; [e]that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand.

11 Now [f]the parable is this: [g]The seed is the word of God.

12 Those by [h]the way side are they that hear; then cometh [i]the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved. F. John 1. 12. F

13 They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

* F. 8. 12; L. 9. 56. 2

14 And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares [j]and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

15 But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and [k]bring forth fruit with patience.

16 ¶No [l]man, when he hath lighted a candle, [m]covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light.

E 17 For [n]nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known and come abroad. E. 12. 2, 3.

18 Take heed therefore how ye hear: for [o]whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he [1]seemeth to have.

19 ¶Then [p]came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press.

20 And it was told him by certain which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee.

21 And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word of God, and do it.

22 ¶Now [r]it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples: and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake. And they launched forth.

23 But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy.

24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish. Then he [q]arose, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm.

25 And he said unto them, Where is your faith? And they being [s]afraid wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this! for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him.

26 ¶And [t]they arrived at the country of the Gădăr-ēnēs', which is over against Gălĭ-lee.

27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man, which had devils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs.

28 When he saw Jē'sus, he [u]cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jē'sus, thou Son of God most high? I beseech thee, torment me not.

29 (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.)

30 And Jē'sus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many devils were entered into him.

31 And they besought him that he would not command them to go out [v]into the deep.

32 And there was there an [w]herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them. And [x]he suffered them.

33 Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked.

34 When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city and in the country.

35 Then they went out to see what was done; and came to Jē'sus, and found the man, out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Jē'sus, clothed, [z]and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it told them by what means he that was possessed of the devils was healed.

37 ¶Then [a]the whole multitude of the country of the Gădăr-ēnēs' round about besought [z]him to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear: and he went up into the ship, and returned back again.

38 Now [a]the man out of whom the devils were departed besought him that he might be with him: but Jē'sus sent him away, saying,

39 Return to thine own house, and shew how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city how great things Jē'sus had done unto him.

40 And it came to pass, that, when Jē'sus was returned, the people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him.

41 ¶And, [b]behold, there came a man named Jā-ī'rus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jē'sus' feet, and besought him that he would come into his house:

42 For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. But as he went the people thronged him.

43 ¶And [c]a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any,

44 Came behind him, and [d]touched the border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stanched.

45 And Jē'sus said, Who touched me? When all denied, Pē'tēr and they that were with him said, Master, the multitude throng thee and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

46 And Jē'sus said, Somebody hath touched me: for I perceive that [e]virtue is gone out of me.

47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.

48 And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace.

49 ¶While [f]he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the Master.

50 But when Jē'sus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: believe [g]only, and she shall be made whole.

51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Pē'tēr, and Jāmes, and Jŏhn, and the father and the mother of the maiden.

52 And all wept, and bewailed her: but he said, Weep not; she is not dead, [h]but sleepeth.

53 And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.

54 And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, [i]arise.

55 And [j]her spirit came again, and she arose straightway: and he commanded to give her meat.

56 And her parents were astonished: but he [k]charged them that they should tell no man what was done.

CHAPTER 9.

1 Christ sendeth out his apostles: 7 Herod is desirous to see him. 12 Christ feedeth five thousand: 28 his transfiguration.

THEN [a]he called his twelve disciples together, and [b]gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases.

2 And [c]he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.

3 And [d]he said unto them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, neither money; neither have two coats apiece.

4 And [e]whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

5 And [f]whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake [g]off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them.

6 And [h]they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing every where.

7 ¶Now [i]Hĕr'od the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, because that it was said of some, that Jŏhn was risen from the dead;

8 And of some, that Ē-lī'as had appeared; and of others, that one of the old prophets was risen again.

9 And Hĕr'od said, Jŏhn have I beheaded: but who is this, of whom I hear such things? And [j]he desired to see him.

10 ¶And [k]the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done. And [l]he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Bĕth-sā-ī-dà.

11 And the people, when they knew it, followed him: and he received them, and spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need of healing.

12 ¶And [m]when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert place.

13 But he said unto them, [n]Give ye them to eat. And they said, [o]We have no more but five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy meat for all this people.

14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company.

15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.

16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.

17 And they [p]did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them twelve baskets.

18 ¶And [q]it came to pass, as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am?

19 They answering said, [r]John the Băp'tĭst; but some say, Ē-lī'as; and others say, that one of the old prophets is risen again.

20 He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am? [s]Pē'tĕr answering said, The Chrĭst of God.

21 And [t]he straitly charged them, and commanded them to tell no man that thing;

22 Saying, [u]The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be slain, and be raised the third day.

23 ¶And [v]he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

24 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.

H 25 For [w]what is a man advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away?*

T † 26 For [x]whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's, and of the holy angels.

27 But [y]I tell you of a truth, there be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.

28 ¶And [z]it came to pass about an eight days after these [1]sayings, he took Pē'tĕr and Jŏhn and Jămĕs, and went up into a mountain to pray.

29 And as he prayed, [a]the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistering.

30 And, behold, there talked with him two men, which were Mō'sĕs and [b]Ē-lī'as:

31 Who appeared in [c]glory, and spake of his decease which he should accomplish at Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm.

32 But Pē'tĕr and they that were with him were [d]heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him.

33 And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Pē'tĕr said unto Jē'sus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Mō'sĕs, and one for Ē-lī'as: not knowing what he said.

34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud.

35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, [e]This is my beloved Son: hear [f]him.

36 And when the voice was past, Jē'sus was found alone. [g]And they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.

37 ¶And [h]it came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him.

38 And, behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, look upon my son: for he is mine only child.

39 And, lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him that he foameth again, and bruising him hardly departeth from him.

40 And I besought thy disciples to cast him out; and they could not.

41 And Jē'sus answering said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and suffer you? Bring thy son hither.

42 And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him. And Jē'sus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father.

43 ¶And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God. But while they wondered every one at all things which Jē'sus did, he said unto his disciples, 44 Let [t]these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men.

45 But [u]they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying.

46 ¶Then [v]there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.

47 And Jē'sus, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him,

48 And said unto them, [w]Whosoever shall receive this child in my name receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: [m]for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

49 And [x]Jŏhn answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name; and we forbad him, because he followeth not with us.

50 And Jē'sus said unto him, Forbid him not: [o]for he that is not against us is for us.

51 ¶And it came to pass, when the time was come that [p]he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm, 52 And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Să-măr'ĭ-tans, to make ready for him.

53 And [q]they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm.

54 And when his disciples Jāmes and Jŏhn saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as [r]Ē-lī'as did?

55 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what [s]manner of spirit ye are of.

56 For the [t]Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

57 ¶And [u]it came to pass, that, as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

58 And Jē'sus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

59 And [v]he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

60 Jē'sus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.

61 And another also said, Lord, I [w]will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at home at my house.

62 And Jē'sus said unto him, [x]No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

CHAPTER 10.

1 Christ sendeth out seventy disciples. 13 Woes against Chorazin, Bethsaida, and Capernaum. 38 Mary commended, etc.

AFTER these things the Lord appointed other seventy also, and [a]sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come.

2 Therefore said he unto them, The [b]harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few: [c]pray ye therefore the [d]Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest.

3 Go your ways: [e]behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves.

4 Carry [f]neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes: and [g]salute no man by the way.

5 And [h]into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house.

6 And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again.

7 And [i]in the same house remain, eating [j]and drinking such things as they give: for the [k]labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not [l]from house to house.

8 And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you:

9 And [m]heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, [n]The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

10 But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say,

11 Even [o]the very dust of your city, which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding be ye

18 And he said unto them, [z]I beheld Sā'tan as lightning fall from heaven.

19 Behold, [a]I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

20 Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your [b]names are written in heaven.

21 ¶In [c]that hour Jē'sus rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from [d]the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight.

22 [1]All things [e]are delivered to me of my Father: and [f]no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him.

23 ¶And he turned him unto his disciples, and said privately, Blessed [g]are the eyes which see the things that ye see:

25 ¶And, behold, a certain lawyer B O stood up, and tempted him, saying, [i]Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

26 He said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou?†

27 And he answering said, [j]Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and [k]thy neighbour as thyself. O. 12. 9.

28 And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, [l]and thou shalt live.

29 But he, willing to [m]justify himself, said unto Jē'sus, And who is my neighbour?

30 And Jē'sus answering said, A certain man went down from Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm to Jĕr'ĭ-chō, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

31 And by chance there came down a certain priest that way: and when he saw him, [n]he passed by on the other side.

32 And likewise a Lē'vīte, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

33 But a certain [o]Să-măr'ĭ-tan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him,

34 And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

35 And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.

36 Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves?

37 And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Jē'sus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

38 ¶Now it came to pass, as they went, that he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named Mär'thà received him into her house.

39 And she had a sister called Mā'rў, which also sat at Jē'sus' feet, and heard his word.

40 But Mar'thà was cumbered about much serving, and came to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me.

41 And Jē'sus answered and said unto her, Măr'thà, Măr'thà, thou art careful and troubled about many things:

42 But one thing is needful: and Mā'rў hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

1 Christ teacheth to pray: 14 he casteth out a dumb devil: 27 sheweth who are truly blessed: 29 he preacheth to the people, 37 and reproveth the Pharisees' outward shew of holiness, etc.

AND it came to pass, that, as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, [e]teach us to pray, as Jŏhn also taught his disciples.

2 And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, [b]Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. [c]Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth.

3 Give us [1]day by day our daily bread.

4 And forgive us our sins; for [d]we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And [e]lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.

5 And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves;

6 For a friend of mine [2]in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?

7 And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee.

8 I say unto you, [f]Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth.

W 9 And [g]I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

14 ¶ And [j]he was casting out a devil, and it was dumb. And it came to pass, when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake; and the people wondered.

15 But some of them said, [k]He casteth out devils through [4]Bē-ĕl'ze-bŭb the chief of the devils.

16 And others, tempting him, sought [l]of him a sign from heaven.

17 But he, [m]knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth.

18 If Sā'tan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out devils through Bē-ĕl'ze-bŭb.

19 And if I by Bē-ĕl'ze-bŭb cast out devils, by whom do [n]your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges.

20 But if I [o]with the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you.

21 When [p]a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace:

22 But [q]when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils.

A N 23 He [r]that is not with me is against me: and he that gathereth not with me scattereth. A. 18. 17; N. 12. 16–21.

24 When [s]the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out.

25 And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished.

26 Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and [t]the last state of that man is worse than the first.

27 ¶ And it came to pass, as he spake

these things, a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice, and said unto him, [u]Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked.

28 But he said, Yea [v]rather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

29 ¶And [w]when the people were gathered thick together, he began to say, This is an evil generation: they seek a sign; and there shall no sign be given it, but the sign of Jō'nas the prophet.

30 For as [x]Jō'nas was a sign unto the Nĭn'e-vītes, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation.

H J 31 The [y]queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and condemn them: for she came from the utmost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Sŏl'o-mon; and, behold, a [z]greater than Sŏl'o-mon is here.

R 32 The men of Nĭn'e-ve shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for [a]they repented at the preaching of Jō'nas; and, behold, a greater than Jō'nas is here. H. 12. 4, 5; J. John 8. 50; R. 13. 3.

33 No [b]man, when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a [c]bushel, but on a candlestick, that they which come in may see the light.

34 The [d]light of the body is the eye: therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness.

35 Take heed therefore that the light which is in thee be not darkness.

36 If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when [5]the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light.

37 ¶And as he spake, a certain Phăr'ĭ-see besought him to dine with him: and he went in, and sat down to meat.

38 And [e]when the Phăr'ĭ-see saw it, he marvelled that he had not first washed before dinner.

39 And [f]the Lord said unto him, Now do ye Phăr'ĭ-sees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but [g]your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness.

40 Ye fools, did not he that made that which is without make that which is within also?

41 But [h]rather give alms [6]of such things as ye have; and, behold, all things are clean unto you.

42 But [i]woe unto you, Phăr'ĭ-sees! for [j]ye tithe mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment and the love of God: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

43 Woe [k]unto you, Phăr'ĭ-sees! for ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets.

44 Woe [l]unto you, scribes and Phăr'ĭ-sees, hypocrites! [m]for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them.

45 Then answered one of the lawyers, and said unto him, Master, thus saying thou reproachest us also.

46 And he said, Woe unto you also, ye lawyers! [n]for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 Woe [o]unto you! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 Truly ye bear witness that ye allow the deeds of your fathers: for [p]they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres.

49 Therefore also said the [q]wisdom of God, [7]I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute:

50 That the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation;

51 From [r]the blood of Ā'bĕl unto the blood of Zăch-a-rī'as, which perished between the altar and the temple: verily I say unto you, It shall be required of this generation.

52 Woe [s]unto you, lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye [7]hindered.

53 And as he said these things unto them, the scribes and the Phăr'ĭ-sees began to urge him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of many things:

54 Laying wait for him, [t]and seeking to catch something out of his mouth, that they might accuse him.

1 To avoid hypocrisy. 13 To beware of covetousness. 41 The faithful and wise steward. 49 Of divisions on account of the gospel.

CHAP. 12.

IN [a] the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, [b] Beware ye of the leaven of the Phăr'ĭ-sees, which is hypocrisy.

E 2 For [c] there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known.

3 Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the house-tops. E. 16. 15

H 4 And [d] I say unto you my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.

5 But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed hath [e] power to cast into * hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him.

K 6 Are not five sparrows sold for two [f] farthings, and [g] not one of them is forgotten before God?

7 But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows. K. 12. 23–32.

T W 8 Also [h] I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God: †

O 9 But he that denieth me before men shall be denied before the angels of God. O. John 3. 1–8.

10 And [i] whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the Hō'lў Ghōst it shall not be forgiven.

11 And [j] when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates, and powers, take ye no thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say:

12 For [k] the Hō'lў Ghōst shall teach you in the same hour what ye ought to say.

13 ¶ And one of the company said unto him, Master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me.

14 And he said unto him, [l] Man, who made me a judge or a divider over you?

15 And he said unto them, [m] Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

C 16 And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a cer- N tain rich man brought forth plentifully:

17 And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits?

18 And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods.

19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, [n] thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.

20 But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night [1] thy soul shall be required of thee: then [o] whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?

21 So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, [p] and is not rich toward God. C. John 3. 19; N. 12. 47.

22 ¶ And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, Take [2] no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more than meat, and K the body is more than raiment.

24 Consider the ravens: for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have storehouse nor barn; and [q] God feedeth them: how much more are ye better than the fowls?

25 And which of you with taking thought can add to his stature one cubit?

26 If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for the rest?

27 Consider the lilies how they grow: they toil not, they spin not; and yet I say unto you, that Sŏl'o-mon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

28 If then God so clothe the grass, which is to day in the field, and to morrow is cast into the oven; how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?

29 And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, [2] neither be ye of doubtful mind.

CHAPTER 13.

1 Christ preacheth repentance by the calamity upon the Galilæans and others. 6 Parable of the fig tree. 11 He healeth the crooked woman. 18 Parables of the mustard seed and the leaven.

THERE were present at that season some that told him [a]of the Găl-ĭ-læ'ans, whose blood Pī'late had mingled with their sacrifices.

2 And Jē'sus answering said unto them, Suppose [b]ye that these Găl-ĭ-læ'ans were sinners above all the Găl-ĭ-læ'ans, because they suffered such things?

R 3 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.*

4 Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Sĭ-lō'am fell, and slew them, think ye that they were [1]sinners above all men that dwelt in Jē-ru'sā-lĕm?

R 5 I tell you, Nay: but, except [c]ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.†

6 ¶He spake also this parable; [d]A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none.

7 Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three [e]years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground?

8 And he answering said unto him, Lord, let [f]it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it:

9 And if it bear fruit, well: and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down.

10 ¶And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath.

11 And, behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself.

12 And when Jē'sus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity.

13 And [g]he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the synagogue answered [h]with indignation, because that Jē'sus had healed on the sabbath day, and said unto the people, [i]There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and [j]not on the sabbath day.

15 The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou hypocrite, [k]doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering?

16 And ought not [l]this woman, being [m]a daughter of Ā'bră-hăm, whom Sā'tan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day?

17 And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

18 ¶Then [n]said he, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I resemble it?

19 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his garden; and it grew, and waxed a great tree; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it.

20 ¶And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God?

21 It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in [o]three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

22 And [p]he went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying toward Jē-ru'sā-lĕm.

H 23 ¶Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, 24 [2]Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for [r]many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

25 When [s]once the master of the house is risen up, and [t]hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, [u]Lord, Lord, open unto us; and he shall answer and say unto you, [v]I know you not whence ye are:†

26 Then shall ye begin to say, [w]We have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets.

27 But [x]he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are; depart [y]from me, all ye workers of iniquity.

28 There [z]shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, [z]when ye shall see Ā'bră-hăm, and Ī'saac, and Jā'cob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out. H. 16. 19–31.

CHAPTER 14.

2 Christ healeth the dropsy on the sabbath day: 7 teacheth humility: 12 to feed the poor. 15 The parable of the great supper. 25 What is required of those who would be Christ's disciples.

AND it came to pass, as he went into the house of one of the chief Phăr'ī-sees to eat bread on the sabbath day, that they watched him.

2 And, behold, there was a certain man before him which had the dropsy.

3 And Jē'sus answering spake unto the lawyers and Phăr'ī-sees, saying, [a]Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day?

4 And they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go;

5 And answered them, saying, Which [b]of you shall have an ass or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the sabbath day?

6 And they could not answer him again to these things.

7 ¶And he put forth a parable to those which were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chief rooms; saying unto them,

8 When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room; lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him;

9 And he that bade thee and him come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room.

10 But [c]when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee.

R 11 For [d]whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.*

12 ¶Then said he also to him that bade him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompence be made thee.

13 But when thou makest a feast, call [e]the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind:

14 And thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed [f]at the resurrection of the just.

15 ¶And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, [g]Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God.

L N 16 Then [h]said he unto him, A certain man made a great supper, and bade many:

17 And [i]sent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready.

18 And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, [j]I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused.

19 And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused.

20 And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

W 21 So that servant came, and shewed his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his servant, Go [k]out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind.

CHAPTER 15.

1 The parable of the lost sheep: 8 of the piece of silver: 11 of the prodigal son.

THEN [a]drew near unto him all the publicans and [b]sinners for to hear him.

2 And the Phăr'ĭ-sees and scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and [c]eateth with them.

3 ¶And he spake this parable unto them, saying,

4 What [d]man of you, having an hundred sheep, if he [e]lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it?

5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep [f]which was lost.

7 I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, [g]more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance. R. 15. 10.

8 ¶Either what woman having ten [1]pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find it?

9 And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbours together, saying, Rejoice with me; for I have found the piece which I had lost.

10 Likewise, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth. †

11 ¶And he said, A certain man had two sons:

12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them [h]his living.

13 And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into [i]a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want.

15 And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

16 And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him.

17 And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!

18 I will [j]arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, [k]I have sinned against heaven, and before thee,

19 And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.

25 Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard musick and dancing.

26 And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant.

27 And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound.

28 And [q]he was angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father out, and intreated him.

29 And he answering said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment: and [r]yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends:

CHAPTER 16.

1 The parable of the unjust steward. 14 Christ reproveth the hypocrisy of the covetous Pharisees. 19 The rich glutton, and Lazarus the beggar.

AND he said also unto his disciples, There was a [a]certain rich man, which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.

2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an [b]account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed.

4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord?

6 And he said, An hundred [1]measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.

7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred [2]measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore.

8 And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than [c]the children of light.

9 And I say unto you, [d]Make to yourselves friends of the [3]mammon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.

10 He [e]that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much.

11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous [4]mammon, who will commit to your trust the [f]true riches?

12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own?

13 No [g]servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

14 ¶And the Phăr'ĭ-sees also, who [h]were covetous, heard all these things: and they derided him.

E 15 And he said unto them, Ye are they which [i]justify yourselves before men; but God [j]knoweth your hearts: for [k]that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God. E. John 1. 47, 48.

17 And [m]it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the law to fail.

18 Whosoever [n]putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband committeth adultery.

19 ¶There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day:

20 And there was a certain beggar named Lăz'a-rŭs, which was laid at his gate, [o]full of sores,

21 And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.

22 And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and [p]was carried by the angels into Ā'brā-hăm's [q]bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried;

23 And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Ā'brā-hăm afar off, and Lăz'a-rŭs in his bosom.

24 And he cried and said, Father Ā'brā-hăm, have mercy on me, and send Lăz'a-rŭs, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and [r]cool my tongue; for I [s]am tormented in this flame.

25 But Ā'brā-hăm said, Son, [t]remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lăz'a-rŭs evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.

26 And beside all this, between us and you there is a [u]great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.

27 Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house:

28 For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.

29 Ā'brā-hăm saith unto him, They have [v]Mō'ses and the prophets; let them hear them.

30 And he said, Nay, father Ā'brā-hăm: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent.

31 And he said unto him, If they hear not Mō'ses and the prophets, [w]neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.*

1 Christ teacheth to avoid occasions of offence, 3 to forgive one another. 6 The power of faith. 11 He healeth ten lepers. 22 Of the kingdom of God, and the coming of the Son of man, etc.

THEN said he unto the disciples, [a]It is impossible but that offences will come: but [b]woe unto him, through whom they come!

2 It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones.

4 And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

5 ¶And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith.

6 And [f]the Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you.

7 But which of you, having a servant plowing or feeding cattle, will say unto him by and by, when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to meat?

the priests. And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed.

15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice [1]glorified God,

16 And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was [m]a Sā-măr'ĭ-tan.

18 There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger.

19 And [n]he said unto him, Arise, go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole.

20 ¶ And when he was demanded of the Phăr'ĭ-sees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not [1]with observation:

21 Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, Lo there! for, behold, the [o]kingdom of God is [2]within you.

22 ¶ And he said unto the disciples, [p]The days will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it.

23 And [q]they shall say to you, See here; or, See there: go [r]not after them, nor follow them.

25 But [t]first must he suffer many things, and be rejected of this generation.

26 And [u]as it was in the days of Nō'e, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man.

27 They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Nō'e entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all.

28 Likewise [v]also as it was in the days of Lŏt; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded;

29 But the same day that Lŏt went out of Sŏd'om it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all.

30 Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man [w]is revealed.

31 In that day, he [x]which shall be upon the housetop, and his stuff in the house, let him not come down to take it away: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back.

32 Remember [y]Lŏt's wife.

33 Whosoever [z]shall seek to save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life shall preserve it.

34 I [a]tell you, in that night there shall be two men in one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.

35 Two women shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

36 [3]Two men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

H. 19. 27; N. John 3. 18-20.

2 Saying, There was [1]in a city a judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man:

3 And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary.

4 And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man;

5 Yet [b]because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.

6 And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith.

7 And [c]shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

8 I tell you [d]that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?

9 ¶ And he spake this parable unto certain [e]which trusted in themselves [2]that they were righteous, and despised others:

10 Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Phăr'ĭ-see, and the other a publican.

21 And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up.

22 Now when Jē'sus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell [p]all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.

23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich.

24 And when Jē'sus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, [q]How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

AND Jē'sus entered and passed through [a]Jĕr'ī-chō.

* G. 18. 18–23; L. 19. 1–10; R. 18. 17;
† R. 19. 8–10; ‡ G. John 3. 1–8.

L 2 And, behold, there was a man named Zăc-chæ'us, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich.

3 And he sought to see Jē'sus who he was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature.

4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycomore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way.

5 And when Jē'sus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zăc-chæ'us, make haste, and come down; for to day I must abide at thy house.

6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.

7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, [b]That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.

R 8 And Zăc-chæ'us stood, and said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by [c]false accusation, I [d]restore him fourfold.

9 And Jē'sus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forsomuch as [e]he also is a son of Ā'brăhăm.

W 10 For [f]the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost. L. 23. 34; R. 24. 47; W. John 1. 7.

11 ¶ And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm, and because [g]they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear.

12 He [h]said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return.

13 And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten [1]pounds, and said unto them, Occupy till I come.

14 But [i]his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us.

15 And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the [2]money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds.

17 And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant: because thou hast been [j]faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds.

19 And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities.

20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin:

21 For [k]I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow.

22 And he saith unto him, [l]Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. [m]Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow:

23 Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury?

24 And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds.

25 (And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.)

26 For I say unto you, [n]That unto every one which hath shall be given; and from him that hath not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him.

H 27 But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me. H. 20. 18.

28 And when he had thus spoken, he [o]went before, ascending up to Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm.

29 ¶ And [p]it came to pass, when he was come nigh to Bĕth'pha-gē and Bĕth'a-nỹ, at the mount called the mount of ŏl'ĭves, he sent two of his disciples,

30 Saying, Go ye into the village over against you; in the which at your entering ye shall find a colt tied, whereon yet never man sat: loose him, and bring him hither.

31 And if any man ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say unto him, Because [q]the Lord hath need of him.

35 And they brought him to Jē'sus: [r]and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set Jē'sus thereon.

36 And [s]as he went, they spread their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was come nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of ŏl'ĭves, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen;

38 Saying, [t]Blessed be the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: [u]peace in heaven, and glory in the highest.

39 And some of the Phăr'ĭ-sees from among the multitude said unto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

40 And he answered and said unto them, I tell you that, if these should hold their peace, [v]the stones would immediately cry out.

41 ¶And when he was come near, he beheld the city, and [w]wept over it,

42 Saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes.

43 For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall [x]cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, 44 And [y]shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and they [z]shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because [a]thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

45 And [b]he went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought;

46 Saying unto them, [c]It is written, My house is the house of prayer: but [d]ye have made it a den of thieves.

47 And he taught daily in the temple. But the [e]chief priests and the scribes and the chief of the people sought to destroy him, 48 And could not find what they might do: for all the people [3]were very attentive to hear him.

CHAPTER 20.

1 Christ silenceth those who questioned his authority.
9 The parable of the vineyard.

AND [c]it came to pass, that on one of those days, as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes came upon him with the elders,

2 And spake unto him, saying, Tell us, by what [b]authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority?

3 And he answered and said unto them, I will also ask you one thing; and answer me:

4 The baptism of Jŏhn, was it from heaven, or of men?

5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then believed ye him not?

6 But and if we say, Of men; all the people will stone us: [c]for they be persuaded that Jŏhn was a prophet.

7 And they answered, that [d]they could not tell whence it was.

8 And Jē'sus said unto them, Neither [e]tell I you by what authority I do these things.

9 Then began he to speak to the people this parable; [f]A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time.

10 And at the season [g]he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.

11 And again he sent another servant: and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.

12 And [h]again he sent a third: and they wounded him also, and cast him out.

13 Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send [i]my beloved son: it may be they will reverence him when they see him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, [j]This is the heir: come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and [k]killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them?

16 He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

17 And he beheld them, and said,

What is this then that is written, The [k]stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner?

18 Whosoever shall fall upon that stone shall be broken; [m]but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

19 And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

20 ¶And [n]they watched him, and sent forth spies, which should feign themselves just men, that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governor.

21 And they asked him, saying, [o]Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God [l]truly:

22 Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Cæ'sar, or no?

23 But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them, Why tempt ye me?

24 Shew me a [p]penny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Cæ'sar's.

25 And he said unto them, Render therefore unto Cæ'sar the things which be Cæ'sar's, and unto God the things which be God's.

26 And they could not take hold of his words before the people: and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

27 ¶Then [q]came to him certain of the Săd'du-çees, [r]which deny that there is any resurrection: and they asked him,

28 Saying, Master, [s]Mō'ses wrote unto us, If any man's brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

29 There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died without children.

30 And the second took her to wife, and he died childless.

31 And the third took her; and in like manner the seven also: and they left no children, and died.

32 Last of all the woman died also.

33 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife.

34 And Jē'sus answering said unto them, The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage:

35 But they which shall be [t]accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage:

36 Neither can they die any more: for they are [u]equal unto the angels; and are the children of God, [v]being the children of the resurrection.

37 Now that the dead are raised, even [w]Mō'ses shewed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of A'brā-hăm, and the God of I'saac, and the God of Jā'cob.

38 For [x]he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for [y]all live unto him.

39 Then certain of the scribes answering said, Master, thou hast well said.

40 And after that they durst not ask him any question at all.

41 ¶And he said unto them, How [z]say they that Chrīst is Dā'vid's son?

42 And Dā'vid himself saith in the book of Psälms, [a]The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 43 Till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

44 Dā'vid therefore calleth him Lord, how is he then his son?

45 ¶Then [b]in the audience of all the people he said unto his disciples,

46 Beware [c]of the scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, [d]and love greetings in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief rooms at feasts;

47 Which [e]devour widows' houses, and for a shew make long prayers: the same [f]shall receive greater damnation.

God: but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had.

5 ¶And [c]as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts, he said,

6 As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in the which [d]there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

7 And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass?

8 And he said, [e]Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; [1]and the time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them.

9 But when ye shall hear of wars and commotions, be not terrified: for these things must first come to pass; but the end is not by and by.

10 Then [f]said he unto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom:

11 And great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences; and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from heaven.

12 But [g]before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and into [h]prisons, being [i]brought before kings and rulers [j]for my name's sake.

13 And [k]it shall turn to you for a testimony.

14 Settle [l]it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer:

15 For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, [m]which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist.

16 And [n]ye shall be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends; [o]and some of you shall they cause to be put to death.

17 And [p]ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake.

18 But there shall not an hair of your head perish.

19 In your patience possess ye your souls.

20 And [q]when ye shall see Jĕ-ru'sălĕm compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh.

21 Then let them which are in Jūdæ'ā flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto.

22 For these be the days of vengeance, that [r]all things which are written may be fulfilled.

23 But woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days! for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people.

24 And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jĕ-ru'sălĕm shall be trodden down of the Gĕn'tīles, [s]until the times of the Gĕn'tīles be fulfilled.

25 ¶And [t]there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; H

26 Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: [u]for the powers of heaven shall be shaken. H. 23. 30.

27 And then shall they see the Son of man coming [v]in a cloud with power and great glory.

28 And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh.

29 And [w]he spake to them a parable; Behold the fig tree, and all the trees;

30 When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand.

31 So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand.

32 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled.

33 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away. K. John 1. 4. K

34 ¶And [z]take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares.

35 For [a]as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

36 Watch [b]ye therefore, [a]and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and [b]to stand before the Son of man.

37 And [c]in the day time he was teaching in the temple; and [d]at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the mount of Ŏl'ĭvĕs.

38 And all the people came early in the morning to him [c]in the temple, for to hear him.

CHAPTER 22.

1 The Jews conspire against Christ: 3 Judas covenanteth to betray him: 19 he instituteth his holy supper: 42 his agony in the garden: 50 he healeth Malchus' ear, etc.

NOW [a]the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Passover.

2 And [b]the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him; for they feared the people.

3 ¶Then [c]entered Sā'tan into Jū'das surnamed Ĭs-kăr'ĭ-ot, being of the number of the twelve.

4 And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him unto them.

5 And they were glad, and [d]covenanted to give him money.

6 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them [1]in the absence of the multitude.

7 ¶Then [e]came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed.

8 And he sent Pē'tĕr and Jŏhn, saying, Go and prepare us the passover, that we may eat.

9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare?

10 And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he entereth in.

11 And ye shall say unto the goodman of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

12 And he shall shew you a large upper room furnished: there make ready.

13 And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

14 And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him.

15 And he said unto them, [2]With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer:

16 For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, [f]until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

17 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves:

18 For [g]I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come.

19 ¶And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this [h]do in remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, [i]This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you. D. 24. 44–47.

21 ¶But, [j]behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table.

22 And truly the Son of man goeth, as [k]it was determined: but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed!

23 And they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.

24 ¶And [l]there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest.

25 And [m]he said unto them, The kings of the Gĕn'tīles exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors.

26 But [n]ye shall not be so: [o]but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve.

27 For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? but I [p]am among you as he that serveth.

28 Ye are they which have continued with me in [q]my temptations.

29 And [r]I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me;

30 That [s]ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, [t]and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Ĭs'ra-el.

31 ¶And the Lord said, Sī'mon, Sī'mon, behold, [u]Sā'tan hath desired to have you, that he may [v]sift you as wheat:

32 But [w]I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: [x]and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren.

33 And he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison, and to death.

CHAP. 22.

34 And [x]he said, I tell thee, Pē'tĕr, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.

35 ¶And [z]he said unto them, When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing.

36 Then said he unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one.

37 For I say unto you, that this that is written must yet be accomplished in me, And [a]he was reckoned among the transgressors: for the things concerning me have an end.

38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough.

39 ¶And he came out, and went, as he was wont, to the mount of ŏl'ĭvĕs; and his disciples also followed him.

40 And [b]when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation.

41 And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled down, and prayed,

42 Saying, Father, if thou be [3]willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless [c]not my will, but thine, be done.

43 And there appeared [d]an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him.

44 And [e]being in an agony he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

45 And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow,

46 And said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

47 ¶And while he yet spake, behold a multitude, and he that was called Jū'das, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jē'sŭs [f]to kiss him.

48 But Jē'sus said unto him, Jū'das, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?

49 When they which were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword?

50 ¶And [g]one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

51 And Jē'sus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him.

52 Then Jē'sus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him, Be ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and staves?

53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: [h]but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

54 ¶Then [i]took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. [j]And Pē'tĕr followed afar off.

55 And [k]when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Pē'tĕr sat down among them.

56 But a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him.

57 And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

58 And [l]after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Pē'tĕr said, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of one hour after another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this fellow also was with him: for he is a Găl-ĭ-læ'an.

60 And Pē'tĕr said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew.

61 And the Lord turned, and looked upon Pē'tĕr. [m]And Pē'tĕr remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, Before the [n]cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

62 And Pē'tĕr went out, and wept [o]bitterly.

63 ¶And [p]the men that held Jē'sus mocked him, and smote him.

64 And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophesy, who is it that smote thee?

65 And many other things blasphemously spake they against him.

66 ¶And [q]as soon as it was day, the [r]elders of the people and the chief priests and the scribes came together, and led him into their council, saying,

CHAPTER 23.

1 Jesus is accused before Pilate, 7 and sent to Herod: 11 he is mocked, and sent back to Pilate: 25 he is delivered to be crucified, 34 prayeth for his enemies, etc.

AND [a]the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pī'late.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this fellow [b]perverting the nation, and [c]forbidding to give tribute to Cæ'sar, saying [d]that he himself is Chrīst a King.

3 And [e]Pī'late asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, Thou sayest it.

4 Then said Pī'late to the chief priests and to the people, [f]I find no fault in this man.

5 And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jew'rў, beginning from Găl'ĭ-lee to this place.

6 When Pī'late heard of Găl'ĭ-lee, he asked whether the man were a Găl-ĭ-læ'an.

7 And as soon as he knew that he belonged unto [g]Hĕr'od's jurisdiction, he sent him to Hĕr'od, who himself also was at Jē-ru'sā-lĕm at that time.

8 ¶And when Hĕr'od saw Jē'sus, he was exceeding glad: for [h]he was desirous to see him of a long season, because [i]he had heard many things of him; and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him.

9 Then he questioned with him in many words; but he answered him nothing.

10 And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him.

11 And [j]Hĕr'od with his men of war set him at nought, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pī'late.

12 ¶And the same day [k]Pī'late and Hĕr'od were made friends together: for before they were at enmity between themselves.

13 ¶And [l]Pī'late, when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people,

14 Said unto them, Ye have brought this man unto me, as one that perverteth the people: and, behold, I, having examined him before you, have [m]found no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him:

15 No, nor yet Hĕr'od: for I sent you to him; and, lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him.

16 I [n]will therefore chastise him, and release him.

17 (For [o]of necessity he must release one unto them at the feast.)

18 And [p]they cried out all at once, saying, Away with this man, and release unto us Bă-răb'bas:

19 (Who for a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder, was cast into prison.)

20 Pī'late therefore, willing to release Jē'sus, spake again to them.

21 But they cried, saying, Crucify him, crucify him.

22 And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go.

23 And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified. And the voices of them and of the chief priests prevailed.

24 And Pī'late [1]gave sentence that it should be as they required.

25 And [q]he released unto them him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jē'sus to their will.

26 ¶And [r]as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Sī'mon, a Çў-rē'nĭ-an, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jē'sus.

27 And there followed him a great company of people, and of women, which also bewailed and lamented him.

28 But Jē'sus turning unto them said, Daughters of Jē-ru'sā-lĕm, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children.

29 For, [s]behold, the days are coming, in the which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that 31 For [u]if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry?

32 ¶ And [v]there were also two other, malefactors, led with him to be put to death.

33 And [w]when they were come to the place, which is called [2]Căl'va-rў, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.

L 34 Then said Jē'sus, Father, [x]forgive them; for [y]they know not what they do. And [z]they parted his raiment, and cast lots. L. 23. 39–43.

35 And [a]the people stood beholding. And the rulers also with them derided him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if he be Chrīst, the chosen of God.

36 And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him vinegar, 37 And saying, If thou be the king of the Jews, save thyself.

38 And [b]a superscription also was written over him in letters of Greek, and Lăt'in, and Hē'brew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

L 39 ¶ And [c]one of the malefactors which were hanged railed on him, saying, If thou be Chrīst, save thyself and us.

40 But the other answering [d]rebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

41 And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss.

42 And he said unto Jē'sus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into [e]thy kingdom.

43 And Jē'sus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in [f]paradise. L. 24. 46*–47.

44 ¶ And [g]it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the [3]earth until the ninth hour.

45 And the sun was darkened, and [h]the veil of the temple was rent in the midst.

46 And when Jē'sus had cried with a loud voice, he said, [i]Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: [j]and having said thus, he gave up the ghost.

47 ¶ Now [k]when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man.

48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their breasts, and returned.

49 And [l]all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Găl'ĭ-lee, stood afar off, beholding these things.

50 ¶ And, [m]behold, there was a man named Jō'seph, a counsellor; and he was a good man, and a just:

51 (The same [n]had not consented to the counsel and deed of them;) he was of Ăr-ĭ-mă-thæ'à, a city of the Jews: [o]who also himself waited for the kingdom of God.

52 This man went unto Pī'late, and begged the body of Jē'sus.

53 And [p]he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in [q]a sepulchre that was hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid.

54 And that day was the preparation, and the sabbath drew on.

55 ¶ And the women also, [r]which came with him from Găl'ĭ-lee, followed after, and beheld [s]the sepulchre, and how his body was laid.

56 And they returned, and [t]prepared spices and ointments; and rested the sabbath day [u]according to the commandment.

2 And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

3 And [c]they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jē'sus.

4 And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, [d]two men stood by them in shining garments:

5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye [1]the living among the dead?

our company made us astonished, which were early at the sepulchre;
23 And when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive.
24 And certain of them which were with us went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw not.
25 Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken:
26 Ought [r]not Chrĭst to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?
27 And beginning at [s]Mō'ses and all the [t]prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself. B. 24. 32.
28 And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they went: and [u]he made as though he would have gone further.
29 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them.
30 And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, he took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them.
31 And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he [2]vanished out of their sight.
32 And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures? B. 24. 44, 45.
33 And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them,
34 Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath [v]appeared to Sī'mon.
35 And they told what things were done in the way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread.
36 ¶And as they thus spake, Jē'sus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.
37 But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.
38 And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts?
39 Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.

40 And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hands and his feet.

41 And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, Have ye here any meat?

42 And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honeycomb.

43 And [w]he took it, and did eat before them.

B D 44 And he said unto them, [x]These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Mō'ses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me.

45 Then [y]opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures, B. John 1. 17.

L 46 And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Chrīst to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day:

D 47 And that repentance and [z]remission of sins should be preached in L R his name among [a]all nations, beginning at Jē-ru'sā-lĕm. D. John 1. 29;†

48 And [b]ye are witnesses of these things.

49 ¶And, [c]behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jē-ru'sā-lĕm, until ye be endued with power from on high.

50 ¶And he led them out as far as to Bĕth'a-nў, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them.

51 And [d]it came to pass, while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven.

52 And they worshipped him, and returned to Jē-ru'sā-lĕm with great joy:

53 And were continually [e]in the temple, praising and blessing God. A-mĕn'.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO SAINT JOHN.

CHAPTER 1.

The divinity and incarnation of Jesus Christ.

IN the beginning was [a]the Word, and the Word was [b]with God, and [c]the Word was God.

2 The same was in the beginning with God.

3 All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

K 4 In him was life; and the life was the light of men. K. 1. 12.

5 And [d]the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

6 ¶There [e]was a man sent from God, whose name was Jŏhn.

W 7 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe. *

8 He [f]was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

9 That [g]was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

10 He was in the world, and [h]the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

11 He [i]came unto his own, and his own received him not.

F K W 12 But [j]as many as received him, to them gave he [k]power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: F. 3. 14–18;‡

13 Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, [k]but of God.

14 And [l]the Word [m]was made [n]flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we [o]beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full [p]of grace and truth.

15 ¶Jŏhn bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me is preferred before me: for [q]he was before me.

16 And of his [r]fulness have all we received, and grace for grace.

B 17 For the [s]law was given by Mō'ses, [t]but grace and [u]truth came by Jē'sus Chrīst. B. 5. 39.

18 No [v]man hath seen God at any time; the [w]only begotten Son, which is in [z]the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 ¶And this is the record of Jŏhn, when the Jews sent priests and Lē'vītes from Jē-ru'sā-lĕm to ask him, Who art thou?

20 And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Chrīst.

21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou [y]Ē-lī'as? And he saith, [z]I am not. Art thou [2]that prophet? And he answered, No.

22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself?

23 He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said [a]the prophet Ē-sā'ias.

24 And they which were sent were of the Phăr'ĭ-sees.

25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Chrīst, nor Ē-lī'as, neither that prophet?

26 Jŏhn answered them, saying, I baptize with water: [b]but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not;

27 He it is, who coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

28 These things were done in Bĕth-ăb'a-rà beyond Jôr'dan, where Jŏhn was baptizing.

D K L 29 ¶The next day Jŏhn seeth Jē'sus coming unto him, and saith, Behold [c]the Lamb of God, [d]which [3]taketh away the sin of the world. D. 1. 36;*

30 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

31 And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Ĭs'ra-el, therefore am I come baptizing with water.

32 And Jŏhn bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.

33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the [e]same is he which baptizeth with the Hō'lў Ghōst.

34 And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God.

35 ¶Again the next day after Jŏhn stood, and two of his disciples;

D 36 And looking upon Jē'sus as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God! D. 3. 14–17.

37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jē'sus.

38 Then Jē'sus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? They said unto him, Răb'bī, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master,) where [4]dwellest thou?

39 He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was [5]about the tenth hour.

40 One of the two which heard Jŏhn speak, and followed him, was Ăn'drew, Sī'mon Pē'tĕr's brother.

41 He first findeth his own brother Sī'mon, [f]and saith unto him, We have found the Mĕs-sī'as, which is, being interpreted, [6]the Chrīst.

42 And he brought him to Jē'sus. And when Jē'sus beheld him, he said, Thou art Sī'mon the son of Jō'nà: thou shalt be called Çē'phas, which is by interpretation, [7]A stone.

43 ¶The day following Jē'sus would go forth into Găl'ĭ-lee, and findeth Phĭl'ĭp, and saith unto him, Follow me.

44 Now [g]Phĭl'ĭp was of Bĕth-sā'ĭ-dà, the city of Ăn'drew and Pē'tĕr.

45 Phĭl'ĭp findeth [h]Nā-thăn'a-el, and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom Mō'sĕs [i]in the law, and the prophets, [j]did write, Jē'sus of Năz'a-rĕth, the son of Jō'sĕph.

46 And Nā-thăn'a-el said unto him, Can there any good thing come out of Năz'a-rĕth? Phĭl'ĭp saith unto him, Come and see.

E 47 Jē'sus saw Nā-thăn'a-el coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Ĭs'ra-el-īte indeed, in whom is no guile!

48 Nā-thăn'a-el saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jē'sus answered and said unto him, Before that Phĭl'ĭp called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee. E. 2. 24, 25.

49 Nā-thăn'a-el answered and saith unto him, Răb'bī, thou art the Son of God; thou art the [k]King of Ĭs'ra-el.

50 Jē'sus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these.

* K. 4. 13, 14; L. 3. 16, 17.

51 And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, [l]Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon [m]the Son of man.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Christ turneth water into wine, 12 goeth into Capernaum, and to Jerusalem, 14 purgeth the temple, 19 foretelleth his death and resurrection, etc.

AND the third day there was a marriage in Cā'nȧ of Găl'ĭ-lee; and the mother of Jē'sus was there:
2 And both Jē'sus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage.
3 And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jē'sus saith unto him, They have no wine.
4 Jē'sus saith unto her, [a]Woman, what [b]have I to do with thee? mine [c]hour is not yet come.
5 His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it.
6 And there were set there six waterpots of stone, [d]after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece.
7 Jē'sus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.
8 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it.
9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted the [e]water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was: (but the servants which drew the water knew;) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom,
10 And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now.
11 This beginning of miracles did Jē'sus in [f]Cā'nȧ of Găl'ĭ-lee, [g]and manifested forth his glory; and his disciples believed on him.
12 ¶After this he went down to Cā-pēr'na-ŭm, he, and his mother, and [h]his brethren, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days.
13 ¶And [i]the Jews' passover was at hand, and Jē'sus went up to Jē-rū'sā-lĕm,
14 And [j]found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting:
15 And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables;
16 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make [k]not my Father's house an house of merchandise.
17 And his disciples remembered that it was written, [l]The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.
18 ¶Then answered the Jews and said unto him, What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?
19 Jē'sus answered and said unto them, Destroy [m]this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.
20 Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?
21 But he spake [n]of the temple of his body.
22 When therefore he was risen from the dead, [o]his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jē'sus had said.
23 ¶Now when he was in Jē-rū'sā-lĕm at the passover, in the feast day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did.
24 But Jē'sus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men,
25 And needed not that any should testify of man: for [p]he knew what was in man. E. 4. 16–19.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Christ teacheth Nicodemus the necessity of regeneration. 23 The baptism and witness of John concerning Christ.

THERE was a man of the Phăr'ĭ-sees, named Nĭc-o-dē'mus, a ruler of the Jews:
2 The same came to Jē'sus by night, and said unto him, Răb'bī, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for [a]no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except [b]God be with him.
3 Jē'sus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, [c]Except a man be born [1]again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.
4 Nĭc-o-dē'mus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?
5 Jē'sus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, [d]Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he

3 He left Jū-dæ'à, and departed again into Găl'ĭ-lee.
4 And he must needs go through Să-mā'rĭ-à.
5 Then cometh he to a city of Să-mā'rĭ-à, which is called Sy'chär, near to the parcel of ground [a]that Jā'cob gave to his son Jō'seph.
6 Now Jā'cob's well was there. Jē'sus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well: and it was about the sixth hour.
7 There cometh a woman of Să-mā'rĭ-à to draw water: Jē'sus saith unto her, Give me to drink.
8 (For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.)
9 Then saith the woman of Să-mā'rĭ-à unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Să-mā'rĭ-à? for [b]the Jews have no dealings with the Să-măr'ĭ-tans.
L 10 Jē'sus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest [c]the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee [d]living water.*
11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?
12 Art thou greater than our father Jā'cob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle?
K 13 Jē'sus answered and said unto her Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again:
14 But [e]whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him [f]shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life. K. 6. 35.
15 The [g]woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.
E 16 Jē'sus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither.
17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jē'sus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband:
18 For thou hast [h]had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truly.
19 The woman saith unto him, Sir, [i]I perceive that thou art a prophet.†
20 Our fathers worshipped [j]in this mountain; and ye say, that in [k]Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm is the place where men ought to worship.
21 Jē'sus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when [l]ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm, worship the Father.
22 Ye worship [m]ye know not what: we know what we worship: for [n]salvation is of the Jews.
23 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in [o]spirit and in [p]truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.
24 God [q]is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.
25 The woman saith unto him, I know that [r]Mĕs-sī'as cometh, which is called Chrīst: when he is come, he will tell us all things.
26 Jē'sus saith unto her, [s]I that speak unto thee am he.
27 ¶And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?
28 The woman then left her waterpot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men,
E 29 Come, see a man, which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Chrīst? E. 6, 64.
30 Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.
31 ¶In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.
32 But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of.
33 Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat?
34 Jē'sus saith unto them, [t]My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work.
35 Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for [u]they are white already to harvest.
36 And he that reapeth [v]receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.
37 And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth.

* L. 8. 3-11. † E. 4. 29.

38 I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: [t]other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours.

39 ¶ And [u]many of the Să-măr'ĭ-tans of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did.

40 So [z]when the Să-măr'ĭ-tans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days.

41 And [y]many more believed because of his own word;

42 And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for [z]we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Chrĭst, [a]the Saviour of the world.

43 ¶ Now after two days he departed thence, and went into Găl'ĭ-lee.

44 For [b]Jē'sus himself testified, that a prophet hath no honour in his own country.

45 Then when he was come into Găl'ĭ-lee, the Găl-ĭ-læ'ans received him, [c]having seen all the things that he did at Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm at the feast: [d]for they also went unto the feast.

46 So Jē'sus came again into Cā'nȧ of Găl'ĭ-lee, [e]where he made the water wine. And there was a certain [1]nobleman, whose son was sick at Că-pēr'na-ŭm.

47 When he heard that Jē'sus was come out of Jū-dæ'ȧ into Găl'ĭ-lee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death.

48 Then said Jē'sus unto him, Except [f]ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe.

49 The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my child die.

50 Jē'sus saith unto him, [g]Go thy way; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jē'sus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.

51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth.

52 Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.

53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jē'sus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and [h]himself believed, and his whole house.

54 This is again the second miracle that Jē'sus did, when he was come out of Jū-dæ'ȧ into Găl'ĭ-lee.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Jesus, on the sabbath day, cureth an impotent man at the pool of Bethesda: 16 the Jews persecute him for it: 17 he justifieth himself.

AFTER [a]this there was a feast of the Jews; and Jē'sus went up to Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm.

2 Now there is at Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm [b]by the sheep [1]market a pool, which is called in the Hē'brew tongue [2]Bĕ-thĕs'dȧ, having five porches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years.

6 When Jē'sus saw him lie, [c]and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, [d]Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.

8 Jē'sus saith unto him, [e]Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on [f]the same day was the sabbath.

10 ¶ The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath day: [g]it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk?

13 And he that was healed wist not who it was: for Jē'sus had conveyed himself away, [3]a multitude being in that place.

14 Afterward Jē'sus findeth him in [h]the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: [i]sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.

15 The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jē'sus, which had made him whole.

16 And therefore did the Jews persecute Jē'sus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath day.

17 ¶But Jē'sus answered them, My [j]Father worketh hitherto, and I work.

18 Therefore the Jews [k]sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, [l]making himself equal with God.

19 ¶Then answered Jē'sus and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, [m]The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.

20 For [n]the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

21 For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; even [o]so the Son quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father judgeth no man, but hath [p]committed all judgment unto the Son:

23 That all men should [q]honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

F W 24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; [r]but is passed from death unto life. F. 6.28,29; W. 6.37

25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when [s]the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.

26 For as the Father hath [t]life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself;

27 And hath given him authority to execute judgment also, [u]because he is the Son of man.

28 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice,

H 29 And [v]shall come forth; [w]they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation. H. 15. 6.

30 I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because [x]I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.

31 If [y]I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true.

32 There is another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.

33 Ye sent unto Jŏhn, [z]and he bare witness unto the truth.

34 But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved.

35 He was a burning and [a]a shining light: and [b]ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.

36 But [c]I have greater witness than that of Jŏhn: for [d]the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me.

37 And the Father himself, which hath sent me, [e]hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor [f]seen his shape.

38 And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.

B 39 Search [g]the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and [h]they are they which testify of me. B. 10. 35.

40 And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.

41 I [i]receive not honour from men.

C 42 But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you. C. 8. 44.

43 I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive.

44 How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not [j]the honour that cometh from God only?

45 Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: [k]there is one that accuseth you, even Mō'ses, in whom ye trust.

46 For had ye believed Mō'ses, ye would have believed me: [l]for he wrote of me.

47 But if [m]ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

CHAPTER 6.

1 Christ feedeth five thousand with five loaves and two fishes: 19 he walketh on the sea: 22 the multitude flocking unto him, he reproveth their carnal views, etc.

A. D. 32.

CHAP. 6.

AFTER [a]these things Jē'sus went over the sea of Găl'ĭ-lee, which is the sea of Tĭ-bē'rĭ-as.

2 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased.

3 And Jē'sus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.

4 And [b]the passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh.

5 When [c]Jē'sus then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Phĭl'ĭp, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat?

6 And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would dō.

7 Phĭl'ĭp answered him, [d]Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.

8 One of his disciples, Ăn'drew, Sī'mon Pē'tĕr's brother, saith unto him,

9 There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes: [e]but what are they among so many?

10 And Jē'sus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

11 And Jē'sus took the loaves; and when he had [f]given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.

12 When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.

13 Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten.

14 ¶ Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jē'sus did, said, This is of a truth [g]that prophet that should come into the world.

15 When Jē'sus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone.

16 ¶ And [h]when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea,

17 And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward Cā-pēr'na-ŭm. And it was now dark, and Jē'sus was not come to them.

18 And the sea arose by reason of a great wind that blew.

19 So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jē'sus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship: and they were afraid.

20 But he saith unto them, It is I; be not afraid.

21 Then they willingly received him into the ship: and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went.

22 ¶ The day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other boat there, save that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that Jē'sus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples were gone away alone;

23 (Howbeit there came other boats from Tĭ-bē'rĭ-as nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks:)

24 When the people therefore saw that Jē'sus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Cā-pēr'na-ŭm, seeking for Jē'sus.

25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Răb'bī, when camest thou hither?

26 Jē'sus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled.

27 [1]Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but [i]for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: [j]for him hath God the Father sealed.

28 Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? F

29 Jē'sus answered and said unto them, This [k]is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent. F. 6. 35.

30 They said therefore unto him, What [l]sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work?

CHAP. 6.

31 Our [m]fathers did eat manna in the desert: as it is written, [n]He gave them bread from heaven to eat.

32 Then Jē'sus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Mō'ses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

33 For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

34 Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.

F K 35 And Jē'sus said unto them, I am the bread of life: [o]he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.*

36 But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not.

W 37 All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and [p]him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. W. 6. 40.

38 For I came down from heaven, [q]not to do mine own will, but [r]the will of him that sent me.

39 And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, [s]that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.

F W 40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that [t]every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.†

41 The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.

42 And they said, Is not this Jē'sus, the son of Jō'seph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven?

43 Jē'sus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves.

44 No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.

45 It [u]is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

46 Not [v]that any man hath seen the Father, save [w]he which is of God, he hath seen the Father.

F 47 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He [z]that believeth on me hath everlasting life. F. 7. 38. F

48 I am that bread of life.

49 Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead.

50 This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die.

D W 51 I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and [z]the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world. W. 6. 54.

52 The Jews therefore [z]strove among themselves, saying, [a]How can this man give us his flesh to eat?

O 53 Then Jē'sus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except [b]ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you. O. 8. 24.

K W 54 Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day. W. 7. 17.

55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.

56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, [c]dwelleth in me, and I in him. D. 10. 11; K. 6. 63

57 As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.

58 This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever.

59 These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Cā-pēr'na-ŭm.

60 Many [d]therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an hard saying; who can hear it?

61 When Jē'sus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you?

62 What [e]and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before?

K 63 It [f]is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they [g]are spirit, and they are life.‡

E 64 But there are some of you that believe not. For [h]Jē'sus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him. E. 16. 30.

65 And he said, Therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father.

66 ¶From that time many of his disciples went [f]back, and walked no more with him.

67 Then said Jē'sus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away?

K 68 Then Sī'mon Pē'tēr answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life.*

69 And we believe and are sure that thou art that Chrīst, the Son of the living God.

70 Jē'sus answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil?

71 He spake of Jū'das Īs-căr'ī-ot the son of Sī'mon: for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

CHAPTER 7.

1 Jesus, exhorted by his unbelieving kinsmen to shew himself, 10 goeth secretly to the feast: 14 he teacheth in the temple. 45 The Pharisees are angry at their officers for not taking Christ.

AFTER these things Jē'sus walked in Găl'ī-lee: for he would not walk in Jew'rў, [a]because the Jews sought to kill him.

2 ¶Now [b]the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand.

3 His [c]brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Jū-dæ'ā, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest.

4 For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, shew thyself to the world.

5 For [d]neither did his brethren believe in him.

6 Then Jē'sus said unto them, [e]My time is not yet come: but your time is alway ready.

A 7 The [f]world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, [g]because I testify of it, that ~~the works thereof are evil.~~ †

8 Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast; [h]for my time is not yet full come.

9 When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Găl'ī-lee.

10 ¶But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 Then [i]the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?

12 And [j]there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for some [k]said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people.

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews.

14 ¶Now about the midst of the feast Jē'sus went up into the temple, and taught.

15 And [l]the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man [1]letters, having never learned?

16 Jē'sus answered them, and said, [m]My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

W 17 If [n]any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself. W. 7. 37.

18 He [o]that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.

19 Did [p]not Mō'sēs give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? [q]Why go ye about to kill me?

20 The people answered and said, Thou [r]hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee?

21 Jē'sus answered and said unto them, I have done one work, and ye all marvel.

22 Mō'sēs [s]therefore gave unto you circumcision; (not because it is of Mō'sēs, but [t]of the fathers;) and ye on the sabbath day circumcise a man.

23 If a man on the sabbath day receive circumcision, [2]that the law of Mō'sēs should not be broken; are ye angry at me, because I [u]have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath day?

24 Judge [v]not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

25 Then said some of them of Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm, Is not this he, whom they seek to kill?

26 But, lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him. Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Chrīst?

27 Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when Chrīst cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.

29 But [a]I know him: for I am from him, and he hath sent me.

30 Then they sought to take him: but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.

31 And many of the people believed on him, and said, When Chrīst cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done?

32 ¶The Phăr'ī-sees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and the Phăr'ī-sees and the chief priests sent officers to take him.

33 Then said Jē'sus unto them, Yet [b]a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me.

34 Ye [c]shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come.

35 Then said the Jews among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto [d]the dispersed among the [3]Gĕn'tīles, and teach the Gĕn'tīles?

36 What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come?

37 ¶In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jē'sus stood and cried, saying, [e]If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.

38 He [f]that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, [g]out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.*

39 (But [h]this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Hō'lў Ghōst was not yet given; because that Jē'sus was not yet [i]glorified.)

40 Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is [j]the Prophet.

41 Others said, [k]This is the Chrīst. But some said, Shall Chrīst come out of Găl'ī-lee?

42 Hath [l]not the scripture said, That Chrīst cometh of the seed of Dā'vid, and out of the town of Bĕth'lĕ-hĕm, [m]where Dā'vid was?

43 So there was a division among the people because of him.

44 And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him.

45 ¶Then came the officers to the chief priests and Phăr'ī-sees; and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him?

46 The officers answered, Never man spake like this man.

47 Then answered them the Phăr'ī-sees, Are ye also deceived?

48 Have [n]any of the rulers or of the Phăr'ī-sees believed on him?

49 But this people who knoweth not the law are cursed.

50 Nĭc-o-dē'mus saith unto them, (he [o]that came [4]to Jē'sus by night, being one of them,)

51 Doth [p]our law judge any man, before it hear him, and know what he doeth?

52 They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Găl'ī-lee? Search, and look: for out [q]of Găl'ī-lee ariseth no prophet.

53 And every man went unto his own house.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Christ releaseth a woman taken in adultery: 12 he preacheth himself the light of the world, and justifieth his doctrine; 33 answereth the Jews.

JĒ'SUS went unto the mount of ŏl'ĭves.

2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them.

3 And the scribes and Phăr'ī-sees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst,

4 They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 Now [a]Mō'sĕs in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?

6 This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jē'sus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.

7 So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, [b]He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.

8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And they which heard it, [c]being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jē'sus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

13 The Phăr'ī-sees therefore said unto him, [e]Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true.

14 Jē'sus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but [f]ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

15 Ye [g]judge after the flesh; [h]I judge no man.

29 And [a]he that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone; [b]for I do always those things that please him.

30 As he spake these words, many believed on him.

31 Then said Jē'sus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed;

CHAPTER 9.

A blind man restored to sight.

AND as Jē'sus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did [a]sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?

3 Jē'sus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but [b]that the works of God should be made manifest in him.

4 I [c]must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.

5 As long as I am in the world, I K
[d]am the light of the world. K. 10. 9;† W

6 When he had thus spoken, [e]he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he [f]anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay,

7 And said unto him, Go, [g]wash in the pool of Sĭ-lō'am, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) [h]He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing.

8 ¶ The neighbours therefore, and they which before had seen him that he was blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged?

9 Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he.

10 Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered and said, A man that is called Jē'sus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Sĭ-lō'am, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.

12 Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.

13 ¶ They brought to the Phăr'ĭ-sees him that aforetime was blind.

14 And it was the sabbath day when Jē'sus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then again the Phăr'ĭ-sees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see.

16 Therefore said some of the Phăr'ĭ-sees, This man is not of God, because he [i]keepeth not the sabbath day. Others said, [j]How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And [k]there was a division among them.

17 They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, [j]He is a prophet.

18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see?

20 His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:

21 But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself.

22 These words spake his parents, because they [k]feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Chrīst, [l]he should be put out of the synagogue.

23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him.

24 Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, [m]Give God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner.

25 He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.

26 Then said they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples?

28 Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are Mō'ses' disciples.

29 We know that God spake unto Mō'ses: as for this fellow, [n]we know not from whence he is.

30 The man answered and said unto them, [o]Why herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

31 Now we know that [p]God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth.

32 Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.

33 If this man were not of God, he could do nothing.

34 They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they [2]cast him out.

35 ¶ Jē'sus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on [q]the Son of God? L

36 He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him?

37 And Jē'sus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and [r]it is he that talketh with thee.

38 And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him.

39 ¶ And Jē'sus said, [s]For judgment I am come into this world, that [t]they which see not might see; and that they which see might be made blind. *

40 And some of the Phăr'ī-sees which were with him heard these words, [u]and said unto him, Are we blind also?

41 Jē'sus said unto them, [v]If ye were blind, ye should have no sin: but now ye say, We see; therefore your sin remaineth.

5 And [d]a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

6 This parable spake Jē'sus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

32 Jē'sus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me?

33 The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest [v]thyself God.

him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.

4 When Jē'sus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but [c]for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.

5 Now Jē'sus loved Mär'thà, and her sister, and Lăz'a-rŭs.

6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, [d]he abode two days still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Jū'dæ'à again.

8 His disciples say unto him, Master, [e]the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again?

9 Jē'sus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? [f]If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

C 10 But [g]if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him. C. Acts 7. 51.

11 These things said he: and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Lăz'a-rŭs [h]sleepeth; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well.

13 Howbeit Jē'sus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.

14 Then said Jē'sus unto them plainly, Lăz'a-rŭs is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him.

16 Then said Thŏm'as, which is called Dĭd'ў-mŭs, unto his fellowdisciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

17 Then when Jē'sus came, he found that he had lain in the grave four days already.

18 Now Bĕth'a-nў was nigh unto Jē-ru'să-lĕm, [1]about fifteen furlongs off:

19 And many of the Jews came to Mär'thà and Mā'rў, to comfort them concerning their brother.

20 Then Mär'thà, as soon as she heard that Jē'sus was coming, went and met him: but Mā'rў sat still in the house.

21 Then said Mär'thà unto Jē'sus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mā'rў her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him.

30 Now Jē'sus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Mär'thà met him.

31 The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mā'rў, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there.

32 Then when Mā'rў was come where Jē'sus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

40 Jē'ṣus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God?

41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jē'ṣus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

42 And I knew that thou hearest me always: but [r]because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.

43 And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lăz'a-rŭs, [s]come forth.

44 And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with graveclothes: and [t]his face was bound about with a napkin. Jē'ṣus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

45 Then many of the Jews which came to Mā'rў, [u]and had seen the things which Jē'ṣus did, believed on him.

46 But some of them went their ways to the Phăr'ī-sees, and told them what things Jē'ṣus had done.

47 ¶Then [v]gathered the chief priests and the Phăr'ī-sees a council, and said, [w]What do we? for this man doeth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the [x]Rō'-mans shall come and take away both our place and nation.

49 And one of them, named [y]Cā'ia-phăs, being the high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all,

50 Nor [z]consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jē'ṣus should die for that nation;

52 And [a]not for that nation only, [b]but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad.*

53 Then from that day forth they took counsel together for to put him to death.

54 Jē'ṣus [c]therefore walked no more openly among the Jews; but went thence unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called [d]Ē'phrā-ĭm, and there continued with his disciples.

55 ¶And [e]the Jews' passover was nigh at hand: and many went out of the country up to Jē-rū'sā-lĕm before the passover, to [f]purify themselves.

56 Then [g]sought they for Jē'ṣus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple, [h]What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

57 Now both the chief priests and the Phăr'ī-sees had given a commandment, that, if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

CHAPTER 12.

1 Jesus excuseth Mary anointing his feet. 10 The chief priests consult to kill Lazarus. 12 Christ rideth into Jerusalem with triumph. 23 He foretelleth his death.

THEN Jē'ṣus six days before the passover came to Bĕth'a-nў, where [a]Lăz'a-rŭs was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

2 There [b]they made him a supper; and Mär'thà served: but Lăz'a-rŭs was one of them that sat at the table with him.

3 Then took [c]Mā'rў a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jē'ṣus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

4 Then saith one of his disciples, Jū'das Ĭs'căr'ī-ot, Sī'mon's son, which should betray him,

5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor?

6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and [d]had the bag, and bare what was put therein.

7 Then said Jē'ṣus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this.

8 For [e]the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always.

9 ¶Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for Jē'ṣus' sake only, but that they might see Lăz'a-rŭs also, whom he had raised from the dead.

10 But [f]the chief priests consulted that they might put Lăz'a-rŭs also to death;

14 And Jē'sus, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written,

15 Fear [j] not, daughter of Sī'ŏn: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt.

16 These things [k] understood not his disciples at the first: [l] but when Jē'sus was glorified, [m] then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him when he called Lăz'a-rŭs out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record.

18 For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

19 The Phăr'ī-sees therefore said among themselves, Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him.

20 ¶ And there [n] were certain Greeks among them [o] that came up to worship at the feast:

21 The same came therefore to Phĭl'ĭp, which was of Bĕth-să'ĭ-dà of Găl'ĭ-lee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jē'sus.

22 Phĭl'ĭp cometh and telleth Ăn'drew: and again Ăn'drew and Phĭl'ĭp tell Jē'sus.

23 ¶ And Jē'sus answered them, saying, The [p] hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except [q] a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

25 He [r] that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal.

26 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and [s] where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.

27 Now [t] is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: [u] but for this cause came I unto this hour.

28 Father, glorify thy name. Then [v] came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.

29 The people therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him.

30 Jē'sus answered and said, [w] This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.

31 Now is the judgment of this world: now shall [x] the prince of this world be cast out.

32 And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw [y] all men unto me.

33 This he said, signifying what death he should die. D. Acts 8. 32–35;*

34 The people answered him, We [z] have heard out of the law that Chrīst abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man?

35 Then Jē'sus said unto them, Yet a little while [a] is the light with you. [b] Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for [c] he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the [d] children of light. These things spake Jē'sus, and departed, and did hide himself from them. F. 12. 46.

37 ¶ But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him:

38 That the saying of Ē-sā'ĭas the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, [e] Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 Therefore they could not believe, because that Ē-sā'ĭas said again,

40 He [f] hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

41 These things said Ē-sā'ĭas, when he [g] saw his glory, and spake of him.

42 ¶ Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Phăr'ī-sees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue:

43 For [h] they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God. †

44 ¶ Jē'sus cried and said, [i] He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me.

CHAPTER 13.

1 Jesus washeth his disciples' feet, 14 and exhorteth them to humility and charity: 18 foretelleth his betrayal: 36 forewarneth Peter of his denial.

NOW before the feast of the passover, when Jē'sus knew that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end.

2 And supper being ended, [a]the devil having now put into the heart of Jū'das Is-căr'ī-ot, Sī'mon's son, to betray him;

3 Jē'sus knowing [b]that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God;

4 He [c]riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel, and girded himself.

5 After that he poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.

6 Then cometh he to Sī'mon Pē'tēr: and [1]Pē'tēr saith unto him, Lord, [d]dost thou wash my feet?

7 Jē'sus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter.

8 Pē'tēr saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jē'sus answered him, [e]If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.

9 Sī'mon Pē'tēr saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.

10 Jē'sus saith to him, [f]He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and [g]ye are clean, but not all.

11 For he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you?

13 Ye [h]call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.

14 If [i]I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; [j]ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

15 For [k]I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.

16 Verily, [l]verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.

17 If [m]ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.

18 ¶I speak not of you all: [n]I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, He [o]that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me.

19 [2]Now I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he.

20 Verily, [p]verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.

21 When [q]Jē'sus had thus said, he [r]was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that [s]one of you shall betray me.

22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

23 Now [t]there was leaning on Jē'sus' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jē'sus loved.

24 Sī'mon Pē'tēr therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake.

25 He then lying on Jē'sus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Jē'sus answered, He it is, to whom I shall give a [3]sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Jū'das Is-căr'ī-ot, the son of Sī'mon.

27 And [u]after the sop Sā'tan entered into him. Then said Jē'sus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly.

28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.

29 For some of them thought, [t]because Jū'das had the bag, that Jē'sus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor.

30 He then having received the sop went immediately out: and it was night.

31 ¶Therefore, when he was gone out, Jē'sus said, Now is the Son of man glorified, and [u]God is glorified in him.

32 If [z]God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him.

33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say to you.

34 A [v]new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

35 By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love [w]one to another.

36 ¶Sī'mon Pē'tēr said unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jē'sus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now; [a]but thou shalt follow me afterwards.

37 Pē'tēr said unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will [b]lay down my life for thy sake.

38 Jē'sus answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, The cock shall not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.

CHAPTER 14.

1 Christ comforteth his disciples: 5 professeth himself the way, the truth, and the life, 9 and that he is one with the Father: 27 he leaveth his peace with them.

LET not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

2 In [a]my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. [b]I go to prepare a place for you.

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, [c]I will come again, and receive you unto myself; [d]that where I am, there ye may be also.

4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

5 ¶Thŏm'as saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?

6 Jē'sus saith unto him, I am [e]the way, [f]the truth, and [g]the life: [h]no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. O. 15.6.

7 If [i]ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

8 ¶Phĭl'ip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us.

9 Jē'sus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Phĭl'ip? he [j]that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father?

10 Believest thou not that [k]I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you [l]I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake.

12 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father.

13 And whatsoever ye shall ask in my [m]name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

14 If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.

~~15 ¶If [n]ye love me, keep my commandments.~~ B. 14. 21.

16 And I will pray the Father, and [o]he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;

17 Even [p]the Spirit of truth; whom [q]the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, [r]and shall be in you.

18 I will not leave you [1]comfortless: I will come to you.

19 Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but [s]ye see me: [t]because I live, ye shall live also.

20 At that day ye shall know that [u]I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you.

22 Jūdas saith unto him, not Ĭscărĭot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world?

23 Jēsus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, [v]and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

24 He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and [z]the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me.

25 These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you.

26 But [z]the Comforter, which is the Hōlў Ghōst, whom the Father will send in my name, [z]he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

27 Peace [a]I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

28 Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for [b]my Father is greater than I.

29 And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe.

30 Hereafter I will not talk much with you: [c]for the prince of this world cometh, and [d]hath nothing in me.

31 But that the world may know that I love the Father; and [e]as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.

CHAPTER 15.

1 The union between Christ and his church, under the parable of a vine. 26 The office of the Holy Ghost, etc.

I AM the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman.

2 Every [a]branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 Now [b]ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.

4 Abide [c]in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

5 I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much [d]fruit: for [1]without me ye can do nothing.

6 If a [e]man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. H. Acts 1. 25; O. Acts 3. 23.

7 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

8 Herein [f]is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.

9 As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.

10 If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.

11 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and [g]that your joy might be full.

12 This [h]is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.

13 Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. L. Acts 3. 14–19.

14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

15 Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; [i]for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.

16 Ye [k]have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and [l]ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.

17 These things I command you, that ye love one another.

18 ¶ If [m]the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.

19 If [n]ye were of the world, the world would love his own: [o]but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

20 Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; [p]if they have kept my saying, they will keep your's also.

CHAPTER 16.

1 Christ warneth his disciples of their sufferings: 7 office of the Comforter. 29 They profess their faith in Christ. 33 Peace in Christ, and in the world affliction.

THESE things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended.
2 They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, that [a]whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service.
3 And [b]these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me.
4 But these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you.
5 But now I go my way to him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?
6 But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart.
7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but [c]if I depart, I will send him unto you.
8 And when he is come, he will [1]reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:
9 Of [d]sin, because they believe not on me;
10 Of [e]righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more;
11 Of [f]judgment, because [g]the prince of this world is judged.
12 I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now.
13 Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, [h]he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will [i]shew you things to come.
14 He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you.
15 All [j]things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you.
16 A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father.
17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father?
18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? we cannot tell what he saith.
19 Now Jē'sus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye enquire among yourselves of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me?
20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.
21 A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.
22 And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and [k]your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.
23 And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. [l]Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.
24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full.

25 These things have I spoken unto you in [2]proverbs: but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in [3]proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father.

26 At that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you:

27 For [m]the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and [n]have believed that I came out from God.

28 I [o]came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.

29 ¶His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no [4]proverb.

30 Now are we sure that [r]thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this [s]we believe that thou camest forth from God. E. 21. 17.

31 Jē'sus answered them, Do ye now believe?

32 Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to [5]his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

33 These things I have spoken unto you, that [t]in me ye might have peace. [u]In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; [v]I have overcome the world.

CHAPTER 17.

1 Christ prayeth to his Father to glorify him, 6 to preserve his apostles, 20 and all other believers.

THESE words spake Jē'sus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee:

2 As [a]thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many [b]as thou hast given him.

3 And [c]this is life eternal, that they might know thee [d]the only true God, and Jē'sus Chrīst, whom thou hast sent. K. 20. 31.

4 I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do.

5 And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory [e]which I had with thee before the world was.

6 I [f]have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word.

7 Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee.

8 For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.

9 I pray for them: [g]I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine.

10 And [h]all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them.

11 And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, [i]keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, [j]as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, [k]I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and [l]none of them is lost, [m]but the son of perdition; that [n]the scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 I have given them thy word; and [o]the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that [p]thou shouldest keep them from the evil.

16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

17 Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.

18 As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.

19 And [q]for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be [1]sanctified through the truth.

20 Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word;

21 That they all may be one; as [r]thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.

22 And the glory which thou gavest

CHAPTER 18.

1 Judas betrayeth Jesus. 6 The band and officers at Christ's word fall to the ground. 10 Peter smiteth off Malchus' ear. 12 Jesus is taken and led to Annas and Caiaphas. 15 Peter's denial. 19 Jesus examined before Caiaphas, 28 arraigned before Pilate, etc.

WHEN Jē'sus had spoken these words, he [a]went forth with his disciples over the [b]brook Çē'dron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples.

2 And Jū'das also, which betrayed him, knew the place: [c]for Jē'sus oftimes resorted thither with his disciples.

3 Jū'das [d]then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Phăr'ĭ-sees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons.

4 Jē'sus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

5 They answered him, Jē'sus of Năz'a-rĕth. Jē'sus saith unto them. I am he. And Jū'das also, which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground.

7 Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jē'sus of Năz'a-rĕth.

8 Jē'sus answered, I have told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, [e]let these go their way:

9 That the saying might be fulfilled, which he spake, [f]Of them which thou gavest me have I lost none.

10 Then [g]Sī'mon Pē'tĕr having a sword drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Măl'chus.

11 Then said Jē'sus unto Pē'tĕr, Put up thy sword into the sheath: the [h]cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

12 Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jē'sus, and bound him,

13 And [i]led him away to [j]Ăn'nas first; for he was father in law to Cā'ia-phăs, which was the high priest that same year.[1]

14 Now [k]Cā'ia-phăs was he, which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 ¶And Sī'mon Pē'tĕr followed Jē'sus, and so did another disciple: that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jē'sus into the palace of the high priest.

16 But Pē'tĕr stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Pē'tĕr.

17 Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Pē'tĕr, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not.

18 And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Pē'tĕr stood with them, and warmed himself.

19 ¶The high priest then asked Jē'sus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Jē'sus answered him, [l]I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing.

21 Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said.

22 And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by [m]struck Jē'sus [2]with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?

23 Jē'sus answered him, [n]If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me?

24 Now Ăn'nas had sent him bound unto Cā'ia-phās the high priest.

25 ¶And Sī'mon Pē'tēr stood and warmed himself. [c]They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not.

26 One of the servants of the high priest, being his kinsman whose ear Pē'tēr cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Pē'tēr then denied again: and immediately the [p]cock crew.

28 ¶Then [q]led they Jē'sus from Cā'ia-phās unto [3]the hall of judgment: and it was early; and [r]they themselves went not into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat [s]the passover.

29 Pī'late then went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?

30 They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.

31 Then said Pī'late unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, [t]It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:

32 That [u]the saying of Jē'sus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

33 Then Pī'late entered into the judgment hall again, and called Jē'sus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews?

34 Jē'sus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me?

35 Pī'late answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done?

36 Jē'sus [v]answered, [w]My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

37 Pī'late therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jē'sus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should [x]bear witness unto the truth. Every one that [y]is of the truth heareth my voice.

38 Pī'late saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I [z]find in him no fault at all.

39 But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

40 Then [a]cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Bă-răb'bas. [b]Now Bă-răb'bas was a robber.

CHAPTER 19.

1 Christ is scourged, crowned with thorns, and beaten. 6 Pilate delivers him to be crucified. 26 He commendeth his mother to John. 28 He dieth. 38 He is buried.

THEN [c]Pī'late therefore took Jē'sus, and scourged him.

2 And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe,

3 And said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they smote him with their hands.

4 Pī'late therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that [z]ye may know that I find no fault in him.

5 Then came Jē'sus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pī'late saith unto them, Behold the man!

6 When [e]the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pī'late saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him.

7 The Jews answered him, [d]We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he [e]made himself the Son of God.

8 ¶When Pī'late therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid;

9 And went again into the judgment hall, and saith unto Jē'sus, Whence art thou? But [f]Jē'sus gave him no answer.

10 Then saith Pī'late unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee?

11 Jē'sus answered, [g]Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin.

12 And from thenceforth Pī'late sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, [h]If thou let this man go, thou art not Cæ'sar's friend:

whosoever [h]maketh himself a king speaketh against Cæ'sar.

13 ¶When Pī'late therefore heard that saying, he brought Jē'sus forth, and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hē'brew, [1]Găb'ba-thà.

14 And [j]it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King!

15 But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pī'late saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, [k]We have no king but Cæ'sar.

16 Then [l]delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Jē'sus, and led him away.

17 And he bearing his cross [m]went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hē'brew Gŏl'gō-thà:

18 Where [n]they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jē'sus in the midst.

19 ¶And Pī'late wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JĒ'SUS OF NĀZ'A-RĒTH THE KING OF THE JEWS.

20 This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jē'sus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hē'brew, and Greek, and Lăt'in.

21 Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pī'late, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews.

22 Pī'late answered, What I have written I have written.

23 ¶Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jē'sus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, [2]woven from the top throughout.

24 They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, [o]They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did.

25 ¶Now there stood by the cross of Jē'sus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mā'rў the wife of [3]Clē'o-phăs, and Mā'rў Măg-da-lē'nē.

26 When Jē'sus therefore saw his mother, and [r]the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, [q]behold thy son!

27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her unto [r]his own home.

28 ¶After this, Jē'sus knowing that [s]all things were now accomplished, [t]that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst.

29 Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a spunge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth.

30 When Jē'sus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, [u]It is finished: and he bowed his head, and [v]gave up the ghost.

31 ¶The Jews therefore, [w]because it was the preparation, [x]that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was [y]an high day,) besought Pī'late that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

32 Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him.

33 But when they came to Jē'sus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs:

34 But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith [z]came there out blood and water.

35 And [a]he that saw it bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe.

36 For these things were done, that [b]the scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken.

37 And again another scripture saith, They [c]shall look on him whom they pierced.

38 ¶And [d]after this Jō'seph of Ăr-ĭ-mă-thæ'à, being a disciple of Jē'sus, but secretly [e]for fear of the Jews, besought Pī'late that he might take away the body of Jē'sus: and Pī'late gave him leave. He came therefore, and took the body of Jē'sus.

39 And there came also [f]Nĭc-o-dē'mus, which at the first came to Jē'sus by night, and brought [g]a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about an hundred pound weight.

40 Then took they the body of Jē'sus, and wound [h]it in linen clothes with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury.

1 Mary Magdalene cometh to the sepulchre: 11 she seeth two angels: Jesus himself appeareth to her, 19 and to his disciples.

THE [a]first day of the week cometh Mā'rў Măg-da-lē'nē early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre.

2 Then she runneth, and cometh to Sī'mon Pē'tēr, and to the [b]other disciple, whom Jē'sus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.

3 Pē'tēr [c]therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.

4 So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Pē'tēr, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And he stooping down, and looking in, saw [d]the linen clothes lying; yet went he not in.

6 Then cometh Sī'mon Pē'tēr following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie,

7 And [e]the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.

8 Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed.

9 For as yet they knew not [f]the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.

10 Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

11 ¶But [g]Mā'rў stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre,

12 And seeth two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jē'sus had lain.

13 And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.

14 And [h]when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw Jē'sus standing, and [i]knew not that it was Jē'sus.

15 Jē'sus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.

16 Jē'sus saith unto her, Mā'rў. She turned herself, and saith unto him, [j]Răb-bō'nī; which is to say, Master.

17 Jē'sus saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to [k]my brethren, and say unto them, [l]I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to [m]my God, and your God.

18 Mā'rў [n]Măg-da-lē'nē came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her.

19 ¶Then [o]the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jē'sus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

20 And when he had so said, he [p]shewed unto them his hands and his side. [q]Then were the disciples glad, when they saw the Lord.

21 Then said Jē'sus to them again, Peace be unto you: [r]as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you.

22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Hō'lў Ghōst:

23 Whose [s]soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.

24 ¶But Thŏm'as, one of the twelve, [t]called Dĭd'ў-mŭs, was not with them when Jē'sus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.

26 ¶And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thŏm'as with them: then came Jē'sus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace [u]be unto you.

27 Then saith he to Thŏm'as, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my

30 ¶And [y]many other signs truly did Jē'sus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book:

B F K 31 But [z]these are written, that ye might believe that Jē'sus is the Chrīst, the Son of God; and [a]that believing ye might have life through his name. B. Acts 3. 18; F. Acts 8 37;†

CHAPTER 21.

1 Christ appeareth to his disciples, and is discovered unto them by a miraculous draught of fishes. 12 He dineth with them: 15 his charge to Peter: 18 foretelleth his death.

AFTER these things Jē'sus shewed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tī-bē'rī-as; and on this wise shewed he himself.

2 There were together Sī'mon Pē'tĕr, and Thŏm'as called Dĭd'ў-mŭs, and [c]Nā-thăn'a-el of Cā'nà in Găl'ĭ-lee, and [b]the sons of Zĕb'e-dee, and two other of his disciples.

3 Sī'mon Pē'tĕr saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately; and that night they caught nothing.

4 But when the morning was now come, Jē'sus stood on the shore: but the disciples knew [e]not that it was Jē'sus.

5 Then [d]Jē'sus saith unto them, [1]Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No.

6 And he said unto them, [e]Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefore [f]that disciple whom Jē'sus loved saith unto Pē'tĕr, It is the Lord. Now when Sī'mon Pē'tĕr heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked,) and [g]did cast himself into the sea.

8 And the other disciples came in a little ship; (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes.

9 As soon then as they were come to land, they [h]saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Jē'sus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.

11 Sī'mon Pē'tĕr went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Jē'sus saith unto them, [i]Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jē'sus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.

14 This is now [j]the third time that Jē'sus shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

15 ¶So when they had dined, Jē'sus saith to Sī'mon Pē'tĕr, Sī'mon, son of Jō'nas, lovest thou me [k]more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; [l]thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed [m]my lambs.

16 He saith to him again the second time, Sī'mon, son of Jō'nas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He [n]saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

17 He saith unto him [o]the third time, Sī'mon, son of Jō'nas, lovest thou me? Pē'tĕr was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, [p]thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. E ‡ Jē'sus saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

18 Verily, [q]verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not.

19 This spake he, signifying [r]by what death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me.

20 Then Pē'tĕr, turning about, seeth the disciple [s]whom Jē'sus loved following; which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?

21 Pē'tĕr seeing him saith to Jē'sus, Lord, and [t]what shall this man do?

22 Jē'sus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry [u]till I come, what is [v]that to thee? follow thou me.

THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES.

CHAPTER 1.

1 A relation of part of Christ's history after his passion: 9 his ascension. 26 Matthias ordained in place of Judas Iscariot.

THE former treatise have I made, [a]O Thĕ-ŏph'ĭ-lŭs, of all that Jē'sus began both to do and teach,

2 Until [b]the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Hō'lў Ghōst had given commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen:

3 To [c]whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God:

4 And, [1]being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jē-rụ'sā-lĕm, but wait for the promise of the Father, [d]which, saith he, ye have heard of me.

5 For [e]Jŏhn truly baptized with water; but [f]ye shall be baptized with the Hō'lў Ghōst not many days hence.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore [2]again the kingdom to Ĭs'ra-el?

7 And he said unto them, [h]It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power.

8 But ye shall receive [2]power, after that the Hō'lў Ghōst is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jē-rụ'sā-lĕm, and in all Jū-dæ'ā, and in Sā-mā'rĭ-ā, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

9 And [i]when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.

10 And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in [j]white apparel:

11 Which also said, Ye men of Găl'ĭ-lee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jē'sus, which is taken up from you into heaven, [k]shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

12 ¶Then returned they unto Jē-rụ'sā-lĕm from the mount [l]called Ŏl'ĭvĕt, which is from Jē-rụ'sā-lĕm a [m]sabbath day's journey.

13 And when they were come in, they went up [n]into an upper room, where abode both Pē'tēr, and Jāmes, and Jŏhn, and Ăn'drew, Phĭl'ĭp, and Thŏm'as, Bär-thŏl'o-mew, and Măt'thew, Jāmes the son of Ăl-phæ'us, and [o]Sī'mon Zē-lō'tēs, and [p]Jū'das the brother of Jāmes.

14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with [q]the women, and Mā'rў the mother of Jē'sus, and with [r]his brethren.

15 ¶And in those days Pē'tēr stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (the number [s]of names together were about an hundred and twenty,)

16 Men and brethren, this scripture must needs have been fulfilled, [t]which the Hō'lў Ghōst by the mouth of Dā'vid spake before concerning Jū'das, [u]which was guide to them that took Jē'sus.

17 For [v]he was numbered with us, and had obtained part of [w]this ministry.

18 Now [x]this man purchased a field with the [y]reward of iniquity; and [z]falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it was known unto all the 20 For it is written in the book of Psälms, [a]Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: and his [3]bishoprick let another take.

21 Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jē′sus went in and out among us,

22 Beginning from the baptism of Jŏhn, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained [b]to be a witness with us of his resurrection.

23 And they appointed two, Jō′seph called Bär′sa-bās, who was surnamed Jŭs′tus, and Măt-thī′as.

24 And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, which [c]knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen, E. 15, 8.

25 That he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Jū′das by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place. H. 3, 23.

26 And they gave forth their [d]lots; and the lot fell upon Măt-thī′as; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

CHAPTER 2.

1 The apostles, filled with the Holy Ghost, speak divers tongues. 14 Peter's sermon.

AND when [a]the day of Pĕn′te-cŏst was fully come, [b]they were all with one accord in one place.

2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it [c]filled all the house where they were sitting.

3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

4 And [d]they were all filled with the Hō′lў Ghōst, and [e]began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

5 And there were dwelling [f]at Jĕ-ru′sā-lĕm Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.

6 Now [1]when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were [2]confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language.

7 And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak Găl-ĭ-læ′ans?

11 Crētes and Ā-rā′bĭ-ans, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God.

12 And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this?

13 Others [i]mocking said, These men are full of new wine.

14 ¶But Pē′tēr, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Jū-dæ′à, and all ye that dwell at Jĕ-ru′sā-lĕm, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words:

15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day.

16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Jō′el;

17 And [j]it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, [k]I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your [l]daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:

18 And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; [m]and they shall prophesy:

19 And [n]I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke:

20 The [o]sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come:

21 And it shall come to pass, [p]that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved. W. 10, 34, 35.

22 Ye men of Ĭs′ra-el, hear these words; Jē′sus of Năz′a-rĕth, a man approved of God among you [q]by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know:

23 Him, [r]being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain:

24 Whom [s]God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it.

25 For Dā'vid speaketh concerning him, [t]I foresaw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved:

26 Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope:

27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine [w]Holy One to see corruption.

28 Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.

29 Men and brethren, [3]let me freely speak unto you [v]of the patriarch Dā'vid, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day.

30 Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of [w]the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Chrīst to sit on his throne;

31 He seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Chrīst, [x]that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption.

32 This Jē'sus hath God raised up, whereof [y]we all are witnesses.

33 Therefore [z]being by the right hand of God exalted, and [a]having received of the Father the promise of the Hō'lў Ghōst, he hath [b]shed forth this, which ye now see and hear.

34 For Dā'vid is not ascended into the heavens: but he saith himself, The [c]LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 35 Until I make thy foes thy footstool.

36 Therefore let all the house of Iṣ'ra-el know assuredly, that God hath [d]made that same Jē'sus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Chrīst.

R 37 ¶Now when they heard this, they [e]were pricked in their heart, and said unto Pē'tēr and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do?

38 Then Pē'tēr said unto them, Repent, [f]and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jē'sus Chrīst for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Hō'lў Ghōst.

39 For the [g]promise is unto you, and [h]to your children, and [i]to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.

40 And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation.

41 ¶Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.

42 And [j]they continued stedfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.

43 And fear came upon every soul: [k]and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles.

44 And all that believed were together, and had [l]all things common;

45 And sold their possessions and goods, and [m]parted them to all men, as every man had need.

46 And they, continuing daily with one accord [n]in the temple, and [o]breaking bread [4]from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart, 47 Praising God, and [p]having favour with all the people. And the [q]Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved.

CHAPTER 3.

Peter cureth a lame man, etc.

NOW Pē'tēr and Jŏhn went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour.

2 And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, [a]to ask alms of them that entered into the temple;

3 Who seeing Pē'tēr and Jŏhn about to go into the temple asked an alms.

4 And Pē'tēr, fastening his eyes upon him with Jŏhn, said, Look on us.

5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them.

6 Then Pē'tēr said, [b]Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: [c]In the name of Jē'sus Chrīst of Năz'a-rĕth rise up and walk.

7 And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ancle bones received strength.

8 And he [d]leaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.

9 And [e]all the people saw him walking and praising God:

10 And they knew that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

11 ¶And as the lame man which was healed held Pē′tĕr and Jŏhn, all the people ran together unto them in the porch [f]that is called Sŏl′o-mon's, greatly wondering.

12 And when Pē′tĕr saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Ĭs′ra-el, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own [g]power or holiness we had made this man to walk?

13 The [h]God of Ā′brā-hăm, and of Ĭ′saac, and of Jā′cob, the God of our fathers, [i]hath glorified his Son Jē′sus; whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pī′late, when he was determined to let him go.

L 14 But ye denied [j]the Holy One and [k]the Just, and desired a murderer to be granted unto you;

15 And killed the [l]Prince of life, whom God hath raised from the dead; whereof we are witnesses.

16 And [m]his name through faith in his name hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yea, the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

17 And now, brethren, I wot that through ignorance [n]ye did it, as did also your rulers.

B 18 But those things, which God before had shewed [o]by the mouth of all his prophets, that Chrīst should suffer, he hath so fulfilled. B. 8. 35

R 19 Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord; L. 11. 18; R. 8. 22.

20 And he shall send Jē′sus Chrīst, which before was preached unto you:

21 Whom [p]the heaven must receive until the times of [q]restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began.

22 For Mō′sĕs truly said unto the fathers, A [r]prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, [s]like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you.

23 And it shall come to pass, that every [t]soul, which will not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people. H. Rom. 1, 18;*

24 Yea, and all the prophets from Săm′u-el and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days.

25 Ye [u]are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Ā′brā-hăm, [v]And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.

26 Unto you first God, having raised up his Son Jē′sus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities.

2 Being [a]grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jē′sus the resurrection from the dead.

3 And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day: for it was now eventide.

4 Howbeit many of them which heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand.

5 ¶And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes,

6 And [b]Ăn′nas the high priest, and Cā′ĭa-phās, and Jŏhn, and Ăl-ĕx-ăn′dĕr, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jĕ-ru′să-lĕm.

7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, [c]By what power, or by what name, have ye done this?

8 Then [d]Pē′tĕr, filled with the Hō′lў Ghōst, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Ĭs′ra-el, at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.

12 Neither [g]is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.*

13 ¶Now when they saw the boldness of Pē'tĕr and Jŏhn, [h]and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jē'sus.

14 And beholding the man which was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.

15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves,

16 Saying, [i]What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them is manifest [j]to all them that dwell in Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm; and we cannot deny it.

17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name.

18 And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jē'sus.

19 But Pē'tĕr and Jŏhn answered and said unto them, [k]Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye.

20 For [l]we cannot but speak the things which [m]we have seen and heard.

21 So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because [n]of the people: for all men glorified God for that [o]which was done.

22 For the man was above forty years old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 ¶And being let go, [p]they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them.

24 And when they heard that, they [q]lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, thou [r]art God, which hast made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is:

25 Who by the mouth of thy servant Dā'vid hast said, [s]Why did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things?

26 The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord, and against his Christ.

27 For of a truth against [t]thy holy child Jē'sus, [u]whom thou hast anointed, both Hĕr'od, and Pŏn'tĭ-ŭs Pī'late, with the Gĕn'tīles, and the people of Is'ra-el, were gathered together,

28 For [v]to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done.

29 And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto thy servants, [w]that with all boldness they may speak thy word,

30 By stretching forth thine hand to heal; and [x]that signs and wonders may be done by [y]the name of thy holy child Jē'sus.

31 And when they had prayed, the [z]place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Hō'lў Ghōst, and they spake the word of God with boldness.

32 ¶And the multitude of them that believed [a]were of one heart and of one soul: neither [b]said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common.

33 And with [c]great power gave the apostles [d]witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jē'sus: and great [e]grace was upon them all.

34 Neither [f]was there any among them that lacked: [g]for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold,

35 And laid them down at the apostles' feet: [h]and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need.

36 And Jō'sēs, who by the apostles was surnamed Bär'na-bās, (which is, being interpreted, The son of consolation,) a Lē'vīte, and of the country of Çў'prus, 37 Having land, [i]sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

3 But [b]Pē'tĕr said, Ăn-a-nī'as, why hath Sā'tan [c]filled thine heart [1]to lie to the Hō'lў Ghōst, and to keep back part of the price of the land?

4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God.

5 And Ăn-a-nī'as hearing these words [d]fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the young men arose, wound [e]him up, and carried him out, and buried him.

7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.

8 And Pē'tĕr answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Pē'tĕr said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to [f]tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out.

10 Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

11 And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

12 ¶And [g]by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; (and [h]they were all with one accord in Sŏl'o-mon's porch.

13 And [i]of the rest durst no man join himself to them: [j]but the people magnified them.

14 And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.)

15 Insomuch that they brought forth the sick [2]into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that [k]at the least the shadow of Pē'tĕr passing by might overshadow some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm, bringing [l]sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.

17 ¶Then [m]the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the Săd'du-çees,) and were filled with [3]indignation,

18 And [n]laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison.

19 But [o]the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said,

20 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people [p]all the words of this life.

21 And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. [q]But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Ĭs'ra-el, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told,

23 Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Now when the high priest [r]and the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.

26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: [s]for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them,

28 Saying, [t]Did not we straitly command you that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm with your doctrine, and [u]intend to bring this man's blood [v]upon us.

29 Then Pē'tĕr and the other apostles answered and said, [w]We ought to obey God rather than men.

32 And [c]we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Hō'lȳ Ghōst, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 ¶When they heard that, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them.

34 Then stood there up one in the council, a Phăr'ī-see, named [d]Gā-mā'lī-el, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space;

35 And said unto them, Ye men of Is'ra-el, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men.

36 For before these days rose up Theū'das, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as [4]obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought.

37 After this man rose up Jū'das of Găl'ī-lee in the days [e]of the taxing, and drew away much people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.

38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for [f]if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought:

39 But [g]if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even [h]to fight against God.

40 And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles, and [i]beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jē'sus, and let them go.

41 And they departed from the presence of the council, [j]rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name.

42 And daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jē'sus Chrīst.

CHAPTER 6.

1 The apostles' care for the poor, and preaching of the word. 5 Seven deacons chosen.

AND in those days, [c]when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the [b]Grē'çians against the Hē'brews, because their widows were neglected [c]in the daily ministration.

2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, [d]It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables.

3 Wherefore, brethren, [e]look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Hō'lȳ Ghōst and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.

4 But we [f]will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.

5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stē'phen, a [g]man full of faith and of the Hō'lȳ Ghōst, [h]and Phĭl'ĭp, and Prŏch'o-rūs, and Nī-cā'nor, and Tī'mon, and Pär'me-năs, and Nĭc'o-lās a proselyte of An'tī-ŏch:

6 Whom they set before the apostles: and when [i]they had prayed, [j]they laid their hands on them.

7 And [k]the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jē-ru'sā-lĕm greatly; and a great company [l]of the priests were obedient to the faith.

8 ¶And Stē'phen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

9 Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Lĭb'ēr-tĭnes, and Çȳ-rē'nī-ans, and Ăl-ĕx-ăn'drĭ-ans, and of them of Çĭ-lĭ'çĭa and of Ā'sĭa, disputing with Stē'phen.

10 And [m]they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake.

11 Then [n]they suborned men, which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Mō'sēs, and against God.

12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the council,

13 And set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law:

14 For [o]we have heard him say, that this Jē'sus of Năz'a-rĕth [p]shall destroy this place, and shall change the [1]customs which Mō'sēs delivered us.

CHAPTER 7.

1 Stephen being called, answereth to his accusation of blasphemy: 54 they stone him to death.

THEN said the high priest, Are these things so?

2 And he said, Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken; The God of glory appeared unto our father Ā'brā-hăm, when he was in Mĕs-o-pō-tā'mĭ-à, before he dwelt in Chăr'ran,

3 And said unto him, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which [a]I shall shew thee.

4 Then [b]came he out of the land of the Chăl-dæ'ans, and dwelt in Chăr'ran: and from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell.

5 And he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: yet he [c]promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child.

6 And God spake on this wise, That [d]his seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them [e]evil four hundred years.

7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and [f]serve me in this place.

8 And [g]he gave him the covenant of circumcision: [h]and so Ā'brā-hăm begat Ī'saac, and circumcised him the eighth day; [i]and Ī'saac begat Jā'cob; and Jā'cob [j]begat the twelve patriarchs.

9 And [k]the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Jō'sĕph into Ē'gĭpt: but [l]God was with him,

10 And delivered him out of all his afflictions, [m]and gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Phā'raōh king of Ē'gĭpt; and he made him governor over Ē'gĭpt and all his house.

11 Now there came a dearth over all the land of Ē'gĭpt and Chā'năan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance.

12 But when Jā'cob heard that there was corn in Ē'gĭpt, he sent out our fathers first.

13 And at the second time Jō'sĕph was made known to his brethren; and Jō'sĕph's kindred was made known unto Phā'raōh.

14 Then [n]sent Jō'sĕph, and called his father Jā'cob to him, and all his kindred, [o]threescore and fifteen souls.

15 So Jā'cob went down into Ē'gĭpt, [p]and died, he, and our fathers,

16 And [q]were carried over into Sȳ'chem, and laid in [r]the sepulchre that Ā'brā-hăm bought for a sum of money of the sons of Ĕm'môr the father of Sȳ'chem.

17 But when [s]the time of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Ā'brā-hăm, the people grew and multiplied in Ē'gĭpt, 18 Till another king arose, which knew not Jō'sĕph.

19 The same dealt subtilly with our kindred, and evil entreated our fathers, so that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live.

20 In [t]which time Mō'sĕs was born, and was [1]exceeding fair, and nourished up in his father's house three months:

21 And when he was cast out, Phā'raōh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son.

22 And Mō'sĕs was learned in all the wisdom of the Ē-gĭp'tians, and was [u]mighty in words and in deeds.

23 And [v]when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Ĭs'ra-el.

24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Ē-gĭp'tian:

25 [2]For he supposed his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not.

26 And the next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another?

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, Who [w]made thee a ruler and a judge over us?

28 Wilt thou kill me, as thou diddest the Ē-gĭp'tian yesterday?

29 Then [z]fled Mō'sĕs at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Mā'dĭ-an, where he [y]begat two sons.

30 And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sī'nà [x]an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush.

31 When Mō'ṣes saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him,

32 Saying, [a]I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Ā'brā-hăm, and the God of Ī'ṣaac, and the God of Jā'cob. Then Mō'ṣes trembled, and durst not behold.

33 Then [b]said the Lord to him, Put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground.

34 I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people which is in Ē'gўpt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Ē'gўpt.

35 This Mō'ṣes whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer [c]by the hand of the angel which appeared to him in the bush.

36 He [d]brought them out, after that he had shewed wonders and signs in the land of Ē'gўpt, and in the Red sea, [e]and in the wilderness forty years.

37 This is that Mō'ṣes, which said unto the children of Iṣ'ra-el, [f]A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, [3]like unto me; him [g]shall ye hear.

38 This [h]is he, that was in the church in the wilderness with [i]the angel which spake to him in the mount Sī'nà, and with our fathers: who [j]received the [k]lively oracles to give unto us:

39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Ē'gўpt,

40 Saying [l]unto Aâr'on, Make us gods to go before us: for as for this Mō'ṣes, which brought us out of the land of Ē'gўpt, we wot not what is become of him.

41 And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.

42 Then [m]God turned, and gave them up to worship [n]the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, [o]O ye house of Iṣ'ra-el, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices by the space of forty years in the wilderness?

43 Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Mō'lŏch, and the star of your god Rĕm'phan, figures which ye made to worship them: and I will carry you away beyond Băb'ў-lon.

44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, [4]speaking unto Mō'ṣes, that [p]he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen.

45 Which [q]also our fathers [5]that came after brought in with [6]Jē'sus into the possession of the Gĕn'tīles, whom God drave out before the face of our fathers, unto the days of Dā'vid;

46 Who [r]found favour before God, and desired [s]to find a tabernacle for the God of Jā'cob.

47 But Sŏl'o-mon built him an house.

48 Howbeit [t]the most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands; as saith the prophet,

49 Heaven [u]is my throne, and earth is my footstool: what house will ye build me? saith the Lord: or what is the place of my rest?

50 Hath not my hand made all these things?

51 ¶ Ye [v]stiffnecked and [w]uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Hō'lў Ghōst: as your fathers did, so do ye. C,26.18; N.24.25.

52 Which [x]of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which shewed before of the coming of [y]the Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers:

53 Who [z]have received the law by the disposition of angels, and have not kept it.

54 ¶ When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth.

55 But he, being full of the Hō'lў Ghōst, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jē'sus standing on the right hand of God, 56 And said, Behold, [a]I see the heavens opened, and the [b]Son of man standing on the right hand of God.

57 Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord,

58 And [c]cast him out of the city, and [d]stoned him: and [e]the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul.

59 And they stoned Stē'phen, calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jē'sus, receive [f]my spirit.

60 And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, [g]Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he [h]fell asleep.

CHAPTER 8.

5 Philip planteth the church in Samaria: 26 he baptizeth an Ethiopian eunuch.

AND [a]Saul was consenting unto his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm; and they [b]were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Jū-dæ'ā and Sā-mā'rī-ā, except the apostles.

2 And devout men carried Stē'phen to his burial, and [c]made great lamentation over him.

3 As for Saul, [d]he made havock of the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women committed them to prison.

4 Therefore [e]they that were scattered abroad went every where preaching the word.

5 ¶Then [f]Phĭl'ĭp went down to the city of Sā-mā'rī-ā, and preached Christ unto them.

6 And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Phĭl'ĭp spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For [g]unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed.

8 And there was great joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man, called Sī'mon, which beforetime in the same city used [h]sorcery, and bewitched the people of Sā-mā'rī-ā, giving [i]out that himself was some great one:

10 To whom [j]they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.

11 And to him they had regard, because that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 But when they believed Phĭl'ĭp preaching the things [k]concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jē'sus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.

13 Then Sī'mon himself [l]believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Phĭl'ĭp, and wondered, beholding the [1]miracles and signs which were done.

14 ¶Now when the apostles which were at Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm heard that Sā-mā'rī-ā had received the word of God, they sent unto them Pē'tēr and John:

15 Who, when they were come down, prayed for them, [m]that they might receive the Hō'lў Ghōst:

16 (For [n]as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only [o]they were baptized in [p]the name of the Lord Jē'sus.)

17 Then [q]laid they their hands on them, and they received the Hō'lў Ghōst.

18 And when Sī'mon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Hō'lў Ghōst was given, he offered them money,

19 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Hō'lў Ghōst.

20 But Pē'tēr said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou [r]hast thought that [s]the gift of God may be purchased with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy [t]heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 ~~Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, [u]if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.~~ R. 11. 18.

23 For I perceive that thou art in the gall [v]of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity.

24 Then answered Sī'mon, and said, Pray ye [w]to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me.

25 And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm, and preached the gospel in many villages of the Sā-măr'ĭ-tans.

26 ¶And [x]the angel of the Lord spake unto Phĭl'ĭp, saying, Arise, and go toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm unto Gā'zà, which is desert.

27 And he arose and went: and, behold, a [y]man of Ē-thĭ-ō'pĭ-à, an eunuch of great authority under Căn'dā-çē queen of [z]the Ē-thĭ-ō'pĭ-ans, who had the charge of all her treasure, and [z]had come to Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm for to worship,

28 Was returning, and sitting in his chariot read Ē-ṣā'ĭas the prophet.

29 Then the Spirit said unto Phĭl'ĭp, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot.

30 And Phĭl'ĭp ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Ē-sa'ĭas, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he said, How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Phĭl'ĭp that he would come up and sit with him.

D 32 The place of the scripture which he read was this, [a]He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth:

33 In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Phĭl'ĭp, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man?

35 Then Phĭl'ĭp opened his mouth, and began [b]at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jē'sus.

B 10. 43. *

36 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; what [c]doth hinder me to be baptized?

F 37 And Phĭl'ĭp said, [d]If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I [e]believe † that Jē'sus Chrĭst is the Son of God.

38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Phĭl'ĭp and the eunuch; and he baptized him.

39 And when they were come up out of the water, [f]the Spirit of the Lord caught away Phĭl'ĭp, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.

40 But Phĭl'ĭp was found [g]at Ā-zō'tus: and passing through he preached in all the cities, till he came to Çæs-a-rē'a.

CHAPTER 9.

1 Saul, going towards Damascus, is called by Christ: 19 Ananias is sent to him, and he is baptized, 20 and preacheth Christ. 32 Miracles wrought by Peter.

AND [a]Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest,

2 And desired of him letters to Dă-măs'cus to the synagogues, that if he found any [1]of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jē-ru'sā-lĕm.

3 And [b]as he journeyed, he came near Dă-măs'cus: and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven:

4 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest [c]thou me?

5 And he said, [d]Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jē'sus whom thou persecutest: [e]it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

6 And he trembling and astonished said, Lord, [f]what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

7 And [g]the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man.

8 And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Dă-măs'cus.

9 And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink.

10 ¶ And there was a certain disciple at Dă-măs'cus, named Ăn-a-nī'as; and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ăn-a-nī'as. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Jū'das for one called Saul, of [h]Tär'sus: for, behold, he prayeth,

12 And hath seen in a vision a man named Ăn-a-nī'as coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 Then Ăn-a-nī'as answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jē-ru'sā-lĕm:

14 And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that [i]call on thy name.

15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for [j]he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before [k]the Gĕn'tīles, and [l]kings, and the children of Ĭs'ra-el:

16 For [m]I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake.

17 And [n]Ăn-a-nī'as went his way, and entered into the house; and putting his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jē'sus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and [o]be filled with the Hō'lў Ghōst.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized.

19 And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. [r]Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Dā-măs'cus.

20 And straightway he preached Chrīst in the synagogues, [q]that he is the Son of God.

21 But all that heard him were amazed, and said; [s]Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this name in Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and [t]confounded the Jews which dwelt at Dā-măs'cus, proving that this is very Chrīst.

23 ¶And after that many days were fulfilled, [u]the Jews took counsel to kill him:

24 But their laying await was known of Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

25 Then the disciples took him by night, and [v]let him down by the wall in a basket.

26 And [w]when Saul was come to Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.

27 But [x]Bär'na-băs took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Dā-măs'cus in the name of Jē'sus.

28 And he was with them coming in and going out at Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm.

29 And he spake [z]boldly in the name of the Lord Jē'sus, and disputed against the [a]Grē'cians: [2]but they went about to slay him.

30 Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Cæs-a-rē'ā, and sent him forth to Tär'sus.

31 Then [b]had the churches rest throughout all Jū-dæ'ā and Găl'ĭ-lee and Sā-mā'rĭ-ā, and were edified; and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Hō'lў Ghōst, were multiplied.

32 ¶And it came to pass, as Pē'tĕr passed throughout [c]all quarters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Lўd'dā.

33 And there he found a certain man named Æ'ne-ās, which had kept his bed eight years, and was sick of the palsy.

34 And Pē'tĕr said unto him, Æ'ne-ās, [d]Jē'sus Chrīst maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.

35 And all that dwelt at Lўd'dā and [e]Sā'ron saw him, and [f]turned to the Lord.

36 ¶Now there was at Jŏp'pā a certain disciple named Tăb'ĭ-thā, which by interpretation is called [3]Dôr'cas: this woman was full [g]of good works and almsdeeds which she did.

37 And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom when they had washed, they laid her in [h]an upper chamber.

38 And forasmuch as Lўd'dā was nigh to Jŏp'pā, and the disciples had heard that Pē'tĕr was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not [i]delay to come to them.

39 Then Pē'tĕr arose and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dôr'cas made, while she was with them.

40 But Pē'tĕr [k]put them all forth, and kneeled [l]down, and prayed; and turning him to the body [j]said, Tăb'ĭ-thā, arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Pē'tĕr, she sat up.

41 And he gave her his hand, and lifted her up, and when he had called the saints and widows, presented her alive.

42 And it was known throughout all Jŏp'pā; [k]and many believed in the Lord.

43 And it came to pass, that he tarried many days in [l]Jŏp'pā with one Sī'mon [m]a tanner.

CHAP. 10.

3 He [b]saw in a vision evidently about the ninth hour of the day an [c]angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Côr-nē'lĭ-ŭs.

4 And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for [d]a memorial before God.

5 And now send men to Jŏp'pà, and call for one Sī'mon, whose surname is Pē'tĕr:

6 He lodgeth with one [e]Sī'mon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: he [f]shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do.

7 And when the angel which spake unto Côr-nē'lĭ-ŭs was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually;

8 And when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Jŏp'pà.

9 ¶On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Pē'tĕr went up upon the housetop to pray about [g]the sixth hour:

10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance,

11 And [h]saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth:

12 Wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Pē'tĕr; kill, and eat.

14 But Pē'tĕr said, Not so, Lord; for [i]I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean.

15 And the voice spake unto him again the second time, [j]What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

16 This was done thrice: and the vessel was received up again into heaven.

17 Now while Pē'tĕr doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, behold, the men which were sent from Côr-nē'lĭ-ŭs had made enquiry for Sī'mon's house, and stood before the gate,

18 And called, and asked whether Sī'mon, which was surnamed Pē'tĕr, were lodged there.

19 While Pē'tĕr thought on the vision, the Spirit [k]said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee.

20 Arise [l]therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them.

21 Then Pē'tĕr went down to the men which were sent unto him from Côr-nē'lĭ-ŭs; and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, Côr-nē'lĭ-ŭs the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, and of [m]good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by an holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee.

23 Then called he them in, and lodged them. And on the morrow Pē'tĕr went away with them, and certain brethren from Jŏp'pà accompanied him.

24 And the morrow after they entered into Cæs-a-rē'à. And Côr-nē'lĭ-ŭs waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends.

25 And as Pē'tĕr was coming in, Côr-nē'lĭ-ŭs met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him.

26 But Pē'tĕr took him up, saying, Stand [n]up; I myself also am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said unto them, Ye know how that [o]it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation; but [p]God hath shewed me that I should not call any man common or unclean.

29 Therefore came I unto you without gainsaying, as [q]soon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me?

30 And Côr-nē'lĭ-ŭs said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and, behold, [r]a man stood before [s]me in bright clothing,

31 And said, Côr-nē'lĭ-ŭs, [t]thy prayer is heard, [u]and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Jŏp'pà, and call hither Sī'mon, whose surname is Pē'tĕr; he is lodged in the house of one Sī'mon a tanner by the sea side:

44 ¶While Pē'tĕr yet spake these words, the Hō'lў Ghōst fell on all them which heard the word.

45 And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Pē'tĕr, because that on the Gĕn'tīles also was poured out the gift of the Hō'lў Ghōst.

46 For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Pē'tĕr,

1 Peter accused for going to the Gentiles. 19 The gospel preached in many places. 27 Great dearth foretold.

AND the apostles and brethren that were in Jū-dæ'ā heard that the Gĕn'tīles [a]had also received the word of God.

2 And when Pē'tĕr was come up to Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm, [b]they that were of the circumcision contended with him,

3 Saying, [c]Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them.

4 But Pē'tĕr rehearsed the matter from the beginning, and expounded it [d]by order unto them, saying,

5 I [e]was in the city of Jŏp'pā praying: and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even to me:

7 And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise, Pē'tĕr; slay and eat.

8 But I said, [f]Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth.

9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.

11 And, behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Çæs-a-rē'ā unto me.

12 And [g]the spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover these [h]six brethren accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house:

13 And [i]he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Jŏp'pā, and call for Sī'mon, whose surname is Pē'tĕr;

14 Who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved.

15 And as I began to speak, the Hō'lў Ghōst fell on them, [j]as on us at the beginning.

17 Forasmuch [m]then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, [n]who believed on the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst; what [o]was I, that I could withstand God?

18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then [p]hath God also to the Gĕn'tīles granted repentance unto life. L. 15. 7–11; R. 17. 30

19 ¶Now [q]they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stē'phen travelled as far as Phē-nī'çē, and Çў'prus, and Ăn'tĭ-ŏch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only.

20 And some of them were men of Çў'prus and Çў-rē'nē, which, when they were come to Ăn'tĭ-ŏch, spake [r]unto the Grē'çians, preaching [s]the Lord Jē'sus.

21 And [t]the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and turned [u]unto the Lord.

22 ¶Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jē-rų'sā-lĕm: and they sent forth [v]Băr'na-bās, that he should go as far as Ăn'tĭ-ŏch.

23 Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and [w]exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto [x]the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and full of the Hō'lў Ghōst and of faith: [y]and much people was added unto the Lord.

20 ¶And Hĕr'od [4]was highly displeased with them of Tўre and Sī'dŏn: but they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blăs'tus [5]the king's chamberlain their friend, desired peace; because their [n]country was nourished by the king's country.

21 And upon a set day Hĕr'od, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his throne, and made an oration unto them.

22 And the people gave a shout, saying, [o]It is the voice of a god, and not of a man.

23 And immediately the angel of the Lord [p]smote him, because [q]he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

24 ¶But [r]the word of God grew and multiplied.

25 And Bär'na-bās and Saul returned from Jē-rų'sā-lĕm, when they had fulfilled their [s]ministry, [s]and took with them Jŏhn, whose surname was Märk.

CHAPTER 13.

1 Paul and Barnabas sent to the Gentiles. 44 The Jews blaspheme, etc.

NOW there were [a]in the church that was at Ăn'tĭ-ŏch certain prophets and teachers; as [b]Bär'na-bās, and Sĭm'e-on that was called Nī'gĕr, and Lų'çius [c]of Çў-rē'nĕ, and Măn'a-ĕn, [1]which had been brought up with Hĕr'od the tetrarch, and Saul.

2 As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Hō'lў Ghōst said, Separate me [d]Bär'na-bās and Saul for the work [e]whereunto I have called them.

3 And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.

4 ¶So they, being sent forth by the Hō'lў Ghōst, departed unto Sĕ-leū'çĭ-à; and from thence they sailed to [f]Çў'prus.

5 And when they were at Săl'a-mĭs, they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also [g]Jŏhn to their minister.

6 And when they had gone through the isle unto Pā'phos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bär-jē'sus:

7 Which was with the deputy of the country, Sēr'gĭ-ŭs Paul'us, a prudent man; who called for Bär'na-bās and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God.

8 But [h]Ĕl'ў-măs the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.

9 Then [2]Saul, (who also is called [3]Paul,) filled with the Hō'lў Ghōst, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O full of all subtilty and all mischief, [i]thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?

11 And now, behold, [j]the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 ¶Now when Paul and his company loosed from Pā'phos, they came to Pĕr'gà in Păm-phȳ'lĭ-à: and John [k]departing from them returned to Jē-ru'să-lĕm.

14 ¶But when they departed from Pĕr'gà, they came to Ăn'tĭ-ŏch in Pĭ-sĭd'ĭ-à, and went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sat down.

15 And [l]after the reading of the law and the prophets the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye [m]have any word of exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand said, Men of Ĭs'ra-el, and ye that fear God, give audience.

17 The God of this people of Ĭs'ra-el chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Ē'gўpt, and with an high arm brought he them out of it.

18 And about the time of forty years [4]suffered he their manners in the wilderness.

19 And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Chā'năan, he divided their land to them by lot.

20 And after that he gave unto them judges about the space of four hundred and fifty years, until Săm'u-el the prophet.

21 And afterward they desired a king: and God gave unto them Saul the son of Çīs, a man of the tribe of Bĕn'ja-mĭn, by the space of forty years.

22 And [n]when he had removed him, he raised up unto them Dā'vid to be their king; to whom also he gave testimony, and said, I have found Dā'vid the son of Jĕs'se, a man after mine own heart, which shall fulfil all my will.

K 23 Of [o]this man's seed hath God according to [p]his promise raised unto Ĭs'ra-el [q]a Saviour, Jē'sus: K.13.38,39.

24 When John had first preached before his coming the baptism of repentance to all the people of Ĭs'ra-el.

25 And as John fulfilled his course, he said, Whom think ye that I am? I am not he. But, behold, there cometh one after me, whose shoes of his feet I am not worthy to loose.

26 Men and brethren, children of the stock of Ā'brā-hăm, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this salvation sent. * W

27 For they that dwell at Jē-ru'să-lĕm, and their rulers, [5]because they knew him not, nor yet the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath day, they have fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pī'late that he should be slain.

29 And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a sepulchre.

30 But [s]God raised him from the dead:

31 And [t]he was seen many days of them which came up with him from Găl'ĭ-lee to Jē-ru'să-lĕm, who are his witnesses unto the people.

32 And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that the [u]promise which was made unto the fathers,

33 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jē'sus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, Thou [v]art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.

34 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, I will give you the sure [6]mercies of Dā'vid.

35 Wherefore he saith also in another psalm, [w]Thou shalt not suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

36 For Dā'vid, [6]after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption:

37 But he, whom God raised again, saw no corruption.

38 ¶Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, [z]that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins: F K W your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

42 ¶ And when the Jews were gone out of the synagogue, the Gĕn'tīles besought that these words might be preached to them the next sabbath.

43 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed Paul and Bär'na-bas: who, speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in [a]the grace of God.

44 ¶ And the next sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God.

45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and [b]spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming.

46 Then Paul and Bär'na-bas waxed bold, and said, [c]It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but [d]seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gĕn'tīles.

K W 47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, [e]I have set thee to be a light of the Gĕn'tīles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth. K. 20. 32; W. 17. 27.

48 And when the Gĕn'tīles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: [f]and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed.

49 And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.

50 But the Jews stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised [g]persecution against Paul and Bär'na-bas, and expelled them out of their coasts.

51 But [h]they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Ī-cō'nī-ŭm.

52 And the disciples [i]were filled with joy, and with the Hō'lў Ghōst.

CHAPTER 14.

1 Paul and Barnabas are persecuted. 8 Paul healing a cripple at Lystra, they are reputed as gods by the people. 19 Paul is stoned, etc.

AND it came to pass in Ī-cō'nī-ŭm, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great [a]multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed.

2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gĕn'tīles, and made their minds evil affected against the brethren.

3 Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, which [b]gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gĕn'tīles, and also of the Jews with their rulers, to [c]use them despitefully, and to stone them,

6 They were ware of it, and [d]fled unto Lўs'trà and Dēr'bē, cities of Lўc-a-ō'nī-à, and unto the region that lieth round about:

7 And there they preached the gospel.

8 ¶ And [e]there sat a certain man at Lўs'trà, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked:

9 The same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding him, and perceiving [f]that he had faith to be healed,

10 Said with a loud voice, [g]Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked.

11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lўc-a-ō'nī-à, [h]The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.

12 And they called Bär'na-bas, Jū'pī-tēr; and Paul, Mēr-cū'rī-ŭs, because he was the chief speaker.

13 Then the priest of Jū'pī-tēr, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and [i]would have done sacrifice with the people.

14 Which when the apostles, Bär'na-bas and Paul, heard of, [j]they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out,

15 And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? [k]We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you that ye should turn from [l]these vanities [m]unto the living God, [n]which made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein:

without witness, in that he did good, and [q]gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.

18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them.

19 ¶And [1]there came thither certain Jews from Ăn'tĭ-ŏch and Ī-cō'nĭ-ŭm, who persuaded the people, [s]and, having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he [t]had been dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city: and the next day he departed with Bär'na-bas to Dĕr'bē.

21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and [1]had taught many, they returned again to Lȳs'trȧ, and to Ī-cō'nĭ-ŭm, and Ăn'tĭ-ŏch,

22 Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must [u]through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.

23 And when they had [v]ordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

24 And after they had passed throughout Pī-sĭd'ĭ-ȧ, they came to Păm-phȳl'ĭ-ȧ.

25 And when they had preached the word in Pĕr'gȧ, they went down into Ăt-tā'lĭ-ȧ:

26 And thence sailed to Ăn'tĭ-ŏch, from whence [w]they had been recommended to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had [x]opened the door of faith unto the Gĕn'tīles.

28 And there they abode long time with the disciples.

CHAPTER 15.

1 Dissension about circumcision: 5 the apostles consult about it: 22 their determination. 36 Paul and Barnabas contend, and part.

AND [a]certain men which came down from Jū-dæ'ȧ taught the brethren, and said, [b]Except ye be circumcised [c]after the manner of Mō'sēs, ye cannot be saved.

2 When therefore Paul and Bär'na-bas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that [d]Paul and Bär'na-bas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jē-rū'sā-lĕm unto the apostles and elders about this question.

3 And [e]being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phē-nī'çē and Sā-mā'rī-ȧ, declaring [f]the conversion of the Gĕn'tīles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Jē-rū'sā-lĕm, they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and they declared all things that God had done with them.

5 ¶But there [1]rose up certain of the sect of the Phăr'ī-sees which believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Mō'sēs.

6 And the apostles and elders came together for to consider of this matter.

7 And when there had been much disputing, Pē'tēr rose up, and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gĕn'tīles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.

8 And God, [g]which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, [h]giving them the Hō'lȳ Ghōst, even as he did unto us;

9 And [i]put no difference between us and them, [j]purifying their hearts by faith.

10 Now therefore why tempt ye God, to [k]put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

11 But [l]we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst we shall be saved, even as they.

12 ¶Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Bär'na-bas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gĕn'tīles by them.

13 ¶And after they had held their peace, Jā'mes [m]answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me:

14 Sīm'e-on hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gĕn'tīles, to take out of them a people for his name.

15 And to this agree the [n]words of the prophets; as it is written,

16 After [o]this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of Dā'vid, which is fallen down; and I will build

25 It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you with our beloved Bär'na-bās and Paul,

26 Men [y] that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst.

27 We have sent therefore Jū'das and Sī'las, who shall also tell you the same things by [z] mouth.

28 For it seemed good to [a] the Hō'lў Ghōst, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things;

29 That [b] ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and [c] from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well.

30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Ăn'tĭ-ŏch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle:

39 And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so Bär'na-bās took Märk, and sailed unto Çўp'rus;

40 And Paul chose Sī'las, and departed, being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God.

41 And he went through Sўr'ĭ-ā and Çĭ-lĭ'çĭā, confirming the churches.

* E. Rom. 8. 27.

of the apostles and elders which were at Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm.

5 And [f]so were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily.

6 Now when they had gone throughout Phrўg'ĭ-à and the region of Gā-lā'tĭà, and were forbidden of the Hō'lў Ghōst to preach the word in Ā'sĭà,

7 After they were come to Mўs'ĭà, they assayed to go into Bĭ-thўn'ĭ-à: but the Spirit suffered them not.

8 And they passing by Mўs'ĭà came down to [g]Trō'as.

9 ¶ And a [h]vision appeared to Paul in the night; There stood a man of Măç-e-dō'nĭ-à, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Măç-e-dō'nĭ-à, and help us.

10 And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to [i]go into Măç-e-dō'nĭ-à, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto them.

11 Therefore loosing from Trō'as, we came with a straight course to Săm-o-thrā'çĭà, and the next day to Nĕ-ăp'o-lĭs;

12 And from thence to [j]Phĭ-lĭp'pī, which is [1]the chief city of that part of Măç-e-dō'nĭ-à, and a colony: and we were in that city abiding certain days.

13 And on the [2]sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spake unto the women which resorted thither.

14 ¶ And a certain woman named Lўd'ĭ-à, a seller of purple, of the city of [k]Thў-a-tī'rà, which worshipped God, heard us: whose heart [l]the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul.

15 And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful [m]to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she [n]constrained us.

16 ¶ And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain [o]damsel possessed with a spirit [3]of divination met us, which brought her masters [p]much gain by soothsaying:

17 The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation.

18 And this did she many days.

But Paul, being [q]grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jē'sus Chrīst to come out of her. [r]And he came out the same hour.

19 ¶ And [s]when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, [t]they caught Paul and Sī'las, and [u]drew them into the [4]marketplace unto the rulers,

20 And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, do [v]exceedingly trouble our city,

21 And teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Rō'mans.

22 And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, and [w]commanded to beat them.

23 And [x]when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely:

24 Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the [y]stocks.

25 ¶ And at midnight Paul and Sī'las prayed, and [z]sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 And [a]suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately [b]all the doors were opened, and every one's bands were loosed.

27 And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled.

28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, [c]Do thyself no harm: for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Sī'las,

30 And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what [d]must I do to be saved?

31 And they said, [e]Believe on the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house. F. 19. 4.

32 And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

33 And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway.

F

34 And when he had brought them into his house, [f]he set meat before them, [g]and rejoiced, believing in God with all his house.

35 And when it was day, the magistrates sent the serjeants, saying, Let those men go.

36 And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul, The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace.

37 But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, [h]being Rō'mans, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us out privily? nay verily; [i]but let them come themselves and fetch us out.

38 And the serjeants told these words unto the magistrates: and they feared, when they heard that they were Rō'mans.

39 And they came and besought them, and brought them out, [j]and desired them to depart out of the city.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of Lȳd'ī-ā: and when they had seen the brethren, they [k]comforted them, and departed.

CHAPTER 17.

1 Paul preacheth at Thessalonica, 10 and at Berea: 16 disputeth with the Athenians. 22 His discourse on Mars' hill; 32 some mock, others believe.

NOW when they had passed through Ăm-phĭp'o-lĭs and Ăp-ŏl-lō'nĭ-ā, they came to Thĕs-sa-lō-nī'cā, where was a synagogue of the Jews:

2 And Paul, as his manner was, went [a]in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them out of the scriptures,

3 Opening and alleging, [b]that Chrīst must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this Jē'sus, [1]whom I preach unto you, is Chrīst.

4 And [c]some of them believed, and consorted with [d]Paul and Sī'las; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

5 ¶But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house [e]of Jā'son, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 And when they found them not, they drew Jā'son and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, These [f]that have turned the world upside down are come hither also;

7 Whom Jā'son hath received: and these all [g]do contrary to the decrees of Cæ'sar, saying [h]that there is another king, one Jē'sus.

8 And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.

9 And when they had taken security of Jā'son, and of the other, they let them go.

10 ¶And [i]the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Sī'las by night unto Bĕ-rē'ā: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews.

11 These were more noble than those in Thĕs-sa-lō-nī'cā, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched [j]the scriptures daily, whether those things were so. B. 20, 32.

12 Therefore many of them believed; also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men, not a few.

13 But when the Jews of Thĕs-sa-lō-nī'cā had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Bĕ-rē'ā, [k]they came thither also, and stirred up the people.

14 And [l]then immediately the brethren sent away Paul to go as it were to the sea: but Sī'las and Tī-mō'the-ŭs abode there still.

15 And they that conducted Paul brought him unto Ăth'ĕns: and receiving [m]a commandment unto Sī'las and Tī-mō'the-ŭs for to come to him with all speed, they departed.

16 ¶Now while Paul waited for them at Ăth'ĕns, [n]his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city [2]wholly given to idolatry.

17 Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.

18 Then certain philosophers of the Ĕp-ĭ-cū-rē'ans, and of the Stō'ĭcks, encountered him. And some said, What will this [3]babbler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because he preached unto them Jē'sus, and the resurrection.

19 And they took him, and brought him unto [4]Ăr-e-ŏp'a-gŭs, saying, May we know what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean.

21 (For all the Ā-thē'nĭ-anş and strangers which were there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.)

22 ¶Then Paul stood in the midst of [5]Märş' hill, and said, Ye men of Ăth'ĕnş, I perceive that in all things ye are [6]too superstitious.

23 For as I passed by, and beheld your [6]devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, [p]TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.

24 God [q]that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is [r]Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth [s]not in temples made with hands;

25 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, [t]as though he needed any thing, seeing [u]he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things;

26 And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and [v]hath determined the times before appointed, and [w]the bounds of their habitation;

27 That [x]they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, [y]though he be not far from every one of us: W. Rom. 1. 16.

28 For [z]in him we live, and move, and have our being; [a]as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring. L. 28.28.

29 Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, [b]we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device.

30 And [c]the times of this ignorance God winked at; but [d]now commandeth all men every where to repent:

31 Because he hath appointed a day, in the which [e]he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath [7]given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead. †

32 ¶And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter.

33 So Paul departed from among them.

CHAPTER 18.

3 Paul labouring with his hands, and preaching at Corinth, 9 is encouraged in a vision, etc.

AFTER these things Paul departed from Ăth'ĕnş, and came to Cŏr'ĭnth;

2 And found a certain [a]Jew named Ăq'uĭ-lā, born in Pŏn'tus, lately come from Ĭt'a-lў, with his wife Prĭs-çĭl'lā; (because that Clau'dĭ-ŭs had commanded all Jews to depart from Rōme:) and came unto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, and [b]wrought: for by their occupation they were tentmakers.

4 And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks.

5 And [c]when Sī'las and Tĭ-mō'the-ŭs were come from Măç-e-dō'nĭ-ā, Paul was pressed in [d]the spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jē'sus [1]was Chrīst.

6 And [e]when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, [f]he shook his raiment, and said unto them, Your [g]blood be upon your own heads; I [h]am clean: [i]from henceforth I will go unto the Gĕn'tīles.

7 And he departed thence, and entered into a certain man's house, named Jŭs'tus, one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue.

8 And [j]Crĭs'pus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house; and many of the Cō-rĭnth'ĭ-anş hearing believed, and were baptized.

9 Then [k]spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace:

10 For [l]I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee: [m]for I have much people in this city.

11 And he [2]continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 ¶And when Găl'lĭ-ō was the deputy of Ā-chā'ĭa, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat.

13 Saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law.

14 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gal'li-o said unto the Jews, [m]If it were a matter of wrong or wicked lewdness, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you:
15 But if it be a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it; for I will be no judge of such matters.
16 And he drave them from the judgment seat.
17 Then all the Greeks [s]took Sos'the-nes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. And Gal'li-o cared for none of those things.
18 ¶And Paul after this tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Syr'i-a, and with him Pris-cil'la and Aq'ui-la; having shorn [t]his head in [u]Cen'chre-a: for he had a vow.
19 And he came to Eph'e-sus, and left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.
20 When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not;
21 But bade them farewell, saying, [v]I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Je-ru'sa-lem: but I will return again unto you, [w]if God will. And he sailed from Eph'e-sus.
22 And when he had landed at Cæs-a-re'a, and gone up, and saluted the church, he went down to An'ti-och.
23 And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and went over all the country of [x]Ga-la'tia and Phryg'i-a in order, strengthening [y]all the disciples.
24 ¶And [z]a certain Jew named A-pol'los, born at Al-ex-an'dri-a, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Eph'e-sus.
25 This man was instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent [a]in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing [b]only the baptism of John.
26 And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: whom when Aq'ui-la and Pris-cil'la had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly.
27 And when he was disposed to pass into A-cha'ia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, [c]helped them much which had believed through grace:
28 For he mightily convinced the Jews, and that publickly, [d]shewing by the scriptures that Je'sus [e]was Christ.

CHAPTER 19.

1 The Holy Ghost given by the laying on of Paul's hands. 17 Many believe the gospel.

AND it came to pass, that, while A-pol'los was [a]at Cor'inth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts came to Eph'e-sus: and finding certain disciples,
2 He said unto them, Have ye received the Ho'ly Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, [b]We have not so much as heard whether there be any Ho'ly Ghost.
3 And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, Unto [c]John's baptism.
4 Then said Paul, [d]John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Je'sus. F. 20. 21.
5 When they heard this, they were baptized [e]in the name of the Lord Je'sus.
6 And when Paul had [f]laid his hands upon them, the Ho'ly Ghost came on them; and they [g]spake with tongues, and prophesied.
7 And all the men were about twelve.
8 And [h]he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things [i]concerning the kingdom of God.
9 But [j]when divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil [k]of that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Ty-ran'nus.
10 And [l]this continued by the space of two years; so that all they which dwelt in A'sia heard the word of the Lord Je'sus, both Jews and Greeks.
11 And [m]God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul:
12 So [n]that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.
13 ¶Then [o]certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, [p]took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jē'sus, saying, We adjure you by Jē'sus whom Paul preacheth.

14 And there were seven sons of one Sçē'vȧ, a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so.

15 And the evil spirit answered and said, Jē'sus [q]I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ĕph'e-sŭs; and fear [r]fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jē'sus was magnified.

18 And many that believed came, and [s]confessed, and shewed their deeds.

19 Many of them also which [t]used curious arts brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.

20 So [u]mightily grew the word of God and prevailed. R. 20. 21.

21 ¶ After [v]these things were ended, Paul purposed [w]in the spirit, when he had passed through Măç-e-dō'nĭ-ȧ and Ā-chā'ĭȧ, to go to Jē-ru'sā-lĕm, saying, After I have been there, [x]I must also see Rōme.

22 So he sent into Măç-e-dō'nĭ-ȧ two of them [y]that ministered unto him, Tĭ-mō'the-ŭs and [z]Ē-răs'tus; but he himself stayed in Ā'sĭȧ for a season.

23 ¶ And [a]the same time there arose no small stir about [b]that way.

24 For a certain man named Dē-mē'trĭ-ŭs, a silversmith, which made silver shrines for Dī-ăn'ȧ, brought no [c]small gain unto the craftsmen;

25 Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft [d]we have our wealth.

26 Moreover ye see and hear, that not alone at Ĕph'e-sŭs, but almost throughout all Ā'sĭȧ, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that they [e]be no gods, which are made with hands:

27 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought; but also that the temple of the great goddess Dī-ăn'ȧ should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Ā'sĭȧ and the world worshippeth.

28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, [f]Great is Dī-ăn'ȧ of the Ē-phē'sĭans.

29 And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having [g]caught Gā'ĭus [h]and Ăr-ĭs-tär'chus, men of Măç-e-dō'nĭ-ȧ, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

30 And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 And certain of the chief [i]of Ā'sĭȧ, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And they drew Ăl-ĕx-ăn'dĕr out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And [j]Ăl-ĕx-ăn'dĕr beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Dī-ăn'ȧ of the Ē-phē'sĭans.

35 And when the townclerk had appeased the people, he said, Ye men of Ĕph'e-sŭs, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ē-phē'sĭans is [k]a worshipper of the great goddess Dī-ăn'ȧ, and of the image which fell down from Jū'pĭ-tĕr?

36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

37 For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess.

38 Wherefore if Dē-mē'trĭ-ŭs, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, the [2]law is open, and there are deputies: let them implead one another.

39 But if ye enquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a [3]lawful assembly.

40 For we are in danger to be called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this concourse.

CHAPTER 20.

1 Paul goeth to Macedonia: 7 he celebrateth the Lord's supper, and preacheth. 9 Eutychus, falling down dead, 10 is raised to life. 28 Paul committeth the flock to the elders: 36 he prayeth with them, and departeth.

AND after the uproar was ceased, Paul called unto him the disciples, and embraced them, [a]and departed for to go into Măç-e-dō'nĭ-à.

2 And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greeçe,

3 And there abode three months. And when [b]the Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Sўr'ĭ-à, he purposed to return through Măç-e-dō'nĭ-à.

4 And there accompanied him into A'şià Sŏp'a-tēr of Bē-rē'à; and of the Thĕs-sa-lō'nĭ-ans, [c]Ar-ĭs-tär'chus and Sĕ-cŭn'dus; [d]and Gā'ius of Dēr'bē, and [e]Tī-mō'the-ŭs; and of A'şià, [f]Tўch'ĭ-cŭs and [g]Trŏph'ĭ-mŭs.

5 These going before tarried for us at Trō'as.

6 And we sailed away from Phĭ-lĭp'pī after the days [h]of unleavened bread, and came unto them [i]to Trō'as in five days; where we abode seven days.

7 ¶And upon [j]the first day of the week, when the disciples came together [k]to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight.

8 And there were many lights [l]in the upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eū'tў-chŭs, being fallen into a deep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

10 And Paul went down, [m]and fell on him, and embracing him said, [n]Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him.

11 When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed.

12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 ¶And we went before to ship, and sailed unto Ăs'sŏs, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go afoot.

14 And when he met with us at Ăs'sŏs, we took him in, and came to Mĭt-y-lē'nē.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chī'os; and the next day we arrived at Sā'mos, and tarried at Trō-gў'lĭ-ŭm; and the next day we came to Mī-lē'tus.

16 For Paul had determined to sail by Ĕph'e-sŭs, because he would not spend the time in A'şià: [o]for he hasted, if it were possible for him, [p]to be at Jē-ru'să-lĕm [q]the day of Pĕn'te-cŏst.

17 ¶And from Mī-lē'tus he sent to Ĕph'e-sŭs, and called [r]the elders of the church.

18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, from [s]the first day that I came into A'şià, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons,

19 Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations, which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews:

20 And how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publickly, and from house to house,

21 Testifying [t]both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, [u]repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jē'şus Chrĭst.

F, Rom. 1. 16; R. 26. 20.

22 And now, behold, [v]I go bound in the spirit unto Jē-ru'să-lĕm, not knowing the things that shall befall me there:

23 Save that [w]the Hō'lў Ghōst witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions [x]abide me.

24 But [y]none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so [z]that I might finish my course with joy, and [a]the ministry, which [b]I have received of the Lord Jē'şus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now, behold, [c]I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am [d]pure from the blood of all men.

27 For I have not shunned to declare unto you all [e]the counsel of God.

28 Take [f]heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the [g]Hō'lў Ghōst hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, [g]which he hath purchased [h]with his own blood. D. Rom. 3. 24, 25.

29 For I know this, that after my departing [i]shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

30 Also [j]of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.

31 Therefore watch, and remember, that by [k]the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.

32 And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and [l]to the word of his grace, which is able [m]to build you up, and to give you an [n]inheritance among all them which are sanctified.

33 I [o]have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel.

34 Yea, ye yourselves know, [p]that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me.

35 I have shewed you all things, how that [q]so labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jē'sus, how he said, [r]It is more blessed to give than to receive.

36 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled down, and prayed with them all.

37 And they all wept sore, [s]and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him,

38 Sorrowing most of all for the words which he spake, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship.

CHAPTER 21.

1 Paul, journeying to Jerusalem, cometh to Philip's house, whose daughters prophesied. 17 Paul, at Jerusalem, 27 is apprehended.

AND it came to pass, that after we were gotten from them, and had launched, we came with a straight course unto Cō'ŏs, and the day following unto Rhōdes, and from thence unto Păt'a-rā:

2 And finding a ship sailing over unto Phē-nī'çiā, we went aboard, and set forth.

3 Now when we had discovered Çȳ'prus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Sȳr'ī-ȧ, and landed at Tȳre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden.

4 And finding disciples, we tarried there seven days: [a]who said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm.

5 And when we had accomplished those days, we departed and went our way; and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and we [b]kneeled down on the shore, and prayed.

6 And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship; and they returned home [c]again.

7 And when we had finished our course from Tȳre, we came to Ptŏl-e-mā'ĭs, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto Çæs-a-rē'ȧ: and we entered into the house of Phĭl'ĭp [d]the evangelist, which was [e]one of the seven; and abode with him.

9 And the same man had four daughters, virgins, [f]which did prophesy.

10 And as we tarried there many days, there came down from Jū-dæ'ȧ a certain prophet, named [g]Ăg'a-bŭs.

11 And when he was come unto us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Hō'lȳ Ghōst, [h]So shall the Jews at Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Ġĕn'tīles.

12 And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, be-sought him not to go up to Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm.

13 Then Paul answered, [i]What mean ye to weep and to break mine heart? for [j]I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm for the name of the Lord Jē'sus.

14 And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, [k]The will of the Lord be done.

15 And after those days we took up our carriages, and went up to Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm.

16 There went with us also certain of the disciples of Çæs-a-rē'ȧ, and brought with them one Mnā'son of Çȳ'prus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge.

17 And [l]when we were come to Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm, the brethren received us gladly.

18 And the day following Paul went in with us unto [m]Jāmes; and all the elders were present.

19 And when he had saluted them, he declared [n]particularly what things God had wrought among the Gĕn'tīles by [o]his ministry.

20 And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe; and they are all [p]zealous of the law:

21 And they are informed of thee, that thou [q]teachest all the Jews which are among the Gĕn'tīles to forsake Mō'sĕs, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs.

22 What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come.

23 Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men which have a vow on them;

24 Them take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may [r]shave their heads: and all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and [s]keepest the law.

25 As touching the Gĕn'tīles which believe, we [t]have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them entered into [u]the temple, [v]to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them.

27 And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews which were of Ā'sĭà, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid [w]hands on him,

28 Crying out, Men of Ĭs'ra-el, help: This is the man, [x]that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place: and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

29 (For they had seen before with him in the city [y]Trŏph'ĭ-mŭs an Ĕ-phē'sĭan, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)

30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple: and forthwith the doors were shut.

31 And as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the chief captain of the band, that all Jē-ru'sā-lĕm was in an uproar.

32 Who [z]immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down unto them: and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then the chief captain came near, and took him, and [a]commanded him to be bound with two chains; and demanded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle.

35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, [b]Away with him.

37 And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief captain, May I speak unto thee? Who said, Canst thou speak Greek?

38 Art not thou that [1]Ē-gўp'tian, which before these days madest an uproar, and leddest out into the wilderness four thousand men that were murderers?

39 But Paul said, [c]I am a man which am a Jew of Tär'sus, a city in Çĭ-lĭ'çĭà, a citizen of no mean city: and, I beseech thee, [d]suffer me to speak unto the people.

40 And when he had given him licence, Paul stood on the stairs, and beckoned with the hand unto the people. And when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the Hē'brew tongue, saying,

CHAPTER 22.

Jew, born in Tär'sus, a city in Çĭ-lĭ'çĭa, yet brought up in this city at [c]the feet of [d]Gā-mā'lĭ-el, and taught [e]according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and [f]was zealous toward God, [g]as ye all are this day.

4 And [h]I persecuted this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.

5 As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and [i]all the estate of the elders: from [j]whom also I received letters unto [k]the brethren, and went to Dā-măs'cus, to bring them which were there bound unto Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm, for to be punished.

6 And [l]it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Dā-măs'cus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.

7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jē'sus of Năz'a-rĕth, whom thou persecutest.

9 And [m]they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

10 And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Dā-măs'cus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do.

11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Dā-măs'cus.

12 And [n]one Ăn-a-nī'as, a devout man according to the law, [o]having a good report of all the [p]Jews which dwelt there, 13 Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.

14 And he said, [q]The God of our fathers hath [r]chosen thee, that thou shouldest know his will, [s]and see that [t]Just One, and [u]shouldest hear the voice of his mouth.

15 For [v]thou shalt be his witness unto all men of [w]what thou hast seen and heard.

18 And saw him saying unto me, Make haste, [a]and get thee quickly out of Jē-ru'sā-lĕm: for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.

19 And I said, Lord, [b]they know that I imprisoned and [c]beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee:

20 And [d]when the blood of thy martyr Stē'phen was shed, I also was standing by, and [e]consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him.

21 And he said unto me, Depart: for [f]I will send thee far hence unto the Gĕn'tīles.

22 ¶ And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, [g]Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that [h]he should live.

23 And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air,

24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried so against him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, [i]Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Rō'man, and uncondemned?

26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Rō'man.

27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Rō'man? He said, Yea.

28 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free born.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have [1]examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Rō'man, and because he had bound him.

30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and [j]commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

CHAPTER 23.

1 Paul pleadeth his cause: 7 dissension among his accusers: 10 he is again imprisoned: 12 the Jews conspire to kill him, etc.

AND Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men and brethren, I [a]have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.

2 And the high priest Ăn-a-nī'as commanded them that stood by him [b]to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and [c]commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law?

4 And they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest?

5 Then said Paul, [d]I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, [e]Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Săd'du-çees, and the other Phăr'ī-sees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, I [f]am a Phăr'ī-see, the son of a Phăr'ī-see: [g]of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Phăr'ī-sees and the Săd'du-çees: and the multitude was divided.

8 For [h]the Săd'du-çees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Phăr'ī-sees confess both.

9 And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were of the Phăr'ī-sees' part arose, and strove, saying, [i]We find no evil in this man: but [j]if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, let [k]us not fight against God.

10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 And [l]the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm, so must thou bear witness also at Rōme.

12 And when it was day, [m]certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves [1]under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.

15 Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you to morrow, as though ye would enquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him.

16 And [n]when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

17 Then [o]Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?

20 And he said, [p]The Jews have agreed to desire thee that thou wouldest bring down Paul to morrow into the council, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there [q]lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me.

23 And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Çæs-a-rē'à, and horsemen threescore and ten, and [2]spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night;

24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto Fē'lĭx the governor.

25 And he wrote a letter after this manner:

26 Claudius Lysias unto the most excellent governor Felix sendeth greeting.

27 This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: then came I with an army, and rescued him, having understood that he was a Roman.

28 And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council:

29 Whom I perceived to be accused of questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds.

30 And when it was told me how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and gave commandment to his accusers also to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle:

33 Who, when they came to Cæsarea, and delivered the epistle to the governor, presented Paul also before him.

34 And when the governor had read the letter, he asked of what province he was. And when he understood that he was of Cilicia;

35 I will hear thee, said he, when thine accusers are also come. And he commanded him to be kept in Herod's judgment hall.

CHAPTER 24.

1 Tertullus accuseth Paul: 10 who answereth for his life and doctrine: 24 Paul preacheth Christ to the governor and his wife: 27 he is left in prison by Felix.

AND after five days Ananias the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed the governor against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence,

3 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness.

4 Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words.

5 For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes:

6 Who also hath gone about to profane the temple: whom we took, and would have judged according to our law.

7 But the chief captain Lysias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands,

8 Commanding his accusers to come unto thee: by examining of whom thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so.

10 ¶ Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself:

11 Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem for to worship.

12 And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city:

13 Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confess unto thee, that after the way which they call heresy, so worship I the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the law and in the prophets:

15 And have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

16 And herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men.

17 Now after many years I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.

18 Whereupon certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult.

19 Who ought to have been here before thee, and object, if they had ought against me.

1 Paul accused before Festus, 8 appealeth unto Cæsar, 23 and declared innocent by Festus.

NOW when Fĕs'tus was come into the province, after three days he ascended from Çæs-a-rē'ȧ to Jĕ-ru'sȧ-lĕm.
2 Then [a]the high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him,
3 And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jĕ-ru'sȧ-lĕm, laying wait [b]in the way to kill him.
4 But Fĕs'tus answered, that Paul should be kept at Çæs-a-rē'ȧ, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.
5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, [c]if there be any wickedness in him.

1 Or, as some copies read, no more than eight or ten days.

6 And when he had tarried among them [1]more than ten days, he went down unto Çæs-a-rē'ȧ; and the next day sitting on the judgment seat commanded Paul to be brought.
7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jĕ-ru'sȧ-lĕm stood round about, [d]and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove.
8 While he answered for himself, Neither against [e]the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Çæ'sar, have I offended any thing at all.
9 But Fĕs'tus, [f]willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jĕ-ru'sȧ-lĕm, and there be judged of these things before me?
10 Then said Paul, I stand at Çæ'sar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.
11 For [g]if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. [h]I appeal unto Çæ'sar.
12 Then Fĕs'tus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Çæ'sar? unto Çæ'sar shalt thou go.
13 ¶And after certain days king A-grĭp'pȧ and Bēr-nī'çē came unto Çæs-a-rē'ȧ to salute Fĕs'tus.
14 And when they had been there many days, Fĕs'tus declared Paul's cause unto the king, saying, [i]There is a certain man left in bonds by Fē'lĭx:
15 About whom, when I was at Jĕ-ru'sȧ-lĕm, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him.
16 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Rō'mans to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.
17 Therefore, when they were come hither, without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed:

19 But [1]had certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one Jē'sus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

20 And because [2]I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm, and there be judged of these matters.

21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the [3]hearing of Au-gŭs'tus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Cæ'sar.

22 Then [k]Ā-grĭp'pā said unto Fĕs'tus, I would also hear the man myself. To morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

23 And on the morrow, when Ā-grĭp'pā was come, and Bĕr-nī'cē, with [1]great pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and principal men of the city, at Fĕs'tus' commandment Paul was brought forth.

24 And Fĕs'tus said, King Ā-grĭp'pā, and all men which are here present with us, ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm, and also here, crying that he ought not [m]to live any longer.

25 But when I found that [n]he had committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself hath appealed to Au-gŭs'tus, I have determined to send him.

26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king Ā-grĭp'pā, that, after examination had, I might have somewhat to write.

27 For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not withal to signify the crimes laid against him.

CHAPTER 26.

1 Paul, before Agrippa, declareth his life, 12 and his wonderful conversion, etc.

THEN Ā-grĭp'pā said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself:

2 I think myself happy, king Ā-grĭp'pā, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews:

3 Especially because I know thee to be [1]expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently.

4 My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm, know all the Jews;

5 Which knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that [o]after the most straitest sect of our religion I lived a Phăr'ī-see.

6 And now I stand and am judged for the hope of [p]the promise made of God unto our fathers:

7 Unto which promise [q]our twelve tribes, instantly serving God [2]day and night, hope [r]to come. For which hope's sake, king Ā-grĭp'pā, I am accused of the Jews.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise [s]the dead?

9 I [t]verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jē'sus of Năz'a-rĕth.

10 Which [u]thing I also did in Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm: and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority [v]from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.

11 And [w]I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

12 Whereupon [x]as I went to Dă-măs'cus with authority and commission from the chief priests,

13 At midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me.

14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hē'brew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jē'sus whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to [k]make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee;

17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gĕn'tīleş, [l]unto whom now I send thee,

19 Whereupon, O king Ă-grĭp'pà, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision:

R 20 But [s]shewed first unto them of Dā-mās'cus, and at Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm, and throughout all the coasts of Jū-dæ'ā, and then to the Gĕn'tīleş, that they should repent and turn to God, and do [t]works meet for repentance.*

21 For these causes [u]the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which [v]the prophets and [w]Mō'şeş did say should come:

K 23 That [x]Chrīst should suffer, and that he [y]should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should [z]shew light unto the people, and to the Gĕn'tīleş. K. Rom. 1, 16.

24 ¶And as he thus spake for himself, Fĕs'tus said with a loud voice, Paul, [a]thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad.

25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Fĕs'tus; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 King Ă-grĭp'pà, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest.

N 28 Then Ă-grĭp'pà said unto Paul, Almost [b]thou persuadest me to be a Chrĭs'tian.

29 And Paul said, [c]I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds. N. Rom. 1. 19–22.

2 The fast was on the tenth day of the seventh month, Lev. 23, 27 Num. 29, 7

3 Or, injury.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bĕr-nī'çē, and they that sat with them:

31 And when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, [d]This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds.

32 Then said Ă-grĭp'pà unto Fĕs'tus, This man might have been set at liberty, [e]if he had not appealed unto Çæ'şar.

CHAPTER 27.

1 Paul, shipping toward Rome, 9 foretelleth the danger of the voyage, etc.

AND when [a]it was determined that we should sail into Ĭt'a-lў, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners unto one named Jū'lĭ-ŭs, a centurion of Au-gŭs'tus' band.

2 And entering into a ship of Ăd-ra-mўt'tĭ-ŭm, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Ā'şiȧ; one [b]Ăr-ĭs-tär'chus, a Măc-e-dō'nĭ-an of Thĕs-sa-lō-nī'cȧ, being with us.

3 And the next day we touched at Sī'dŏn. And Jū'lĭ-ŭs [c]courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.

4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under Çў'prus, because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Çĭ-lĭ'çĭȧ and Păm-phў'lĭ-ȧ, we came to Mў'rȧ, a city of Lў'çĭȧ.

6 And there the centurion found a ship of Ăl-ĕx-ăn'drĭ-ȧ sailing into Ĭt'a-lў; and he put us therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Cnī'dus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under [1]Crēte, over against Săl-mō'nĕ;

8 And, hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called The fair havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lă-sē'ȧ.

9 ¶Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, [2]because the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them,

10 And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with [3]hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.

11 Nevertheless the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul.

12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain [d]to Phĕ-nī'çĕ, and there to winter; which is an haven of Crēte, and lieth toward the south west and north west.

13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crēte.

14 But not long after there [4]arose against it a tempestuous wind, called [5]Ēū-rŏc'lў-dŏn.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.

16 And running under a certain island which is called Clạu'dà, we had much work to come by the boat:

17 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, strake sail, and so were driven.

18 And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship;

19 And the third day [e]we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.

21 ¶ But after long abstinence Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crēte, and to have gained this harm and loss.

22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship.

23 For [f]there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom [g]I serve,

24 Saying, [h]Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought [i]before Cæ'sar: and, lo, God hath given [j]thee all them that sail with thee.

25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I [k]believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me.

26 Howbeit [l]we must be cast upon a certain island.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Ā'drĭ-à, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country;

28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship,

31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, [m]Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.

32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing.

34 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat: for this is for your health: for [n]there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and [o]gave thanks to God in presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat.

36 Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat.

37 And we were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen [p]souls.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and [q]cast out the wheat into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship.

40 And when they had [6]taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoised up the mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore.

41 And falling into a place where two seas met, [r]they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

42 And the soldiers' counsel [s]was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.

43 But the centurion, [t]willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land:

44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, that they escaped [u]all safe to land.

CHAPTER 28.

1 Paul entertained by the barbarians. 5 The viper on his hand hurteth him not.

AND when they were escaped, then they knew that the island was called [a]Mĕl'ĭ-tâ.

2 And the barbarous people shewed [b]us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

4 And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No [c]doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.

5 And he shook off the beast into the fire, and [d]felt no harm.

6 Howbeit they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and [e]said that he was a god.

7 ¶In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Pŭb'lĭ-ŭs; who received us, and lodged us three days courteously.

8 And it came to pass, that the father of Pŭb'lĭ-ŭs lay sick of a fever and of a bloody flux: to whom Paul entered in, and [f]prayed, and laid [g]his hands on him, and healed him.

9 So when this was done, others also, which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed:

10 Who also honoured us with many [h]honours; and when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary.

11 ¶And after three months we departed in a ship of Ăl-ĕx-ăn'drĭ-â, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign was Căs'tŏr and Pŏl'lux.

12 And landing at Sÿr-a-cūse', we tarried there three days.

13 And from thence we fetched a compass, and came to Rhē'gĭ-ŭm: and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Pū-tē'o-lī:

14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went toward Rōme.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Ăp'pĭ-ī fō'rum, and The three taverns: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

16 And when we came to Rōme, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but [i]Paul was suffered to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him.

17 And it came to pass, that after three days Paul called the chief of the Jews together: and when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, though I [j]have committed nothing against the people, or customs of our fathers, yet was I [k]delivered prisoner from Jĕ-ru'sa-lĕm into the hands of the Rō'mans.

18 Who, [l]when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Jews spake against it, I [m]was constrained to appeal unto Cæ'sar; not that I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you: because that [n]for the hope of Is'ra-el I am bound with this [o]chain.

21 And they said unto him, We neither received letters out of Jū-dæ'a concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came shewed or spake any harm of thee.

22 But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that every where [p]it is spoken against.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging; [q]to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jē'sus, [r]both out of the law of Mō'ses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE ROMANS.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Paul commendeth to the Romans his calling: 16 sheweth that the gospel is for the justification of all men through faith. 21 The sins of the Gentiles.

PAUL, a servant of Jē'sus Chrīst, called to [a]be an apostle, [b]separated unto the gospel of God,

2 (Which [c]he had promised afore by his prophets in the holy scriptures,)

3 Concerning his Son Jē'sus Chrīst our Lord, which was made of the seed of Dā'vid according to the flesh;

4 And [1]declared to be the Son of God with power, according [d]to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead:

5 By whom [e]we have received grace and apostleship, [2]for obedience to the faith among all nations, [f]for his name:

6 Among whom are ye also the called of Jē'sus Chrīst:

7 To all that be in Rōme, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst.

8 First, [g]I thank my God through Jē'sus Chrīst for you all, that [h]your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world.

9 For God is my witness, whom I serve [3]with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers;

10 Making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey [i]by the will of God to come unto you.

11 For I long to see you, that [j]I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established;

12 That is, that I may be comforted together [4]with you by the mutual faith both of you and me.

13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that [k]oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but was [l]let hitherto,) that I might have some fruit [5]among you also, even as among other Gĕn'tīles.

14 I [m]am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the Bär-bā'rĭ-ans; both to the wise, and to the unwise.

15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rōme also.

16 For [n]I am not ashamed of the gospel of Chrīst: for [o]it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. F. 3. 22, 23;* F K T W

17 For [p]therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, [q]The just shall live by faith.

18 For [r]the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, [s]who hold the truth in unrighteousness; † H known of God is manifest [6]in them; for [u]God hath shewed it unto them.

20 For [v]the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; [7]so that they are without excuse:

21 Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, [w]neither were thankful; but [x]became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. *

26 For this cause God gave them up unto vile [f]affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature:

27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet.

28 And even as they did not like [9]to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to [10]a reprobate mind, to do those things which [g]are not convenient;

CHAPTER 2.

1 They who condemn sin in others, and do the like themselves, are inexcusable, whether Jews or Gentiles. 17 The Jews, sinning against boasted light, doubly guilty.

THEREFORE thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things.

2 But we are sure that the judgment of God is according [a]to truth against them which commit such things.

3 And [b]thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God?

4 Or despisest thou [c]the riches of his goodness and forbearance and [d]long-suffering; [e]not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance?

5 But after thy hardness and impenitent heart [f]treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God;

6 Who [g]will render to every man according to his deeds:

7 To [h]them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life:

8 But [i]unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath,

9 Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the [j]Jew first, and also of the [1]Gĕn'tīle; H. 2. 11, 12.

10 But [k]glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the [2]Gĕn'tīle:

11 For there is [l]no respect of persons with God.

12 For as many as have sinned without law shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned in the law shall be judged by the law; H. 6. 23.

13 (For [m]not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.

J 16 In [a]the day when God shall judge the secrets of men [c]by Je'sus Christ according to my gospel. J. 3. 6.

17 Behold, [r]thou art called a Jew, and restest [q]in the law, [r]and makest thy boast of God,

18 And [s]knowest his will, and [5]approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law;

19 And art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness,

20 An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, [t]which hast the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law.

21 Thou [u]therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?

22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, [v]dost thou commit sacrilege?

23 Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God?

24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gĕn'tīles through you, as it [w]is written.

25 For [z]circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law: but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.

26 Therefore [y]if the uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, judge [c]thee, who by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law?

G 28 For [c]he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:

29 But he is a Jew, [b]which is one inwardly; and [c]circumcision is that of the heart, [d]in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God. G. 3. 20.

CHAPTER 3.

2 Much every way: chiefly, because B that unto [a]them were committed the oracles of God. B. 9. 3, 4.

3 For what if [b]some did not believe? shall their [c]unbelief make the faith of God without effect?

4 God [d]forbid: yea, let [e]God be true, but every [f]man a liar; as it is written, [g]That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

5 But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? [h](I speak as a man)

6 God forbid: for then [i]how shall J
God judge the world? J. 14. 10–12.

7 For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; why yet am I also judged as a sinner?

8 And not rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) Let [j]us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just.

9 What then? are we better than A they? No, in no wise: for we have C before [l]proved both Jews and Gĕn'tīles, that [k]they are all under sin;

10 As it is written, [l]There is none righteous, no, not one:

11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.

12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one. A. 3. 19.

13 Their [m]throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the [n]poison of asps is under their lips:

14 Whose [o]mouth is full of cursing and bitterness:

15 Their [r]feet are swift to shed blood:

16 Destruction and misery are in their ways:

17 And the way of peace have they not known:

18 There [q]is no fear of God before their eyes. C. 6. 16–21.

19 Now we know that what things A soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that [r]every mouth may be stopped, and [s]all the world may become [2]guilty before God. A. 3. 22, 23.

20 Therefore [t]by the deeds of the G

G law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for [u]by the law is the knowledge of sin. G. 8. 9.

21 But now [v]the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and [w]the prophets;

A F W 22 Even the righteousness of God which is by [x]faith of Jē'sus Chrīst unto all and upon all them that believe: for [y]there is no difference:

23 For [z]all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; A. 5. 12;*

D K 24 Being justified freely [a]by his grace through the redemption that is in Chrīst Jē'sus: K. 5. 9–11.

25 Whom God hath [3]set forth to [b]be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the [4]remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; D. 4. 25.

F 26 To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jē'sus.

27 Where [c]is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith.

28 Therefore we conclude [d]that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.

29 Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gĕn'tīles? Yes, of the Gĕn'tīles also:

30 Seeing it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.†

31 Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Abraham justified by faith: 18 his faith recorded for those who believe.

WHAT shall we say then that Ā'brā-hăm our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

2 For if Ā'brā-hăm were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God.

3 For what saith the scripture? Ā'brā-hăm believed [a]God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

4 Now to [b]him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the [c]ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

L 6 Even as Dā'vid also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God [d]imputeth righteousness without works,

7 Saying, [e]Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.

9 Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Ā'brā-hăm for righteousness.

10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

11 And [f]he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that [g]he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also: L. 10. 21.

12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Ā'brā-hăm, which he had being yet uncircumcised.

13 For the promise, that he should be the [h]heir of the world, was not to Ā'brā-hăm, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

14 For [i]if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect:

15 Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be [j]by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Ā'brā-hăm; [k]who is the father of us all, F. 4. 22–24.

17 (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) [l]before him whom he believed, even God, who [m]quickeneth the dead, and calleth [n]those things which be not as though they were.

18 Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, [n]So shall thy seed be.

19 And being not weak in faith, he

[c]considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sā'rah's womb:

20 He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God;

21 And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform.

F 22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.

23 Now [f]it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him;

24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe [g]on him that raised up Jē'sus our Lord from the dead; F. 5. 1, 2.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Being justified by faith, we have peace with God. 12 Sin and death came by Adam, 17 righteousness and life by Jesus Christ.

F THEREFORE being justified by faith, we have [a]peace with God through our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst:

2 By [b]whom also we have access by faith into this grace [c]wherein we stand, [d]and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. F. 9. 30–33.

3 And not only so, but [e]we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience;

4 And patience, experience; and experience, hope:

5 And [f]hope maketh not ashamed; because [g]the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Hō'lȳ Ghōst which is given unto us.

D 6 For when we were yet without strength, [1]in due time Chrīst died for the ungodly.

7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

8 But [h]God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Chrīst died for us.

K 9 Much more then, being now justified by [i]his blood, we shall be saved [j]from wrath through him.

10 For if, when we were enemies, we [k]were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved [l]by his life.

11 And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, by whom we have now received the [2]atonement. D. 8. 32;*

12 Wherefore, as [m]by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, [5]for that all have sinned: †

13 (For until the law sin was in the world: but [n]sin is not imputed when there is no law.

14 Nevertheless death reigned from Ad'ăm to Mō'ses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Ad'ăm's transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come.

15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jē'sus Chrīst, hath abounded [o]unto many.

16 And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.

17 For if [4]by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jē'sus Chrīst.)

18 Therefore as [5]by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so [6]by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon [r]all men unto justification of life. W. 8. 32.

19 For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.

20 Moreover [q]the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did [r]much more abound:

21 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jē'sus Chrīst our Lord.

CHAPTER 6. ‡

1 We must not live in sin, 2 for we are dead unto it; 12 nor let sin reign in us.

WHAT shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

2 God forbid. How shall we, that are dead [a]to sin, live any longer therein?

3 Know ye not, that [b]so many of us as [1]were baptized into Jē'sus Chrīst [c]were baptized into his death?

4 Therefore we are [d]buried with him by baptism into death: that like [e]as Chrīst was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, [f]even so we also should walk in newness of life.

5 For [g]if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection:

6 Knowing this, that [h]our old man is crucified with him, that the [i]body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.

7 For he that is dead is [2]freed from sin.

8 Now [j]if we be dead with Chrīst, we believe that we shall also live with him:

9 Knowing that [k]Chrīst being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him.

10 For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.

11 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but [l]alive unto God through Jē'sus Chrīst our Lord.

12 Let [m]not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

13 Neither yield ye your members as [3]instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.

14 For [n]sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

15 What then? shall we sin, [o]because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

C 16 Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

17 But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine [4]which was delivered you.

18 Being then [p]made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness.

19 I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness.

20 For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free [5]from righteousness. C

21 What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death. *

22 But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life.

CHAPTER 7.

1 No law hath power over a man longer than he liveth. 5 The law is holy.

KNOW ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

2 For [a]the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.

3 So then [b]if, while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become [c]dead to the law by the body of Chrīst; that ye should be [d]married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the C [1]motions of sins, which were by the law, did work in our members [c]to bring forth fruit unto death.

6 But now we are delivered from the law, [2]that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve [f]in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, [g]I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known [3]lust, except the law had said, [h]Thou shalt not covet.

8 But [i]sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For without [j]the law sin was dead.

9 For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

10 And the commandment, which [k]was ordained to life, I found to be unto death.

* C. 7. 5. † H. 12. 19. ‡ C. 7. 14–25.

11 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.
12 Wherefore [b]the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and [j]ust, and good.
13 Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.
A C 14 For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, [m]sold under sin. A. 8. 5–9.
15 For that which I do I [4]allow not: for what [n]I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.
16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good.
17 Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.
18 For I know that [c]in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not.
19 For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.
20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.
21 I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me.
22 For I [r]delight in the law of God after the [g]inward man:
23 But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.
K 24 O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from [5]the body of this death?
25 I thank God through Jē'sus Chrīst our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin. *

1 Who are free from condemnation. 5, 13 What harm cometh of the flesh, 6, 14 what good of the Spirit, 17 and what of being God's children. 31 The Christian's hope.

THERE is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Chrīst Jē'sus, who [a]walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.
2 For [b]the law of [c]the Spirit of life in Chrīst Jē'sus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.
3 For [d]what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and [1]for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:
4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. K. 8. 11.
5 For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the [e]things of the Spirit.
6 For [2]to be carnally minded is death; but [3]to be spiritually minded is life and peace.
7 Because [4]the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.
8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God. C. 8. 13, 14.
9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that [f]the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the [g]Spirit of Chrīst, he is none of his. A. 8. 13, 14; G. 9. 31, 32;†
10 And if Chrīst be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.
11 But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jē'sus from the dead dwell in you, [h]he that raised up Chrīst from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies [5]by his Spirit that dwelleth in you. K. 8. 15, 16.
12 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.
13 For [i]if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.
14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. A. 2 Cor. 5. 14; C. 1 Cor. 1. 18;‡
15 For [j]ye have not received the spirit of bondage again [k]to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of [l]adoption, whereby we cry, Ăb'bā, Father.
16 The [m]Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: K. 8. 33–39.
17 And if children, then heirs; heirs [n]of God, and joint-heirs with Chrīst; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

† C. 8. 14. ‡ 1 Cor. 2. 2.

18 For I reckon that [n]the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

19 For [r]the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation [q]of the sons of God.

20 For [n]the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope,

21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that [s]the whole creation groaneth [t]and travaileth in pain together until now.

23 And not only they, but ourselves also, which have [u]the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting [w]for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.

24 For we are saved by hope: but hope that [v]is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for [w]we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but [x]the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

E 27 And [y]he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, [7]because he maketh intercession for the saints [z]according to the will of God. E. 1 Cor. 3. 13.

28 And we know that [a]all things work together for good to them that love God, to them [b]who are the called according to his purpose.

29 For whom [c]he did foreknow, he [d]also did predestinate [e]to be conformed to the image of his Son, that [f]he might be the firstborn among many brethren.

30 Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he [g]also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: [h]and whom he justified, them he also glorified.

31 What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?

D W 32 He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things? D. 1 Cor. 5. 7; W. 9. 33. D W K

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? [i]It is God that justifieth.

34 Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who [j]also maketh intercession for us.

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

36 As it is written, [k]For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

37 Nay, [l]in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor [m]principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall [n]be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jē'sus our Lord. K.15.12.

I SAY the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Hō'lў Ghōst,

2 That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart.

B 3 For [a]I could wish that myself were [1]accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh:

11 (For the children being [l]not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth;)

12 It was said unto her, The [3]elder shall serve the [4]younger.

13 As it is written, [m]Jā'cob have I loved, but Ē'saū have I hated.

14 What shall we say then? [n]Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid.

15 For he saith to Mō'sĕṣ, [o]I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

16 So [p]then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.

17 For the scripture saith unto Phā'raōh, Even [q]for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.

18 Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? [r]For who hath resisted his will?

20 Nay but, O man, who art thou that [5]repliest against God? [s]Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

21 Hath not the [t]potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make [u]one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?

22 What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering the [v]vessels of wrath [6]fitted to destruction:

23 And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory,

24 Even us, whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Ġĕn'tīleṣ?

25 As he saith also in Ō'sĕe, [w]I will call them my people, which were not my people; and her beloved, which was not beloved.

26 And [x]it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living God.

27 Ē-ṣā'ias also crieth concerning Ĭṣ'ra-el, Though [y]the number of the children of Ĭṣ'ra-el be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved:

28 For he will finish [7]the work, and cut it short in righteousness: because [z]a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.

29 And as Ē-ṣā'ias said before, Except [a]the Lord of Săb'a-ōth had left us a seed, we [b]had been as Sŏd'o-mà, and been made like unto Gō-mŏr'rhà.

30 What shall we say then? That the Ġĕn'tīleṣ, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith. F

31 But Ĭṣ'ra-el, which followed after the law of righteousness, hath [c]not attained to the law of righteousness. G

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For [d]they stumbled at that stumblingstone; G.10.3.

33 As it is written, [e]Behold, I lay in Sī'ŏn a stumblingstone and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him shall not be [8]ashamed. W F. 10. 4;*

CHAPTER 10.

1 Paul's prayer for Israel. 11 Salvation open to Jews and Gentiles.

BRETHREN, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Ĭṣ'ra-el is, that they might be saved.

2 For I bear them record [a]that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being ignorant of God's [b]righteousness, and going about to establish their own [c]righteousness, have not [d]submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. G G. 14, 17.

4 For [e]Chrĭst is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth. F W F. 10. 8–11; W. 10. 11–13.

5 For Mō'sĕṣ describeth the righteousness which is of the law, [f]That the man which doeth those things shall live by them.

deep? (that is, to [a]bring up Christ again from the dead.)

F T 8 But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach;

9 That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jē'sus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. T. 1 Cor. 14. 3.

W 11 For the scripture saith, [b]Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed. F. 15. 13.

12 For [c]there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the [d]same Lord over all [e]is rich unto all that call upon him.

13 For [f]whosoever shall call upon * the name of the Lord shall be saved.

14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without [g]a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, [h]How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But [i]they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Ē-sā'ias saith, [j]Lord, who hath believed [1]our [2]report?

17 So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, [k]their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world.

19 But I say, Did not Ĭs'ra-el know? First Mō'ses saith, [l]I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a [m]foolish nation I will anger you.

20 But Ē-sā'ias is very bold, and saith, [n]I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.

L 21 But to Ĭs'ra-el he saith, All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people. L. 1 Cor. 6. 11.

CHAPTER 11.

1 A remnant of Israel saved by grace. 7 The blindness of the rest prophesied of. 17 The Gentiles may not boast against them.

I SAY then, [a]Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For [b]I also am an Ĭs'ra-el-īte, of the seed of Ā'brā-hăm, of the tribe of Bĕn'ja-mĭn.

2 God hath not cast away his people which he [c]foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith [1]of Ē-lī'as? how he maketh intercession to God against Ĭs'ra-el, saying,

3 Lord, [d]they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.

4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Bā'al.

5 Even [e]so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

6 And [f]if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.

7 What then? [g]Ĭs'ra-el hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the [h]election hath obtained it, and the rest were [2]blinded

8 (According as it is written, God [i]hath given them the spirit of [3]slumber, [j]eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) unto this day.

9 And Dā'vid saith, [k]Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumblingblock, and a recompence unto them:

10 Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back alway.

11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they [l]should fall? God forbid: but rather through [m]their fall salvation is come unto the Gĕn'tīles, for to provoke them to jealousy.

12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the [4]diminishing of them the riches of the Gĕn'tīles; how much more their [n]fulness?

13 For I speak to you Gĕn'tīles, inasmuch as [o]I am the apostle of the Gĕn'tīles, I magnify mine office:

14 If by any means I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and [p]might save some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?

16 For [q]if the firstfruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches.

17 And if [r]some of the branches be broken off, [s]and thou, being a wild olive tree, wert graffed in [5]among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree;

18 Boast [t]not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be graffed in.

20 Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be [u]not highminded, but [v]fear:

21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee.

22 Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: on them which fell, severity; but toward thee, goodness, if [w]thou continue in his goodness: otherwise [x]thou also shalt be cut off.

23 And they also, [y]if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be graffed in: for God is able to graff them in again.

24 For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert graffed contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be graffed into their own olive tree? P. 1 John 2. 1.

25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that [6]blindness in part is happened to Ĭs'ra-el, until [z]the fulness of the Gĕn'tīles be come in.

26 And so [a]all Ĭs'ra-el shall be saved: as it is written, [b]There shall come out of Sī'ŏn the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jā'cob:

27 For [c]this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins.

28 As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are [d]beloved for the fathers' sakes.

29 For the gifts and calling of God are without [e]repentance.

30 For as ye in times past have not [7]believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief:

31 Even so have these also now not [8]believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy.

32 For God hath [9]concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.

33 O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!

34 For [f]who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor?

35 Or [g]who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again?

36 For [h]of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to [10]whom be glory for ever. Ā-mĕn'.

CHAPTER 12.

1 Holiness enjoined. 9 Sundry practical duties recommended.

I BESEECH you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye [a]present your bodies [b]a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

2 And [c]be not conformed to this world: but [d]be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove [e]what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

3 For I say, [f]through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think [1]soberly, according as God hath dealt [f]to every man the measure of faith.

4 For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office:

5 So [g]we, being many, are one body in Chrĭst, and every one members one of another.

6 Having [h]then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, [i]let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith;

7 Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering: or [j]he that teacheth, on teaching;

8 Or [k]he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that [2]giveth, let him do it [3]with simplicity; [l]he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness.

10 Be kindly affectioned one to another [4]with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another;
11 Not slothful in business; [n]fervent in spirit; serving the Lord;
12 Rejoicing [o]in hope; [p]patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer;
13 Distributing [q]to the necessity of saints; given [r]to hospitality.
14 Bless [s]them which persecute you: bless, and curse not.
15 Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.
16 Be of the same mind one toward another. Mind not high things, but [5]condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.
17 Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men.
18 If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.
19 Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, [t]Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.
20 Therefore [u]if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.
21 Be [v]not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

CHAPTER 13.

1 Of subjection to magistrates. 8 Love containeth the whole law, etc.

LET every soul [a]be subject unto the higher powers. For [b]there is no power but of God: the powers that be are [1]ordained of God.
2 Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.
3 For [c]rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do [d]that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same:
4 For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.
5 Wherefore [e]ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake.
6 For for this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.
7 Render [f]therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; [g]fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.
8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: [h]for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.
9 For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou [i]shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.
10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.
11 And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time [j]to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.
12 The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and [k]let us put on the armour of light.
13 Let [l]us walk [2]honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not [m]in strife and envying.
14 But [n]put ye on the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, and [o]make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

CHAPTER 14.

How to treat a weak brother.

HIM that [a]is weak in the faith receive ye, but [1]not to doubtful disputations.
2 For one believeth that he [b]may eat all things: another, who is weak, eateth herbs.
3 Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and [c]let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him.
4 Who [d]art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand.
5 One [e]man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be [2]fully persuaded in his own mind.
6 He that [3]regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for [f]he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.

7 For [g]none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

9 For [h]to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be [i]Lord both of the dead and living.

10 But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for [j]we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.

11 For it is written, [k]As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.

12 So then [l]every one of us shall give account of himself to God.*

13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that [m]no man put a stumbling-block or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.

14 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jē'sus, [n]that there is nothing [4]unclean of itself: but [o]to him that esteemeth any thing to be [5]unclean, to him it is unclean.

15 But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not [6]charitably. Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died.

16 Let [p]not then your good be evil spoken of:

17 For [q]the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Hō'lȳ Ghōst.†

18 For he that in these things serveth Christ [r]is acceptable to God, and approved of men.

19 Let [s]us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith [t]one may edify another.

20 For meat destroy not the work of God. All [u]things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence.

21 It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.

22 Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.

23 And he that [7]doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for whatsoever [v]is not of faith is sin.

CHAPTER 15.

1 The strong ought to bear with the weak. 2 We may not please ourselves.

WE [a]then that are strong ought to bear the [b]infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

2 Let [c]every one of us please his neighbour for his good [d]to edification.

3 For even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, [e]The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me.

4 For [f]whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope. B. 16. 25, 26.

5 Now [g]the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like-minded one toward another [8]according to Christ Jē'sus:

6 That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jē'sus Christ.

7 Wherefore receive ye one another, [h]as Christ also received us to the glory of God.

8 Now I say that [i]Jē'sus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, [j]to confirm the promises made unto the fathers:

9 And [k]that the Gĕn'tīles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, [l]For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gĕn'tīles, and sing unto thy name.

10 And again he saith, [m]Rejoice, ye Gĕn'tīles, with his people.

11 And again, [n]Praise the Lord, all ye Gĕn'tīles; and laud him, all ye people.

12 And again, Ē-sā'ias saith, [o]There shall be a root of Jĕs'se, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gĕn'tīles; in him shall the Gĕn'tīles trust.‡

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Hō'lȳ Ghōst.§

14 And [p]I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, [q]filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.

15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, because [r]of the grace that is given to me of God,

16 That [s]I should be the minister of Jē'sus Chrīst to the Gĕn'tīles, ministering the gospel of God, that the [2]offering up of the Gĕn'tīles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Hō'lў Ghōst.

17 I have therefore whereof I may glory through Jē'sus Chrīst in [t]those things which pertain to God.

18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things [u]which Chrīst hath not wrought by me, [v]to make the Gĕn'tīles obedient, by word and deed,

19 Through [w]mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jĕ-rų'sā-lĕm, and round about unto Ĭl-lў'rĭ-cŭm, I have fully preached the gospel of Chrīst.

20 Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Chrīst was named, [z]lest I should build upon another man's foundation:

21 But as it is written, [y]To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard shall understand.

22 For which cause also [z]I have been [3]much hindered from coming to you.

23 But now having no more place in these parts, and [a]having a great desire these many years to come unto you;

24 Whensoever I take my journey into Spāin, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, [b]and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled [4]with your company.

25 But now [c]I go unto Jĕ-rų'sā-lĕm to minister unto the saints.

26 For [d]it hath pleased them of Măç-e-dō'nĭ-ā and Ā-chā'ĭà to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jĕ-rų'sā-lĕm.

27 It hath pleased them verily; and their debtors they are. For if the Gĕn'tīles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their [e]duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.

28 When therefore I have performed this, and have sealed to them [f]this fruit, I will come by you into Spāin.

29 And [g]I am sure that, when I come unto you, I shall come in the [h]fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Chrīst.

30 Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst's sake, and [i]for the love of the Spirit, that [j]ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me;

31 That [k]I may be delivered from them that [5]do not believe in Jū-dæ'ā; and that my service which I have for Jē-rų'sā-lĕm may be accepted of the saints;

32 That I may come unto you with joy by [l]the will of God, and may with you [m]be refreshed.

33 Now the God of peace be with you all. Ā-mĕn'.

Paul sendeth salutations to many.

I COMMEND unto you Phē'bē our sister, which is a servant of the church which is at [a]Çĕn'chre-ā:

2 That [b]ye receive her in the Lord, as becometh saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever business she hath need of you: for she hath been a succourer of many, and of myself also.

3 Greet [c]Prĭs-çĭl'lā and Ăq'uĭ-lā my helpers in Chrīst Jē'sus:

4 Who have for my life laid down their own necks: unto whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gĕn'tīles.

5 Likewise greet [d]the church that is in their house. Salute my wellbeloved Ē-pæn'e-tŭs, who is [e]the firstfruits of Ā-chā'ĭà unto Chrīst.

6 Greet Mā'rў, who [f]bestowed much labour on us.

7 Salute Ăn-drō-nī'cus and Jū'nĭà, my kinsmen, and my fellowprisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also [g]were in Chrīst before me.

8 Greet Ăm'plĭ-as my beloved in the Lord.

9 Salute Ûr'bāne, our helper in Chrīst, and Stā'chўs my beloved.

10 Salute Ā-pĕl'lēs approved in Chrīst. Salute them which are of Ăr-ĭs-to-bū'lus' [1]household.

11 Salute Hē-rō'dĭ-ŏn my kinsman. Greet them that be of the [2]household of När-çĭs'sus, which are in the Lord.

12 Salute Trў-phē'nà and Trў-phō'sà, who labour in the Lord. Salute the beloved Pēr'sis, which laboured much in the Lord.

13 Salute Rų'fus [h]chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.

CORINTHIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Paul, after salutation and thanksgiving, 10 exhorteth to unity, 11 and reproveth their dissensions. 26 God rejecteth the wisdom of the wise.

PAUL, called to be an apostle of Jē'sus Chrīst through the will of God, [a]and Sŏs'the-nēs our brother,

2 Unto the church of God which is at Cŏr'inth, to them that [b]are sanctified in Chrīst Jē'sus, [c]called to be saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jē'sus Chrīst our [d]Lord, [e]both their's and our's:

3 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst.

4 I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jē'sus Chrīst;

5 That in every thing ye are enriched by him, [f]in all utterance, and in all knowledge;

6 Even as [g]the testimony of Chrīst was confirmed in you:

crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul?

14 I thank God that I baptized none of you, but [p]Crĭs'pus [q]and Gā'ius;

15 Lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name.

16 And I baptized also the household [r]of Stĕph'a-năs: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

17 For [s]Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of [3]words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.

C G 18 For the preaching of the cross is to them [t]that perish [u]foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is [v]the power of God.

19 For it is written, [w]I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

20 Where [x]is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath [y]not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

F 21 For [z]after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe. F. Gal. 3. 7.

22 For the [a]Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom:

K 23 But we preach Christ crucified, unto the [b]Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness; *

24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ [c]the power of God, and the [d]wisdom of God.

25 Because the [e]foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men. K.1.30.

26 For ye see your calling, brethren, how that [f]not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called:

27 But [g]God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty;

28 And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and [h]things which are not, [i]to bring to nought things that are:

29 That no flesh should glory in his presence.

K 30 But of him are ye in Christ Jē'sus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption: K. 2 Cor. 2 14.

31 That, according as it is written, [j]He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

CHAPTER 2.

1 How Paul preached the gospel: 6 which is God's wise counsel for men's salvation.

AND I, brethren, when I came to you, came [a]not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God.

C 2 For I determined not to know any thing among you, [b]save Jē'sus Christ, and him crucified. O. 3. 11.

3 And [c]I was with you [d]in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

4 And my speech and my preaching [e]was not with [1]enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power:

5 That your faith should not [2]stand in the wisdom of men, but in the [f]power of God.

6 Howbeit we speak wisdom among them that [g]are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought:

7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, [h]which God ordained before the world unto our glory:

8 Which [i]none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

9 But as it is written, [j]Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

10 But [k]God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, [l]save the spirit of man which is in him? [m]even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but [n]the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

13 Which [o]things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Hō'lў Ghōst teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

C 14 But [p]the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither [q]can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. *

15 But [r]he that is spiritual [3]judgeth all things, yet he himself is [4]judged of no man.

16 For [s]who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he [5]may instruct him? But [t]we have the mind of Chrīst.

CHAPTER 3.

How Paul dealt with weak believers, etc.

AND I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Chrīst.

2 I have fed you with [a]milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and [1]divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk [2]as men?

4 For while one saith, I am of Pạul; and another, I am of Ā-pŏl'los; are ye not carnal?

5 Who then is Pạul, and who is Ā-pŏl'los, but ministers by whom ye believed, even [b]as the Lord gave to every man?

6 I [c]have planted, [d]Ā-pŏl'los watered; but God [e]gave the increase.

7 So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

8 Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: [f]and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.

9 For [g]we are labourers together with God: ye are God's [3]husbandry, ye are God's [h]building.

10 According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid [i]the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But [j]let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.

G D 11 For other foundation can no man lay than [k]that is laid, which is Jē'sus Chrīst. G. 13. 1–3; D. 16. 22.

12 Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;

E 13 Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day [l]shall declare it, because [4]it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is. E. 4. 5. E

14 If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

15 If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; [m]yet so as by fire.

16 Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

H 17 If any man [5]defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the [n]temple of God is holy, which temple ye are. H. 6. 9, 10.

18 Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

C 19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, [o]He taketh the wise in their own craftiness. C. 6. 9.

20 And again, [p]The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

21 Therefore let no man glory in men. For [q]all things are your's;

22 Whether Pạul, or Ā-pŏl'los, or Çē'phas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are your's;

23 And [r]ye are Chrīst's; [s]and Chrīst is God's.

CHAPTER 4.

1 How to account of Christ's ministers. 8 To a self-sufficient vanity Paul opposeth his own afflicted state, etc.

LET a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Chrīst, [a]and stewards of the mysteries of God.

2 Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.

3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's [1]judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self.

J 4 For I know nothing by myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.

E 5 Therefore [b]judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and [c]then shall every man have praise of God. E. 2 Tim. 2. 19;†

6 And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and to Ā-pŏl'los for your sakes; that [d]ye might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another.

7 For who [2]maketh thee to differ from another? and [e]what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it?

8 Now ye are full, [f]now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.

9 For I think that God hath set forth [3]us the apostles last, [g]as it were appointed to death: for [h]we are made a [4]spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.

10 We are [i]fools for Chrīst's sake, but ye are wise in Chrīst; [j]we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised.

11 Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are [k]buffeted, and have no certain dwellingplace;

12 And [l]labour, working with our own hands: [m]being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it:

13 Being defamed, we intreat: we are made as the filth of the world, and are the offscouring of all things unto this day.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you.

15 For though ye have ten thousand instructers in Chrīst, yet have ye not many fathers: for [n]in Chrīst Jē'sus I have begotten you through the gospel.

16 Wherefore I beseech you, [o]be ye followers of me.

17 For this cause have I sent unto you Tī-mō'the-ŭs, [p]who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Chrīst, as I teach every where in every church.

18 Now some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you.

19 But I [q]will come to you shortly, if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power.

20 For [r]the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.

21 What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness?

CHAPTER 5.

1 Of the incestuous person. 6 Of necessity the old leaven must be purged out, etc.

IT is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named [a]among the Gĕn'tīles, [b]that one should have his father's [c]wife.

2 And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you.

3 For [d]I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have [1]judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed,

4 In the name of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, [e]with the power of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst,

5 To deliver [f]such an one unto Sā'tan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jē'sus.

6 Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that [g]a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?

7 Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even [h]Chrīst our [i]passover [2]is sacrificed for us: D. 6. 20.

8 Therefore [j]let us keep [3]the feast, not with [k]old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote unto you in an epistle not [l]to company with fornicators:

10 Yet not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go out [m]of the world.

11 But now I have written unto you not to keep company, [n]if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no [o]not to eat.

12 For what have I to do to judge them also [p]that are without? do not ye judge them that are within?

13 But them that are without God [q]judgeth. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Of bringing controversies before heathen judges.
7 How lawsuits may be avoided.

DARE any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints?

2 Do ye not know that [a]the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

3 Know ye not that we shall judge [b]angels? how much more things that pertain to this life?

4 If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.

5 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?

6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.

7 Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. [c]Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?

8 Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, and that [d]your brethren.

9 Know ye not that [e]the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,

10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God. C. 2 Cor. 4. 3, 4; H. 9. 27.

11 And such were some of you: but [f]ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jē'sus, and by the Spirit of our God. L. 2 Cor. 5. 18, 19.

12 All [g]things are lawful unto me, but all things are not [1]expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.

13 Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but for [h]the Lord; and the [i]Lord for the body.

14 And [j]God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by [k]his own power.

15 Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot? God forbid.

16 What? know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? [l]for two, saith he, shall be one flesh.

17 But [m]he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit.

18 Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth [n]against his own body.

19 What? [o]know ye not that your body is the temple of the Hō'lȳ Ghŏst which is in you, which ye have of God, and [p]ye are not your own?

20 For [q]ye are bought with a price: therefore [r]glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's. D *

CHAPTER 7.

1 The use of marriage: 10 Christ hath forbidden to dissolve the bond thereof, etc.

NOW concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 Nevertheless, [a]to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

3 Let [b]the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.

4 The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife.

5 Defraud ye not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that [c]Sā'tan tempt you not for your incontinency.

6 But I speak this by permission, and [d]not of commandment.

7 For [e]I would that all men were even as [f]I myself. But [g]every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

8 I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, [h]It is good for them if they abide even as I.

9 But [i]if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.

10 And unto the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord, [j]Let not the wife depart from her husband:

11 But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.

12 But to the rest speak I, not the Lord: If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

13 And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else [k]were your children unclean; but now are they holy.

15 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us [1]to peace.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save [l]thy husband? or [2]how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?

17 But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk. And [m]so ordain I in all churches.

18 Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? let [n]him not be circumcised.

19 Circumcision [o]is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but [p]the keeping of the commandments of God.

20 Let [q]every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

21 Art [r]thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be [3]made free, use it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lord's [3]freeman: likewise also he that is called, being free, is [s]Christ's servant.

23 Ye [t]are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men. D.10.16.

24 Brethren, let every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins [u]I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as one [v]that hath obtained mercy of the Lord [w]to be faithful.

26 I suppose therefore that this is good for the present [4]distress, I say, that it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.

28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

29 But [x]this I say, brethren, the time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none;

30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;

31 And they that use this world, as [y]not abusing it: for [z]the fashion of this world passeth away.

32 But I would have you without carefulness. [a]He that is unmarried careth for the things [5]that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:

33 But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.

34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. [b]The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

36 But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry.

37 Nevertheless he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well.

38 So [c]then he that giveth her in marriage doeth well; but he that giveth her not in marriage doeth better.

39 The [d]wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; [e]only in the Lord.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Charity preferable to knowledge. 4 An idol is nothing to those who know God

NOW [a]as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have [b]knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth.

2 And [c]if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if any man love God, [d]the same is known of him.

4 As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that [e]an idol is nothing in the world, [f]and that there is none other God but one.

5 For though there be that [g]are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,)

6 But [h]to us there is but one God, the Father, [i]of whom are all things, and we [1]in him; and [j]one Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, [k]by whom are all things, and we by him.

7 Howbeit there is not in every man that knowledge: for some with conscience of the idol unto this hour eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled.

8 But meat commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, [2]are we the better; neither, if we eat not, [3]are we the worse.

9 But take heed lest by any means this [4]liberty of your's become a stumblingblock to them that are weak.

10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak be [5]emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols;

11 And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Chrīst died?

12 But [l]when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Chrīst.

13 Wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend.

CHAPTER 9.

1 Paul asserteth his apostolical character, 3 and right to a maintenance. 24 Life compared to a race. 26 He striveth to obtain an incorruptible crown.

AM [a]I not an apostle? am I not free? have [b]I not seen Jē'sus Chrīst our Lord? are not ye my work in the Lord?

2 If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for [c]the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord.

3 Mine answer to them that do examine me is this,

4 Have [d]we not power to eat and to drink?

5 Have we not power to lead about a sister, a [1]wife, as well as other apostles, and as [e]the brethren of the Lord, and [f]Cē'phas?

6 Or I only and Bär'na-băs, [g]have not we power to forbear working?

7 Who [h]goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who [i]planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth [j]a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

8 Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also?

9 For it is written in the law of Mō'ses, Thou [k]shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen?

10 Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that [l]he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope.

11 If [m]we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?

12 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? Nevertheless [n]we have not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Chrīst.

13 Do [o]ye not know that they which minister about holy things [2]live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar?

14 Even [p]so hath the Lord ordained that they [q]which preach the gospel should live of the gospel.

15 But I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for it were better for me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void.

16 For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!
17 For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, a [r]dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me.
18 What is my reward then? Verily that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Chrīst without charge, that I abuse not my power in the gospel.
19 For though I be free from all men, yet have [s]I made myself servant unto all, [t]that I might gain the more.
20 And [u]unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law;
21 To [v]them that are without law, as without law, (not being without law to God, but under the law to Chrīst,) that I might gain them that are without law.
22 To [w]the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.
23 And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.
24 Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So [x]run, that ye may obtain.
25 And every man that [y]striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an [z]incorruptible.
26 I therefore so run, not as [a]uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air:
27 But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be [b]a castaway.

H. 10. 5–12

CHAPTER 10.

1 The Jews had sacraments typical of our's. 6 Christians must not lust after evil things.

MOREOVER, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the [c]cloud, and all passed through the [d]sea;
2 And were all baptized unto Mō'sēs in the cloud and in the sea;
3 And did all eat the same [e]spiritual meat;
4 And did all drink the same spiritual [f]drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that [g]followed them: and that Rock was Chrīst.
5 But with many of them God was not well pleased: for they were overthrown in the wilderness.
6 Now these things were [h]our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted.
7 Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, [i]The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.
8 Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and [j]fell in one day three and twenty thousand.
9 Neither let us tempt Chrīst, as some [k]of them also tempted, and were destroyed of serpents.
10 Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer.
11 Now all these things happened unto them for [l]ensamples: and they [m]are written for our admonition, [n]upon whom the ends of the world are come.
12 Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.*
13 There hath no temptation taken you but such as is [o]common to man: but God is faithful, [p]who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also [q]make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.
14 Wherefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry.
15 I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say.
16 The [r]cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Chrīst? [s]The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Chrīst?

D. 15. 3.

17 For [t]we being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread.
18 Behold [u]Is'ra-el after the flesh: are [v]not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?
19 What say I then? that the idol is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing?
20 But I say, that the things which the Gĕn'tīles [w]sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.

21 Ye [r]cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and [s]the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils.

22 Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are [t]we stronger than he?

23 All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not.

24 Let [u]no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth.

25 Whatsoever [v]is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no question for conscience sake:

26 For the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof.

27 If any of them that believe not bid you to a feast, and ye be disposed to go; [w]whatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake.

28 But if any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not [z]for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake: for [y]the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof:

29 Conscience, I say, not thine own, but of the other: for [z]why is my liberty judged of another man's conscience?

30 For if I by [5]grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that for which I give thanks?

31 Whether [a]therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.

32 Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the [6]Gĕn'tīles, nor to the church of God:

33 Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

CHAPTER 11.

1 He exhorteth them, 3 and forbiddeth men to pray or prophesy with their heads covered, and women with their heads uncovered. 23 Of the Lord's supper.

BE ye [a]followers of me, even as I also am of Chrīst.

2 Now I praise you, brethren, that ye remember me in all things, and [b]keep the [1]ordinances, as I delivered them to you.

3 But I would have you know, that [c]the head of every man is Chrīst; and the [d]head of the woman is the man; and [e]the head of Chrīst is God.

4 Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head.

5 But [f]every woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered dishonoureth her head: for that is even all one as if she were [g]shaven.

6 For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be [h]a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.

7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as [i]he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.

8 For [j]the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man.

9 Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man.

10 For this cause ought the woman [k]to have [2]power on her head [l]because of the angels.

11 Nevertheless [m]neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord.

12 For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman; but [n]all things of God.

13 Judge in yourselves: is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered?

14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?

15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a [3]covering.

16 But [o]if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God.

17 Now in this that I declare unto you I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse.

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the church, [p]I hear that there be [4]divisions among you; and I partly believe it.

19 For [q]there must be also [5]heresies among you, [r]that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, [6]this is not to eat the Lord's supper.

21 For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and [s]another is drunken.

22 What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or [t]despise ye the church of God, and shame [7]them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For [u]I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jē'sus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread:

24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do [8]in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is [v]the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, [9]ye do shew the Lord's death [w]till he come.

27 Wherefore [x]whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 But [y]let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh [10]damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

30 For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.

31 For [z]if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

32 But when we are judged, [a]we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.

34 And if any man hunger, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto [11]condemnation. And the rest [b]will I set in order when [c]I come.

3 Wherefore I give you to understand, that [c]no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jē'sus [1]accursed: and [d]that no man can say that Jē'sus is the Lord, but by the Hō'lў Ghōst.

4 Now [e]there are diversities of gifts, but the [f]same Spirit.

5 And there are differences of [2]administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God which [g]worketh all in all.

7 But [h]the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal.

8 For to one is given by the Spirit the word [i]of wisdom; to another [j]the word of knowledge by the same Spirit;

9 To [k]another faith by the same Spirit; to another [l]the gifts of healing by the same Spirit;

10 To [m]another the working of miracles; to another [n]prophecy; to [o]another discerning of spirits; to another [p]divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues:

11 But all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, [q]dividing to every man severally [r]as he will.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: [s]so also is Chrīst.

13 For [t]by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, [u]whether we be Jews or [3]Gĕn'tīles, whether we be bond or free; and [v]have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary:

23 And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we [4]bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.

24 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked:

25 That there should be no [5]schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.

26 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it.

27 Now [w]ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular.

28 And [z]God hath set some in the church, first [y]apostles, secondarily [z]prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, [a]helps, [b]governments, [6]diversities of tongues.

29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all [7]workers of miracles?

30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?

31 But [c]covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

CHAPTER 13.

1 All gifts, however excellent, are nothing without charity: 4 the praises thereof.

G THOUGH I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not [a]charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And though I have the gift [b]of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, [c]so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

3 And [d]though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing. G. 2 Cor. 10. 18.

7 Beareth [j]all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

8 Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

9 For [k]we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

10 But [l]when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I [3]thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For [m]now we see through a glass, [4]darkly; but then [n]face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

13 And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but [o]the greatest of these is charity.

CHAPTER 14.

1 Prophecy commended, 2, 3, 4 and preferred before speaking with tongues: 12 both must be referred to edification. 34 Women forbidden to speak in the church.

FOLLOW after [a]charity, [b]and desire spiritual gifts, [c]but rather that ye may prophesy.

2 For he that [d]speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man [1]understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh [e]mysteries.

3 But he that prophesieth [f]speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort. T. 14. 24, 25. T

4 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church.

5 I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.

6 Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

7 And even things without life giving sound, whether [g]pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the [2]sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?

8 For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?

9 So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words [3]easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into [h]the air.

10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification.

11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.

12 Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous [4]of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.

13 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that [i]he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: [j]I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing [k]with the understanding also.

16 Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say [l]Ā-mĕn' at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all:

19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

20 Brethren, [m]be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice be [n]ye children, but in understanding be [5]men.

21 In [o]the law it is [p]written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.

23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, [q]will they not say that ye are mad?

24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all:

25 And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on his face he will worship God, and report [r]that God is in you of a truth. T. Phil. 1. 28.

26 How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, [s]hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let [t]all things be done unto edifying.

27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.

29 Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the other judge.

30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, [u]let the first hold his peace.

31 For [v]ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.

32 And [w]the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.

33 For God is not the author of [6]confusion, but of peace, [z]as in all churches of the saints.

34 Let [y]your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are [z]commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the [a]law.

35 And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.

36 What? came the word of God [b]out from you? or came it unto you only?

37 If [c]any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I

CHAPTER 15.

1 By Christ's resurrection the apostle inferreth the necessity of our resurrection. 23 Christ the first-fruits. 35 The manner of the resurrection, 51 and of the change upon them that shall then be alive.

MOREOVER, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and [a]wherein ye stand;

2 By [b]which also ye are saved, if ye [1]keep in memory [2]what I preached unto you, unless [c]ye have believed in vain.

3 For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according [d]to the scriptures;*

4 And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according [e]to the scriptures:

5 And [f]that he was seen of Çē'phas, then of [g]the twelve:

6 After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.

7 After that, he was seen of Jāmes; then of [h]all the apostles.

8 And [i]last of all he was seen of me also, as of [3]one born out of due time.

9 For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because [j]I persecuted the church of God.

10 But [k]by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but [l]I laboured more abundantly than they all: [m]yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

11 Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that [n]there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, [o]then is Christ not risen:

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.

16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised:

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; [p]ye are yet in your sins.

18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished.

19 If [q]in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

20 But now [r]is Christ risen from the dead, and become [s]the firstfruits of them that slept.

21 For [t]since by man came death, by [u]man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Ăd'ăm all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

23 But [v]every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.

24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up [w]the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.

25 For he must reign, [x]till he hath put all enemies under his feet.

26 The [y]last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.

27 For he [z]hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him.

28 And [a]when all things shall be subdued unto him, then [b]shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

29 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?

30 And [c]why stand we in jeopardy every hour?

31 I protest by [4]your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jē'sus our Lord, [d]I die daily.

32 If [5]after the manner of men I [e]have fought with beasts at Ĕph'ĕsŭs, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? [f]let us eat and drink: for to morrow we die.

33 Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners.

34 Awake [g]to righteousness, and sin not; for [h]some have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, [h]How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?

36 Thou fool, [i]that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die:

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain:

38 But [k]God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.

42 So [l]also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption:

43 It [m]is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:

44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

45 And so it is written, The first man Ăd'ăm [n]was made a living soul; the [o]last Ăd'ăm was made [p]a quickening spirit.

46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

47 The [q]first man is of the [r]earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from [s]heaven.

48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: [t]and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And [u]as we have borne the image of the earthy, [v]we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that [w]flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I shew you a mystery; We [x]shall not all sleep, [y]but we shall all be changed, 52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for [z]the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and [a]this mortal must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death [b]is swallowed up in victory.

55 O [c]death, where is thy sting? O [6]grave, where is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is sin; and the [d]strength of sin is the law. H.16.22.

57 But [e]thanks be to God, which giveth us [f]the victory through our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst.

58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, [g]be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that [h]your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

CHAPTER 16.

1 How to proceed for the relief of the brethren. 13 Admonitions, 19 and salutations.

NOW concerning [a]the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Gā-lā'tiă, even so do ye.

2 Upon [b]the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.

3 And when I come, [c]whomsoever ye shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your [1]liberality unto Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm.

4 And if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me.

5 Now I will come unto you, when I [d]shall pass through Măç-e-dō'nĭ-à: for I do pass through Măç-e-dō'nĭ-à.

6 And it may be that I will abide, yea, and winter with you, that ye may [e]bring me on my journey whithersoever I go.

7 For I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to tarry a while with you, if the Lord permit.

8 But I will tarry at Ĕph'e-sŭs until Pĕn'te-cŏst.

9 For [f]a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and [g]there are many adversaries.

10 Now if Tĭ-mō'the-ŭs come, see that he may be with you without fear: for [h] he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do.

11 Let [i] no man therefore despise him: but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren.

12 A touching our [j] brother Ā-pŏl'los, I greatly desired him to come unto you with the brethren: but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time.

13 Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong.

14 Let all your things be done with charity.

15 I beseech you, brethren, (ye know the house of Stĕph'a-năs, that it is the firstfruits of Ā-chā'ĭa, and that they have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints,)

16 That ye submit yourselves unto such, and to every one that helpeth with us, and laboureth.

17 I am glad of the coming of Stĕph'a-năs and Fôr-tū-nā'tus and Ā-chā'ĭ-cŭs: for [k] that which was lacking on your part they have supplied.

18 For [l] they have refreshed my spirit and yours: therefore acknowledge ye them that are such.

19 The [m] churches of Ā'sĭa salute you. Ăq'uĭ-lā and Prĭs-çĭl'lā salute you much in the Lord, [n] with the church that is in their house.

20 All the brethren greet you. Greet ye one another with an holy kiss.

21 The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand.

22 If any man love not the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, [o] let him be Ā-năth'e-mā [p] Mär'an-ā'thā. H. 2 Cor. 2. 15, 16;*

23 The grace of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst be with you.

24 My love be with you all in Chrīst Jē'sus. Ā-mĕn'.

The first epistle to the Cō-rĭnth'ĭ-anş was written from Phĭ-lĭp'pī by Stĕph'a-năs, and Fôr-tū-nā'tus, and Ā-chā'ĭ-cŭs, and Tĭ-mō'the-ŭs.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

3 Paul encourageth against trouble. 12 He sheweth the sincerity of his preaching.

PAUL, an apostle of Jē'sus Chrīst by the will of God, and Tĭm'o-thy our brother, unto the church of God which is at Cŏr'ĭnth, with all [a] the saints which are in all Ā-chā'ĭa:

2 Grace [b] be to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst.

3 Blessed [c] be God, even the Father of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, [d] the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;

4 Who [e] comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

5 For as [f] the sufferings of Chrīst abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Chrīst.

6 And whether we be afflicted, it [g] is for your consolation and salvation, which [1] is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.

7 And our hope of you is stedfast, knowing, that [h] as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

8 For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of [i] our trouble which came to us in Ā'sĭa, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life:

9 But we had the [2] sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not [j] trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead:

10 Who [k] delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us;

11 Ye also [l] helping together by prayer for us, that [m] for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

12 For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity [n] and godly sincerity, not [o] with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward.

13 For we write none other things unto you, than what ye read or acknowledge; and I trust ye shall acknowledge even to the end;

14 As also ye have acknowledged us in part, [r]that we are your rejoicing, even as ye [s]also are our's in the day of the Lord Jē'sus.

15 And in this confidence [t]I was minded to come unto you before, that ye might have [s]a second [3]benefit;

16 And to pass by you into Măç-e-dō'nĭ-à, and [t]to come again out of Măç-e-dō'nĭ-à unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Jū-dæ'à.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose [u]according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea yea, and nay nay?

18 But as God is true, our [4]word toward you was not yea and nay.

19 For [v]the Son of God, Jē'sus Chrīst, who was preached among you by us, even by me and [w]Sīl-vā'nus and Tĭ-mō'the-ŭs, was not yea and nay, but in him was yea.

20 For [x]all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Ā-mĕn', unto the glory of God by us.

21 Now he which stablisheth us with you in Chrīst, and [y]hath anointed us, is God;

22 Who [z]hath also sealed us, and given [a]the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 Moreover I call God for a record upon my soul, [b]that to spare you I came not as yet unto Cŏr'ĭnth.

24 Not for that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for by [c]faith ye stand.

CHAPTER 2.

1 The reasons of Paul's not coming unto them. 6 Of the excommunicated person.

BUT I determined this with myself, that I [a]would not come again to you in heaviness.

2 For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me?

3 And I wrote this same unto you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; [b]having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; not [c]that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

5 But [d]if any have caused grief, he hath not [e]grieved me, but in part: that I may not overcharge you all.

6 Sufficient to such a man is this [1]punishment, which was inflicted of [f]many.

7 So [g]that contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.

8 Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him.

9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it [2]in the person of Chrīst;

11 Lest [h]Sā'tan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

12 Furthermore, [i]when I came to Trō'as to preach Chrīst's gospel, and a door was opened unto me of the Lord,

13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Tī'tus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Măç-e-dō'nĭ-à.

14 Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Chrīst, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place. K. 9. 8.

15 For we are unto God a sweet savour of Chrīst, in them that are saved, and in them that perish:

16 To the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life unto life. And who is sufficient for these things? H. 4. 3.

17 For we are not as many, which [3]corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we [4]in Chrīst.

CHAPTER 3.

He sheweth that their gifts and graces were a sufficient commendation of his ministry.

DO [a]we begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, epistles [b]of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?

2 Ye [c]are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men:

3 Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Chrīst ministered by [d]us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not [e]in tables of stone, but [f]in fleshy tables of the heart.

4 And such trust have we through Chrīst to God-ward:

5 Not [g]that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our [h]sufficiency is of God;

6 Who also hath made us able ministers of [i]the new testament; not [j]of the letter, but of the spirit: for [k]the letter killeth, but [l]the spirit [l]giveth life.

7 But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Iṣ'ra-el could not stedfastly behold the face of Mō'ṣeṣ for the glory of his countenance; which glory was to be done away:

8 How shall not [m]the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious?

9 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of [n]righteousness exceed in glory.

10 For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.

11 For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.

12 Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great [2]plainness of speech:

13 And not as Mō'ṣeṣ, [o]which put a vail over his face, that the children of Iṣ'ra-el could not stedfastly look to the [p]end of that which is abolished:

14 But [q]their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which vail is done away in Chrīst.

15 But even unto this day, when Mō'ṣeṣ is read, the vail is upon their heart.

16 Nevertheless [r]when it shall turn to the Lord, [s]the vail shall be taken away. B. 4. 1, 2

17 Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

18 But we all, with open face beholding as [t]in a glass the glory of the Lord, [u]are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as [3]by the Spirit of the Lord.

THEREFORE seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not; B

2 But have renounced the hidden things of [1]dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor [a]handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. B. Gal. 3. 22-24.

to them that are lost: H. 5. 10, 11.

hath [d]blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Chrīst, [e]who is the image of God, should shine unto them. C. Gal. 5. 16-21.

5 For we preach not ourselves, but Chrīst Jē'sus the Lord; [f]and ourselves your servants for Jē'sus' sake.

6 For God, [g]who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, [2]hath shined [h]in our hearts, to give [i]the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jē'sus Chrīst.

7 But we have this treasure [j]in earthen vessels, [k]that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

8 We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but [3]not in despair;

9 Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed;

10 Always [l]bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jē'sus, [m]that the life also of Jē'sus might be made manifest in our body.

11 For we which live are alway delivered unto death for Jē'sus' sake, that the life also of Jē'sus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

12 So then death worketh in us, but life in you.

13 We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, [n]I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

15 For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.

16 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.

17 For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

18 While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen; for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

CHAPTER 5.

Paul, in assured hope of immortal glory, laboureth to approve himself to Christ.

FOR we know that if [a]our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have [b]a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For in this [c]we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:

3 If so be that [d]being clothed we shall not be found naked.

4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but [e]clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

5 Now [f]he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who [g]also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:

7 (For [h]we walk by faith, not by sight:)

8 We are confident, I say, [i]and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

9 Wherefore we [1]labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.

H J 10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; [j]that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. H. Gal. 5. 21; J. 1 Tim. 5. 24.

11 Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory [2]in appearance, and not in heart.

13 For [k]whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.

A D W 14 For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if [l]one died for all, then were all dead:

15 And that he died for all, [m]that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again. D. 5. 18–21; W. Gal. 3. 22.

16 Wherefore [n]henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet [o]now henceforth know we him no more.

17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, [3]he is a new creature: [p]old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

D L 18 And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jē'sus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;

19 To wit, that [q]God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath [4]committed unto us the word of reconciliation. L. Gal. 1. 4.

20 Now then we are [r]ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

21 For [s]he hath made him to be sin for us, who [t]knew no sin; that we might be made [u]the righteousness of God in him. D. 9. 15.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Paul's sufferings in the ministry. 14 Exhortation to avoid idolaters, etc.

WE then, as [a]workers together with him, beseech you also that [b]ye receive not the grace of God in vain.

2 (For he saith, [c]I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.)

N † 3 Giving [d]no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed:

* A. Gal. 3. 22. † N. Heb. 2. 3.

4 But in all things [1]approving ourselves as [e]the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In stripes, in imprisonments, [2]in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings;

6 By pureness, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Hō'lў Ghōst, by love unfeigned,

7 By the word of truth, by [f]the power of God, by [g]the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

8 By honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true;

9 As unknown, and [h]yet well known: [i]as dying, and, behold, we live; [j]as chastened, and not killed;

10 As sorrowful, yet alway rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 O ye Cō-rĭnth'ĭ-ans, our mouth is open unto you, our heart is enlarged.

12 Ye are not straitened in us, but [k]ye are straitened in your own bowels.

13 Now for a recompence in the same, (I speak as unto my children,) be ye also enlarged.

14 Be [l]ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: [m]for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

15 And what concord hath Chrīst with Bē'lĭ-al? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?

16 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for [n]ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, [o]I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 Wherefore [p]come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you,

18 And [q]will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

CHAPTER 7.

1 He exhorteth to purity of life, 3 and sheweth the source of his comfort in afflictions.

HAVING [a]therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.

3 I speak not this to condemn you: for I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you.

4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great [b]is my glorying of you: [c]I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.

5 For, [d]when we were come into Măç-e-dō'nĭ-à, our flesh had no rest, but we [e]were troubled on every side; without [f]were fightings, within were fears.

6 Nevertheless [g]God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Tī'tus;

7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejoiced the more.

8 For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though [h]I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season.

9 Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry [i]after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing. R

10 For [j]godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: [k]but the sorrow of the world worketh death. R. Jas. 4. 10.

11 For behold this selfsame thing, that ye [k]sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of

CHAPTER 8.

1 He stirreth them up to contribute to the saints: 16 commendeth Titus, etc.

MOREOVER, brethren, [1]we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Măç-e-dō'nĭ-à;

2 How that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy [a]and their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their [2]liberality.

3 For to their power, I bear record, yea, and beyond their power they were willing of themselves;

4 Praying us with much intreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us [b]the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first [c]gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God.

6 Insomuch that [d]we desired Tī'tus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same [3]grace also.

7 Therefore, as [e]ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, [f]see that ye abound in this grace also.

8 I [g]speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, [h]that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.

10 And herein [i]I give my advice: for this is [j]expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be [4]forward a year ago.

11 Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have.

12 For [k]if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened:

14 But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality:

15 As it is written, [l]He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack.

16 But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Tī'tus for you.

17 For indeed he accepted the exhortation; but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you.

18 And we have sent with him the [m]brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches;

19 And not that only, but who was also chosen [n]of the churches to travel with us with this [5]grace, which is administered by us [o]to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind:

20 Avoiding [p]this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us:

21 Providing [q]for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which [6]I have in you.

23 Whether any do enquire of Tī'tus, he is my partner and fellowhelper concerning you: or our brethren be enquired of, they are [r]the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Chrīst.

24 Wherefore shew ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our boasting on your behalf.

CHAPTER 9.

1 He sheweth why he sent the brethren, 6 and stirreth them up to give bountifully.

FOR as touching [a]the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you:

2 For I know [b]the forwardness of your mind, [c]for which I boast of you to them of Măç-e-dō'nĭ-à, [d]that Â-chā'-ĭà was ready a year ago; and your zeal hath provoked very many.

3 Yet [e]have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf; that, as I said, ye may be ready:

4 Lest haply if they of Măç-e-dō'nĭ-à come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your [1]bounty, [2]whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness.

6 But [f]this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.

7 Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; [g]not grudgingly, or of necessity: for [h]God loveth a cheerful giver.

8 And [i]God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work: *

9 (As it is written, [j]He hath dispersed abroad; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness remaineth for ever.

10 Now he that [k]ministereth seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of [l]your righteousness;)

11 Being enriched in every thing to all [3]bountifulness, [m]which causeth through us thanksgiving to God.

12 For the administration of this service not only supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God;

13 Whiles by the experiment of this ministration they [n]glorify God for your professed subjection unto the gospel of Chrĭst, and for your liberal distribution [o]unto them, and unto all men;

14 And by their prayer for you, which long after you for the exceeding grace of God in you.

15 Thanks be unto God [p]for his unspeakable gift. D. Gal. 1. 4

CHAPTER 10.

Paul wisheth for no cause to exert his spiritual power and authority, etc.

NOW [a]I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Chrĭst, who [b]in presence am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you:

2 But I beseech you, [b]that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I think to be bold against some, which [2]think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh:

4 (For [c]the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty [3]through God [d]to the pulling down of strong holds;)

5 Casting [e]down [4]imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Chrĭst;

6 And [f]having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your [g]obedience is fulfilled.

7 Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? [h]If any man trust to himself that he is Chrĭst's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is [i]Chrĭst's, even so are we Chrĭst's.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed:

9 That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.

10 For his letters, [5]say they, are weighty and powerful; but [j]his bodily presence is weak, and his speech [k]contemptible.

11 Let such an one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present.

12 For [l]we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, [6]are not wise.

13 But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the [7]rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.

14 For we stretch not ourselves

beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you: [m]for we are come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Chrīst:

15 Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, [n]of other men's labours; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be [8]enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly,

16 To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's [9]line of things made ready to our hand.

17 But [o]he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

G O 18 For [p]not he that commendeth himself is approved, but [q]whom the Lord commendeth. G. Gal. 2. 16;*

CHAPTER 11.

1 Paul unwillingly entereth into a commendation of himself with the apostles: 23 his sufferings for the gospel.

WOULD to God ye could bear with me a little in [a]my folly: and indeed [1]bear with me.

2 For I am [b]jealous over you with godly jealousy: for [c]I have espoused you to one husband, that [d]I may present you [e]as a chaste virgin to Chrīst.

3 But I fear, lest by any means, as the [f]serpent beguiled Ēve through his subtilty, so your minds [g]should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Chrīst.

4 For if he that cometh preacheth another Jē'sus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another [h]gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear [2]with him.

5 For I suppose I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles.

6 But though I be rude in speech, yet not in [i]knowledge; but we have been throughly made manifest among you in all things.

7 Have I committed an offence in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely?

8 I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, [k]I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me [l]the brethren which came from Măç-e-dō'nĭ-à supplied: and in all things I have kept myself [m]from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself.

10 As [n]the truth of Chrīst is in me, [3]no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Ā-chā'ĭà.

11 Wherefore? [o]because I love you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I do, that I will do, that I [p]may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

13 For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Chrīst.

14 And no marvel; for Sā'tan himself is transformed into [q]an angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose [r]end shall be according to their works.

16 I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool [4]receive me, that I may boast myself a little.

17 That which I speak, [s]I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, [t]in this confidence of boasting.

18 Seeing [u]that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also.

19 For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye yourselves are wise.

20 For ye suffer, [v]if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.

21 I speak as concerning reproach, as [w]though we had been weak. Howbeit whereinsoever any is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also.

22 Are they Hē'brews? [x]so am I. Are they Ĭs'ra-el-ītes? so am I. Are they the seed of Ā'brā-hăm? so am I.

23 Are they ministers of Chrīst? (I speak as a fool) [y]I am more; in labours more abundant, [z]in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft.

24 Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes [a]save one.

25 Thrice was I [b]beaten with rods, once was [c]I stoned, thrice [d]I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep;

26 In journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, [e]in perils by mine own countrymen, [f]in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren;

27 In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, *g*in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.

28 Beside those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, *h*the care of all the churches.

29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not?

30 If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities.

31 The God and Father of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, *i*which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not.

32 In *j*Dă-măs'cus the governor under Ăr'e-tăs the king kept the city of the Dăm'as-çēnes with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me:

33 And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

CHAPTER 12.

1 He chooseth to commend his apostleship, not by revelations, 9 but by his infirmities, 11 blaming them for forcing this boasting.

IT is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. [1]I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 I knew a man *a*in Chrīst above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one *b*caught up to the third heaven.

3 And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;)

4 How that he was caught up into *c*paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not [2]lawful for a man to utter.

5 Of such an one will I glory: *d*yet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

6 For *e*though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.

7 And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a *f*thorn in the flesh, *g*the messenger of Sā'tan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

8 For *h*this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said unto me, *i*My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the *j*power of Chrīst may rest upon me.

10 Therefore *k*I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Chrīst's sake: for *l*when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for *m*in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing.

12 Truly *n*the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

13 For *o*what is it wherein ye were inferior to other churches, except it be that I *p*myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong.

14 Behold, *q*the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for *r*I seek not your's, but you: *s*for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And *t*I will very gladly spend and be spent for [3]you; though *u*the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.

16 But be it so, *v*I did not burden you: nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile.

17 Did *w*I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?

18 I *x*desired Tī'tus, and with him I sent a brother. Did Tī'tus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

19 Again, *y*think ye that we excuse ourselves unto you? *z*we speak before God in Chrīst: *a*but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

20 For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that *b*I shall be found unto you such as ye would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults:

21 And lest, when I come again, my God will *c*humble me among you, and

Paul threateneth obstinate sinners, etc.

THIS is [a]the third time I am coming to you. [b]In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

2 I [c]told you before, and foretell you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to them [d]which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, I will not spare:

3 Since ye seek a proof of Chrīst speaking in [e]me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty in [f]you.

4 For [g]though he was crucified through weakness, yet [h]he liveth by the power of God. For [i]we also are weak [1]in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you.

O 5 Examine [j]yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, [k]how that Jē'sus Chrīst is in you, except ye be [l]reprobates? *

CHAPTER 1.

1 Paul's salutation: 6 he wondereth that they had so soon left the truth.

PAUL, an apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but [a]by Jē'sus Chrīst, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead;)

2 And all the brethren [b]which are with me, [c]unto the churches of Gā-lā'-tiȧ:

9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you [j]than that ye have received, let him be accursed. ‡

10 For [k]do I now [l]persuade men, or God? or [m]do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Chrīst.

11 But [n]I certify you, brethren, that

* O. Gal. 1. 7–9.

‡ O. 1 Tim. 2. 5.

the gospel which was preached of me is not after man.

12 For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by [o]the revelation of Jē'sus Chrīst.

13 For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that [p]beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted [q]it:

14 And profited in the Jews' religion above many my [1]equals in mine own nation, [r]being more exceedingly zealous [s]of the traditions of my fathers.

15 But when it pleased God, [t]who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace,

16 To [u]reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not [v]with flesh and blood:

17 Neither went I up to Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm to them which were apostles before me; but I went into Ā-rā'bĭ-ā, and returned again unto Dā-măs'cus.

18 Then after three years I [2]went up to Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm to see Pē'tēr, and abode with him fifteen days.

19 But [w]other of the apostles saw I none, save [x]Jāmes the Lord's brother.

20 Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not.

21 Afterwards [y]I came into the regions of Sȳr'ĭ-ā and Çĭ-lĭ'çĭà;

22 And was unknown by face unto the churches of Jū-dæ'ā which were in Chrīst:

23 But they had heard only, That he which persecuted us in times past now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed.

24 And they glorified God in me.

CHAPTER 2.

Justification by faith, and not by works.

THEN fourteen years after [a]I went up again to Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm with Bär'na-bās, and took Tī'tus with me also.

2 And I went up by [b]revelation, and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gĕn'tīles, but [1]privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means [c]I should run, or had run, in vain.

3 But neither Tī'tus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:

4 And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our [d]liberty which we have in Chrīst Jē'sus, [e]that they might bring us into bondage:

5 To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

6 But of these [f]who seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: [g]God accepteth no man's person:) for they who seemed to be somewhat in [h]conference added nothing to me:

7 But contrariwise, [i]when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was [j]committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Pē'tēr;

8 (For he that wrought effectually in Pē'tēr to the apostleship of the circumcision, [k]the same was mighty in me toward the Gĕn'tīles:)

9 And when Jāmes, Çē'phas, and Jŏhn, who seemed to be [1]pillars, perceived [m]the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Bär'na-bās the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

10 Only they would that we should remember the poor; [n]the same which I also was forward to do.

11 But [o]when Pē'tēr was come to An'tĭ-ŏch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certain came from Jāmes, [p]he did eat with the Gĕn'tīles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Bär'na-bās also was carried away with their dissimulation.

14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly [q]according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Pē'tēr before them all, If [r]thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gĕn'tīles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gĕn'tīles to live as do the Jews?

15 We [s]who are Jews by nature, and not [t]sinners of the Gĕn'tīles,

16 Knowing [u]that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by [v]the faith of Jē'sus Chrīst, even we have believed in Jē'sus Chrīst, that we might be justified by the faith of Chrīst, and not by the works of the law: for [m]by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

17 But if, while we seek to be justified by Chrīst, we ourselves also are found sinners, [z]is therefore Chrīst the minister of sin? God forbid.

18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.

19 For I [y]through the law [z]am dead to the law, that I might [a]live unto God.

20 I am [b]crucified with Chrīst: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Chrīst liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh [c]I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for [d]if righteousness come by the law, then Chrīst is dead in vain.

CHAPTER 3.

He asketh what moved them to depart from the faith.

O FOOLISH Gā-lā'tians, [a]who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, [b]before whose eyes Jē'sus Chrīst hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

2 This only would I learn of you, Received ye [c]the Spirit by the works of the law, [d]or by the hearing of faith?

3 Are ye so foolish? [e]having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by [f]the flesh?

4 Have [g]ye suffered [1]so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain.

5 He therefore [h]that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

6 Even as Ā'brā-hăm believed God, and it was [i]accounted to him for righteousness.

7 Know ye therefore that [k]they which are of faith, the same are the children of Ā'brā-hăm.

8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Ā'brā-hăm, saying, [l]In thee shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Ā'brā-hăm.

10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, [k]Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

11 But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The [l]just shall live by faith. F. 3, 22; G. 5. 4.

12 And [m]the law is not of faith: but, The man [n]that doeth them shall live in them.

13 Chrīst hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed [o]is every one that hangeth on a tree:

14 That [p]the blessing of Ā'brā-hăm might come on the Gĕn'tīles through Jē'sus Chrīst; that we might receive the [q]promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; [r]Though it be but a man's [3]covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.

16 Now to Ā'brā-hăm and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is [s]Chrīst.

17 And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Chrīst, the law, [t]which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, [u]that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if [v]the inheritance be of the law, it [w]is no more of promise: but God gave it to Ā'brā-hăm by promise.

19 Wherefore then serveth the law? It [x]was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was [y]ordained by angels in the hand of a [z]mediator.

20 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, [a]but God is one.

21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.

22 But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jē'sus Chrīst might be given to them that believe. A. Eph. 2. 3;§

23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.

24 Wherefore [b]the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Chrīst, that [c]we might be justified by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.

26 For ye [d]are all the children of God by faith in Chrīst Jē'sus. F.5.6.

27 For as many of you as have been baptized into Chrīst have put on Chrīst.

28 There [e]is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all [f]one in Chrīst Jē'sus.

29 And [g]if ye be Chrīst's, then are ye Ā'bră-hăm's seed, and [h]heirs according to the promise.

CHAPTER 4.

1 The Jews were for a while under the law, 4 but Christ came to redeem, and to give both to Jews and Gentiles the adoption of sons. 11 Paul's tender regard for them.

NOW I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all;

2 But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father.

3 Even so we, when we were children, were [a]in bondage under the [1]elements of the world:

4 But [b]when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of [c]a woman, [d]made under the law,

5 To [e]redeem them that were under the law, [f]that we might receive the adoption of sons. D. Eph. 1. 7

6 And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Ăb'bà, Father.

7 Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; [g]and if a son, then an heir of God through Chrīst.

8 Howbeit then, [h]when ye knew not God, ye [i]did service unto them which by nature are no gods.

9 But now, [j]after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, [k]how turn ye [2]again to the weak [l]and beggarly [3]elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage?

10 Ye [m]observe days, and months, and times, and years.

11 I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

12 Brethren, I beseech you, be as [n]I am; for I am as ye are: ye have not injured me at all.

13 Ye know how [o]through infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you [p]at the first.

14 And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me [q]as an angel of God, even [r]as Chrīst Jē'sus.

15 [4]Where is then the blessedness ye spake of? for I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

17 They [s]zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude [5]you, that ye might affect them.

18 But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.

19 My [t]little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Chrīst be formed in you,

20 I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for [6]I stand in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?

22 For it is written, that Ā'bră-hăm had two sons, [u]the one by a bondmaid, [v]the other by a freewoman.

23 But he who was of the bondwoman was [w]born after the flesh; but [x]he of the freewoman was by promise.

24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two [7]covenants; the one from the mount [8]Sī'nāi, which gendereth to bondage, which is Ā'gär.

25 For this Ā'gär is mount Sī'nāi in Ā-rā'bĭ-à, and [9]answereth to Jē-rū'să-lĕm which now is, and is in bondage with her children.

26 But [y]Jē-rū'să-lĕm which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.

27 For it is written, [z]Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband.

28 Now we, brethren, as Ī'şaac was, are the [a]children of promise.

29 But as then [b]he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now.

30 Nevertheless what saith [c]the scripture? Cast out the bondwoman and her son: for [d]the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman.

31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, but of the free.

1 He moveth them to maintain their Christian liberty, 3 and not to observe circumcision, 13 but rather love one another. 19 The works of the flesh; 22 the fruit of the Spirit.

STAND fast therefore in [a]the liberty wherewith Chrīst hath made us free, and be not entangled again with [b]the yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if [c]ye be circumcised, Chrīst shall profit you nothing.

3 For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, [d]that he is a debtor to do the whole law.

G * 4 Chrīst [e]is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye [f]are fallen from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit [g]wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.

F G 6 For [h]in Jē'sus Chrīst neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but [i]faith which worketh by love. F. Eph. 2. 8.†

7 Ye [j]did run well; [k]who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth?

8 This persuasion cometh not of him that calleth you.

9 A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.

10 I [l]have confidence in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but [m]he that troubleth you shall [n]bear his judgment, whosoever he be.

11 And [o]I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, [p]why do I yet suffer persecution? then is [q]the offence of the cross ceased.

12 I [r]would they were even [s]cut off which trouble you.

13 For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only [t]use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another.

14 For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; [u]Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

C 16 This I say then, [w]Walk in the Spirit, and [x]ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

17 For [y]the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so [z]that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

18 But [a]if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that [z]they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. ‡

22 But [a]the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, [b]gentleness, goodness, [c]faith,

23 Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.

24 And they that are Chrīst's have [d]crucified the flesh with the [3]affections and lusts.

25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

26 Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

CHAPTER 6.

1 He willeth them to reform the faulty with gentleness, and to bear one another's burdens; 6 to be liberal to their teachers.

BRETHREN, [1]if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye [a]which are spiritual, restore such an one in the [b]spirit of meekness; considering thyself, [c]lest thou also be tempted.

2 Bear [d]ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil [e]the law of Chrīst.

3 For [f]if a man think himself to be something, when he [g]is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

4 But [h]let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in [i]another.

5 For [j]every man shall bear his own burden.

6 Let [k]him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things.

7 Be [l]not deceived; [m]God is not mocked: for [n]whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

8 For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to [o]the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting. H. Eph. 5. 5–8.

9 And [p]let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, [q]if we faint not.

especially unto them who are of [t]the household of faith.

11 Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand.

12 As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised; only lest [u]they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ.

13 For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.

14 But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, by [2]whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world.

15 For in Chrīst Jē'sus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but [v]a new creature.

16 And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon [w]the Is'ra-el of God.

17 From henceforth let no man trouble me: for [x]I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jē'sus.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE EPHESIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

1 He blesseth God for spiritual blessings, 7 and for redemption by his grace.

PAUL, an apostle of Jē'sus Chrīst by the will of God, to the saints which are at Ĕph'e-sŭs, [a]and to the faithful in Chrīst Jē'sus:

2 Grace [b]be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst.

3 Blessed [c]be the God and Father of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly [1]places in Chrīst:

4 According as [d]he hath chosen us in him [e]before the foundation of the world, that we should [f]be holy and without blame before him in love:

5 Having [g]predestinated us unto the [h]adoption of children by Jē'sus Chrīst to himself, [i]according to the good pleasure of his will,

6 To [j]the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein [k]he hath made us accepted in the [l]beloved.

7 In [m]whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to [n]the riches of his grace; D. 2. 13–19; K. 1. 18, 19.

8 Wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence;

9 Having [o]made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure [p]which he hath purposed in himself:

10 That in the dispensation [q]of the fulness of times [r]he might gather together in one [s]all things in Chrīst, both which are in [2]heaven, and which are on earth; even in him:

11 In [t]whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose [u]of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will:

12 That [v]we should be to the praise of his glory, [w]who first [3]trusted in Chrīst.

13 In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye [x]were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise,

14 Which [y]is the earnest of our inheritance [z]until the redemption of [a]the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.

15 Wherefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jē'sus, and love unto all the saints,

16 Cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers;

17 That the God of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, the Father of glory, may [b]give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation [4]in the knowledge of him:

18 The [c]eyes of your understanding K being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints,

19 And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, [d]according to the working [5]of his mighty power, K. 3. 16–20.

20 Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places,

21 Far above [e]all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come:

22 And [f]hath put all things under his feet, and gave him [g]to be the head over all things to the church,

23 Which [h]is his body, the fulness of him that [i]filleth all in all.

CHAPTER 2.

1 What the Ephesians' state was: 4 God's mercy in their deliverance. 8 Though saved by grace, yet created unto good works.

C AND [a]you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins;

2 Wherein [b]in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in [c]the children of disobedience:

A 3 Among [d]whom also we all had our
L conversation in times past in the [1]lusts of our flesh, fulfilling [1]the desires of the flesh and of the mind; [f]and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others. A. 1 John 1. 8.*

4 But God, [g]who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,

5 Even [h]when we were dead in sins, hath [i]quickened us together with Christ, (†by grace ye are saved;†)

6 And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jē'sus:

7 That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jē'sus.

F 8 For by grace are ye saved through
G [f]faith; and that not of yourselves: [g]it is the gift of God: F. Phil. 3. 9.

9 Not [1]of works, lest any man should boast. G. Phil. 3. 3–9.

10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jē'sus unto good works, [m]which God hath before [3]ordained that we should walk in them.

11 Wherefore remember, that ye being in time past Gĕn'tīles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called [n]the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands;

12 That [o]at that time ye were without Christ, [p]being aliens from the commonwealth of Ĭs'ra-el, and strangers from [q]the covenants of promise, having [r]no hope, [s]and without God in the world: C. 4. 17–23.

13 But now [t]in Christ Jē'sus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ.

14 For [u]he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us;

15 Having abolished [v]in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain [w]one new man, so making peace;

16 And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having [x]slain the enmity [4]thereby:

17 And [y]came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh.

18 For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father.

19 Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God; D. 5. 2.

20 And are built [z]upon the foundation of the [a]apostles and prophets, Jē'sus Christ himself being the [b]chief corner stone;

21 In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord:

22 In whom ye also are builded together for [c]an habitation of God through the Spirit.

CHAPTER 3.

1 The hidden mystery of their calling had been revealed unto him: 14 he prayeth that their faith may be strengthened.

FOR this cause I Paul, [a]the prisoner of Jē'sus Christ [b]for you Gĕn'tīles,

2 If ye have heard of [c]the dispensation of the grace of God which [d]is given me to you-ward:

3 How that by revelation [e]he made known unto me the mystery; (as I wrote [1]afore in few words,

4 Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge [f]in the mystery of Christ)

5 Which [g]in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit;

6 That the Gĕn'tīles should be fellow-heirs, and of the same body, and [h]partakers of his promise in Chrīst by the gospel:

7 Whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by [i]the effectual working of his power.

8 Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gĕn'tīles [j]the unsearchable riches of Chrīst;

9 And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which [k]from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who [l]created all things by Jē'sus Chrīst:

10 To [m]the intent that now unto [n]the principalities and powers in heavenly places [o]might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God,

11 According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Chrīst Jē'sus our Lord:

12 In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him.

13 Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory.

14 For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst,

15 Of whom [p]the whole family in heaven and earth is named,

K 16 That he would grant you, according [q]to the riches of his glory, [r]to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in [s]the inner man;

17 That [t]Chrīst may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love,

18 May be able to comprehend with all saints [u]what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height;

19 And to know the love of Chrīst, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled [v]with all the fulness of God.

20 Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, K. 6. 10.

21 Unto him be [w]glory in the church by Chrīst Jē'sus throughout all ages, world without end. Ā-mĕn'.

CHAPTER 4.

1 He exhorteth to unity; 24 to put on the new man; 25 to cast off lying, 29 corrupt communication, 31 and all bitterness.

I THEREFORE, the prisoner [1]of the Lord, beseech you [a]that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called,

2 With [b]all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love;

3 Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit [c]in the bond of peace.

4 There [d]is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling;

5 One [e]Lord, one faith, one [f]baptism,

6 One [g]God and Father of all, who is above all, and [h]through all, and in you all.

7 But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Chrīst.

8 Wherefore he saith, [i]When he ascended up on high, [j]he led [2]captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.

9 (Now [k]that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?

10 He that descended is the same also that [l]ascended up far above all heavens, that he might [3]fill all things.)

11 And he gave [m]some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers;

12 For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, [n]for the edifying of [o]the body of Chrīst:

13 Till we all come [4]in the unity of the faith, [p]and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the [5]stature of the fulness of Chrīst:

14 That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every [q]wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;

15 But [6]speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Chrīst:

16 From [r]whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.

C 17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gĕn'tīles walk, in the vanity of their mind,

18 Having the understanding darkened, [s]being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the [7]blindness of their heart:

19 Who [t]being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

20 But ye have not so learned Chrīst;

21 If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jē'sus:

22 That ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts;

23 And [u]be renewed in the spirit of your mind; C. 5. 5–8.

24 And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and [8]true holiness.

25 Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another.

26 Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath:

27 Neither [9]give place to the devil.

28 Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have [9]to give to him that needeth.

29 Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good [10]to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

30 And [w]grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.

31 Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice:

32 And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Chrīst's sake hath forgiven you. L. 5. 2.

CHAPTER 5.

2 He exhorteth to love; 3 to flee fornication, and all uncleanness; 15 to walk with prudence.

BE [a]ye therefore followers of God, as dear children;

2 And [b]walk in love, as Chrīst also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God [c]for a sweetsmelling savour.

3 But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints;

4 Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, [d]which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks.

5 For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath [e]any inheritance in the kingdom of Chrīst and of God.

6 Let [f]no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of [1]disobedience.

7 Be not ye therefore partakers with them.

8 For [g]ye were sometimes darkness, but now [h]are ye light in the Lord: walk as children [i]of light: C.5.11,12;†

9 (For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth;)

10 Proving [j]what is acceptable unto the Lord.

11 And [k]have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather [l]reprove them.

12 For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret. C. 5. 14.

13 But [m]all things that are [2]reproved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light.

14 Wherefore [3]he saith, [n]Awake thou that sleepest, and [o]arise from the dead, and Chrīst shall give thee light.

15 See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise,

16 Redeeming the time, because the days are evil.

17 Wherefore [p]be ye not unwise, but [q]understanding what [r]the will of the Lord is.

18 And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit;

19 Speaking to yourselves [s]in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord;

20 Giving [t]thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst;

21 Submitting [u]yourselves one to another in the fear of God.

22 Wives, [v]submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord.

23 For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Chrīst is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body.

24 Therefore as the church is subject unto Chrīst, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing.

25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Chrīst also loved the church, and gave himself for it; D. Col. 1. 14.

26 That he might sanctify and cleanse [w]it with the washing of water [x]by the word,

27 That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.

28 So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself.

29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church:

30 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.

31 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.

32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Chrīst and the church.

33 Nevertheless let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband.

CHAPTER 6.

1 The relative duties of children: 4 of parents: 5 of servants: 9 of masters.

CHILDREN, [a]obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.

2 Honour [b]thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise;

3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.

4 And, [c]ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but [d]bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

5 Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Chrīst;

6 Not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but as the servants of Chrīst, doing the will of God from the heart;

7 With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:

8 Knowing [e]that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free.

9 And, ye [f]masters, do the same things unto them, [1]forbearing threatening: knowing that [2]your Master also is in heaven; neither is [g]there respect of persons with him.

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. K. Phil. 4. 13.

11 Put [h]on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

12 For we wrestle not against [3]flesh and blood, but against [4]principalities, against powers, against the [j]rulers of the darkness of this world, against [4]spiritual wickedness in [5]high places.

13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and [6]having done all, to stand.

14 Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having [k]on the breastplate of righteousness;

15 And [l]your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace:

16 Above all, taking [m]the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the [n]sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God: B. Col. 3. 16.

18 Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and [o]supplication for all saints;

19 And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel,

20 For which I am an ambassador [7]in bonds: that [8]therein [p]I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

21 But that ye also may know my affairs, and how I do, [q]Tȳch'ī-cŭs, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things:

22 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that ye might know our affairs, and that he might comfort your hearts.

23 Peace be to the brethren, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst.

24 Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst [9]in sincerity. Ā-mĕn'.

CHAPTER 1.

Paul's thankfulness and prayer to God, etc.

PAUL and Tī-mō'the-ŭs, the servants of Jē'sus Chrīst, to all the saints in Chrīst Jē'sus which are at Phī-lĭp'pī, with the [1]bishops and deacons:

2 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst.

3 I [a]thank my God upon every [2]remembrance of you,

4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,

5 For [b]your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now;

6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a [c]good work in you [3]will perform it until the day of Jē'sus Chrīst:

7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because [4]I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in my [d]bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, [e]ye all are [5]partakers of my grace.

8 For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jē'sus Chrīst.

9 And this I pray, that [f]your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all [6]judgment;

10 That [g]ye may [7]approve things that [8]are excellent; [h]that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Chrīst;

11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, [i]which are by Jē'sus Chrīst, unto the glory and praise of God.

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel;

13 So that my bonds [9]in Chrīst are manifest [j]in all [10]the palace, and [11]in all other places;

14 And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Chrīst even of envy and [k]strife; and some also of good will:

16 The one preach Chrīst of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds:

17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel.

18 What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Chrīst is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.

19 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation [l]through your prayer, and the supply of [m]the Spirit of Jē'sus Chrīst,

20 According to my earnest expectation and my hope, that [n]in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Chrīst shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death.

21 For to me to live is Chrīst, and to die is gain.

22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not.

23 For [o]I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to [p]depart, and to be with Chrīst; which is far better:

24 Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you.

25 And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith;

26 That your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jē'sus Chrīst for me by my coming to you again.

27 Only let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Chrīst: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel;

28 And in nothing [q]terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to [r]you of salvation, and that of God. *

29 For unto you it is given in the behalf of Chrīst, [s]not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake;

CHAPTER 2.

Love, unity, and humility recommended.

IF there be therefore any consolation in Chrīst, if any comfort of love, if [a]any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies,
2 Fulfil [b]ye my joy, [c]that ye be like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.
3 Let [d]nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but [e]in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.
4 Look [f]not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.
5 Let [g]this mind be in you, which was also in Chrīst Jē'sus:
6 Who, [h]being in the form of God, thought [i]it not robbery to be equal with God:
7 But [j]made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form [k]of a servant, and [l]was made in the [1]likeness of men:
8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became [m]obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.
9 Wherefore God also [n]hath highly exalted him, and [o]given him a name which is above every name:
10 That [p]at the name of Jē'sus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;
11 And [q]that every tongue should confess that Jē'sus Chrīst is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.
12 Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.
13 For [r]it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.
14 Do all things without murmurings and disputings:
15 That ye may be blameless and [2]harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom [3]ye shine as lights in the world;
16 Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Chrīst, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.
17 Yea, and if I be [4]offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all.
18 For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoice with me.
19 [5]But I trust in the Lord Jē'sus to send Tī-mō'the-ŭs shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.
20 For I have no man [6]likeminded, who will naturally care for your state.
21 For all seek their own, not the things which are Jē'sus Chrīst's.* C
22 But ye know the proof of him, that, as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel.
23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.
24 But I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly.
25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you [s]Ē-păph-ro-dī'tus, my brother, and companion in labour, and fellow-soldier, but your [t]messenger, and [u]he that ministered to my wants.
26 For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.
27 For indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.
28 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.
29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and [7]hold such in reputation:
30 Because for the work of Chrīst he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life, [v]to supply your lack of service toward me.

CHAPTER 3.

2 To beware of false teachers. 12 The apostle's anxiety for the heavenly prize.

FINALLY, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.
2 Beware [a]of dogs, beware of evil workers, [b]beware of the concision.
3 For we are [c]the circumcision, which worship [d]God in the spirit, and rejoice in Chrīst Jē'sus, and have no confidence in the flesh. G

4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:

5 Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Ĭs'ra-el, of the tribe of Bĕn'-ja-mĭn, an Hē'brew of the Hē'brews; as touching the law, [e]a Phär'ĭ-see;

6 Concerning [f]zeal, [g]persecuting the church; touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.

7 But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Chrīst.

8 Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss [h]for the excellency of the knowledge of Chrīst Jē'sus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Chrīst,

9 And be found in him, [i]not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but [j]that which is through the faith of Chrīst, the righteousness which is of God by faith: *

10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and [k]the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;

11 If by any means I might attain [l]unto the resurrection of the dead.

12 Not as though I had [m]already attained, either were [n]already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Chrīst Jē'sus.

13 Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth [o]unto those things which are before,

14 I [p]press toward the mark for the prize of [q]the high calling of God in Chrīst Jē'sus.

15 Let us therefore, as many [r]as be perfect, [s]be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you.

16 Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing.

17 Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as ye [t]have us for an ensample.

18 (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Chrīst:

19 Whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.)

20 For [u]our conversation is in heaven; from whence also [v]we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst:

21 Who [w]shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according [x]to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself.

CHAPTER 4.

4 General exhortations: 10 his joy for their liberality.

THEREFORE, my brethren dearly beloved and longed for, [a]my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

2 I beseech Eū-ō'dĭ-as, and beseech Sỹn'tỹ-chē, that they be of the same mind in the Lord.

3 And I intreat thee also, true yokefellow, help those women which laboured with [b]me in the gospel, with Clĕm'ĕnt also, and with other my fellowlabourers, whose names are in the [c]book of life.

4 Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice.

5 Let your moderation be known unto all men. [d]The Lord is at hand.

6 Be [e]careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

7 And [f]the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Chrīst Jē'sus.

8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are [1]honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

9 Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last [g]your care of me [2]hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.

11 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in what-

COLOSSIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Paul thanketh God for their faith, 15 and describeth the exalted nature of Christ.

PAUL, an apostle of Jē'ṣus Chrīst by the will of God, and Tĭ-mō'the-ŭs our brother,

2 To the saints [a]and faithful brethren in Chrīst which are at Cō-lŏs'sē: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst.

3 We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst, praying always for you,

4 Since [b]we heard of your faith in Chrīst Jē'ṣus, and of [c]the love which ye have to all the saints,

5 For the hope [d]which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel;

6 Which is come unto you, [e]as it is in all the world; and [f]bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew [g]the grace of God in truth:

7 As ye also learned of [h]Ēp'a-phrăs our dear fellowservant, who is for you a faithful minister of Chrīst;

8 Who also declared unto us your love in the Spirit.

9 For [i]this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the [j]knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding;

10 That [k]ye might walk worthy of the Lord [l]unto all pleasing, being [m]fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God;

11 Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience and longsuffering [n]with joyfulness;

12 Giving [o]thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the [p]inheritance of the saints in light:

13 Who hath delivered us from the [q]power of darkness, [r]and hath translated us into the kingdom of [1]his dear Son: C. 1, 21.

God, the [t]firstborn of every creature:

16 For [u]by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created [v]by him, and for him:

17 And he is before all things, and by him all things consist.

18 And [w]he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, [x]the firstborn from the dead; that [2]in all things he might have the preeminence.

He exhorteth them to constancy in Christ.

FOR I would that ye knew what great [1]conflict I have for you, and for them at Lā-ŏd-ĭ-çē'à, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh;

6 As ye have therefore received Chrīst Jē'sus the Lord, so walk ye in him:

7 Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.

8 Beware [c]lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the [d]tradition of men, after the [3]rudiments of the world, and not after Chrīst.

9 For [e]in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily.

10 And [f]ye are complete in him, which [g]is the head of all principality and power:

11 In whom also ye are [h]circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Chrīst:

12 Buried [i]with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through [j]the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead.

13 And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses;†

14 Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross; them openly, triumphing over them [4]in it.

16 Let no man therefore [l]judge you [5]in meat, or in drink, or [6]in respect of [m]an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days:

17 Which [n]are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Chrīst.

18 Let no man [7]beguile you of your reward [8]in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind,

19 And not holding the Head, from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God.

20 Wherefore if ye be dead with Chrīst from the [9]rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances,

21 (Touch not; taste not; handle not;

22 Which all are to perish with the using;) after the commandments and doctrines of men?

1 He exhorteth to be heavenly minded. 18 Sundry relative duties.

IF ye then [a]be risen with Chrīst, seek those [b]things which are above, where Chrīst sitteth on the right hand of God.

2 Set your [1]affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

3 For [c]ye are dead, [d]and your life is hid with Chrīst in God.

4 When [e]Chrīst, who is [f]our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in [g]glory.

5 Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry:

6 For which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience: H, 3. 25.

7 In the which ye also walked some time, when ye lived in them.*

8 But [h]now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth.

9 Lie [i]not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds;

10 And have put on the new man, which is [j]renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created [k]him:

11 Where there is neither [l]Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Bär-bā'rĭ-an, Scўth'ĭ-an, bond nor free: [m]but Chrīst is all, and in all.

12 Put on therefore, [n]as the elect of God, holy and beloved, [o]bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering;

13 Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a [2]quarrel against any: even as Chrīst forgave you, so also do ye.

14 And above all these things put [p]on charity, which is the bond of perfectness.

15 And let [q]the peace of God rule in your hearts, [r]to the which also ye are called in [s]one body; and be ye thankful.

16 Let [t]the word of Chrīst dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, [u]singing with grace [v]in your hearts to the Lord. B. 2 Thes. 2. 15.

17 And [w]whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jē'sus, giving [x]thanks to God and the Father by him.

18 Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord.

19 Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them.

20 Children, obey your [y]parents in all things: for this is well pleasing unto the Lord.

21 Fathers, [z]provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.

22 Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh; not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God:

23 And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men;

24 Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Chrīst.

25 But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons. H. 1 Thes. 1. 10.

2 Continue [b]in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving;

3 Withal [c]praying also for us, that God would [d]open unto us a door of utterance, to speak [e]the mystery of Chrīst, [f]for which I am also in bonds:

4 That I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak.

5 Walk [g]in wisdom toward them that are without, redeeming the time.

6 Let your speech be alway [h]with grace, seasoned [i]with salt, [j]that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man.

7 All my state shall Tȳch'ī-cŭs declare unto you, who is a beloved brother, and a faithful minister and fellowservant in the Lord:

8 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that he might know your estate, and comfort your hearts;

9 With [k]Ō-nĕs'ī-mŭs, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They shall make known unto you all things which are done here.

10 Ăr-ĭs-tär'chus [l]my fellowprisoner saluteth you, and [m]Mär'cus, sister's son to Băr'na-bās, (touching whom ye received commandments: if he come unto you, receive him;)

11 And Jē'sus, which is called Jŭs'tus, who are of the circumcision. These only are my fellowworkers unto the kingdom of God, which have been a comfort unto me.

12 Ēp'a-phrās, [n]who is one of you, a servant of Chrīst, saluteth you, always [1]labouring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect [o]and [2]complete in all the will of God.

13 For I bear him record, that he hath a great zeal for you, and them that are in Lā-ŏd-ĭ-çē'ȧ, and them in Hī-e-răp'o-līs.

14 Luke, [p]the beloved physician, and [q]Dē'mas, greet you.

15 Salute the brethren which are in Lā-ŏd-ĭ-çē'ȧ, and Nўm'phas, and the church which is in his house.

16 And when [r]this epistle is read among you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Lā-ŏd-ĭ-çē'ans; and that ye likewise read the epistle from Lā-ŏd-ĭ-çē'ȧ.

17 And say to [s]Ăr-chĭp'pus, Take heed to the [t]ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

Paul sheweth his remembrance of them in thanksgiving and prayer.

PAUL, and [a]Sĭl-vā'nus, and Tĭ-mō'the-ŭs, unto the church of the Thĕs-sa-lō'nĭ-ans which is [b]in God the Father and in the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst.

2 We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;

3 Remembering without ceasing your work of [c]faith, [d]and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, in the sight of God and our Father;

4 Knowing, brethren [1]beloved, your [e]election of God.

5 For [f]our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in [g]the Hō'lў Ghōst, and [h]in much assurance; as ye know [i]what manner of men we were among you for your sake.

6 And ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Hō'lў Ghōst:

7 So that ye were ensamples to all that believe in Măç-e-dō'nĭ-ȧ and Ā-chā'ĭȧ.

8 For from you [j]sounded out the word of the Lord not only in Măç-e-dō'nĭ-ȧ and Ā-chā'ĭȧ, but also in every

CHAPTER 2.

1 In what manner the gospel was preached unto them. 17 His desire of coming to them.

FOR yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain:

2 But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at [a]Phĭ-lĭp'pī, we were bold in our God [b]to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention.

3 For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile:

4 But as [c]we were allowed of God to [d]be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, which [e]trieth our hearts.

5 For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloke of covetousness; God is witness:

6 Nor [f]of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might have [1]been burdensome, as the apostles of Chrīst.

7 But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children:

8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing [g]to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our [h]own souls, because ye were dear unto us.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for labouring night and day, because [i]we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe:

11 As ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children,

12 That [j]ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

13 For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it [k]not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.

14 For ye, brethren, became followers of the [l]churches of God which in Jū-dæ'ā are in Chrīst Jē'sus: for [m]ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even [n]as they have of the Jews:

15 Who both killed the Lord Jē'sus, [o]and their own prophets, and have [2]persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men:

16 Forbidding [p]us to speak to the Gĕn'tīles that they might be saved, [q]to fill up their sins alway: for [r]the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly to see your face with great desire.

18 Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but [s]Sā'tan hindered us.

19 For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of [3]rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst [t]at his coming?

20 For ye are our glory and joy.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Why Paul sent Timothy to them: 6 his good report a consolation to him.

WHEREFORE when we could no longer forbear, [a]we thought it good to be left at Ăth'ĕns alone;

2 And sent [b]Tī-mō'the-ŭs, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellowlabourer in the gospel of Chrīst, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith:

3 That [c]no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that [d]we are appointed thereunto.

4 For [e]verily, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know.

5 For this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, [f]lest by some means the tempter have tempted you, and our [g]labour be in vain.

6 But [h]now when Tī-mō'the-ŭs came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, [i]as we also to see you:

7 Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith:

8 For now we live, if ye [j]stand fast in the Lord.

9 For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God;

10 Night [k]and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, [l]direct our way unto you.

12 And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you:

13 To the end he may stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst [l]with all his saints.

CHAPTER 4.

1 He exhorteth to go on in godliness. 15 The saints' resurrection, and Christ's second coming.

FURTHERMORE then we [1]beseech you, brethren, and [2]exhort you by the Lord Jē'sus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and [a]to please God, so ye would abound more and more.

2 For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jē'sus.

3 For this is [b]the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication:

4 That [c]every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour;

5 Not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gĕn'tīles [d]which know not God:

H 6 That [e]no man go beyond and [3]defraud his brother [4]in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified. H. 5. 2, 3.

7 For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, [f]but unto holiness.

8 He [g]therefore that [5]despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, [h]who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly love ye need not that I write unto you: for ye [i]yourselves are taught of God [j]to love one another.

10 And indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Măç-e-dō'nĭ-à: but we beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more;

11 And that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you;

12 That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack [6]of nothing.

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even [k]as others which have no hope.

14 For [l]if we believe that Jē'sus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jē'sus will God bring with him.

15 For this we say unto you [m]by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.

16 For [n]the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Chrīst shall rise first:

17 Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them [o]in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so [p]shall we ever be with the Lord.

18 Wherefore [7]comfort one another with these words.

CHAPTER 5.

Of Christ's second coming.

BUT of [a]the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you.

H 2 For yourselves know perfectly that [b]the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then [c]sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape. H. 2 Thes. 1. 8, 9.

4 But [d]ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

5 Ye are all [e]the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.

6 Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober.

7 For [f]they that sleep sleep in the night; and they that be drunken are [g]drunken in the night.

8 But let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting [h]on the breastplate of faith and love; and for an helmet, the hope of salvation.

D L 9 For [i]God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, L. 1 Tim. 1.15

10 Who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him. D. 1 Tim. 1. 15.

11 Wherefore [1]comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also ye do.

12 And we beseech you, brethren, to [j]know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you;

13 And to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. And be at peace among yourselves.

14 Now we [2]exhort you, brethren, warn them that are [3]unruly, comfort the feebleminded, support the weak, be patient toward all men.

15 See [k]that none render evil for evil unto any man; but ever [l]follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men.

16 Rejoice evermore.

17 Pray [m]without ceasing.

18 In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Chrīst Jē'sus concerning you.

19 Quench [n]not the Spirit.

20 Despise [o]not prophesyings.

21 Prove [p]all things; hold fast that which is good.

22 Abstain [q]from all appearance of evil.

K 23 And [r]the very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be [s]preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst.*

24 Faithful [t]is he that calleth you, who also will do it.

25 Brethren, pray for us.

26 Greet all the brethren with an holy kiss.

27 I [4]charge you by the Lord that this epistle be read unto all the holy brethren.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

Of the Thessalonians' faith and love.

PAUL, [a]and Sīl-vā'nus, and Tī-mō'-the-ŭs, unto the church of the Thĕs-sa-lō'nī-anṣ [b]in God our Father and the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst:

2 Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst.

3 We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth [c]exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth;

4 So that [d]we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God [e]for your patience and faith [f]in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure:

5 Which is [g]a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be counted [h]worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer:

6 Seeing [i]it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you;

7 And to you who are troubled rest [j]with us, when the Lord Jē'sus shall be revealed from heaven with [1]his mighty angels,

H 8 In [k]flaming fire [2]taking vengeance on them [l]that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst:

9 Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and [m]from the glory of his power; H. 2. 12.

10 When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe (because our

11 Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God would [3]count you worthy of this calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power:

12 That [n]the name of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst.

CHAPTER 2.

1 He warneth against the surmise that the day of Christ was at hand: 3 that it would be preceded by a great apostasy.

NOW we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, [a]and by our gathering together unto him,

2 That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Chrīst is at hand.

3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except [b]there come a falling away first, and [c]that man of sin be revealed, the [d]son of perdition;

4 Who opposeth and [e]exalteth himself above [f]all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.

5 Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

6 And now ye know what [1]withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time.

7 For [g]the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way.

8 And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom [h]the Lord shall consume [i]with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy [j]with the brightness of his coming:

9 Even him, whose coming is [k]after the working of Sā'tan with all power [l]and signs and lying wonders,

C 10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness[m] in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And [n]for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, [o]that they should believe a lie:

H 12 That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness. C. 3. 2;*

13 But we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth:

14 Whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst.

15 Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and hold [r]the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle. B. 2 Tim. 3. 15–17.

16 Now our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst himself, and God, even our Father, which [q]hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, 17 Comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work.

CHAPTER 3.

1 He craveth their prayers: 3 he testifieth his confidence in them: 6 divers precepts.

FINALLY, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord [1]may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you:

2 And that we may be delivered from [2]unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith.†

3 But the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and [s]keep you from evil. ‡

4 And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you.

5 And [t]the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and [3]into the patient waiting for Chrīst.

6 Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, that [c]ye withdraw yourselves [d]from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us.

7 For yourselves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you;

8 Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but [e]wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you:

9 Not [f]because we have not power, but to make ourselves an ensample [g]unto you to follow us.

10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that [h]if any would not work, neither should he eat.

11 For we hear that there are some which walk among you [i]disorderly,

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY.

CHAPTER 1.

3 Paul remindeth Timothy of his charge. 8 The scope of the law is also the design of the gospel.

PAUL, an apostle of Jē'sus Chrīst by [a]the commandment [b]of God our Saviour, and Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, which [c]is our hope;

2 Unto [d]Tĭm'o-thў, my own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jē'sus Chrīst our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still at Ĕph'e-sŭs, [e]when I went into Măç-e-dō'nī-à, that thou mightest charge some that they [f]teach no other doctrine,

4 Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith: so do.

5 Now [g]the end of the commandment is charity [h]out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned:

6 From which some [1]having swerved have turned aside unto vain jangling;

7 Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that [i]the law is good, if a man use it lawfully;

9 Knowing [j]this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for [k]the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for menstealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine; C. 4. 2.

11 According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.

12 And I thank Chrīst Jē'sus our Lord, who hath enabled me, [l]for that he counted me faithful, [m]putting me into the ministry;

13 Who [n]was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because [o]I did it ignorantly in unbelief.

14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and [p]love which is in Chrīst Jē'sus.

15 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, [q]that Chrīst Jē'sus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.*

16 Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jē'sus Chrīst might shew forth all longsuffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting. F. 4. 10.

17 Now unto [r]the King eternal, immortal, [s]invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Ā-mĕn'.

18 This charge I commit unto thee, son Tĭm'o-thў, [t]according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare;

1 Paul exhorteth to pray and give thanks for all men. 9 How women ought to be attired.

I [1]EXHORT therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men;

2 For [a]kings, and [b]for all that are in [2]authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.

L W 3 For this is [c]good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour;

4 Who [d]will have all men to be saved, and to [e]come unto the knowledge of the truth. L. Tit. 3. 3–5;*

D O 5 For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Chrīst Jē'sus; O. 2 Tim. 2. 12.

W 6 Who gave himself a ransom for all, [3]to be testified [f]in due time:†

7 Whereunto I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle, (I speak the truth in Chrīst, and lie not;) a teacher of the Gĕn'tīlĕs in faith and verity.

8 I will therefore that men pray every [g]where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

9 In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with [4]broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array;

10 But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.

11 Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.

12 But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.

13 For Ăd'ăm was first formed, then Ēve.

14 And Ăd'ăm was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.

15 Notwithstanding she shall be saved [h]in childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety.

2 A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, [1]of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach;

3 [2]Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous;

4 One [b]that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity;

5 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)

6 Not [3]a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil.

7 Moreover he must have a good report of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.

8 Likewise must the deacons be grave, not doubletongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre;

9 Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.

10 And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.

11 Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.

12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well.

13 For they that have [4]used the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Chrīst Jē'sus.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly:

15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and [5]ground of the truth.

16 And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: [c]God was [6]manifest in the flesh, [d]justified in the Spirit, [e]seen of angels, preached unto the Gĕn'tīlĕs, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

CHAPTER 4.

Various precepts for Timothy's direction.

C 2 Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having [c]their conscience seared with a hot iron; C. 5. 6.

3 Forbidding [f]to marry, [g]and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created [h]to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.

4 For [i]every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving:

5 For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jē'sus Chrīst, nourished up [j]in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.

7 But refuse profane and old wives' fables, and exercise thyself rather unto godliness.

8 For bodily exercise profiteth [1]little: but godliness is profitable unto all things, having [k]promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

9 This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptation.

10 For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we F trust in the living God, [l]who is the W Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe. F. 2 Tim. 3. 15; W. Tit. 2. 11.

11 These things command and teach.

12 Let [m]no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

13 Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

14 Neglect [n]not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee [o]by prophecy, [p]with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery.

15 Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear [2]to all.

16 Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both [q]save thyself, and them that hear thee.

4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to shew [1]piety at home, and [b]to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God.

5 Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

6 But she that liveth [2]in pleasure is C dead while she liveth. C. 6. 3-5.

7 And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless.

8 But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own [3]house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.

9 Let not a widow be [4]taken into the number under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man,

10 Well reported of for good works: if she have brought up children, if she have lodged [c]strangers, if she [d]have washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.

11 But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to wax wanton against Chrīst, they will marry;

12 Having [e]damnation, because they have cast off their first faith.

13 And [f]withal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not.

14 I [g]will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, [h]give none occasion to the adversary [5]to speak reproachfully.

15 For some are already turned aside after Sā'tan.

16 If [i]any man or woman that believeth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed.

17 Let [j]the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine.

18 For the scripture saith, [k]Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn. And, [l]The labourer is worthy of his reward.

19 Against an elder receive not an accusation, but [6]before two or three witnesses.

20 Them [m]that sin rebuke before all, that others [n]also may fear.
21 I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things [7]without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality.
22 Lay [o]hands suddenly on no man, neither [p]be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure.
23 Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities.
J 24 Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after.*
25 Likewise also [q]the good works of some are manifest beforehand; and they that are otherwise cannot be hid.

CHAPTER 6.

1 The duty of servants. 3 Of corrupt teachers.

LET as many [a]servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, that the [b]name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed.
2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because [c]they are brethren; but rather do them service, because they are [1]faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort.
C 3 If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness;
4 He is [2]proud, [d]knowing nothing, but [3]doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings,
5 [4]Perverse disputings of [e]men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, [f]supposing that gain is godliness: † [g]from such withdraw thyself.
6 But [h]godliness with contentment is great gain.
7 For [i]we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.
8 And [j]having food and raiment let us be therewith content.
H 9 But [k]they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.
10 For [l]the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have [5]erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.
11 But thou, [m]O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.
12 Fight [n]the good fight of faith, lay hold on [o]eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, [p]and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.
13 I give thee charge in the sight of God, who [q]quickeneth all things, and before Chrīst Jē'sus, [r]who before Pŏn'tĭ-ŭs Pī'late witnessed a good [6]confession;
14 That thou keep this commandment without spot, unrebukeable, until [s]the appearing of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst:
15 Which in his times he shall shew, who is [t]the blessed and only Potentate, [u]the King of kings, and Lord of lords;
16 Who [v]only hath immortality, dwelling in [w]the light which no man can approach unto; [x]whom no man hath seen, nor can see: [y]to whom be honour and power everlasting. Ā-mĕn'.
17 Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not highminded, nor trust in [7]uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy;
18 That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, [8]willing to communicate;
19 Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.
20 O Tĭm'o-thў, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called:
21 Which some professing have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee. Ā-mĕn'.

The first to Tĭm'o-thў was written from Lā-ŏd-ĭ-çē'ā, which is the chiefest city of Phrўg'ĭ-ā Pa-cā-tĭ-ā'nā.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Paul's love to Timothy: 6 he exhorteth him not to be ashamed of the gospel.

PAUL, an apostle of Jē'sus Chrīst by the will of God, according to [a]the promise of life which is in Chrīst Jē'sus,

2 To Tĭm'o-thў, my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Chrīst Jē'sus our Lord.

3 I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day;

4 Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy;

5 When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lō'ĭs, and [b]thy mother Eū'nĭçe; and I am persuaded that in thee also.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that [c]thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.

7 For [d]God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but [e]of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

T 8 Be [f]not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God; T. 2. 12.

G 9 Who hath saved us, and [g]called us with an holy calling, [h]not according to our works, but according [i]to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Chrīst Jē'sus before [j]the world began, G. Tit. 3. 5.

10 But [k]is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jē'sus Chrīst, who [l]hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel:

11 Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gĕn'tīles.

12 For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I

K am not ashamed: for I know whom

I have [1]believed, and am persuaded K that he is able to keep that which I have committed [m]unto him against that day. K. Tit. 2. 11.

13 Hold [n]fast the [o]form of sound words, which [p]thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which is in Chrīst Jē'sus.

14 That good thing which was committed unto thee keep by the Hō'lў Ghōst which dwelleth in us.

15 This thou knowest, that all they which are in Ā'sĭa be turned away from me; of whom are Phў-ġĕl'lus and Hēr-mŏġ'e-nēs.

16 The Lord [q]give mercy unto the house of ŏn-e-sĭph'o-rŭs; [r]for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain:

17 But, when he was in Rōme, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant unto [s]him that he may find mercy of the Lord [t]in that day: and in how many things he [u]ministered unto me at Ĕph'e-sŭs, thou knowest very well.

CHAPTER 2.

Timothy exhorteth to constancy and perseverance.

THOU therefore, my son, [a]be strong in the grace that is in Chrīst Jē'sus.

2 And the things that thou hast heard of me [1]among many witnesses, [b]the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.

3 Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jē'sus Chrīst.

4 No [c]man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

5 And if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully.

6 [2]The husbandman that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruits.

7 Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jē'sus Chrīst of the [d]seed of Dā'vid [e]was raised from the dead according [f]to my gospel:

9 Wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, even unto bonds; but the word of God is not bound.

10 Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sakes, [g]that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Chrīst Jē'sus with eternal glory.

11 It [h]is a faithful saying: For [i]if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him:

12 If [j]we suffer, we shall also reign with him: [k]if we deny him, he also will deny us: O.Heb.9.22; T.Philem.6.

13 If [l]we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: [m]he cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, [n]charging them before the Lord that [o]they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.

15 Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

16 But [p]shun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness.

17 And their word will eat as doth a [3]canker: of whom is Hȳ-me-næ'us [q]and Phī-lē'tus;

18 Who concerning the truth have erred, saying [r]that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.

19 Nevertheless [s]the foundation of God standeth [4]sure, having this seal, [t]The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Chrīst depart from iniquity. E. Heb. 4.12.

20 But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour.

21 If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work.

22 Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.

23 But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes.

24 And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, [5]patient,

25 In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;

CHAPTER 3.

Wickedness in the last days foretold.

THIS know also, that [a]in the last days perilous times shall come.

2 For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, [b]disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,

3 Without natural affection, truce-breakers, [1]false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good,

4 Traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God;

5 Having a form of godliness, but denying the [c]power thereof: from such turn away. C. 3. 13.

6 For [d]of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts,

7 Ever learning, and never able to [e]come to the knowledge of the truth.

8 Now [f]as Jăn'nēs and Jăm'brēs withstood Mō'sēs, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, [2]reprobate concerning the faith.

9 But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, as [g]their's also was.

10 But [3]thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, charity, patience,

11 Persecutions, afflictions, which came unto me [h]at Ăn'tĭ-ŏch, [i]at Ī-cō'nĭ-ŭm, at Lȳs'trā; what persecutions I endured: [j]but out of them all the Lord delivered me.

12 Yea, and [k]all that will live godly in Chrīst Jē'sus shall suffer persecution.

13 But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived. C. 4. 3, 4.

14 But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them;

15 And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which [l]are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Chrīst Jē'sus. F. Heb. 3. 18, 19.

16 All [m]scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:
17 That [n]the man of God may be perfect, [4]throughly furnished unto all good works. B. Heb. 1. 1, 2.

CHAPTER 4.

Paul's solemn charge to Timothy.

I CHARGE thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom;* J
2 Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, [a]rebuke, exhort with [b]all longsuffering and doctrine.
3 For the time will come when they will not endure [c]sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; C
4 And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and [d]shall be turned unto fables. C. Tit. 1. 15, 16.
5 But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an [e]evangelist, [1]make full proof of thy ministry.
6 For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.
7 I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:
8 Henceforth there is laid up for me [f]a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.
9 Do thy diligence to come shortly unto me:
10 For [g]Dē'mas hath forsaken me, having loved [h]this present world, and is departed unto Thĕs-sa-lō-nī'cā; Crĕs'çens to Gā-lā'tiā, Tī'tus unto Dăl-mā'tiā.

his word through preaching, which is committed unto me [d]according to the commandment of God our Saviour;

4 To [e]Tī'tus, mine own son after the common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst our Saviour.

5 For this cause left I thee in Crēte, that thou shouldest [f]set in order the things that are [2]wanting, and [g]ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee:

6 If any be blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children not accused of riot or unruly.

7 For a bishop must be blameless, as [h]the steward of God; not self-willed, not soon angry, not given to wine, no striker, [i]not given to filthy lucre;

8 But a lover of hospitality, a lover of [3]good men, sober, just, holy, temperate;

9 Holding fast the faithful word [4]as he hath been taught, that he may be able [j]by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers.

10 For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially [k]they of the circumcision:

11 Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert [l]whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.

12 One [m]of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Crē'tī-ans are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

13 This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;

14 Not giving heed to Jew'ish fables, and commandments [n]of men, that turn from the truth.

15 Unto [o]the pure all things are pure: but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

16 They [p]profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work [5]reprobate.

15 These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

CHAPTER 3.

Titus is yet further directed by Paul, both concerning the things he should teach, and not teach.

PUT them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, [a]to be ready to every good work,

2 To [b]speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, shewing all meekness unto all men.

3 For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another. C.Heb.2.15.
4 But after that the kindness and [1]love of God our Saviour toward man appeared,
5 Not [c]by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, [d]by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Hō'lȳ Ghōst; G.Heb.11.6;*
6 Which [e]he shed on us [2]abundantly through Jē'sus Chrīst our Saviour;
7 That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.
8 This is a faithful saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God might be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men.
9 But [f]avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.
10 A man that is an heretick [g]after the first and second [h]admonition reject;
11 Knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sinneth, [i]being condemned of himself.
12 When I shall send Ăr'te-măs unto thee, or [j]Tȳch'ī-cŭs, be diligent to come unto me to Nī-cŏp'o-lĭs: for I have determined there to winter.
13 Bring Zē'nas the lawyer [k]and Ă-pŏl'los on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them.
14 And let our's also learn to [3]maintain good works for necessary uses, that they be [l]not unfruitful.
15 All that are with me salute thee. Greet them that love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Ā-mĕn'.

It was written to Tī'tus, ordained the first bishop of the church of the Crē'tī-ans, from Nī-cŏp'o-lĭs of Măç-e-dō'nĭ-à.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO PHILEMON.

4 Paul's joy in hearing of the faith and love of Philemon. 8 Onesimus intreated for.

PAUL, [a]a prisoner of Jē'sus Chrīst, and Tĭm'o-thȳ our brother, unto Phī-lē'mon our dearly beloved, [b]and fellowlabourer,
2 And to our beloved Ăp'phī-à, and Ăr-chĭp'pus [c]our fellowsoldier, and to the [d]church in thy house:
3 Grace [e]to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst.
4 I [f]thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers,
5 Hearing [g]of thy love and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Jē'sus, and toward all saints;
6 That the communication of thy faith may become effectual by [k]the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Chrīst Jē'sus.†
7 For we have great joy and consolation in thy love, because the bowels of the saints [l]are refreshed by thee, brother.
8 Wherefore, [m]though I might be much bold in Chrīst to enjoin thee that which is convenient,
9 Yet for love's sake I rather beseech thee, being such an one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jē'sus Chrīst.
10 I beseech thee for my [n]son Ō-nĕs'ĭ-mŭs, whom [o]I have begotten in my bonds:
11 Which in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now profitable to thee and to me:
12 Whom I have sent again: thou therefore receive him, that is, mine own bowels:
13 Whom I would have retained with me, that [m]in thy stead he might have ministered unto me in the bonds of the gospel:
14 But without thy mind would I do nothing; [n]that thy benefit should not be as it were of necessity, but willingly.
15 For [o]perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receive him for ever;

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE HEBREWS.

CHAPTER 1.

The essential dignity of the Son, by whom God hath revealed himself in these last days.

B GOD, who at sundry times and in [a]divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets,

2 Hath [b]in these last days spoken unto [c]us by his Son, [d]whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by [e]whom also he made the worlds; B. 4. 12.

3 Who [f]being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, [g]and upholding all things by D the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, [h]sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high; D. 2. 9.

4 Being made so much better than the angels, as [i]he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they.

5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time, [j]Thou art my son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, [k]I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?

6 [l]And again, when he bringeth in [1]the firstbegotten into the world, he saith, And [m]let all the angels of God worship him.

7 And [2]of the angels he saith, Who [n]maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But unto the Son he saith, [o]Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of [3]righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom.

9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, [p]hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

10 And, [q]Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands:

11 They [r]shall perish; but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment;

12 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

13 But to which of the angels said he at any time, [s]Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?

14 Are they not all ministering K spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation? *

Dominion of the world given unto Christ.

THEREFORE we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should [1]let them slip.

2 For if the word spoken by angels was stedfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward;

3 How shall we escape, if we neglect N

so great [a]salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him; H. 6. 2; N. 3. 7–9.

4 God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and [2]gifts of the Hō'lў Ghōst, according to his own will?

5 For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection the world to come, whereof we speak.

6 But one in a certain place testified, saying, [b]What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

7 Thou madest [3]him a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands:

8 Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we see not yet all things put under him.

9 But we see Jē'sus, who was made a little lower than the angels [4]for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man. D. 2. 14–17; W. 5. 9.

10 For [c]it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation [d]perfect through sufferings.

11 For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one: for which cause [e]he is not ashamed to call them brethren,

12 Saying, [f]I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.

13 And again, [g]I will put my trust in him. And again, [h]Behold I and the children which God hath given me.

14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, [i]he also himself likewise took part of the same; [j]that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

15 And deliver them who through [2]fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. C. Jas. 1. 14, 15.

16 For verily [5]he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Ā'brā-hăm.

17 Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made [l]like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people. * D

CHAPTER 3.

Christ is shewed to be more worthy than Moses.

WHEREFORE, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the [a]Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jē'sus;

2 Who was faithful to him that [1]appointed him, as also [b]Mō'sęs was faithful in all his house.

3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Mō'sęs, inasmuch as [c]he who hath builded the house hath more honour than the house.

4 For every house is builded by some man; but [d]he that built all things is God.

5 And Mō'sęs verily was faithful in all his house, as a servant, [e]for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after;

6 But Christ as a son over his own house; whose [f]house are we, if [g]we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end.

7 Wherefore (as [h]the Hō'lў Ghōst saith, [i]To day if ye will hear his voice, N

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years. N. 3. 15.

10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do alway err in their heart; and they have not known my ways.

11 So I sware in my wrath, [2]They shall not enter into my rest.)

12 Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.

13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. T. 13. 15. T

14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end;

15 While it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation. N. 4. 7. N

17 But with whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, [k]whose carcases fell in the wilderness?

F 18 And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not?

19 So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief. F. 4. 3.

CHAPTER 4.

The Christians' rest to be obtained by faith.

LET us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but [1]the word preached did not profit them, [2]not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

F 3 For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, [a]As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. F. 10. 39.

4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, And [b]God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

5 And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and [c]they to whom [3]it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief:

7 Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in Dā'vid, [d]To day, after so

N long a time; as it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts. N. 12. 25.

8 For if [4]Jē'sus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

9 There remaineth therefore a [5]rest to the people of God.

10 For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of [6]unbelief.

D 12 For the word of God is [e]quick,

E and powerful, and sharper than any [f]twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a [g]discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. E. Jas. 1. 21; *

14 Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jē'sus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.

15 For [h]we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but [i]was in all points tempted like as we are, [j]yet without sin.

16 Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

CHAPTER 5.

Of the priesthood of Christ.

FOR every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, [a]that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:

2 Who [1]can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity. L. 8. 12.

3 And [b]by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.

4 And [c]no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was [d]Aâr'on.

5 So [e]also Chrīst glorified not himself to be made an high priest; but he that said unto him, [f]Thou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee.

6 As he saith also in another place, [g]Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Měl-chīs'e-dĕc.

7 Who in the days of his flesh, when he had [h]offered up prayers and supplications with [i]strong crying and tears unto [j]him that was able to save him from death, and was heard [2]in that he feared;

8 Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience [k]by the things which he suffered;

9 And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him; †

10 Called of God an high priest after [l]the order of Měl-chīs'e-dĕc.

11 Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing.

12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat.

13 For every one that useth milk [3]is unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is [m]a babe.

14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are [4]of full age, even those who by reason [5]of use have their senses exercised [n]to discern both good and evil.

CHAPTER 6.

Exhortation to be stedfast in the faith.

THEREFORE leaving [1]the principles of the doctrine of Chrīst, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God,

2 Of [a]the doctrine of baptisms, and [b]of laying on of hands, [c]and of resurrection of the dead, [d]and of eternal judgment. H. 6. 8.

3 And this will we do, [e]if God permit.

4 For [f]it is impossible for [g]those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of [h]the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Hō'lў Ghōst,

5 And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come,

6 If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; [i]seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them [2]by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God:

8 But that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned. H. 10. 26–31.

9 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

10 For [j]God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

11 And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence to [k]the full assurance of hope unto the end:

12 That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit [l]the promises.

13 For when God made promise to Ā'brā-hām, because he could swear by no greater, he [m]sware by himself,

14 Saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee.

15 And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

16 For men verily swear by the greater: and [n]an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife.

17 Wherein God, willing more abundantly to shew unto [o]the heirs of promise [p]the immutability of his counsel, [3]confirmed it by an oath:

18 That by two immutable things, K in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope [q]set before us:

19 Which [r]hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, [s]and which entereth into that within the veil; K, 7. 25.

20 Whither [t]the forerunner is for us entered, even Jē'sus, made an high priest for ever after the order of Měl-chĭs'e-dĕc.

CHAPTER 7.

Christ a priest after the order of Melchisedec.

FOR this [a]Měl-chĭs'e-dĕc, king of Sā'lem, priest of the most high God, who met Ā'brā-hām returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him;

2 To whom also Ā'brā-hām gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Sā'lem, which is, King of peace;

3 Without father, without mother, [1]without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God; abideth a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, unto [b]whom even the patriarch Ā'brā-hām gave the tenth of the spoils.

5 And verily [c]they that are of the sons of Lē'vī, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Ā'brā-hām:

6 But he whose [2]descent is not counted from them received tithes of Ā'brā-hăm, and blessed [d]him that had the promises.

7 And without all contradiction the less is blessed of the better.

8 And here men that die receive tithes; but there he receiveth them, of [e]whom it is witnessed that he liveth.

9 And as I may so say, Lē'vī also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Ā'brā-hăm.

10 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Měl-chĭs'e-dĕc met him.

11 If [f]therefore perfection were by the Lē-vĭt'ĭ-cal priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Měl-chĭs'e-dĕc, and not be called after the order of Aâr'on?

12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

14 For it is evident that [g]our Lord sprang out of Jū'dā; of which tribe Mō'sĕs spake nothing concerning priesthood.

15 And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Měl-chĭs'e-dĕc there ariseth another priest, 16 Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.

17 For he testifieth, [h]Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Měl-chĭs'e-dĕc.

18 For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for [i]the weakness and unprofitableness thereof.

19 For [j]the law made nothing perfect, [3]but the bringing in of [k]a better hope did; by the which [l]we draw nigh unto God.

20 And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest:

21 (For those priests were made [4]without an oath; but this with an oath by him that said unto him, The [m]Lord sware and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Měl-chĭs'e-dĕc:)

22 By so much was Jē'sus made a surety of a better testament.

23 And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death:

24 But this man, because he [n]continueth ever, hath [5]an unchangeable priesthood.

25 Wherefore he is able also to save them [r]to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth [o]to make intercession for them. *

26 For such an high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, [p]and made higher than the heavens;

27 Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, [q]first for his own sins, [r]and then for the people's: for this [s]he did once, when he offered up himself. D. 9. 7.

28 For the law maketh [t]men high priests which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, who [u]is [7]consecrated for evermore.

CHAPTER 8.

The excellency of Christ's priesthood.

NOW of the things which we have spoken this is the sum: We have such an high priest, who [a]is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens;

2 A minister [1]of the sanctuary, and of the [b]true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

3 For every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it [c]is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.

4 For if he were on earth, he should not be a priest, seeing that [2]there are priests that offer gifts according to the law:

5 Who serve unto the example and [d]shadow of heavenly things, as Mō'sĕs was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle: [e]for, See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now [f]hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better [3]covenant, which was established upon better promises.

7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.

8 For finding fault with them, he saith, [g]Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Ĭs'ra-el and with the house of Jū'dah:

9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day

* K. 8. 10–12.

when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Ĕ'gўpt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Ĭs'ra-ĕl after those days, saith the Lord; I will [4]put my laws into their mind, and write them [5]in their hearts: and [h]I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:

11 And [i]they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more. K. 9. 13, 14; L. 10. 17.

13 In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away.

CHAPTER 9.

1 By the imperfection of the legal sacrifices, 11 he sheweth the efficacy of Christ's blood.

THEN verily the first covenant had also [1]ordinances of divine service, and [a]a worldly sanctuary.

2 For [b]there was a tabernacle made; the first, wherein was the candlestick, and the [c]table, and the shewbread; which is called [2]the sanctuary.

3 And [d]after the second veil, the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of all;

4 Which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was [e]the golden pot that had manna, [f]and Aâr'on's rod that budded, and [g]the tables of the covenant;

5 And [h]over it the cherubims of glory shadowing the mercyseat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ordained, [i]the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God.

7 But into the second went the high priest alone [j]once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people: D. 9. 11, 12.

8 The [k]Hō'lў Ghōst this signifying, that the [l]way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing:

10 Which stood only in [n]meats and drinks, and [o]divers washings, [p]and carnal [3]ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.

11 But Chrīst being come an high priest of [q]good things to come, [r]by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building;

12 Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but [s]by his own blood he entered in [t]once into the holy place, having [u]obtained eternal redemption for us. D. 9. 14, 15.

13 For [v]if the blood of bulls and of goats, and [w]the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh:

14 How much more [x]shall the blood of Chrīst, [y]who through the eternal Spirit offered [z]himself without [4]spot to God, purge [a]your conscience from dead [b]works [c]to serve the living God? K. 13. 5, 6.

15 And [d]for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, that [e]by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they [f]which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance. D. 9. 22.

16 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity [5]be the death of the testator.

17 For [g]a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.

18 Whereupon [h]neither the first testament was [6]dedicated without blood.

19 For when Mō'ses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, [i]with water, and [7]scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people,

20 Saying, [j]This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you.

21 Moreover [k]he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without [v]shedding of blood is no remission.*

23 It was therefore necessary that the [m]patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

24 For [n]Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to [o]appear in the presence of God for us:

25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others;

26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once [p]in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

27 And [q]as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment: J. 10. 30.

28 So [r]Christ was once [s]offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear [t]the second time without sin unto salvation. D. 10. 12.

CHAPTER 10.

1 The law sacrifices ineffectual to take away sins.
10 By the offering of Christ's body once for all we obtain perfect remission.

FOR the law having [a]a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect.

2 For then [1]would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins.

3 But [b]in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year.

4 For [c]it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

5 Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, [d]Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body [2]hast thou prepared me:

6 In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God.

8 Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law;

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 By [e]the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jē'sus Chrīst once for all.

11 And every priest standeth [f]daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins:

12 But [g]this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God; D. 12. 24.

13 From henceforth expecting till [h]his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

15 Whereof [i]the Hō'lў Ghōst also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before,

16 This [j]is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;

17 [3]And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more. L. 13. 8.

18 Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

19 Having therefore, brethren, [4]boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jē'sus,

20 By [k]a new and living way, which he hath [5]consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh;

21 And having an high priest over [l]the house of God;

22 Let us draw near with a true heart [m]in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our [n]bodies washed with pure water.

23 Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he [o]is faithful that promised;)

24 And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works:

25 Not [p]forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and [q]so much the more, as ye see [r]the day approaching.

26 For [s]if we sin wilfully [t]after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins,

38 Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him.

F H 39 But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition; but of them that believe to the saving of the soul.*

CHAPTER 11.

The nature and fruits of faith.

NOW faith is the [1]substance of things hoped for, the evidence [2]of things not seen.

2 For by it the elders obtained a good report.

3 Through faith we understand that the worlds [b]were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

4 By faith [c]Ā'bĕl offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cāin, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead [2]yet speaketh.

5 By faith [d]Ē'nŏch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

F G 6 But [e][3]without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him. F. 1 Pet. 1. 8, 9;†

7 By faith [f]Nō'ah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, [3]moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of [g]the righteousness which is by faith.

8 By faith Ā'bră-hăm, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in [h]tabernacles with Ī'saac and Jā'cob, the heirs with him of the same promise:

10 For he looked for a city which hath foundations, [i]whose builder and maker is God.

11 Through faith also [j]Sā'rā herself received strength to conceive seed, and [k]was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised.

12 Therefore sprang there even of one, and [l]him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.

13 These all died [4]in faith, not having received the promises, but having [m]seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and [n]confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things declare [o]plainly that they seek a country.

15 And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might 16 But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed [r]to be called their God: for [q]he hath prepared for them a city.

17 By faith [r]Ā'brā-hăm, when he was tried, offered up Ī'ṣaac: and he that had received the promises offered [s]up his only begotten son,

21 By faith Jā'cob, when he was a dying, blessed [v]both the sons of Jō'ṣeph; and worshipped, [w]leaning upon the top of his staff.

22 By faith [x]Jō'ṣeph, when he died, [6]made mention of the departing of the children of Ĭṣ'ra-el; and gave commandment concerning his bones.

23 By faith [y]Mō'ṣes, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's [z]commandment.

24 By faith Mō'ṣes, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Phā'raōh's daughter;

25 Choosing [a]rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;

26 Esteeming the reproach [7]of Chrīst greater riches than the treasures in Ē'ġўpt: for he had respect unto the recompence of the reward.

27 By faith [b]he forsook Ē'ġўpt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible.

28 Through faith [c]he kept the passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the firstborn should touch them.

29 By faith they passed through the Red sea as by dry land: which the Ē-ġўp'tiaṇs assaying to do were drowned.

30 By faith [d]the walls of Jĕr'ĭ-chō fell down, after they were compassed about seven days.

31 By faith [e]the harlot Rā'hăb perished not with them [8]that believed not, when she had received the spies with peace.

32 And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of [f]Ġĕd'e-on, and of [g]Bā'răk, and of [h]Săm'son, and of [i]Jĕph'tha-ē; of [j]Dā'vid also, and [k]Săm'u-el, and of the prophets:

33 Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped [l]the mouths of lions,

34 Quenched [m]the violence of fire, escaped the [n]edge of the sword, [o]out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned [p]to flight the armies of the aliens.

35 Women [q]received their dead raised to life again: and others were [r]tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection:

36 And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover [s]of bonds and imprisonment:

37 They [t]were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: [u]they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;

38 (Of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and [v]in dens and caves of the earth.

39 And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise:

40 God having [9]provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be [w]made perfect.

Exhortation to faith and godliness.

WHEREFORE seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,

2 Looking [a]unto Jē'ṣus the [1]author and finisher of our faith; [b]who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, [c]and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 For [d]consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest [e]ye be wearied and faint in your minds.

unto children, My [f]son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him:
6 For [g]whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.
7 If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?
8 But if ye be without chastisement, whereof [h]all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.
9 Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?
10 For they verily for a few days chastened us [2]after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that [i]we might be partakers of his holiness.
11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth [j]the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.
12 Wherefore [k]lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;
13 And make [3]straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; [l]but let it rather be healed.
14 Follow peace with all men, and holiness, [m]without which no man shall see the Lord: O. 1 John 5. 12.
15 Looking diligently lest any man [4]fail of the grace of God; lest [n]any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;
16 Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Ē'sau, [o]who for one morsel of meat sold his birthright.
17 For ye know how that afterward, when he [p]would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no [5]place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.
18 For ye are not come unto [q]the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest,
19 And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which voice they that heard intreated that [r]the word should not be spoken to them any more:
20 (For they could not endure that which was commanded, And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart:
21 And so terrible was the sight, that Mō'sĕs said, I exceedingly fear and quake:)
22 But ye are come [s]unto mount SĪ'ŏn, and [t]unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm, [u]and to an innumerable company of angels,
23 To the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are [6]written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men [v]made perfect, J. Jas. 2. 12.
24 And to Jē'sus the mediator of the new [7]covenant, and to [w]the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than [x]that of Ā'bĕl. D. 13. 12.
25 See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him [y]that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven: *
26 Whose [z]voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, [a]Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.
27 And this word, Yet once more, signifieth [b]the removing of those things that [8]are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.
28 Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, [9]let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear:
29 For [c]our God is a consuming fire.

CHAPTER 1.

The apostle exhorts to patience in affliction.

JĀMES, [a]a servant of God and of the Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, [b]to the twelve tribes which [c]are scattered abroad, greeting.
2 My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations;
3 Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience.
4 But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.
5 If [d]any of you lack wisdom, let [e]him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not;
and [f]it shall be given him.
6 But [g]let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.
7 For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.

8 A double minded man is unstable in all his ways.

9 Let the brother of low degree [1]rejoice in that he is exalted:

10 But the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.

11 For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

12 Blessed [h]is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the [i]crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

13 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with [2]evil, neither tempteth he any man:

14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

15 Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death. *

16 Do not err, my beloved brethren.

17 Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with [j]whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

18 Of [3]his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits [k]of his creatures.

19 Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath:

20 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.

21 Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, [m]which is able to save your souls. B. 1 Pet. 1. 10, 11; K. 4. 12.

22 But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

23 For [n]if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass:

24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

25 But [o]whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this [p]man shall be blessed in his [3]deed.

26 If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.

27 Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To [q]visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, [r]and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

CHAPTER 2.

1 We must not regard the rich, and despise the poor. 10 The guilt of any one breach of the law. 14 Of faith without works.

MY brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, [a]the Lord of glory, with [b]respect of persons.

2 For if there come unto your [1]assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment;

3 And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here [2]in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

4 Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?

5 Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath [c]not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of [3]the kingdom [d]which he hath promised to them that love him?

6 But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment seats?

7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by the which ye are called?

8 If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, [e]Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well:

9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he [f]is guilty of all.

11 For [4]he that said, [g]Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty.

14 What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?

15 If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

16 And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?

17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being [6]alone.

18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith [7]without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

19 Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the [h]devils also believe, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith [i]without works is dead?

21 Was not Ā'brā-hăm our father justified by works, [j]when he had offered Ĭ'şaac his son upon the altar?

22 [8]Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

23 And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, [k]Ā'brā-hăm believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called [l]the Friend of God.

24 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

25 Likewise also [m]was not Rā'hăb the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the [9]spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

CHAPTER 3.

1 We must not rashly or arrogantly reprove others: 2 the importance of governing the tongue. 13 How true wisdom will manifest itself, in opposition to strife and envy.

MY brethren, [a]be not many masters, knowing [b]that we shall receive the greater [1]condemnation.

2 For [c]in many things we offend all. [d]If any man offend not in word, [e]the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

3 Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.

4 Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth.

5 Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great [2]a matter a little fire kindleth!

6 And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that [f]it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the [3]course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For every [4]kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of [5]mankind:

8 But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.

9 Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, which are [g]made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doth a fountain send forth at the same [6]place sweet water and bitter?

12 Can the fig tree, my brethren, bear olive berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.

13 Who [h]is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shew out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom.

14 But if ye have [i]bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth.

15 This [j]wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, [7]sensual, devilish.

16 For [k]where envying and strife is, there is [8]confusion and every evil work.

17 But [l]the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, [9]without partiality, [m]and without hypocrisy.

18 And [n]the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace.

3 Ye [b]ask, and receive not, [c]because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your [4]lusts.

4 Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that [d]the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever [e]therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.

C 5 Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, [f]The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth [5]to envy?*

6 But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, [g]God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. [h]Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

14 Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? [6]It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away. N. Rev. 10. 5, 6.

15 For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that.

16 But now ye rejoice in your boastings: all such rejoicing is evil.

17 Therefore [k]to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Wicked rich men warned of God's judgments. 7 Of patience. 13 We ought to pray in adversity.

GO to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

2 Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are motheaten.

3 Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. [a]Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days.

4 Behold, [b]the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and [c]the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of săb'a-ŏth.

5 Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.

6 Ye have condemned and killed the just; and he doth not resist you.

7 [1]Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive [d]the early and latter rain.

8 Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for [e]the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

J 9 [2]Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the judge [f]standeth before the door. J. 1 Pet. 4. 5.

10 Take, [g]my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience.

11 Behold, we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of the [h]patience of Jōb, and have seen [i]the end of the Lord; [j]that the Lord L ‡ is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.

12 But above all things, my brethren, swear [k]not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation.

13 Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing psalms.

14 Is any sick among you? let him call for the [l]elders of the church; and let them pray over him, [m]anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord:

15 And the prayer of faith shall

‡ L. 2 Pet. 3. 9.

save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; [n]and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.

16 Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual [o]fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

17 Ē-lī'as was a man subject to like passions as we are, and [p]he prayed [3]earnestly that it might not rain: and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months.

18 And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

19 Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him;

20 Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall [q]save a soul from death, and [r]shall hide a multitude of sins.

CHAPTER 1.

1 The apostle's address; 3 he blesseth God for their hope of a blessed immortality: 10 he sheweth that their salvation in Christ had been foretold by the prophets of old; 13 he exhorteth them to godliness.

PĒ'TĒR, an apostle of Jē'sus Chrīst, to the strangers [a]scattered throughout Pŏn'tus, Gā-lā'tiā, Căp-pa-dō'çi-ā, Ā'sĭa, and Bī-thȳn'ī-ā,

2 Elect [b]according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through [c]sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling [d]of the blood of Jē'sus Chrīst: Grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied. *

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jē'sus Chrīst, which according to his [1]abundant mercy hath [e]begotten us again unto a lively hope by [f]the resurrection of Jē'sus Chrīst from the dead,

4 To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven [2]for you,

K 5 Who [g]are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. K, 2. 6.

6 Wherein [h]ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations:

7 That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though [i]it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jē'sus Chrīst:

F 8 Whom [j]having not seen, ye love; [k]in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory:

9 Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls. †

10 Of [l]which salvation the prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you:

11 Searching what, or what manner of time [m]the Spirit of Chrīst which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand [n]the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow. B. 2 Pet. 1, 19–21.

12 Unto [o]whom it was revealed, that not unto [p]themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with [q]the Hō'lȳ Ghōst sent down from heaven; which [r]things the angels desire to look into.

13 Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope [3]to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at [s]the revelation of Jē'sus Chrīst;

14 As obedient children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance:

15 But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation;

16 Because it is written, [t]Be ye holy; for I am holy.

17 And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's be disobedient, [i]the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,

8 And [j]a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: [k]whereunto also they were appointed.

9 But ye are [l]a chosen generation, a [m]royal priesthood, [n]an holy nation, [3]a peculiar people; that ye should T shew forth the [4]praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light: T. 1 John 4. 15.

10 Which [o]in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul;

12 Having your conversation honest among the Gĕn'tīles: that, [5]whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God [p]in the day of visitation.

13 Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme;

14 Or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers, and for the praise of them that do well.

15 For so is the will of God, that with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:

16 As free, and not [6]using your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness, but as the servants of God.

17 [7]Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king.

18 Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.

19 For this is [8]thankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully.

20 For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is [9]acceptable with God.

21 For even hereunto were ye called: because Chrīst also suffered [10]for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps:

22 Who [q]did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth:

23 Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but [11]committed himself to him that judgeth righteously:

D K 24 Who his own self bare our sins in his own body [12]on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: [s]by whose stripes ye were healed. D. 3. 18; K. 5. 7.

C 25 For [t]ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned [u]unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls. C. 4. 2, 3.

CHAPTER 3.

1 He teacheth the duty of wives and husbands, 8 exhorting all men to unity and love, 14 and to suffer boldly for righteousness' sake: 19 he declareth also the benefits of Christ toward the old world.

LIKEWISE, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, they [a]also may without the word be [b]won by the conversation of the wives;

2 While they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear.

3 Whose [c]adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel;

4 But let it be [d]the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

5 For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands:

6 Even as Sā'rà obeyed Ā'brā-hăm, calling him [e]lord: whose [1]daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

7 Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; [f]that your prayers be not hindered.

8 Finally, be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, [2]love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous:

9 Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, [g]that ye should inherit a blessing.

10 For [h]he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile:

11 Let him eschew evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and ensue it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, [i]and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is [3]against them that do evil.

13 And [j]who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good?

14 But [k]and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye: and be [l]not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled;

15 But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and [m]be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and [4]fear:

16 Having a good conscience; that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evildoers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Chrīst.

17 For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye [n]suffer for well doing, than for evil doing.

18 For Chrīst also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death [o]in the flesh, but [p]quickened by the Spirit:*

19 By [q]which also he went and preached unto the spirits [r]in prison;

20 Which sometime were disobedient, when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Nō'ah, while the ark [s]was a preparing, [t]wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water.

21 The [u]like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Jē'sus Chrīst:

22 Who is gone into heaven, and is [v]on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

CHAPTER 4.

1 He exhorteth them to cease from sin by the example of Christ. 7 By the approaching end of all things he exhorteth them to sobriety, charity, etc. 12 Sundry motives of comfort under persecution.

FORASMUCH then as Chrīst hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he [a]that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin:

2 That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the

* D. 1 John 1. 7.

lusts of men, but to the will of God.

3 For the time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gĕn'tīles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries: C. 2 Pet. 2. 12–19.

4 Wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you:

5 Who shall give account to him that is ready [b]to judge the quick and the dead. J. 2 Pet. 2. 4.

6 For for this cause [c]was the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

7 But [d]the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer.

8 And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for [e]charity [1]shall cover the multitude of sins.

9 Use hospitality one to another [f]without grudging.

10 As [g]every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.

11 If [h]any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that [i]God in all things may be glorified through Jē'sus Chrīst, [j]to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Ā-mĕn'.

12 Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you:

13 But rejoice, inasmuch as [k]ye are partakers of Chrīst's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.

14 If [l]ye be reproached for the name of Chrīst, happy are ye; for the [m]spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a busybody in other men's matters.

16 Yet if any man suffer as a Chrĭs'tian, let him not be ashamed; but [n]let him glorify God on this behalf.

17 For the time is come [o]that judgment must begin at the house of God: and [p]if it first begin at us, what [q]shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?

18 And [r]if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear? H. 2 Pet. 2. 1.

19 Wherefore let them that suffer according to the will of God [s]commit the keeping of their souls to him in well doing, as unto a faithful Creator.

CHAPTER 5.

1 The elders exhorted to feed the flock of Christ; 5 the younger to obey the elder; 8 and all to be sober, watchful, and stedfast in the faith: 9 to resist the cruel adversary the devil, etc.

THE elders which are among you I exhort, who am [a]also an elder, and [b]a witness of the sufferings of Chrīst, and also [c]a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed:

2 Feed [d]the flock of God [1]which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind;

3 Neither as [2]being lords [e]over God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock.

4 And when [f]the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away.

5 Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, all [g]of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth [h]grace to the humble.

6 Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time: * R

7 Casting [i]all your care upon him; for he careth for you. K. 2 Pet. 1. 4. K

8 Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour:

9 Whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.

10 But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Chrīst Jē'sus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you.

11 To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Ā-mĕn'.

PETER.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Saluting the Christians, he admonisheth them of the gifts and promises of the gospel: 5 he exhorteth them to add to their faith such virtues as would make it fruitful: 12 he remembereth them hereof, knowing his dissolution to be near.

SĪ'MON PĒ'TĒR, a servant and an apostle of Jē'sus Chrĭst, to them that have obtained [a] like precious faith with us through the righteousness [1] of God and our Saviour Jē'sus Chrĭst:

2 Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jē'sus our Lord,

3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through [b] the knowledge of him that [c] hath called us [2] to glory and virtue:

K 4 Whereby [d] are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might [e] be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. K. 1. 10.

5 And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and [f] to virtue knowledge;

6 And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness;

7 And to godliness brotherly kindness; and [g] to brotherly kindness charity.

8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be [3] barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jē'sus Chrĭst.

9 But he that lacketh these things [h] is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was [i] purged from his old sins.

K 10 Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence [j] to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall: K. 2. 9, 10.

11 For [k] so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jē'sus Chrĭst.

12 Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the present truth.

13 Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance;

14 Knowing [l] that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as our [m] Lord Jē'sus Chrĭst hath shewed me.

15 Moreover I will endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance.

16 For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jē'sus Chrĭst, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty.

17 For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This [n] is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in [o] the holy mount.

19 We have also a more [p] sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the [q] day star arise in your hearts:

20 Knowing this first, that [r] no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation.

21 For [s] the prophecy came not [4] in old time by the will of man: but [t] holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Hō'lў Ghōst. B. 1 John 5. 3.

CHAPTER 2.

1 He foretelleth them of the appearance of false teachers, the impiety of them and their followers, and the judgments that would overtake them. 7 The godly shall be delivered, as Lot was out of Sodom. 10 The manners of those profane and blasphemous seducers described.

BUT [a]there were false prophets also among the people, even as [b]there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord [c]that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. *

2 And many shall follow their [1]pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

3 And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

4 For if God spared not [d]the angels [e]that sinned, but [f]cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment; J. 2. 9.

5 And spared not the old world, but saved Nō'ah [g]the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly;

6 And [h]turning the cities of Sŏd'om and Gō-mŏr'rhā into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly;

7 And delivered just Lŏt, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked:

8 (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds;)

9 The [i]Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished:

10 But chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise [2]government. Presumptuous are they, self-willed, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities.

11 Whereas [j]angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation [3]against them before the Lord.

12 But these, [k]as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption;

13 And [l]shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure [m]to riot in the day time. Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings while they [n]feast with you;

14 Having eyes full of [4]adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children:

15 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of [o]Bā'laam the son of Bō-sôr, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;

16 But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass speaking with man's voice forbad the madness of the prophet.

17 These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever. H. 3. 7.

18 For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that [p]were [5]clean escaped from them who live in error.

19 While they promise [q]them liberty, they themselves are [r]the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage. C. 2. 22

20 For [s]if after they have [t]escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jē'sus Chrīst, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.

21 For [u]it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them.

22 But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, [v]The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire. C. 3. 3. 4.

CHAPTER 3.

Of Christ's coming to judgment.

JOHN.

CHAPTER 1.

He describeth the person of Christ.

3 That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and [f]truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jē'sus Chrīst.

4 And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full.

5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God [g]is light, and in him is no darkness at [2]all.

6 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:

7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jē'sus Chrīst his Son cleanseth us from all sin. D. 2.2; K. 4. 4.

8 If [h]we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. A. 1. 10.

10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. A. 2. 15, 16.

CHAPTER 2.

Christ our advocate and propitiation.

MY little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, [a]we have an advocate with the Father, Jē'sus Chrīst the righteous: P. 5. 16.

2 And [b]he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for our's only, but [c]also for the sins of the whole world.*

3 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.

4 He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But whoso [d]keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him.

6 He [e]that saith he abideth in him ought himself [f]also so to walk, even as he walked.

7 Brethren, [g]I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment which [h]ye had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

8 Again, [i]a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you: [j]because the darkness is past, and the [k]true light now shineth.

9 He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now.

10 He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and [l]there is none [1]occasion of stumbling in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, [m]and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

12 I write unto you, little children, because [n]your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.

13 I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him [o]that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father.

14 I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because [p]ye are strong, and [q]the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

15 Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If [r]any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. A

16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, [s]and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. †

17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God [t]abideth for ever.

18 Little children, [u]it is the last time: and as ye have heard [v]that antichrist shall come, [w]even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time.

19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for [x]if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that [y]they might be made manifest that they were not all of us.

20 But [z]ye have an unction [a]from the Holy One, and [b]ye know all things.

21 I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jē'sus is the Chrīst? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son. A

23 Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: [but] [c]he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also. A. 4. 3.

24 Let that therefore abide in you, which ye [d]have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, [e]ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.

CHAPTER 3.

Of God's love toward us, etc.

BEHOLD, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that [a]we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, [b]because it knew him not.
2 Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and [c]it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we [d]shall be like him; for [e]we shall see him as he is.
3 And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.
4 Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law.
D 5 And ye know that he was manifested to [f]take away our sins; and [g]in him is no sin. D. 3. 16.
6 Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him.
7 Little children, let no man deceive you: he [h]that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous.
C 8 He [i]that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, [j]that he * might destroy the works of the devil.
9 Whosoever [k]is born of God doth not commit sin; for [l]his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.
10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.
11 For this is the [1]message that ye heard from the beginning, [m]that we should love one another.
12 Not as [n]Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.
13 Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you.
14 We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death.
15 Whosoever [o]hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no [p]murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.
16 Hereby [q]perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. D. 4. 9, 10;†
17 But [r]whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?
18 My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth.
19 And hereby we know [s]that we are of the truth, and shall [2]assure our hearts before him.
20 For if our heart condemn us, E God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things. E. Rev. 2. 23.
21 Beloved, [t]if our heart condemn us not, [u]then have we confidence toward God.
22 And [v]whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, [w]and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.
23 And this is his commandment, F That we should believe on the name of his Son Jē'sus Chrīst, and love one another, as he gave us commandment. F. 5. 1.
24 And he that keepeth his commandments [x]dwelleth in him, and he in him. And [y]hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

CHAPTER 4.

We must not believe all teachers.

BELOVED, [a]believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many [b]false prophets are gone out into the world.

† L. 4. 8–10.

Jē'sus Chrīst is come in the flesh is of God:

3 And [d]every spirit that confesseth not that Jē'sus Chrīst is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world. *

4 Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he [e]that is in the world. K. 5. 4, 5.

5 They [f]are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, [g]and the world heareth them.

6 We are of God: [h]he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we [i]the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7 Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not knoweth not God; for [j]God is love.

9 In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.

10 Herein is love, [k]not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. D. Rev. 1. 5; L. Rev. 1. 5.

11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

12 No [l]man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us.

13 Hereby [m]know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.

14 And [n]we have seen and do testify that the [o]Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

15 Whosoever [p]shall confess that Jē'sus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.†

16 And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is [1]our love made perfect, that we [q]may have boldness in the day of judgment: [r]because as he is, so are we in this world. J Jude 6.

18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.

19 We love him, because he first loved us.

20 If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?

21 And [s]this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also.

CHAPTER 5.

Of keeping God's commandments.

WHOSOEVER [a]believeth that Jē'sus [b]is the Chrīst is born of God: [c]and every one that loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him. F. 5. 4, 5; W. 5. 9, 10

2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments.

3 For [d]this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and [e]his commandments are not grievous. ‡

4 For [f]whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but [g]he that believeth that Jē'sus is the Son of God? §

6 This is he that came [h]by water and blood, even Jē'sus Chrīst; not by water only, but by water and blood. And [i]it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.

7 For there [j]are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, [k]the Word, and the Hō'lў Ghōst: [l]and these three are one.

8 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

9 If we receive [m]the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for [n]this is the witness of God which he hath testified of his Son.

10 He that believeth on the Son of God hath [o]the witness in himself: he that believeth not God hath [p]made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son.

11 And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and [q]this life is in his Son.

12 He [r]that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life. A. 5. 19; O. 2 John 9.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF

JOHN.

An exhortation to perseverance.

THE [a]elder unto the elect lady and her children, [b]whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all they that have known the [c]truth;

2 For the truth's sake, which dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever.

3 Grace [1]be with you, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jē′sus Chrīst, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

4 I rejoiced greatly that I found of thy children [d]walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father.

5 And now I beseech thee, lady, not [e]as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that which we had from the beginning, that [f]we love one another.

6 And [g]this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, That, [h]as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF

JOHN.

Gaius commended for his piety, etc.

THE elder unto the [a]wellbeloved Gā'ius, whom I love [1]in the truth.

2 Beloved, I [2]wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.

3 For I rejoiced greatly, when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as [b]thou walkest in the truth.

4 I have no greater joy than to hear that my [c]children walk in truth.

5 Beloved, thou [d]doest faithfully whatsoever thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers;

6 Which have borne witness of thy charity before the church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey [3]after a godly sort, thou shalt do well:

7 Because that for his name's sake they went forth, [e]taking nothing of the Gĕn'tīleṣ.

8 We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellowhelpers to the truth.

9 Yet [m]Mī'chaël the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the [n]body of Mō'ṣes, [o]durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The [p]Lord rebuke thee.

10 But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.

H 14 And Ē'nŏch also, [w]the seventh from Ăd'ăm, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the [z]Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints,

15 To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him. H, Rev. 1, 7.

16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having [y]men's persons in admiration because of advantage.

17 But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst;

18 How that they told you there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts. C

19 These be they [z]who separate themselves, sensual, having not the Spirit. C.

20 But ye, beloved, [a]building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in [b]the Hō'lў Ghōst,

21 Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jē'ṣus Chrīst unto eternal life.

22 And of some have compassion, making a difference:

23 And others [c]save with fear, pulling [d]them out of the fire; hating even the [e]garment spotted by the flesh.

24 Now [f]unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and [g]to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, K *

9 I Jŏhn, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and [q]in the kingdom and patience of Jē'sus Chrīst, was in the isle that is called Păt'mos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jē'sus Chrīst.

10 I [r]was in the Spirit on [s]the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet,

11 Saying, I am Ăl'phā and Ō-mē'gȧ, the first and the last: and, What thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Ā'sĭȧ; unto Ĕph'e-sŭs, and unto Smȳr'nȧ, and unto Pēr'ga-mŏs, and unto Thȳ-a-tī'rȧ, and unto Sär'dĭs, and unto Phĭl-a-dĕl'phĭ-ȧ, and unto Lā-ŏd-ĭ-çē'ȧ.

12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, [t]I saw seven golden candlesticks;

13 And in the midst of the seven candlesticks [u]one like unto the Son of man, clothed [v]with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

14 His head and [w]his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and [x]his eyes were as a flame of fire:

15 And [y]his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; [z]and his voice as the sound of many waters.

16 And he had in his right hand seven stars: and [a]out of his mouth went a sharp twoedged sword: and [b]his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

17 And [c]when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And [d]he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; [e]I am the first and the last:

19 Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter;

20 The mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are [h]the angels of the seven churches: and the [i]seven candlesticks which thou sawest are the seven churches.

CHAPTER 2.

Christ's message to the churches.

UNTO the angel of the church of [a]Ĕph'e-sŭs write; These things saith [b]he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks;

2 I [c]know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and thou [d]hast tried them [e]which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars:

3 And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast [f]not fainted.

4 Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love.

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; [g]or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent. R. 2. 16 R

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nĭc-o-lā'ĭ-tanes, which I also hate.

7 He [h]that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give [i]to eat of [j]the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.

8 And unto the angel of the church in Smȳr'nȧ write; These things saith [k]the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive;

9 I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou [l]art rich) and I know the blasphemy of [m]them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Sā'tan.

10 Fear [n]none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be [c]thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee [z]a crown of life.

* L. 3. 20. † H. 2. 27. ‡ K.; O. 3. 17, 18.

11 He [q]that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the [r]second death.

12 And to the angel of the church in Pēr'ga-mŏs write; These things saith he [s]which hath [t]the sharp sword with two edges;

13 I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Sā'tan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Ăn'tĭ-păs was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, [u]where Sā'tan dwelleth.

14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of [v]Bā'laam, who taught Bā'lăc to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Ĭs'ra-el, [w]to eat things sacrificed unto idols, [x]and to commit fornication.

15 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nĭc-o-lā'ĭ-tanes, which thing I hate.

R 16 Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and [y]will fight against them with the sword of my mouth:*

17 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone [z]a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.

18 And unto the angel of the church in Thў-a-tī'rà write; These things saith the Son of God, who [a]hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass;

19 I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last to be more than the first.

20 Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman [b]Jĕz'e-bĕl, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.

R 21 And I gave her space [c]to repent of her fornication; and she repented not.

CHAPTER 3.

What John was commanded to write to the angels of the churches of 1 Sardis, 7 Philadelphia, 14 and Laodicea.

AND unto the angel of the church in Sär'dĭs write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, [a]and art dead.

2 Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

3 Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. [b]If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

4 Thou hast [c]a few names even in Sär'dĭs which have not [d]defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me [e]in white: for they are worthy.

5 He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will [f]not blot out his name out of the book [g]of life, but [h]I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

6 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

7 And to the angel of the church in Phĭl-a-dĕl'phĭ-à write; These things saith he [e]that is holy, [f]he that is true, he that hath [g]the key of Dā'vid, [h]he that openeth, and no man shutteth; [m]and shutteth, and no man openeth;

8 I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee [n]an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

9 Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Sā'tan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, [o]I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, [p]I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.

11 Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.

12 Him that overcometh will I make [q]a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and [r]I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new [s]Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: [t]and I will write upon him my new name.

13 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

14 And unto the angel of the church [1]of the Lā-ŏd-ĭ-çē'ans write; These things saith the [u]Ā-mĕn', the faithful and true [v]witness, [w]the beginning of the creation of God;

15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.

H 16 So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.*

O 17 Because thou sayest, [x]I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:

18 I counsel thee [y]to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; [z]and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see. O. 20. 15.

19 As [a]many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.

L W 20 Behold, [b]I stand at the door, and knock: if [c]any man hear my voice, and open the door, [d]I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me. L. 21. 6; W. 21. 6.

21 To him that overcometh [e]will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

22 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAPTER 4.

John's vision of God's throne.

AFTER this I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter.

2 And immediately [a]I was in the spirit: and, behold, [b]a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne.

3 And he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone: [c]and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald.

4 And round about the throne were four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold.

5 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunderings and voices: [c]and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God.

6 And before the throne there was a [e]sea of glass like unto crystal: and [f]in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four beasts full of eyes before and behind.

7 And [g]the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.

8 And the four beasts had each of them six [h]wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and [1]they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.

9 And when those beasts give glory

CHAPTER 5.

The book with the seven seals, etc.

AND I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne [a]a book written within and on the backside, sealed with [b]seven seals.

2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?

3 And [c]no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.

4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon.

5 And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, [d]the Lion of the tribe of Jū'dà, [e]the Root of Dā'vid, hath [f]prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof.

6 And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a [g]Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven [h]eyes, which are [i]the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth.

7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne.

8 And when he had taken the book, the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of [j]them harps, and golden vials full of [1]odours, [k]which are the prayers of saints.

9 And [l]they sung a new song, saying, [m]Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast [n]redeemed us to God by thy blood [o]out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation; D. 7. 14.

10 And [p]hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.

11 And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was [q]ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands;

12 Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

13 And [r]every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, [s]Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, [t]and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.

14 And the four beasts said, Ā-mĕn'. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever.

CHAPTER 6.

The opening of six of the seals in order.

AND I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four beasts saying, Come and see.

2 And I saw, and behold [a]a white horse: and [b]he that sat on him had a bow; [c]and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

3 And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 And [d]there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo a [e]black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, [1]A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and [f]see thou hurt not the oil and the wine.

7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given [2]unto them over the fourth part of the earth, [g]to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, [h]and with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under [i]the altar the [j]souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for [k]the testimony which they held:

10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, [l]How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that [m]they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, [n]and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the [o]sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood;

13 And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her [3]untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind.

14 And [p]the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain [q]and island were moved out of their places.

H 15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, [r]hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains;

16 And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and [s]rom the wrath of the Lamb:

17 For [t]the great day of his wrath is come; and [t]who shall be able to stand? H. 8. 7–12.

2 And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea,

3 Saying, [d]Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed [e]the servants of our God in [f]their foreheads.

4 And [g]I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed an [h]hundred and forty and four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Iṣ'ra-el.

5 Of the tribe of Jū'dȧ were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reu'ben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Găd were sealed twelve thousand.

6 Of the tribe of Ā'sẽr were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Nĕph'tha-lĭm were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Mā-năs'sēṣ were sealed twelve thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Sĭm'e-on were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Lē'vī were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Iṣ'sa-char were sealed twelve thousand.

8 Of the tribe of Zăb'u-lŏn were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Jō'seph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Bĕn'ja-mĭn were sealed twelve thousand.

9 After this I beheld, and, lo, [i]a great multitude, which no man could number, [j]of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, [k]clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands;

10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation [l]to our God [m]which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.

11 And [n]all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God,

12 Saying, [o]Ā-mĕn': Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Ā-mĕn'.

13 And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they?

14 And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These [p]are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed [q]their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. D. 12. 11

15 Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell [r]among them.

16 They [s]shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; [t]neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat.

17 For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne [u]shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God [v]shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

CHAPTER 8.

1 The seventh seal opened. 6 Great plagues.

AND when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.

2 And [a]I saw the seven angels which stood before God; [b]and to them were given seven trumpets.

3 And another [c]angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much [d]incense, that he should [1]offer it with [e]the prayers of all saints upon the [f]golden altar which was before the throne.

4 And [g]the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand.

5 And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it [2]into the earth: [h]and there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, [i]and an earthquake.

6 And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

7 The first angel sounded, [j]and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast [k]upon the earth: and the third part [l]of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became [m]blood;

9 And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

10 And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters;

11 And the name of the star is called Wormwood: [n]and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And [o]the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

13 And I beheld, and [p]heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, [q]woe, woe, to the inhabiters of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound! H. 9. 1–21.

CHAPTER 9.

The sounding of the fifth angel.

AND the fifth angel sounded, and [a]I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of [b]the bottomless pit.

2 And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose [c]a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke [d]locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

4 And it was commanded them that [e]they should not hurt [f]the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not [g]the seal of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, [h]but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

6 And in those days [i]shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 And [j]the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; and [k]on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, [l]and their faces were as the faces of men.

8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and [m]their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle.

10 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months.

11 And [n]they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hē'brew tongue is Ā-băd'don, but in the Greek tongue hath his name [1]Ā-pŏl'lў-ŏn.

12 One [o]woe is past; and, behold, there come two woes more hereafter.

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God,

14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound [p]in the great river Eū-phrā'tēs.

15 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared [2]for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men.

16 And [q]the number of the army of [r]the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: [s]and I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone: and [t]the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone.

18 By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.

19 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: [u]for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.

20 And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues yet [v]repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship [w]devils, [x]and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood:

CHAPTER 10.

John commanded to eat the book.

AND I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: [a]and a rainbow was upon his head, and [b]his face was as it were the sun, and his feet [c]as pillars of fire:

2 And he had in his hand a little book open: [d]and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth,

3 And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, seven [e]thunders uttered their voices.

4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, [f]Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

5 And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his hand to heaven,

6 And sware by him that [g]liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, [h]that there should be time no longer:

7 But [i]in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.

8 And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth.

9 And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.

10 And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

11 And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

CHAPTER 11.

The two witnesses prophesy, etc.

AND there was given me [a]a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, [b]and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

2 But [c]the court which is without the temple [1]leave out, and measure it not; for [d]it is given unto the Gĕn'tīleş: and the holy city shall they [e]tread under foot [f]forty and two months.

3 And [2]I will give power unto my two [g]witnesses, [h]and they shall prophesy [i]a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth.

4 These are the [j]two olive trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth.

5 And if any man will hurt them, fire [k]proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: [l]and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed.

6 These [m]have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and [n]have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.

7 And when they [o]shall have finished their testimony, [p]the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless [q]pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

8 And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of [r]the great city, which spiritually is called Sŏd'om and Ē'gўpt, where [s]also our Lord was crucified.

9 And [t]they of the people and kindreds and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, [u]and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.

10 And [v]they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth.

11 And after three days and an half [w]the Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which saw them.

14 The second woe is past; and, behold, the third woe cometh quickly.

15 And the seventh angel sounded: and there [a]were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Chrīst; and [b]he shall reign for ever and ever.

16 And the four and twenty elders, which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God,

17 Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned.

18 And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, [c]and the [4]time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldest give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, small and great; and shouldest destroy them which [4]destroy the earth. 19 And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen [d]in his temple the ark of his testament: and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great hail.

CHAPTER 12.

A woman clothed with the sun, etc.

AND there appeared a great [1]wonder in heaven; a [a]woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars:

2 And she being with child cried, travailing [b]in birth, and pained to be delivered.

3 And there appeared another [2]wonder in heaven; and behold a [c]great red dragon, having [d]seven heads and ten horns, [e]and seven crowns upon his heads.

4 And [f]his tail drew the third part of the [g]stars of heaven, [h]and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for [i]to devour her child as soon as it was born.

5 And she brought forth a man child, who [j]was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne.

6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there [k]a thousand two hundred and threescore days.

7 And there was war in heaven: Mī'chaĕl [l]and his angels fought against the [m]dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels,

8 And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven.

9 And [n]the great dragon was cast out, that [o]old serpent, called the Dĕv'il, and Sā'tan, which deceiveth the whole world: he [p]was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, [q]Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Chrīst: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, [r]which accused them before our God day and night.

11 And [s]they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; [t]and they loved not their lives unto the death. D.;*

12 Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. [u]Woe to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because [v]he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child.

14 And [w]to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into [x]the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for [y]a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.

15 And the serpent [z]cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

16 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth.

17 And the dragon was wroth with the woman, [a]and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have [b]the testimony of Jē'sus Chrīst.

CHAPTER 13.

The beast with seven heads and ten horns.

AND I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw [a]a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the [1]name of blasphemy.

2 And [b]the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the [c]dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.

3 And I saw one of his heads as it were [2]wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all [d]the world wondered after the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, [e]Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?

5 And there was given unto him a [f]mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him [3]to continue forty [g]and two months.

6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, [h]and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.

7 And it was given unto him [i]to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.

8 And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, [j]whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb [k]slain from the foundation of the world.

9 If any man have an ear, let him hear.

10 He [l]that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: [m]he that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here [n]is the patience and the faith of the saints.

11 And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.

12 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which

13 And [o]he doeth great wonders, so [p]that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men,

14 And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and [q]did live.

The fall of Babylon, etc.

AND I looked, and, lo, a [a]Lamb stood on the mount Sī'ŏn, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, [b]having his Father's name written in their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps:

3 And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.

4 These are they which were not defiled with women; [c]for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These [1]were redeemed from among men, [d]being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb.

5 And [e]in their mouth was found no guile: for [f]they are without fault before the throne of God.

6 And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, [g]having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people,

7 Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and [h]worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters. J. 20. 11–13.

8 And there followed another angel, saying, [i]Băb'ў-lon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

9 And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand,

10 The same [j]shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:

11 And [k]the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name. H. 14. 19, 20.

12 Here [l]is the patience of the saints: here are [m]they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jē'sus.

13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed [n]are the dead [o]which die in the Lord [2]from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that [p]they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.

14 And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat like unto [q]the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.

15 And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, Thrust [r]in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest [s]of the earth is [3]ripe.

16 And he that sat on the cloud

17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

18 And another angel came out from the altar, [t]which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, [u]Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe.

H 19 And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into [v]the great winepress of the wrath of God.

CHAPTER 15.

The seven last plagues, etc.

AND I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, seven [a]angels having the seven last plagues; for [b]in them is filled up the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were [c]a sea of [d]glass mingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, [e]and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God.

3 And they sing [f]the song of Mō'şes the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, [g]Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just [h]and true are thy ways, thou King of [1]saints.

4 Who [i]shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for [j]all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and, behold, [k]the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened:

H 6 And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in [l]pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles.

7 And [m]one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever.

8 And [n]the temple was filled with smoke from [o]the glory of God, and from his power; and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled. H

CHAPTER 16.

The angels pour out their vials.

AND I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth. H. 16. 9–11.

2 And the first went, and poured out his vial [a]upon the earth; [b]and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which [c]had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image.

3 And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and [d]it became as the blood of a [e]dead man: and every living soul died in the sea.

4 And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters; and they became blood.

5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, [f]Thou art righteous, O Lord, which [g]art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus.

6 For [h]they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, [i]and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, [j]true and righteous are thy judgments.

8 And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire.

9 And men were [1]scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and [k]they repented not to give him glory. H

10 And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon [l]the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain,

11 And blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds. H. 18 4–8.

12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial [m]upon the great river Eū-phrā'tēş; and [n]the water thereof was dried up, that [c]the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.

13 And I saw three [p]unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the [q]dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

14 For [r]they are the spirits of devils, working [s]miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth [t]and of the whole world, to gather them to the [u]battle of that great day of God Almighty.

15 ¶Behold, [v]I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, [w]lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.

16 And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hē′brew tongue Ar-ma-gĕd′don.

17 And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, [x]It is done.

18 And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such [y]as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.

19 And [z]the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Băb′y-lon [a]came in remembrance before God, [b]to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

20 And [c]every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.

21 And [d]there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent: and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

CHAPTER 17.

The woman arrayed in purple and scarlet.

AND there came [a]one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; I will shew unto thee the judgment of [b]the great whore that [c]sitteth upon many waters:

2 With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and [d]the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he carried me away in the spirit into the [e]wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon [f]a scarlet coloured beast, full [g]of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

4 And the woman was arrayed in purple [h]and scarlet colour, and [i]decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, [j]having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication:

5 And upon her forehead was a name written, [k]MYSTERY, BĂB′-Y-LON [l]THE GREAT, [m]THE MOTHER OF [2]HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

6 And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the [n]martyrs of Jē′sus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

8 The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and [o]shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 And [p]here is the mind which hath wisdom. [q]The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.

10 And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.

12 And [r]the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

13 These have [s]one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.

14 These [t]shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: [u]for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they [v]that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.

CHAPTER 18.

The fall of Babylon, etc.

AND after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; [a]and the earth was lightened with his glory.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, [b]Bäb'ў-lon the great is fallen, is fallen, and [c]is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and [d]a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the [1]abundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, [e]Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

5 For [f]her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 Reward [g]her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double.

7 How [h]much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a [i]queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: [j]for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

9 And [k]the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall [l]bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning,

10 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, [m]Alas, alas that great city Bäb'ў-lon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come.

11 And [n]the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more:

12 The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all [2]thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble,

13 And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and [3]slaves, and [o]souls of men.

14 And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all.

15 The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,

16 And saying, Alas, alas that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!

17 For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And [p]every shipmaster, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off,

18 And [q]cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like unto this great city!

19 And [r]they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate.

20 Rejoice [s]over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for [t]God hath avenged you on her.

24 And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that [z]were slain upon the earth.

CHAPTER 19.

The marriage of the Lamb.

AND after these things I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Ăl-le-lū'iă; [a]Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God:

2 For true and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged [b]the blood of his servants at her hand.

3 And again they said, Ăl-le-lū'iă. And [c]her smoke rose up for ever and ever.

4 And [d]the four and twenty elders and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, [e]Ā-mĕn'; Ăl-le-lū'iă.

T 5 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, [f]Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great. T.

6 And [g]I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Ăl-le-lū'iă: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.

7 Let us be [h]glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for [i]the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready.

8 And [j]to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and [l]white: for [k]the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

9 And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed [l]are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God.

10 And [m]I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, See [n]thou do it not: I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren [o]that have the testimony of Jē'sus: worship God: for the testimony of Jē'sus is the spirit of prophecy. B. 22. 14.

11 And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was [p]called Faithful and True, and [q]in righteousness he doth judge and make war.

12 His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a [r]name written, that no man knew, but he himself.

13 And [s]he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The [t]Word of God.

14 And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, [u]clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

15 And [v]out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and [w]he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and [x]he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.

16 And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, [y]KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, [z]Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God;

18 That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

19 And [a]I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army.

20 And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These [b]both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.

21 And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh. H. 20. 10.

CHAPTER 20.

Of the first resurrection, etc.

AND I saw an angel come down from heaven, [a]having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand.

2 And he laid hold on [b]the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Dĕv'il, and Sā'tan, and bound him a thousand years,

3 And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and [c]set a seal upon him, that [d]he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season.

4 And I saw [e]thrones, and they sat upon them, and [f]judgment was given unto them: and I saw the [g]souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jē'sus, and for the word of God, [h]and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands: and they lived and [i]reigned with Chrīst a thousand years.

5 But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.

6 Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the [j]second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of [k]God and of Chrīst, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years are expired, Sā'tan shall be loosed out of his prison,

8 And shall [l]go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, [m]Gŏg and Mā'gŏg, to [n]gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.

9 And [o]they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.

10 And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever. H. 20. 15.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face [p]the earth and the heaven fled away; [q]and there was found no place for them.

12 And [r]I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; [s]and the books were opened: and [t]another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, [u]according to their works.

13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and [v]hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.

14 And [w]death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

15 And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire. A.; H. 21. 8; O.

CHAPTER 21.

A new heaven and a new earth.

AND [a]I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more [b]sea.

2 And I Jŏhn saw [c]the holy city, new Jē-ru'sā-lĕm, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared [d]as a bride adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, [e]the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

4 And [f]God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and [g]there shall be no more death, [h]neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

5 And [i]he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, [j]I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.

6 And he said unto me, It is done. I am Ăl'phà and Ō-mē'gà, the beginning and the end. [k]I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely. L. 22. 17;†

H 8 But [n]the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death. H. 21. 27.

9 And there came unto me one of the seven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the Lamb's wife.

10 And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me [o]that great city, the holy Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm, descending out of heaven from God,

11 Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal;

12 And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Ĭs'ra-el:

13 On the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west three gates.

14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and [p]in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 And he that talked with me had [q]a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

19 And [r]the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald; ings are faithful and true: and the [h]Lord God of the holy prophets sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly be done.

7 Behold, I come quickly: blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book.

8 And I Jŏhn saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which shewed me these things.

9 Then saith he unto me, See thou do it not: for I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God.

10 And [j]he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand.

11 He [k]that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12 And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward [l]is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be.

13 I [m]am Ăl'phà and Ō-mē'gà, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

B 14 Blessed [n]are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city. B. 22. 18, 19.

15 For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie. H.

16 I [o]Jē'sus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. I am [p]the root and the offspring of Dā'vid, and [q]the bright and morning star.

17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. [r]And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely. L.; W.

18 For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If [s]any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book:

19 And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God [t]shall take away his part [1]out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book. B.
